Now through February 28 - Portrait Workshops

Learn the basics of oil painting and portraiture from artist Amanda Auble in these classes held within the Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University. In her Alla Prima Portrait Painting classes, you'll learn to capture a live model in a single session using traditional oil techniques. Perfect for artists of all levels, these hands-on workshops will sharpen your observation skills and bring energy to your brushwork. Are you ready to paint in the moment? Seats are available for multiple classes. Take advantage of her multi-class discount and commit to your painting practice. This offer allows you to sign up for all the portrait classes this winter at a reduced price. Price: 5 hours @ $120.00 Recurring daily

Now through February 28 - 11th Annual Recycled Art Contest & Art Exhibit

The 11th Annual Recycled Art Contest & Art Exhibit at Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University from January 8 - February 26.

EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP

Now through April 15 - Tour & Taste of Renault Winery

Renault Winery Resort & Golf

Price: $41.78+

Explore the rich heritage of Renault Winery & Resort, the oldest continuously operating winery in the U.S. Saturdays & Sundays at both 11:00 a.m. & 1:00 p.m. Wander through historic rooms and discover Renault's lasting impact on the wine industry since 1864. The tour concludes with a guided tasting of three exceptional wines at the Tasting Room Bar, blending history and flavor. Perfect for wine lovers and history buffs, this weekend experience offers a unique glimpse into one of America's most storied wineries.

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 5 - 11, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Clarity increases as Mercury supports forward planning and confident decisions. Talks around goals, leadership, or direction gain traction after recent delays. Move ahead thoughtfully now that priorities feel better defined.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Practical focus strengthens as plans shift from concept to execution. Conversations around learning, travel, or commitments become more actionable. Choose steady progress over hesitation to build confidence.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Momentum returns as Jupiter's shift supports clearer thinking around shared matters. Financial discussions or emotional agreements move toward resolution. Apply lessons learned to restore balance and trust.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relationship awareness sharpens as communication becomes more direct. Emotional needs surface alongside practical expectations. Honest dialogue now strengthens understanding and stability.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Daily routines gain momentum as recent adjustments begin to feel effective. Work habits or health efforts show tangible improvement through consistency. Maintain structure now to protect energy and steady progress.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Creative clarity improves as motivation steadies and pressure eases midweek. Responsibilities remain present, yet inspiration feels easier to access and trust. Balance effort with enjoyment to regain focus and emotional ease.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Home matters begin to settle as decisions turn practical and grounded. Planning conversations support balance within shared environments and routines. Clear structure brings emotional ease and renewed comfort.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Conversations move forward with better timing, patience, and understanding. Details that once stalled progress now feel manageable and clear. Use steady communication to guide outcomes wisely.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Financial matters gain direction as priorities come into sharper focus. Commitments feel easier to assess with realism and care. Align choices with long-term goals to restore momentum and confidence.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

Personal direction sharpens as feedback becomes more constructive and useful. Leadership responsibilities feel more manageable through reflection. Steady progress builds confidence and long-term authority.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

A new cycle begins as insight replaces extended reflection. Ideas feel clearer, lighter, and more actionable than before. Channel momentum into intentional steps forward.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Group efforts benefit from clearer roles and open communication. Collaboration flows more smoothly as expectations align naturally. Speaking up supports shared success and collective direction.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Happy Baby Pose (Ananda Balasana)

Happy baby is a wonderful way to finish a yoga session. It's also an excellent example of the vital interplay between effort and ease in yoga.

You want to exert a little pressure on your feet to draw them toward your armpits, but not so much that your tailbone lifts off the floor. You don't want to go to the extreme but find the middle ground in this joyful yoga pose.

HAPPY BABY POSE

TIP

Check that your shins are perpendicular to the floor and keep your sacrum flat on your mat.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin B2

You could get enough for the day from a good breakfast! It's added to many fortified breads and grain products and also found naturally in eggs, asparagus and other green veggies, and milk. Your cells need it to work right, and it might help prevent migraines.

Philadelphia Teams Ride Swings as February Pressure Mounts

Late January into early February tends to strip away illusion, and Philadelphia's teams felt that tightening grip this week. The Sixers continued to show how high their ceiling sits - and how punishing the floor can be when focus slips. The Flyers battled through a taxing stretch that again tested their defensive identity. Around it all, the sports calendar narrows, with winter pushing teams from possibility toward definition.

76ers: Scoring eruptions meet familiar inconsistency

The Sixers opened the week with a statement at home, beating the Sacramento Kings 129-117 behind a balanced offensive effort. Joel Embiid led the way with 31 points and 12 rebounds, while Tyrese Maxey added 26 points and eight assists, repeatedly punishing Sacramento in transition. Philadelphia shot 52 percent from the field and controlled the pace after halftime.

That momentum stalled against New Orleans, where the Pelicans' length and perimeter shooting flipped the script. The Sixers fell 118-111 despite 34 points from Embiid, struggling to close out defensive possessions as New Orleans connected on 15 three-pointers. A late push narrowed the gap, but turnovers and missed rotations proved costly.

The road portion of the week brought mixed results. A 121-110 loss to the Clippers highlighted ongoing wing-defense issues, with Kawhi Leonard's 28 points dictating the tone. Maxey finished with 24, but Philadelphia never fully recovered from a flat third quarter. The response came in Golden State, where the Sixers earned a 125-119 win, fueled by Paul George's 27 points and timely shooting that kept the Warriors from seizing control late.

This week's schedule tests Philadelphia's ability to sustain focus across styles and settings. The Sixers open at home Wednesday against Cleveland, a physical matchup that puts pressure on rebounding and half-court execution, before heading out for a two-game road swing Friday in Atlanta and Sunday in Miami. Atlanta's pace challenges transition defense, while Miami's defensive versatility often turns games into late-clock battles. The week closes Tuesday back home against Boston, a matchup that carries both standings weight and broader implications, as the Celtics' spacing and depth continue to test every rotation decision. Most games will air on NBC Sports Philadelphia, with the Boston matchup nationally televised on TNT.

Flyers: Competitive nights, costly lapses

The Flyers' week opened with a 3-2 loss to Columbus, where third-period breakdowns erased an otherwise solid effort. Travis Konecny scored both Philadelphia goals, but defensive-zone turnovers proved decisive late.

A sharper performance followed in Detroit. The Flyers earned a 4-1 win behind Samuel Ersson's 31 saves and goals from Joel Farabee, Owen Tippett, and Matvei Michkov, whose power-play tally shifted momentum firmly in Philadelphia's favor. The Flyers controlled the neutral zone and limited Detroit's transition chances - a blueprint they've struggled to replicate consistently.

That structure didn't fully hold at home against Boston, where the Flyers fell 5-2. Special-teams issues again surfaced, with the Bruins converting twice on the power play. Philadelphia generated shots but struggled to create sustained pressure around the net, a recurring theme when games tilt.

The Flyers' upcoming stretch leaves little margin for structural breakdowns. Philadelphia begins on the road Wednesday in Toronto, where speed and puck movement stress neutral-zone discipline, then continues Thursday in Carolina against one of the league's most aggressive forechecking teams. The Flyers return home Saturday to face Los Angeles, a stylistic contrast that favors patience and possession, before hosting Washington on Tuesday in a matchup with familiar physicality and potential standings implications. Defensive structure, special teams, and goaltending will shape whether this stretch produces points or frustration. Flyers broadcasts remain primarily on NBC Sports Philadelphia, with streaming options available via ESPN+.

Looking forward: February clarifies

This stage of winter isn't about promise - it's about habits, and whether they hold when conditions tighten. For the Sixers, the question is no longer whether the offense can explode, but whether discipline, defensive focus, and decision-making can travel with it night after night. The talent is evident; the challenge is sustaining clarity when games tilt, shots stop falling, or opponents dictate pace. Philadelphia's best stretches come when urgency looks automatic rather than reactive. The Flyers face a parallel test. Effort has rarely been the issue, but structure remains fragile, particularly when games demand patience instead of push. The difference between competing and converting continues to live in the details - shifts managed cleanly, zones exited decisively, pressure applied without losing shape. As February unfolds, both teams are being asked the same thing in different forms: not how high their ceiling might be, but how steady their footing can remain when the margins narrow. The answers won't come all at once, but they will come quickly.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Lowdown by Anthony Schneider

Spanning three decades and two continents, Lowdown is a deeply human crime novel about love, loyalty and the long shadow of choice. Jimmy Piccini, a Brooklyn mob soldier who kept faith with the code of silence, is released from prison at age 58 after serving 25 years for a crime he didn't directly commit. The world he returns to is unrecognizable - and haunted by the memory of Milena, the woman he loved and lost. Told through interwoven timelines, the novel traces Jimmy's rise in the Brooklyn mob and Milena's escape to Sicily after her marriage to a volatile made man collapses under violence and betrayal. From gritty New York streets to sun-washed Mediterranean villages, Anthony Schneider crafts a character-driven story where violence gives way to introspection, and vengeance wrestles with forgiveness. Lowdown is a romantic literary thriller with a powerful emotional core and deftly layered themes of love and loss, reckoning and redemption. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/4pTMOF2>.

Boys Will Be Men: 8 Lessons for the Lost American Male by Vince Benevento, LPC

There is an underrecognized crisis facing today's young men - one marked by anxiety, isolation and a growing lack of purpose. Drawing on nearly two decades of experience working with men and young adults, author Vince Benevento, founder of Causeway Collaborative, has seen firsthand how traditional talk therapy often falls short - and has uncovered what actually helps young men move forward. Through eight practical, hard-earned lessons, Benevento replaces abstraction with action, emphasizing structure, accountability, healthy risk-taking and the power of meaningful male relationships. Blending candid personal stories with real-world case examples, he offers a framework that helps young men build confidence, resilience and direction - brick by brick. Written for parents, educators, mentors and these young men themselves, Boys Will Be Men is less about fixing what's "wrong" and more about restoring what's missing: purpose, connection and the tools to step fully into adulthood. DoubleHelix (Book One in the Helix Project) by J.L. Calder

In the shadows of power, survival is never guaranteed. Washington, D.C., 1996. Mike Green has built a career writing about dead girls, but nothing prepares him for the file he uncovers at the National Archives: the murder of Delilah Grennan, a Soviet dissident with ties to the Russian underworld. What begins as research becomes obsession, as Delilah's voice invades his thoughts, her enemies become his, and paranoia pulls him deeper into the dark machinery of power. Drawn into a covert war between a global crime syndicate, intelligence agencies and a political dynasty that claims him as family, Mike learns too late that survival sometimes means being buried. Winner of a 2026 Independent Press Award for Political Thriller and a 2026 Pencraft Award for Thriller Audiobook, DoubleHelix is a dark, razor-sharp political thriller blending psychological suspense, espionage intrigue and sarcastic wit - perfect for readers who crave character-driven conspiracies and morally treacherous power games. GIVE BLOOD

Why Donate Blood?

You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give blood.

Cardinal Restaurant, situated in the Orange Loop District of Atlantic City, celebrated its grand opening and ribbon-cutting ceremony on Wednesday, May 3, 2023. The establishment, located at 201 S. New York Ave., serves as the new culinary home for Chef Michael Brennan, formerly of the Cardinal Bistro in Ventnor, which concluded operations in 2019. Cardinal's New American menu presents innovative dishes complemented by craft cocktails within an inviting ambiance. Positioned centrally within the Orange Loop neighborhood, Cardinal is conveniently located steps away from the Atlantic City Boardwalk on New York Avenue.

Chef Brennan's culinary journey commenced at the Culinary Institute of America, where he honed his skills. His professional experience includes stints at esteemed establishments such as Philadelphia's Le Bec Fin and LaCroix at The Rittenhouse Hotel. It was during these formative years that he developed a profound appreciation for approachable, innovative cuisine harmoniously paired with elevated hospitality. As the Owner and Executive Chef of Cardinal, Chef Brennan seamlessly integrates his passion for hospitality with a steadfast commitment to delivering artful, exceptional culinary experiences in a relaxed atmosphere. Whether you prefer the spacious indoor dining room or the cozy outdoor patio during warmer months, Cardinal invites you to indulge in its culinary offerings.

Cardinal ensures that every visit is memorable, whether it's a social gathering at the Lounge Bar, an intimate dinner, an afternoon spent with family in the Garden, or your wedding day. Cardinal is an exceptional choice for private events, accommodating gatherings as intimate as 15 guests or as grand as 300 guests. They offer a range of options, including intimate private rooms or full venue buyouts, with comprehensive private event packages available for any occasion, such as birthdays, anniversaries, celebrations of life, showers, corporate receptions, and more.

Cardinal also has a valuable partnership with Anchor Rock Club. Present your Anchor Rock Club show ticket for a 10% discount on your dinner. You will receive a wristband at Cardinal to access the offer at Anchor Rock Club. This offer is valid for every ticketed show, Wednesday through Saturday.

For those seeking a delightful dinner deal any night of the week, Cardinal offers a fabulous 3-course Prix Fixe Menu priced at $45 per person, available Wednesdays through Saturdays. Additionally, they provide an impressive Happy Hour menu, featuring drink specials, small and large plate options, all presented with an elevated flair at competitive prices, available Wednesday through Sunday from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm and 9:00 pm to 10:00 pm.

On Valentine's Day, Cardinal presents an exceptional offer to celebrate the most romantic night of the year. Indulge in a 3-course shared menu for $100 per couple, accompanied by half-priced wine bottles. Delight in a starter for the table, such as their seafood platter or charcuterie, savor shareable entrees like their house-made tagliatelle or NY Strip and conclude the evening with a delectable dessert for two.

The unique aspect of this experience is its availability beyond Valentine's Day, through February 15th, making it a sensational deal that should not be missed!

Library Lovers Month – February 2026

Library Lovers Month is celebrated for the entire month of February! That's right, love is in the air not just because of Valentine's Day, but also for library lovers all around the world. The month is dedicated to the people who love the buildings, halls, or rooms that house numerous collections of books, books, and books! There is something satisfying about thousands of books being organized and categorized a certain way for readers to enjoy.

History of Library Lovers Month

Do you know where the word 'library' came from? No prizes for guessing. It originates from Latin. The Latin word is 'liber' for 'book' or 'document,' which can be found in 'libraria' for 'collection of books' and 'librarium' for 'container for books.' It all started with the need to organize collections of documents. The earliest form of archiving began amidst the earliest forms of writing, which consisted of clay tablets, dating back to 2600 B.C. in Sumer.

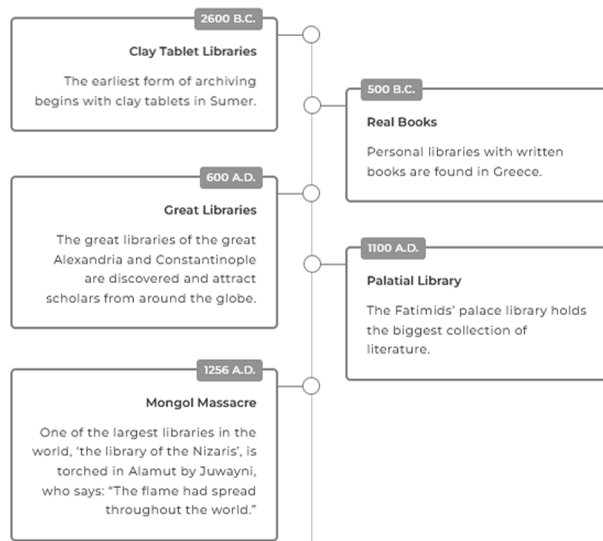

In post 500 B.C., private libraries with written books were found in Greece. Moving forward a few more centuries, in 600 A.D., the great Alexandria and Constantinople libraries came into the picture. These, amongst other libraries that were established soon after, attracted scholars from around the globe. An Arab dynasty named the Fatimids also owned many libraries by 1100 A.D. Their palace library probably held the biggest collection of literature at the time and was touted by historians as a wonder of the world. Unfortunately, throughout history, libraries were destroyed by conquerors so they could remove every record of the previous community.

Thankfully, it's been a while since libraries were sadly destroyed like this. People of all ages loved libraries. Libraries are not just places to read books, but also to study them. They make for a great meeting space for forums and fundraisers too. Some of the best books are launched in libraries, with author interviews and audience interactions. It is no wonder communities thrive here.

5 Important Facts About Libraries

- 1 - Way overdue - The most overdue library book in the world was the one that was returned after 122 years.
- 2 - Father of libraries - A philanthropist named Andrew Carnegie donated 60 million dollars in the early 20th century to open more than 1,689 public libraries worldwide.
- 3 - Largest library - The Library of Congress in the U.S. is the largest in the world, with over 168 million items.
- 4 - The most stolen book - The most stolen book in the world is the "Guinness Book of World Records."
- 5 - Human libraries - There are now 150 libraries around the world where, instead of books, you can listen to humans and their stories.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

BLACK HISTORY MONTH AT THE SEEING EYE

This Black History Month, we honor the contributions and experience of Black individuals in the story of The Seeing Eye. From our earliest days, we have proudly served people who are blind from all backgrounds.

In December 1930, Herbert Douglas, a Black man from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, became one of the earliest graduates of The Seeing Eye. He was matched with a German shepherd Seeing Eye dog named Lisa.

Four decades later, Douglas wrote to The Seeing Eye, "I am still able to walk about three miles every other day at the age of 83 years. I want to thank you for giving me the confidence to be independent and make a living and making it possible for my children to get a good education."

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Puppy Raisers Needed!

The Seeing Eye is looking for puppy raisers! These volunteers welcome a Seeing Eye puppy into their homes for a year or so, teaching them basic obedience and good house manners.

For more information, go to SeeingEye.org/raise or call The Seeing Eye's Puppy Raising Department at 973-539-4425 x1769.

EVEN THE MUSHERS IN ALASKA PUT JACKETS ON THEIR DOGS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

When the snow came and the cold arctic-like winds blew dipping the chill factors into the teens, I envisioned all the "naked" pets being put out in the cold to do their business, or worst, taken for a walk. "They have a coat, their fur, you say." Because they live in a heated house, they don't grow a proper winter coat. Exposing them to the bitter winds is the equivalent of you standing outside with them in your cotton pajamas. When a dog gets cold the blood rushes to protect the organs and forsakes the joints, making for joint pain and potential arthritis. If I need layers in the house, I put a soft jacket or a Gold Paw fleece on Zoey and Ebby. Then depending on the cold and the wind, I vary the weight of the jacket they get over the clothing they wear in the house. I treated my horse the same way and she was in my care from the age of five until she passed at the age of 34.

Sled dogs live outside all year, so they grow a winter double coat, and shed in the summer. Proper mushers give each dog an elevated wooden doghouse with thick layers of straw for insulation, high doors, extended roofs over doorways, and sometimes an inner divider for additional wind protection. Sled dogs are a special breed with their countercurrent blood circulation in their paws, like penguins and arctic foxes. (Not enough room here to explain how that works. But an interesting read.) We met a famous musher when we went on an Alaskan two-week cruise 5 years ago.

Mushers provide their sled dogs with dog booties which are soft fabric shoes to reduce ice abrasions and accumulation of snow between their toes. Sled dogs are covered with specialized insulated jackets during excessive cold spells or high winds whether they are running or resting. Fleece or polpro blankets are placed over the dogs when they sleep in their thick mound of straw. The dogs cocoon themselves and cover their faces with their bushy tails so that they are breathing in warm air. Belly wraps or Fox tails are used to cover their reproductive organs from frost bite. Some mushers, I'd be one, put leggings on their dogs to reduce the build up of snow in the fur of their legs.

Working sled dogs need 10,000-12,000 calories a day during a race. High-fat diets include raw beef, fish, and fat, as well as nutrient dense kibble. And they must stay hydrated, so the mushers "bait" their water with chunks of meat or fat to encourage them to drink. Sometimes they are given warm broth to maintain their internal core temperature.

The point I am trying to make is, as a pet parent it is your responsibility to give your dog the weather protection you take care to give yourself.

I welcome comments, or article requests, or pictures of pets, or stories, or just to say hello at my email patsyrob1@gmail.com. Our long-time resident cat, Lisa, died in her sleep among her cat buddies, sometime in the early morning, Tuesday. We will miss her.

Super Bowl Sunday takes place on the second Sunday in February — on February 8 this year. It's a day when America's love affair with football springs into full bloom. After 17 hard-fought matches spanning 18 weeks, the two best football teams in the NFL battle their way to a world championship in the grandest TV spectacle in America.

But over the past 51 years, the Super Bowl has evolved into much more than a championship football game. It is a cultural phenomenon that nearly a third of Americans anticipate the whole year round, each for his or her own reasons: the spicy chicken wings, the hearty chili, the ice cold beer, the rowdy friends, the big-budget commercials, the spectacular halftime show, and last but not least, the football. So crack open a cold one, settle down on the couch, and flip on the TV—it's Super Bowl Sunday!

History of Super Bowl Sunday

The NFL was officially created in 1920, but it wasn't until more than 45 years later that the first Super Bowl happened. In 1960, the request of several businessmen who wished to own their own football franchises was denied by the NFL. They decided to create their own alternative league called the American Football League (AFL). For many years, there was competition and rivalry between the NFL and AFL – for players, fans, and funding. Finally, the owners reached an agreement in 1966 to merge the two leagues by 1970.

The Super Bowl grew out of this merger but didn't have this name, to begin with. The game was originally known as the 'AFL-NFL World Championship Game,' which sounded quite dull. So even though the merger was not to be in place until 1970, an end of season championship game – the first Super Bowl, was played on January 15, 1967, at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. You'd think that the first Super Bowl would have been an instant sell-out, but it was not. The game was broadcast on a couple of television networks and ended with the NFL's Green Bay Packers defeating the AFL's Kansas City Chiefs by 35-10.

The term 'Super Bowl' was coined by Lamar Hunt – the owner of the AFL Kansas City Chiefs, to refer to the championship game and from there it caught on. After the two leagues merged into one big NFL, it was split into two conferences: The National Football Conference (NFC) and the American Football Conference (AFC). Winners of each play against each other in the Super Bowl.

Super Bowl Sunday – the day of the big Super Bowl game, has become a part of American tradition with huge watch parties hosted in taverns, restaurants, and homes throughout the nation. There is extensive media hype, wagers and bets, and exciting build up a week prior to the game. The host city where the game is played has festival vibes and anticipation for the actual game is increased with the elaborate halftime entertainment performances and ceremonies.

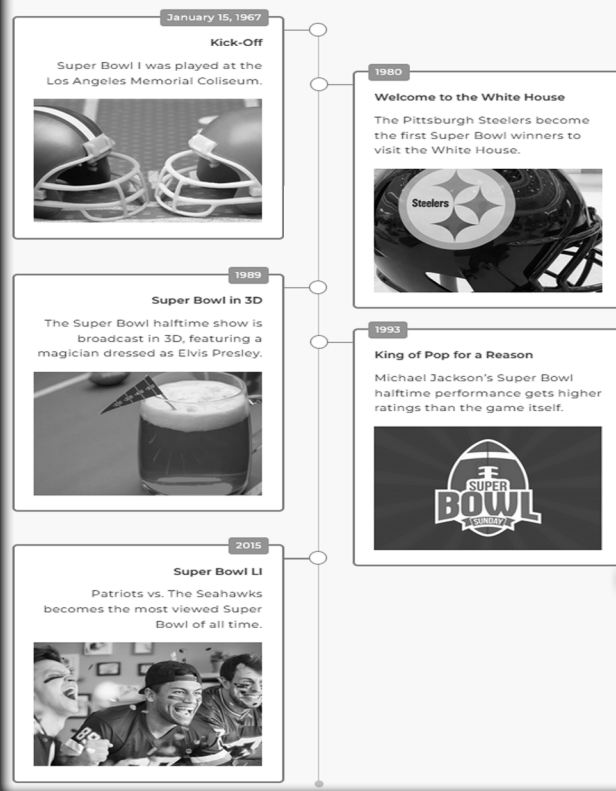

Even though the first Super Bowl wasn't a huge success, every game has been sold out since then and there has hardly ever been a significant decrease in TV ratings. In fact, the 2015 Super Bowl became one of history's highest-rated sporting events. Commercial slots during the game are the most expensive, with 30-second advertisements costing millions of dollars. With celebrity endorsements and the use of advanced technology, commercials aim to leave a lasting impression on the massive Super Bowl audience. This is probably one of the few times when interest in the commercials is parallel to that of the actual show itself.

Super Bowl Sunday Traditions

The Super Bowl is a tradition on par with holidays like Thanksgiving and Christmas! After all, it is the most viewed spectacle of the year. Hype for the event begins a week before the game, with discussions and bets on who will win. Watch parties are planned, with most people spending the day with friends and family at home. You need to have the right snacks for enjoying the Super Bowl. Hot Dogs, Pizza, Chips, Chilli, and Soda are the most popular foods binged on game day.

Whether you are a football fan or not, or just enjoy the halftime performance or the great commercials, the rich traditions of making the Super Bowl an 'experience' every year is definitely worth it!

SUPER BOWL SUNDAY TIMELINE

Super Bowl Sunday Statistics

- 4 – The number of teams that have never qualified for the Super Bowl
- 75 – The highest Super Bowl score ever.
- 13 – The number of straight Super Bowls won by the NFC from 1985 to 1997.
- 34 – The number of minutes of Super Bowl XLVII was on hold due to a power outage.
- $325 million – The amount that was legally bet on the Super Bowl in 2020

Why We Love Super Bowl Sunday

- It's the great unifier - On Super Bowl Sunday, Americans from all walks of life gather together on their collective couch for four hours of focused concentration... on their TVs. Over 100 million Americans are watching the Super Bowl at any given moment. That's over 31% of the U.S. population!
- It's not actually about football at all - Not a football fan? Not to worry. The Super Bowl may center around a football game, but it's not actually about the sport itself - it's about the company, the commercials, and most of all, the food. Plus, the halftime show just might be the pop culture event of the year. You might even get to witness a wardrobe malfunction!
- Food, food, food - After Thanksgiving, Super Bowl Sunday is the second-largest day for food consumption in the U.S. Pizza deliveries account for 60% of all food take-out orders, while other indispensable favorites include chicken wings and potato chips. If that's not a reason to show up to the party, we don't know what is.
