Girls of the Week

Ariana & Lenox

"You've got one life to live, let's get loose, it's alright ... Party of a lifetime all night." Leni and Ari danced the night away, front and center in VIP at Hard Rock, celebrating Ariana's 17 spins around the sun. Dancers themselves, they were in awe watching Pitbull's incredibly talented crew light up the stage - so close they could see his eyes through his sunglasses! It was a night they are sure they'll never forget. Happy Birthday Ari!

Now that the holidays are behind us we head into the new year with new attractions and citywide enhancements. 2026 brings new exciting beginning with the debut of Taste Atlantic City as the reimagined Atlantic City Restaurant Week, the all-new Solana Tower at Tropicana Atlantic City, Borgata's new remodeling project, and some new tasty places to check out.

To begin, Ocean Casino Resort has introduced several new attractions for your consideration: Ocean's 18 Mini Golf & Bar, Sunny's, and Chez Frites. Ocean's 18 Mini Golf & Bar has officially opened! This expansive 800-square-foot, multimillion-dollar venue has emerged as an entertainment destination for the entire family, incorporating immersive hologram technology comparable to that employed at the renowned Sphere in Las Vegas. It offers an exceptional state-of-the-art experience that is highly recommended.

Chez Frites, a culinary concept conceived by Stephen Starr, exudes a chic, playful, and distinctly French ambiance. This dinner-only establishment transports the charm of a Parisian brasserie to Ocean. Chez Frites serves classic dishes such as steak frites, escargot, French onion soup, and bouillabaisse in an engaging and sophisticated setting. The restaurant features deep red banquettes, mosaic tile floors, vintage globe lighting, and an elegant zinc bar, alluding to mid-century Paris with a contemporary twist. Currently situated on the resort's lobby level, Chez Frites welcomes reservations and walk-ins.

Sunny's, a retro-style American bistro nestled 11 stories above the Atlantic Ocean, provides a sunlit respite for breakfast and lunch. Another ingenious creation by Stephen Starr, the menu elevates classic comfort dishes such as Nutella French toast, pigs in a blanket, lobster rolls, meatloaf, and more, all presented in a nostalgic yet sophisticated ambiance. Situated on the resort's lobby level adjacent to Chez Frites, Sunny's exudes a warm and inviting atmosphere, ideal for guests seeking familiar favorites infused with bold, fresh flavors and a touch of Starr's signature flair.

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Spotlight: New Year New Beginings

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

Following the announcement of the debut of the newly renovated Solana Tower last May, the reimagined rooms at Tropicana Atlantic City are scheduled to be completed this month. The renovation encompasses 598 upgraded rooms and suites in the resort's west wing, further solidifying Tropicana's position as a leading resort in the region.

Meanwhile, Borgata Hotel Casino & Spa has announced a partnership with Big Night Live, the prominent entertainment and hospitality organization based in Boston. This collaboration will transform the former Premier Night-club into a new 18,000-square-foot live entertainment venue. Opening in summer 2026, the redesigned space will enhance Borgata's standing as a leading East Coast entertainment destination.

And lastly Atlantic City Restaurant Week is undergoing a transformation into a novel month-long culinary celebration known as Taste Atlantic City, commencing on March 1st and concluding on March 31st. This reinvigorated experience will present tiered menus, a diverse array of delectable events, and meticulously curated menus that are poised to deliver an exceptional gastronomic journey for both local residents and esteemed visitors. Prior to the commencement of Taste Atlantic City, a kickoff event will be held to inaugurate the celebration at the 11th Annual Captain's Table during the Discover Boating Atlantic City Boat Show on February 26th, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This event will showcase delectable dishes and tastings sourced from local restaurants, breweries, wineries, and distilleries, complemented by culinary creations crafted by some of the region's most renowned chefs.

Wishing everyone an exciting and adventurous year!

International Brain Teaser Month is in January. We've got an arsenal of puzzles and hope you're ready to go. What has a ring but no finger? What is harder to catch the faster you run? If puzzles like these make your brain jump for joy, imagine an entire month of mental stimulation.

Everyone loves a great brain teaser. Few things can compare to the utter satisfaction after solving a complex riddle. We should indulge more often, since brain teasers are exercises for the mind.

People tend to focus on keeping the body healthy. But what are the ways we can keep our wits sharp? Mental stimulation is just as crucial to our health. Puzzles and riddles are known to prevent cognitive decline, especially as we age. International Brainteaser Month hopes to encourage everyone to challenge their minds more often.

History of International Brain Teaser Month

Testing the brain's powers isn't a new concept. We have ample precedents from literature and mythology demonstrating how solving complex riddles determines the worthiness of individuals.

In the 5th century, Sophocles wrote: "Oedipus, The King" - one of the most memorable pieces of literature in history. In this tragic story, Oedipus encounters the monstrous Sphinx guarding the gates of Thebes. Travelers could pass only when they solved her riddle: "What goes on four legs in the morning, two legs at noon, and three legs in the evening?" Failure meant death for the traveler. Oedipus correctly answers "a human." As babies, humans crawl on all fours, walk on two legs as adults, and walk with a cane (three legs) when they're old.

In "The Merchant of Venice," William Shakespeare dreams up a riddle for his characters to solve. Portia's father constructs a puzzle to ensure his daughter marries a worthy suitor. The suitors must choose from three caskets that contain clues to whether Portia's portrait lies inside.

Lucky for us, International Brainteaser Month isn't as exacting as literature in its expectations. All it asks of you is a month of mental stimulation to boost your brainpower.

Like any muscle in our body, the brain needs constant exercise to stay sharp and strong. Brain teasers are excellent ways to exercise the mind. They aid memory and sharpen our focus. Puzzles and games can help us see things differently. Plus, they're super fun. Keeping our brains active can help reduce the risk of dementia as we grow older.

During International Brain Teaser Month, give your brain the mental stimulation and challenge it needs every day. Solve a crossword puzzle. Tackle some Sudoku. Brain teasers are excellent for those grey cells. They help us develop new ways of thinking. Remember to change up the tasks regularly so that your brain is always on its toes.

International Brain Teaser Month Activities

- Plan a daily mental challenge - Find the forgotten Rubix Cube and attempt solving it. Head to the store and buy a book of brain teasers. On weekends, invite friends over for a game of Scrabble. Remember to take a few minutes each day to work those brain muscles.
- Solve puzzles you typically wouldn't - Intimidated by math? Not a big fan of word games? Surprise your brain (and yourself) by attempting more of the things you don't necessarily enjoy. The idea is to challenge the brain. And for that, you need to move out of your comfort zone.
- Create online challenges - If friends and family live far away, turn to your phones. Send a virtual challenge. Play puzzles online with friends. Many apps allow you to play at your own pace - which is ideal for when life gets busy.

5 Facts About Scrabble That Will Blow Your Mind

- 1 - Scrabble was an architect's brain-child - Alfred Mosher Butts, a New York City architect, created the earliest version of Scrabble in 1933.
- 2 - Scrabble wasn't the intended name - Butts first went with "Lexico" and later "Criss-Cross Words" before his partner James Brunot came up with "Scrabble" in the late 1930s.
- 3 - The game hasn't changed - From the squares and the tiles to the distribution, Scrabble hasn't changed over the years and remains popular.
- 4 - You can yell 'Bingo' during Scrabble - A Bingo moment in Scrabble is when players use all seven tiles.
- 5 - The top winning word - Out of all the words in existence, remember that 'Qi' is a top winning word in Scrabble.

Why We Love International Brain Teaser Month

- It keeps us gainfully occupied - Time spent on brain teasers is time well-spent. We love how the hours can fly by when tackling a Sunday crossword puzzle or Sudoku.
- More time to bond with loved ones - Puzzles and brain teasers don't have to be solitary activities. Getting everyone involved is half the fun of it. Boardgame nights, trivia nights - the more heads together, the better.
- Time away from screens - Yes, we love memes. But it's time to rediscover a world outside social media. Brain teasers are infinitely better for us than perennial doom scrolling.

Exercise Your Mind: Celebrate International Brain Teaser Month

As we celebrate International Brain Teaser Month this January, take a moment to challenge your mind and connect with others beyond the usual screen time. Solving puzzles isn't just about finding answers - it's a way to slow down, think creatively, and even bond with friends and family.

Atlantic County residents have plenty of ways to get involved locally. The Atlantic County Library System hosts group puzzle sessions, board game afternoons, and brain teaser challenges for all ages. Meanwhile, local community centers like the Jewish Community Center (JCC) often offer interactive activities and game nights that encourage problem-solving in a social setting. Whether you drop in for a group session, grab a new puzzle from the shelves, or host a DIY challenge at home, January is the perfect month to make curiosity a habit.

Brain Teaser to Try at Home or See If You Can Stump Someone

Before you go, give this one a shot - it's a favorite among puzzle fans:

What five-letter word becomes shorter when you add two letters to it?

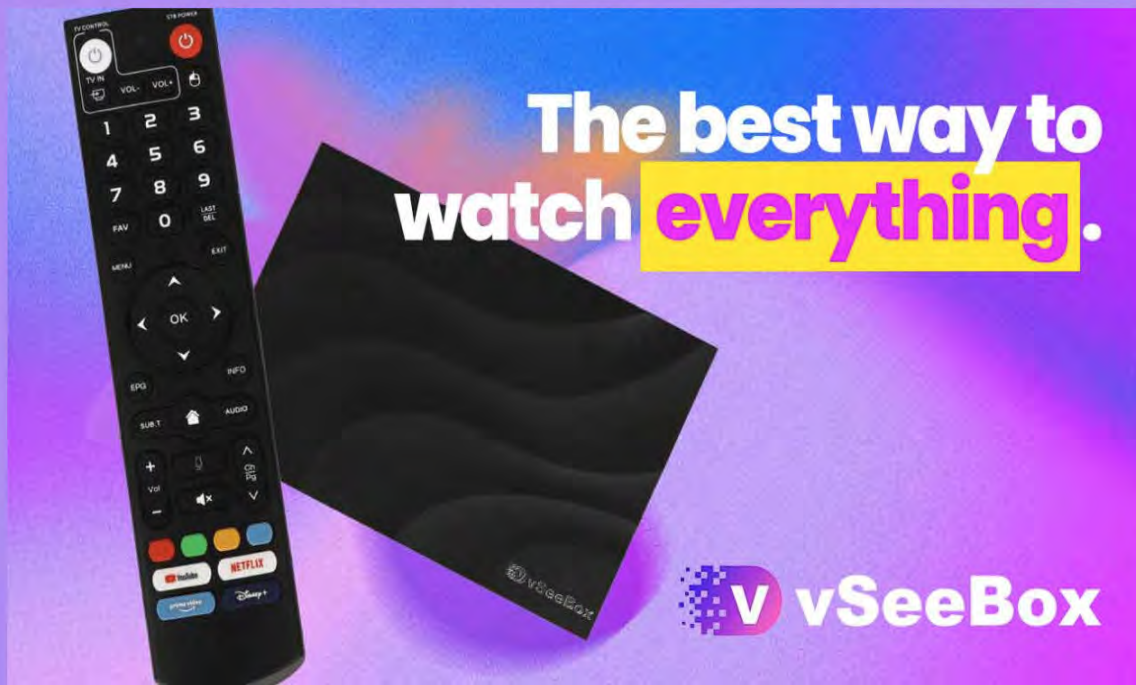

(Answer: "Short" - because adding "er" makes it "shorter".)

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

The first weeks of January are a natural time to step back and evaluate your home - not just for tidiness, but for safety, comfort, and efficiency. The holidays are over, leaving behind empty boxes, excess décor, and the remnants of seasonal meals. At the same time, winter in New Jersey brings ice, snow, and freezing temperatures that test everything from pipes to outdoor lighting. Taking a moment now to address both the indoor and outdoor environment can make a noticeable difference in how smoothly your home runs through the rest of winter.

Inside, the focus is on systems that keep you safe and comfortable. Checking smoke and carbon monoxide detectors and making sure fire extinguishers are properly charged are simple steps that can prevent serious problems. Heating systems benefit from attention too - swapping furnace filters and vacuuming vents improves airflow and efficiency, while inspecting exposed pipes and insulating vulnerable areas reduces the risk of a wintertime leak. Even small touches, like adjusting ceiling fans to circulate warm air or adding humidity to dry rooms, make daily life noticeably more comfortable.

The kitchen often bears the brunt of holiday chaos. Once gift wrap and decorations are packed away, a deeper look at appliances and storage can pay off. Vacuuming refrigerator coils, cleaning stove hoods, and refreshing pantries and fridges not only improves efficiency but also sets up easier, healthier meal prep in the weeks ahead. Even the garbage disposal benefits from a simple refresher - ice, lemon, and baking soda can keep it running smoothly without harsh chemicals.

Outside, winter maintenance is just as important. Clearing snow and ice from driveways and sidewalks is obvious, but taking a few extra steps - securing loose outdoor furniture, trimming heavy branches, and checking gutters for ice dams - protects your property from damage when storms hit.

Your January Home Checklist: Start the Year Safe, Warm, and Organized

Even minor repairs, like sealing drafty windows or checking exterior lighting, pay dividends in safety and energy savings.

Beyond the practical, this is also a good time to rethink how your home functions. Are entryways still cluttered with winter gear? Could high-traffic areas be rearranged to improve movement or lighting? Post-holiday reset doesn't need to be about minimalism - it's about making your space work for you during the coldest months. By combining winter-focused maintenance with thoughtful organization and system checks, you create a home that feels orderly, efficient, and resilient.

Starting the year with these steps in mind is not about chores; it's about preparation, protection, and comfort. When the snow piles up and temperatures dip, a few hours of attention now means fewer headaches, greater safety, and a more livable home all season long.

Philadelphia Starts 2026 With Momentum and Tests Ahead

As the calendar turned, Philadelphia's major sports teams carried competitive form into 2026 while also confronting early tests that are shaping expectations for the months ahead. From extended looks at depth in football to high-scoring efforts in basketball and balanced scoring in hockey, the Eagles, 76ers, and Flyers have offered fans reasons to stay invested - both in what has happened and what's on the immediate horizon.

Eagles: Backups Get Look as Focus Shifts to Playoffs

Philadelphia closed the regular season with a 24-17 loss to the Washington Commanders on Jan. 4, a game defined by its context rather than its result. With the NFC's No. 3 seed already secured, head coach Nick Sirianni chose to rest most of the starters, opening extended snaps for backups and younger contributors.

The offense, led by Tanner McKee under center, managed a pair of scores - including a Tank Bigsby rushing touchdown - but inconsistencies emerged as Washington rallied in the fourth quarter. The defensive front showed flashes, and evaluators came away noting that linebacker Jeremiah Trotter Jr. stood out with consistent play through the run and into coverage, while edge presence from rotational players like Jalyx Hunt highlighted the depth the Eagles can lean on heading into January football.

With the regular season in the books at 11-6, the Eagles now turn their attention fully to the postseason. Philadelphia will host the San Francisco 49ers in the Wild Card round, a high-stakes matchup that will demand sharp play from both starters and depth alike as the title defense continues.

Sixers: Offensive Flourish Meets Late Drama

The Sixers' January opened explosively on both ends of the floor. On Jan. 1 in Dallas, Philadelphia built a 123-108 win behind a near triple-double from Tyrese Maxey (34 points, 10 assists, 8 rebounds) and ample scoring from Joel Embiid and VJ Edgecombe. That momentum carried into Jan. 4 at the Knicks, a 130-119 victory in which Maxey poured in 36 points and Embiid recorded a double-double.

The narrative shifted slightly on Jan. 6, when the 76ers dropped a 125-124 overtime decision to the Denver Nuggets despite a strong showing from Embiid (32 points, 10 rebounds) and Maxey (28 points). The final possession hinged on a goaltended attempt in the waning seconds, underscoring how fine the margins can be in close affairs even when Denver was missing multiple regulars.

Philadelphia heads into a busy week with several opportunities to sharpen cohesion and climb in the Eastern Conference standings. The Sixers travel to face the Orlando Magic (Jan. 9) and Toronto Raptors (Jan. 11 & 12) before a Jan. 14 home date with the Cleveland Cavaliers. These games will test how consistently Philadelphia can balance its scoring punch with defensive reliability.

Flyers: Balanced Scoring Fuels Early Wins

The Flyers enter the new year riding positive momentum from consecutive victories. On Jan. 3 at Edmonton, Philadelphia notched a 5-2 win in which multiple skaters contributed offensively, helping the team stay competitive in a tight race for positioning. That trend continued on Jan. 6 against the Anaheim Ducks, another 5-2 triumph highlighted by two goals from Trevor Zegras and contributions from Cam York and others.

Off the ice, Philadelphia locked in forward Christian Dvorak with a five year extension, a vote of confidence in a piece the Flyers see as central to their forward group moving forward.

This week, the Flyers return home to host the Toronto Maple Leafs on Jan. 8, followed by back-to-back games against the Tampa Bay Lightning (Jan. 10 & 12) before a Jan. 14 road game at the Buffalo Sabres. Each matchup will probe Philadelphia's ability to sustain scoring depth and tighten details on defense and special teams.

Looking Ahead: Early January Sets Tone

As 2026 gets fully underway, Philadelphia's teams are confronting tests that'll resonate beyond the next week. The Eagles enter the playoffs with a clearer picture of their depth and a traditional identity centered on structure and health. The Sixers face a stretch that will demand consistency on both ends, and the Flyers are beginning to string results together that could define their standing in a tightly packed Metropolitan Division.

In every sport, the early weeks of the year often reveal not just talent, but temperament - how teams respond when stakes rise and routines settle back into full competitive rhythm. For Philly fans, there's early evidence of promise coupled with real tests ahead, making this start to 2026 feel both purposeful and compelling.

SUSAN SHEVLIN & Goldy

Susan Shevlin of Charlotte, North Carolina, first came to The Seeing Eye in 1967 to be matched with a Seeing Eye dog. She is now working with her seventh, a yellow Labrador retriever named Goldy.

“I call her my Golden Girl. I have never had a more gentle, obedient dog than Goldy. She is just the sweetest thing,” Susan said.

Susan worked for many years as a therapist and life coach. “I’m now retired,” she says, “although I can’t stop giving advice.”

A grandmother of three, Susan visited her grandchildren this summer, and of course Goldy came too.

Susan went to Colorado to visit her grandson, and took a train to Virginia to visit her two granddaughters. “People said to me, as we got up, they had no idea there was a dog on the train,” she said. “The conductor said, ‘I have been doing this for 15 years, and I have never seen a better behaved dog.’”

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight

"MEET THE PACK!"

  A PURL-FECT ACT OF KINDNESS

Morristown's incredible The Morristown NJ Fiber Fairy's work is in full swing! They are an anonymous group who clothe the statues along the Morristown Green, including Buddy and Morris Frank, with winter accessories for anyone who may be in need.

Throughout the winter, you are likely to spot Morris and Buddy dressed in various warm weather garb, and we can't help but believe that both Morris and Buddy are incredibly happy to be party to these wonderful acts of kindness.

Photo Description: A German shepherd Seeing Eye dog wears his instructor's beanie as he sits beside the Morris Frank and Buddy statue near the Morristown Green. Morris is wearing a knit beanie and scarf, and Buddy has a scarf around her neck.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

FLAGSHIP 2: CARRYING WHAT WE BUILD

Join us for the second community workshop as we move from mapping legacy to shaping the next phase of our South Jersey regional monument. Building on our first event's legacy mapping and flag-making, Oni will share several early mobile monument concepts developed from the stories, values, and insights so far.

Participants can offer feedback on the direction that best aligns with our shared goals through verbal dialogue, written text, sketches, or physical modeling. We will also consider practical needs like program activation, feasibility, and long-term stewardship.

Through group dialogue, we'll ask: How can this monument work for South Jersey? What role could a traveling installation play in addressing regional challenges such as economic needs, transportation issues, environmental change, cultural exchange, and collective ritual?

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Half Lord of the Fishes Pose (Ardha Matsyendrasana)

Twists are an essential part of yoga. They help improve spinal mobility and can even get things moving along your digestive tract (yes, twists can relieve constipation).

It's OK to extend your bottom leg in this yoga pose if it's uncomfortable to have it bent behind you. You can also modify it by sitting on a blanket. Placing the bent leg inside the extended leg is great for easing shoulder, hip, and spine rotation.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Selenium

It does a lot of things, like fighting off infections and helping your thyroid gland work. Most Americans get enough from what they eat, including meat, bread, and eggs. Too much can cause brittle nails, nausea, and irritability. Just four Brazil nuts could put you at your daily limit for selenium!
