NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

BENEFITS OF B12

When taken appropriately, B12 is generally considered safe. The recommended daily amount of vitamin B12 for adults is 2.4 micrograms and higher doses have been found to be safe. Your body absorbs only as much as it needs, and any excess passes through your urine. As a general rule of thumb, take your B vitamins in the morning or with a meal. Vitamin B12, for example, should definitely be taken in the morning. This is because it is important for energy metabolism, which may interrupt your sleep if taken at night.

The body relies on a variety of vitamins to maintain optimal health, and B12 is among the most important for weight management. If you want to lose excess weight, vitamin B12 is not only energy enhancing, it has been proven to promote weight loss. Another plus, proper intake is associated with lower systolic and diastolic blood pressure and a higher intake of folic acid was associated with lower systolic blood pressure in children.

HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 6 - OCTOBER 12, 2022

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Tempers could boil if someone you work with has not been pulling their weight. You must watch your tendency to spend whatever you make. You can help other people with their financial problems by setting up a budget for them. You must be careful not to trust just anyone.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You may want to make plans to take a vacation together. Organize your house and be sure to include the whole family in the projects you have set out to do. Try to bend but by no means should you give in completely. Your intuition will be right on. Follow your feelings in matters pertaining to financial investments.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Look into alternatives that would better suit both your needs. Don't expect romantic encounters to be lasting. You will be able to talk to your lover about future goals and perhaps make plans for the two of you to take a vacation. Try to get out and socialize.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Efforts made to improve yourself will turn out to your satisfaction. Spend some quality time with the one you love. Your talents will shine at work. Look at your options before making commitments that could jeopardize your financial position. Don't let someone talk you into parting with your cash unless you can truly see the benefits of doing so.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

You will upset your partner if you have spent money on things that aren't necessary. You can make money through solid investment plans. Be cautious not to get involved in office chatter that will cause problems for others. Pleasure trips will bring you into contact with new and interesting people.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You need to put some trust in others. You need adventure and excitement in your life. You can accomplish a lot if you deal with other people's money or possessions this week. Erratic behavior at home may be hard to handle.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You can make the most headway if you put in some overtime. You can make new friends and get involved in new hobbies successfully. Problems with your boss could lead to unemployment. Your emotions are fluctuating, so be careful not to say things you'll regret.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This is not the best day to visit relatives who get on your nerves. You are best to keep your money tied up in a safe and secure place. Take a second look; another person's philosophy may be extremely different from yours. Be aware that you might be at fault as well.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You need to take a break with the ones you love. Abrupt changes in your home may send you for a loop. Your ability to deal with others will help you in getting the support you need. Not everyone will be pleased with your plans.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20)

Travel for business purposes may bring the highest returns. Travel for business will be advantageous. Your charm will be captivating. You may have ignored or neglected your mate lately.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Lending and borrowing may be a problem. Put your thoughts into action. Don't overspend to impress others. Lovers may prove unworthy of your affection.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your ability to talk circles around your colleagues will help you forge ahead in the workplace. Your added discipline will help you complete the impossible at work. Don't make any unreasonable promises. You should be looking into making changes around the house.

25 Years Ago, On A Turntable Not Too Far Away..... by Joe Molineaux

It is not too often one gets to truly combine two passions that could be described as light years apart. In doing some pre-column writing research this week, I found a musical movie connection that brought me back to my childhood and connected two of my favorite things.

Back in 1977, I was riding my bike, collecting baseball cards, delivering newspapers every morning and totally geeking out over a movie called Star Wars. Having already seen the movie multiple time, I was more than familiar with the story line having forever burned the dialogue into my memory banks by acting out portions of the movie with friends. Of course, the opening/main movie theme by John Williams is iconic. Every time I hear the 20th Century Fox movie opening my mind automatically goes to the beginning of that amazing piece of music.

This week's column is not about John Williams or his great musical contributions to movies like Jaws, Star Wars, Indiana Jones or so many other terrific films. This week's column is about a band's disco adaptation of a portion of William's score by the band Meco. Its origination and contribution to the popularity of the 1977 film and on-going staying power of the song are featured in the film.

"Star Wars Theme/Cantina Band," a song recorded by Meco, was released by the band on its 1977 album "Star Wars and Other Galactic Funk." Meco was led by Domenico Monardo. The American record producer and musician went by the name Meco as well as used the name for his band and his production team.

After it's release, the song rose to number one on the Billboard Hot 100 charts on October 1st of that year. It remained the top song for two weeks. It also peaked at number 7 on the British Singles Chart. With a nine-week total run on the charts, the single was certified Platinum by the RIAA when it sold a million copies. With the Disco craze in full swing in 1977, the genre of the song is listed as "Disco-Instrumental." The term "Space Disco" has also been used to describe the version of the song.

My family is well aware that I am a huge fan of Star Wars. While the number of Star Wars fans continues to grow exponentially, I am proud to say I was one of the two million people that bought the single upon its release. The force was strong in me, so I jumped on my bike like it was Luke Skywalker's land speeder and road to a place called Groveland Discounts like it was Mos Eisley spaceport. The 45 RPM of "Star Wars Theme / Cantina Band" cost me a dollar of hard-working paperboy money. It was a dollar well spent. That record was played over and over again by me on every record player we had in our house. It served as the ideal soundtrack for my aforementioned acting out portions and scenes from the movie Star Wars.

The story of Meco's involvement, ultimate recording of his version and the songs popularity is roughly based on the following events. Star Wars opened on Wednesday May 25, 1977. Meco attended the 20th Century-Fox Star Wars release. Apparently within two days he had watched the film five times, and ended up attending several more screenings in the following days.

It was at that point that Meco got the idea to make a disco themed version of the John Williams score. Meco reached out to share the concept with Neil Bogart at Casablanca Records. Casablanca was one of the top disco labels at the time. Casablanca released disco songs by Donna Summer, The Village People, Lipps, Inc and even offered a disco song by KISS with the band's "I Was Made For Lovin' You" later in 1979. The Casablanca executives waited until the movie and the movie soundtrack was a hit before agreeing to assist Meco with his idea. Millennium Records, then a Casablanca subsidiary, became Meco's first record company.

Within a few weeks the team assembled recorded "Star Wars and Other Galactic Funk." The album was nominated for "Best Instrumental Pop Performer" in 1977 but lost to the genius that is John Williams for the original soundtrack album of Star Wars. The Meco song continues to remind people of good time movie memories in a galaxy far far away.

Until next time, may the force and the music be with you!

2022 Black & White Ball Sponsorship

Resorts Hotel and Casino
October 29, 2022

We are incredibly excited to plan our first Black & White Ball in four years. This extraordinary evening will be cochaired by Jason and Jessica Goldstein and Brian K. Jackson and Michael Baker. We have so much to celebrate!

The COVID pandemic prevented us from honoring Martin H. Klein for his 50 years of service in 2020. This year, we will be able to offer an in-person tribute for his extraordinary service to Seashore Gardens Living Center. We also are celebrating 20 years on our beautiful campus in Galloway, 18 years of the Seashore Gardens Foundation under the Board Leadership of Richard Cohen, and 10 years of our therapeutic music and computer programs. We are excited to return to Resorts where the inaugural Ball was held, 10 years ago, and invite you to support and celebrate with us!
