When: Friday, June 13, 2025 • 7PM

Where: William Morrow Municipal Beach, Somers Point (b/t Higbee & New Ave)

What to Expect: Welcome back the highly praised "Legacy Concerts on the Beach"—voted the best outdoor concert series in America by USA Today reader polls in 2023, 2024, and again this year. Kicking off this season's 32nd run is a powerhouse duo: Jimmy Vivino (Late Night with Conan O'Brien) and G.E. Smith (Saturday Night Live), delivering dynamic late-night-TV vibes against the backdrop of coastal waves. Bring a blanket or lawn chair, settle in by 7pm, and get ready for freshly curated covers and upbeat originals—free of charge. For those seeking a more curated experience, VIP tables and reserved seats are available for purchase at www.somerspointbeachconcerts.com/reserved-seating.

🌐 Global Grooves – North to Shore Festival

When: Sunday, June 15, 2025 • 1PM–5PM

Where: O'Donnell Memorial Park, 3501 Atlantic Ave, Atlantic City

What to Expect: This vibrant Sunday celebration is part of the North to Shore Festival (a statewide celebration of art, music, film, and tech) and blends live performances spanning Latin, Caribbean, funk, rock, and more, curated under the North to Shore banner. Global Grooves transforms O'Donnell Park into an international soundscape, with performances by Magdaliz and Her Latin Ensemble CRISOL, Mums the Word, and DJ Jose. Dance workshops by Arlin's Dance Spot, artisan vendors, face painting, live mural painting, and international food tastings offer a full cultural immersion - all free and family-friendly. This event embodies the inclusive, creative spirit resonating across New Jersey. Full schedule of events and more info at northtoshore.com.

HOROSCOPE

JUNE 12 - JUNE 18, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

You're fired up and ready to lead—but take care not to steamroll others in the process. A spontaneous conversation midweek could spark a new direction or idea. Stay alert; something small could turn into something big.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Financial matters come into focus, and a long-awaited answer may arrive. Trust your instincts, but check the details. A cozy, grounding weekend will help bring it all back into balance.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

With Mercury on your side, your mind is sharp and your words are even sharper. Just be sure they don't cut too deep. You're magnetic right now—use it wisely.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

This week draws you inward; dreams, memories, and quiet instincts are worth listening to. Not everything needs to be spoken aloud. A moment of solitude could bring surprising clarity.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Your social world heats up, and you're in high demand. Lead with generosity, not ego, and watch connections deepen. Not everyone can match your energy—be patient.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Work and wellness both need your attention, but don't fall into all-or-nothing thinking. Take the next right step and let the rest unfold. Progress beats perfection this week.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You're craving beauty, adventure, and maybe a little flirtation. A change of scenery—mental or physical—could do wonders. Say yes to what excites you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This is a deep, transformative week—you're feeling more than you're saying. Embrace the shift but keep your boundaries clear. Something private may prove powerful.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

One-on-one dynamics take center stage, and tension might surface. Speak your truth, but don't forget to listen. A little vulnerability goes a long way.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Daily habits and routines are in the spotlight—tweak what isn't working. Your practical nature gets a boost, but flexibility will serve you better than rigidity. Focus on small wins.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Creative sparks are flying, and your unique voice is shining through. Don't be afraid to take up space, especially in love or art. Joy is a worthy pursuit.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

You're nesting this week, craving homey comforts and emotional warmth. Family, chosen or otherwise, plays a key role. A quiet risk may bring unexpected reward.

Ties, tools, and barbecue tongs aside, Father's Day is more than just a mid-June excuse for grilling. This annual tribute to dads has a history—and some quirky trivia—that might surprise even the most seasoned fathers. As we get ready to celebrate Father's Day this Sunday, June 15, 2025, here are some fascinating facts to impress Dad over coffee and pancakes.

A Holiday Born from a Daughter's Love

While Mother's Day became official in 1914, it took decades longer for Father's Day to gain the same respect. The idea was sparked in 1909 when Sonora Smart Dodd, the daughter of a Civil War veteran and single father of six, proposed the holiday in Spokane, Washington. Her goal? To honor the strength and sacrifice of fathers like hers.

The first Father's Day was celebrated in 1910, but it wasn't declared a national holiday until 1972, when President Nixon signed it into law. That's a 58-year lag—proof that dads often have to wait their turn.

It's Big Business

Though it started from humble beginnings, Father's Day is now a multi-billion-dollar industry. According to the National Retail Federation, Americans spend more than $20 billion each year on the holiday—mostly on clothing, tools, tech, and gift cards. Interestingly, dinner and experiences have started outpacing traditional gifts, showing a shift toward quality time over things.

Around the World

Not every country celebrates Father's Day in June. In Germany, "Vatertag" falls on Ascension Day and is marked with hiking trips and, often, beer-fueled adventures. In Thailand, it's observed in December on the birthday of the late King Bhumibol Adulyadej. And in some parts of Italy and Spain, Father's Day coincides with St. Joseph's Day on March 19.

Dad Jokes to Drop at Brunch

- ~ Why don't eggs tell jokes? Because they'd crack each other up.
- ~ What do you call someone who isn't a dad but tells dad jokes? A faux pa.
- ~ I only know 25 letters of the alphabet. I don't know y.
- ~ Why did the scarecrow win an award? Because he was outstanding in his field.

Extra Dad Trivia

- The official flower of Father's Day is the rose: red if your father is living, white if he's passed.
- Neckties remain the #1 gift, even in the era of smartwatches.
- The world's oldest new dad? An Indian farmer who claimed to father a child at age 96!

So this weekend, whether you're celebrating with steaks, stories, or corny jokes, you'll now have a few surprising facts to bring to the table—along with a toast to Dad.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Head to Knee Pose (Janu Sirsasana)

Forward bends can be tricky for anyone with tight hamstrings. Janu Sirsasana is more accessible because you only stretch one leg at a time. You can also use a strap around your foot to help extend your reach.

HEAD TO KNEE POSE

TIP:

Square your torso over your extended leg and bend from your hips.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Zinc

Your immune system needs it, and it helps cuts, scrapes, and sores heal. It may help you keep your sight as you get older. While you can get zinc from plant sources like sesame and pumpkin seeds, chickpeas, lentils, and cashews, it's easier for your body to absorb it from animal foods, such as oysters, beef, crab, lobster, and pork.

MENTAL HEALTH CHECK-IN

Father's Day is celebrated on the third Sunday in June every year. Where would we be without dads? Honestly, who would show off 'dad jeans,' tell the same somewhat amusing jokes at Thanksgiving, or spin those charming childhood stories? But of course, there's far more to dads than their wardrobe choices and endless nostalgia for the 'good old days' (Elton John, David Bowie, and Queen — we get it). Still, dads are heroes. On June 15 be sure to let your dad know how much he means to you.

5 INSPIRATIONAL QUOTES FOR FATHER'S DAY

"A father is neither an anchor to hold us back, nor a sail to take us there, but a guiding light whose love shows us the way." – Unknown

"Any man can be a father, it takes someone special to be a Dad." – Anne Geddes

"My Father didn't tell me how to live; he lived and let me watch him do it." – Clarence Budington Kelland

"Dads are most ordinary men turned by love into heroes, adventurers, story-tellers, and singers of song." – Pam Brown

"A Father is someone you look up to no matter how tall you grow." – Unknown

History of Father's Day

Far from a "Hallmark holiday," Father's Day has its origins in medieval Europe, when Catholics dedicated a day to honoring fathers, fatherhood, and all paternal relationships. Fast forward a couple hundred years, and it's now a holiday held all over the world — a testament to how important fathers and father figures are in societies everywhere. However, be careful. The date fluctuates around the world. In Spain, for example, it's held on March 19, while in New Zealand, it's the first Sunday in September. Keep this in mind if you're traveling, or have family living overseas. There are few things more upsetting than a disappointed dad.

Father's Day in America has a rich history dating back to the turn of the 20th century. But to really understand Father's Day we must go back to the post-civil war reconstruction era of the 1860s and a day that celebrates the other half of the parenting duo, mothers.

The idea of celebrating parents has its roots in one woman: Ann Reeves Jarvis. Shortly after the Civil War, Jarvis sought to soothe the wounds created over four years of bitter conflict in one divided West Virginia town by choosing a day to celebrate mothers of both confederate and Union soldiers. Known as "Mother's Work Days" Jarvis hoped that during the newly installed era of peace and reconciliation that previous enemies could begin to sow unity again by celebrating one thing they all had in common.

FATHER'S DAY TIMELINE

Traditions

Relive the traditions that you have had with your father while growing up on Father's Day. The ball games you played, that snack you both like to binge on at midnight secretly without your mother knowing — today is the day to share these experiences with your old man.

Fathers are among the most difficult relations to buy a present for. Where mothers can be lavished with flowers and spa days, it is not that simple when it comes to dads. If your dad has a hobby, buy something related to that. Gift cards for his favorite store work great as well. You can also prepare your dad's favorite meal and give him the royal treatment by letting him have the comfiest chair and letting him choose what you're watching on TV.

Father's Day Activities

• Make him feel appreciated - One of the best ways to celebrate is to let him know how much you appreciate him. In the days or weeks leading up to Father's Day, make note of all he does for the household on a daily basis. Then, on Father's Day, tell him how much you appreciate these small things, and that it doesn't go unnoticed. Even better, take on these chores or activities for the day, and let him rest and bask in the glow of familial appreciation.

• Have a family day - It may be Father's Day, but often you'll find what fathers want most in the end is time with the whole family. Talk to dad and see how he feels about a family outing, and choose something everyone, at any age, can take part in. This will give him plenty of memories and stories to bring up at later family gatherings, and what could he want more than that?

• Find a gift with meaning - Sure, a new weed trimmer would make him happy, but there's always room for creativity when giving gifts. A gift with meaning, rather than functionality, may be a welcome change this year. Nostalgic items and homemade projects are always a good idea, but whatever it is, be sure it shows how much you appreciate having dad around, and everything he's taught you.

A Shore Thing: Spending Father's Day Together in Atlantic County

There's something about Father's Day that invites a slower kind of celebration. Maybe it's the time of year - early summer, warm but not overwhelming - or maybe it's the kind of person we're honoring: someone who'd probably rather spend time with you than unwrap a box. In Atlantic County, that's easy to do.

You might find yourself by the water. A few local fishing charters are still taking bookings on Sunday for fluke and striped bass. Some families head out early for a half-day trip, others cast lines from the pier with coffee and a cooler and nowhere else to be.

For those drawn more to dry land and fresh air, Absecon Lighthouse offers free climbs for fathers from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. It's the tallest in New Jersey and still one of the most quietly powerful ways to see the Shore: 228 steps, a sweeping view, and a moment that tends to say more than a restaurant bill ever could.

In Margate, Lucy the Elephant remains as wonderfully odd and lovable as ever. The six-story structure, open for tours all afternoon, has been a fixture of shore memory-making for generations. If your dad appreciates history, architecture, or just a great photo op, walking through Lucy's curved frame and climbing to the howdah offers something delightfully out of the ordinary.

Of course, some of the best memories come without plans. A walk on the boardwalk. A seat on the beach. A shared plate of fries or a sub from the place he always swears "tastes better here." Whether it's Vic's, Sack O' Subs, or that neighborhood spot you always return to, what matters isn't the name on the napkin—it's who's across the table.

Not every holiday needs to be tightly scheduled. In fact, Father's Day might be better when it's not. Let the day stretch. Wander a bit. Talk more than you usually do. And whatever you end up doing, do it here—where the salt air lingers, the views still surprise you, and the best part of the day is that you spent it together.

Juneteenth, observed annually on June 19th, commemorates a defining moment in American history. It marks the day in 1865 when Union troops arrived in Galveston, Texas, to announce that all enslaved people were free—more than two years after the Emancipation Proclamation had been issued. That delayed declaration, and the liberation it represented, is now honored nationwide as the day that freedom finally reached all corners of the former Confederacy.

Formally recognized by the state of New Jersey in 2020 and declared a federal holiday in 2021, Juneteenth continues to evolve. It is both a remembrance and a call to community—especially in places like Atlantic County, where African American heritage runs deep and creative expression plays a central role in telling the story.

Tracing the Local Legacy

Atlantic County's Black history is richly woven through sites of resilience, resistance, and cultural pride. During segregation, Missouri Avenue Beach—known widely as Chicken Bone Beach—offered a place where Black families could gather freely. Over time, it became a cradle for jazz and gospel performances, youth programs, and cultural preservation. It remains a symbol of self-determined joy in the face of exclusion.

Just inland, Atlantic City's Northside once pulsed with the energy of Club Harlem's iconic "Smart Affairs" shows. Nearby, restaurants like Wash's served not only food but fellowship, becoming hubs for both locals and visiting performers. These were not simply places of business; they were institutions built on dignity and artistry, critical to the cultural economy of Black Atlantic City in the 20th century.

As Juneteenth gains national prominence, these local landmarks remind residents that the story of emancipation has always had a local chapter. It lives in neighborhoods, in memories, and increasingly—in murals and galleries.

The Art of Freedom

At the center of Juneteenth's celebration this year is a powerful current of creativity. The African American Heritage Museum of Southern New Jersey, in collaboration with Stockton University and the Noyes Arts Garage, continues to elevate the Black experience through art. This month's exhibits at the Garage feature visual narratives exploring freedom, struggle, and identity—anchoring the holiday in personal storytelling as much as historical fact.

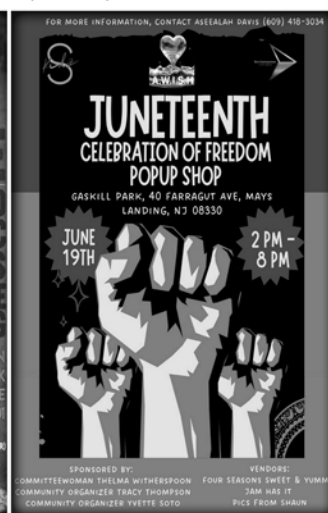

The Garage's programming includes hands-on printmaking workshops and spoken word performances that invite participation across generations. These events serve not just as celebration, but as creative resistance—connecting past to present through artistic engagement.

That thread continues in the city itself. Atlantic City's streets now host over 100 murals thanks to the Atlantic City Arts Foundation, many of which speak directly to themes of liberation, remembrance, and joy. Artists like Yvonne Shortt have contributed temporary marble dust sculptures and visual installations that question who gets remembered and how. These works serve as permanent and ephemeral reminders of how art becomes history.

Community Gatherings and Celebrations

This year's Juneteenth programming stretches across multiple days and communities within Atlantic County:

On June 19, a Juneteenth Luncheon at St. Monica's Parish in Atlantic City welcomes residents from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sponsored by the Diocese of Camden's Office of Life and Justice, the gathering includes reflections from nationally known soul performer ValLimar Jansen and a shared meal that blends spirituality, solidarity, and culture.

Also on the 19th, Oscar McClinton Jr. Waterfront Park hosts the 8th Annual Ubuntu Juneteenth Cookout, organized by Ubuntu the Community. This free event features live music, DJs, artisan vendors, face painting, and complimentary food, set against the Atlantic City waterfront. It's a joyful, multigenerational celebration that centers community over ceremony and experience over formality.

Also on June 19, the observance continues inland at Gaskill Park in Mays Landing with a Juneteenth Freedom Celebration hosted by AWISH (Agape Water International Safe House). From 2 to 8 p.m., the lakeside park becomes a celebration space filled with music, food trucks, kids' activities, and powerful moments of reflection. It's a reminder that Juneteenth belongs not just to cities and large venues—but to towns, neighborhoods, and parks where community comes alive.

That same weekend, the Noyes Arts Garage will hold a reception for "Clay in Mind," a ceramics exhibition featuring regional African American artists. Though not Juneteenth-specific, its focus on cultural expression and identity aligns powerfully with the spirit of the holiday.

Looking Ahead

As New Jersey builds its Black Heritage Trail, Atlantic City's Northside stands out as a likely cornerstone. Sites like Chicken Bone Beach, Club Harlem, and the Civil Rights Garden don't just document history—they represent a living legacy. Juneteenth celebrations here do more than commemorate—they actively preserve and amplify stories that too often go overlooked in mainstream narratives.

Atlantic County's Juneteenth events offer more than a look back. They are living, breathing, community-driven expressions of freedom, resilience, and creativity. Whether expressed through a mural, a poem, a shared meal, or a live jazz set, the message remains the same: freedom is an ongoing practice. One built together.

Kati & Kail

Kati Rhea, a police officer from Lexington, Kentucky, was in a vehicle accident in 2017 that left her in a coma for several months. Less than a year after the accident, Kati came to The Seeing Eye to be matched with George, a sable German shepherd.

"I picked up the handle and I said, 'Forward!' And that first step, it was just freedom. I knew, in that moment, I was about to get my life back."

Kati had been told she might not bond instantly with her Seeing Eye dog. "But we just clicked. I knew immediately he was not just my partner, but my back-up. This dog will be there with me and keep me safe."

George retired in 2023, and Kati is now working with Kail, a black and tan German shepherd. The photo shows Kati standing next to Kail, who is sitting on an elevated platform.

"We live on a 40-acre farm with sheep, horses, donkeys, llamas, other dogs, and George gets to play with them all," Kati said. "As for Kail, he's a massive goofball. Until he gets into harness. Then he's a fantastic worker."

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

97 YEARS AGO...

97 years ago, on June 11, 1928, Morris Frank stepped off a ship in New York City with Buddy, the first Seeing Eye® dog, and made history. Just weeks earlier, Frank had traveled to Switzerland to train with Buddy at a pioneering guide dog school founded by Dorothy Harrison Eustis, an American dog trainer and philanthropist living abroad. Inspired by her article about guide dogs in The Saturday Evening Post, Frank had written to her with a simple goal: to prove that blind Americans could live independent lives.

In front of a crowd of skeptical reporters, Frank and Buddy successfully navigated a dangerous Manhattan street crossing—demonstrating not only Buddy's training, but the revolutionary potential of the human-canine partnership. Afterward, Frank sent Eustis a one-word telegram that said it all: "Success."

The moment helped launch The Seeing Eye, co-founded by Frank and Eustis in 1929, becoming the first guide dog school in the United States—and a lasting symbol of independence, dignity, and trust.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Summer in Full Swing: Atlantic County's Peak Harvest & Fresh Flavors

This week, Atlantic County bursts into vibrant midsummer life—with farmers' markets overflowing with juicy berries, tender greens, crisp tomatoes, and fragrant herbs. It's the perfect time to celebrate local flavors and showcase fresh produce in dishes that capture the spirit of the season.

Markets at Their Finest

At markets across the county—from Ventnor and Margate to Somers Point, Linwood, Hammonton, and Atlantic City—the stands are packed with:

- Blueberries, especially abundant in Hammonton, officially known as the "Blueberry Capital of the World".
- Strawberries, at their sweetest peak in early June.
- Leafy greens like spinach and early tomatoes—ready to be transformed into vibrant salads and salsas.
- Fresh herbs—basil, mint, and more—for garnishing and flavoring.

Markets are bustling with farmers, artisans, and live music on Saturdays in Somers Point and Linwood; Thursdays in Margate and Atlantic City crackle with community energy; and Fridays in Ventnor bring fresh goods in a seaside setting. On Saturday mornings, the scene is dynamic and lively—a true taste of South Jersey summer.

Blueberry & Mint Salsa with Crostini

A dazzling twist on salsa, ideal for market-fresh blueberries.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup fresh blueberries (rinsed)
- 2 tbsp finely chopped red onion
- 1 jalapeño, seeded and minced
- 2 tbsp chopped fresh mint
- Zest and juice of 1 lime
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- Crostini or crackers for serving

Instructions: Gently combine blueberries, onion, jalapeño, and mint. Stir in lime zest and juice; season with salt and pepper. Let sit 10 minutes for flavors to blend. Serve over toasted crostini as a delightful appetizer.

Why it shines: Local blueberries from markets like Hammonton add sweetness and a hint of summer zing, while mint brightens every bite—it's a fresh and playful dish perfect for a hot weekend gathering.

Strawberry-Basil Shrub Mocktail

This tangy, herbaceous beverage is a perfect non-alcoholic refresher for warm-weather gatherings and a creative way to use peak-season strawberries.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup fresh strawberries, hulled and chopped
- 1/2 cup apple cider vinegar
- 1/4 cup honey or maple syrup
- 4–5 fresh basil leaves, plus extra for garnish
- Sparkling water or seltzer
- Ice

Instructions: In a jar or bowl, muddle strawberries and basil together until juicy and fragrant. Stir in the apple cider vinegar and honey. Cover and refrigerate for at least 4 hours, preferably overnight. Strain the mixture through a fine mesh sieve, pressing to extract all the liquid. To serve: fill a glass with ice, add 2–3 tablespoons of shrub mixture, and top with sparkling water. Garnish with a basil leaf and a slice of strawberry.

Why it works: Shrubs—a centuries-old way to preserve fruit—offer a tart, sophisticated drink with a flavor punch. This one balances the sweetness of Jersey strawberries with the brightness of basil and vinegar, making it a standout summer sipper.

Make the Most of the Season: No need for complicated dishes—just fresh ingredients, simple touches, and the joy of local flavor. Atlantic County's peak produce isn't just food—it's a celebration. These vibrant recipes capture the bounty and flavor of the season while showcasing the best of local growers. Whether you're a seasoned cook or whipping together something off the cuff, you're embracing community, taste, and summer's highlight moment. Author's note: These recipes are flexible—swap goat cheese for feta or try raspberries instead of strawberries. The goal is fresh local flavor, ready wherever your weekend takes you.
