Memorial Day on May 26 conjures images of hamburgers, hot dogs, swimming pools, and summertime for many Americans. But the last Monday in May serves, most importantly, as a time to honor those who died while fighting in the U.S. Armed Forces. It's a holiday steeped in somber American history and tradition. The day actually began as "Decoration Day," following the Civil War, when mourners placed flowers on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers. Yes, Memorial Day has also come to signify the "unofficial" start of summer, but let's remember the heroes who made it all possible.

History of Memorial Day

The Civil War ended in the spring of 1865 when Robert E. Lee surrendered the last major Confederate army to Ulysses S. Grant at the Appomattox Court House on April 9. Over 620,000 soldiers died in the four-year conflict. General John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic (an organization of Union veterans) would eventually select May 30, 1868, as a day to pay tribute to the fallen:

"The 30th of May, 1868, is designated for the purpose of strewing with flowers, or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion, and whose bodies now lie in almost every city, village, and hamlet churchyard in the land..."

Logan apparently chose May 30 because flowers would be in bloom all over the country. By the end of the 19th century, Memorial Day ceremonies were being held on May 30 throughout the nation. States passed proclamations, and the Army and Navy adopted rules for proper observance at their facilities.

The crowd attending the first Memorial Day ceremony at Arlington National Cemetery was approximately the same size as those that attend today's observance — about 5,000 people. Small American flags were placed on each grave — a tradition still followed at many national cemeteries today. In recent years, the custom has grown in many families to decorate the graves of all departed loved ones.

By 1890, each Northern state had made Decoration Day an official holiday. But this was not the case in the South, where states continued to honor their dead on separate days until after the First World War.

The May 30 date held for decades. But, in 1968, Congress passed the Uniform Monday Holiday Act, which established Memorial Day as the last Monday in May in order to create a three-day weekend for federal employees. The change took place in 1971. The same law also declared Memorial Day a federal holiday.

Traditions of the Day

Many Americans observe Memorial Day by visiting cemeteries or memorials, holding family gatherings, and participating in parades. It's the three-day weekend that kicks off the summer season and the time for hanging out at the beach and lakes, and barbecuing with friends and family. But Memorial Day is also the most solemn American holiday — a day to remember those who made the ultimate sacrifice while defending their nation.

Towns and cities across the country host grand Memorial Day parades every year, often featuring senior veterans and military personnel. Some of the biggest parades take place in New York, Chicago, and Washington, D.C. Cemeteries and memorials are also visited by Americans, with some citizens wearing or holding red poppies to symbolize those who have fallen in war. This tradition has been around since World War I. Weekend trips and parties are also arranged to balance out the somberness of the day and welcome the summer.

By the Numbers

- 620,000 – the number of soldiers who died on both sides of the Civil War.
- 1868 – the year when President James Garfield delivered a very long speech on Memorial Day.
- 2500 – the number of motorcyclists who participated in the first Rolling Thunder rally.
- $1.5 billion – the number of dollars typically spent on meat and seafood in preparation for Memorial Day weekend.
- 60% – the percentage of American households who attend or host a barbecue on this day.
- 1.5 million – the number of people who watch the National Memorial Day Parade.
- 900,000 – the number of people who gathered for the Rolling Thunder Memorial Day motorcycle rally in 2019.
- 260,000 – the number of graves at Arlington National Cemetery adorned with flags in 2019.
- 45 million – the number of men and women who have served in a time of war for the U.S.
- 3 P.M. – the time of day when a moment of silence is observed by Americans throughout the country on this day.

How to Observe Memorial Day

Pay your respects - Lay flowers on the grave of a family member or friend who died while serving. If you don't personally know any fallen soldiers, visit a local cemetery anyway. After all, they made the ultimate sacrifice for you.

Participate in the National Moment of Remembrance - By doing so, you'll be joining millions of Americans in national unity to honor Memorial Day for what it truly is — a day to remember those who laid down their lives in service of their country and its citizens.

Fly the flag - If you have an American flag at home, be sure to fly it at half-mast until noon, then raise it to full mast for the rest of the day. The practice of lowering and then raising the flag has been observed for over 100 years to symbolize America's persistence in the face of loss.

5 CREATIVE WAYS TO DECORATE FOR MEMORIAL DAY

1. Unfurl those flags - Often people store their American flags and raise them only during patriotic holidays. This is definitely one of those days.
2. Line your walkway with mini flags - Nothing honors our deceased veterans like dozens (or even hundreds) of flags in your front lawn and entryway.
3. Red, white, and blue layered cake - It's a decoration you can eat.
4. Stars and Stripes windsocks - It's festive, fun, and patriotic. Need we say more?
5. Symbolic flowers - Even if you haven't lost a loved one who served in the military, you can still honor the fallen with flowers at home. Red, navy, and blue dahlias combined with white rose silk flowers can make a stunning visual combination.

MEMORIAL DAY TIMELINE

This Memorial Day, Atlantic City will mark a powerful milestone in American history—the 100th anniversary of the All Wars Memorial Building, one of the country's oldest tributes to African American veterans. On Monday, May 26, 2025, at 12:00 PM, community members, local officials, and veterans will gather at 1510 Adriatic Avenue to honor those who have served and sacrificed for our nation.

This year's ceremony is not only a traditional Memorial Day observance, but a moment to celebrate the enduring legacy of a building that has stood as a symbol of honor, resilience, and recognition for a full century.

A Building Born from Purpose

Dedicated in 1925, the All Wars Memorial Building—often referred to locally as the "Soldiers Home"—was originally constructed to honor African American veterans who had been excluded from other memorials and social spaces due to segregation. Designed by Philadelphia architect Vivian B. Smith, the neoclassical structure was one of the few veteran halls in the nation built specifically to serve Black servicemen.

Over the years, it became more than a ceremonial venue—it functioned as a cultural center, a meeting place, and a symbol of dignity for African American communities in South Jersey. It is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

The 2025 Commemoration

This year's 100th anniversary ceremony will place special emphasis on Vietnam Era veterans, acknowledging a generation of soldiers who often returned home to a country deeply divided by war and racial tensions. The event will feature:

- * Keynote Speaker: Charles Garrett, a Vietnam veteran and former Atlantic County Freeholder, whose leadership and advocacy have helped elevate the voices of local veterans.

A CENTURY OF HONOR: ATLANTIC CITY'S ALL WARS MEMORIAL CELEBRATES 100 YEARS ON MEMORIAL DAY

- * Ceremonial Host: Councilman Kaleem Shabazz, a longtime civic leader and chairman of the Soldiers Home Centennial Committee.
- * Musical Tribute by Rick Cason and the Vietnam Veterans, performing patriotic selections in tribute to their fallen comrades.
- * A special centennial recognition of community elders and organizations who have supported the preservation and continued use of the All Wars Memorial.

The City of Atlantic City has also encouraged the public to contribute stories, photos, and memorabilia from past events at the Soldiers Home. These artifacts will be featured in ongoing centennial programming throughout 2025. Submissions can be sent to soldiershome100@gmail.com.

More Than a Building

As Councilman Shabazz said in a recent press release, "The All Wars Memorial is not just bricks and mortar—it's a living record of the sacrifices made by men and women who served this country, often without receiving the recognition they deserved." This Memorial Day, the city invites residents and visitors to pause, reflect, and honor that legacy—while celebrating a full century of service and remembrance at a site that has stood for dignity, pride, and perseverance. # HOROSCOPE

MAY 22 - MAY 28, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

You're itching for change, but this week asks for patience instead of impulsive moves. A conversation around Wednesday helps clarify what's worth pursuing—and what's just distraction. Use the week-end to reconnect with what grounds you.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Financial or emotional security comes into focus, and you're ready to take a firmer stance. Watch for a power dynamic midweek that reveals more than expected. Trust your gut—it's sharper than usual.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You're stepping into your season with clarity and curiosity. A shift in how others see you may surprise you, but it's aligned with your growth. Speak your truth—people are ready to hear it.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

This week pulls you inward, encouraging you to protect your energy and revisit what you've left unresolved. Insight comes in quiet moments, not in the noise. Let intuition lead the way.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

There's momentum building in your social world, but not everyone deserves your full access. Choose your circle wisely, especially as a group dynamic shifts midweek. You're allowed to pull back and protect your peace.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Career or public perception asks for attention, and you're being seen more than you realize. A key interaction midweek could bring opportunity—but only if you're open to a new approach. Adapt without compromising your values.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

A fresh perspective changes how you see a belief, plan, or goal that once felt certain. This is a good week to ask bigger questions, even if the answers aren't immediate. Something inspiring lands by the weekend.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Something deep is shifting beneath the surface—this isn't the time for half-truths or polite detachment. You're being called to be real, even if it's uncomfortable. Midweek may offer a moment of necessary release.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

One-on-one connections are in the spotlight, with an emphasis on honesty and equal effort. A conversation may shift the tone of a relationship, romantic or otherwise. Listen fully before jumping to conclusions.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

You're craving more order, but perfectionism could stall your progress. Focus on small improvements that support your bigger vision. Midweek brings a chance to refine your process—don't ignore it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You're in the mood to create, connect, and enjoy life more freely. But if joy feels out of reach, that's your cue to reconnect with what lights you up. A fun invitation later in the week helps open that door.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

The energy turns inward toward home, family, and emotional roots. You may be called to revisit something from the past—not to repeat it, but to release it. Clarity comes when you stop over-explaining and just feel.

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Cobbler's Pose (Baddha Konasana)

Let gravity work on stretching your inner thighs in Cobbler's pose. Props can help if you find this yoga pose challenging. Sitting on a block, cushion, or blanket raises your hips so your knees can open more naturally. If your knees are high, it takes a lot of effort to hold them up, and your legs need to be relaxed to enjoy the benefits of the stretch. The solution is to place a block (or something else supportive) under each knee to give them something to rest on. Since it's unusual to sit this way in everyday life, this yoga pose stretches neglected areas of the body, particularly the adductor groups of the groin.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Magnesium

This mineral plays a role in making your muscles squeeze and keeping your heart beating. It helps control blood sugar and blood pressure, make proteins and DNA, and turn food into energy. You'll get magnesium from almonds, cashews, spinach, soybeans, avocado, and whole grains.

Fire Up the Flavor: Hosting the Perfect Jersey Shore BBQ This Memorial Day

Memorial Day weekend at the Jersey Shore isn't just about beach chairs and boardwalk strolls—it's about gathering your favorite people, firing up the grill, and putting out a spread that celebrates the start of summer in true Garden State style. Whether your toes are in the sand or your backyard is your kingdom, this is your guide to hosting a Memorial Day BBQ that blends coastal comfort with seasonal flair.

The Flavors of the Shore

A Jersey Shore BBQ is all about unfussy food with big flavor. This is the land of blue crabs and buttered rolls, sweet corn and tomato vines, hoagies and hot sauce. When you combine salty air with a sizzling grill and a little bit of attitude, you've got the makings of something special.

Skip the overly formal or fussy presentation. Think paper plates, cold drinks, and long tables lined with trays of food that people actually want to eat: grilled, local, fresh, and filling.

What's in Season? Let It Shine

This is peak time for fresh Jersey asparagus, spring onions, radishes, arugula, spinach, strawberries, and rhubarb. Here are two knockout recipes to bring some of that in-season bounty to your table.

Grilled Jersey Asparagus with Lemon-Herb Ricotta

Serves 6 | Prep time: 15 minutes | Grill time: 5-7 minutes

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 bunches Jersey asparagus, ends trimmed
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 1 cup whole milk ricotta cheese
- Juice of ½ lemon
- 1 tbsp chopped fresh parsley
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Zest of 1 lemon
- 1 tbsp chopped fresh mint
- Crushed red pepper (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS: Toss asparagus in olive oil, salt, and pepper. Grill over medium-high heat for 2-3 minutes per side until lightly charred but still crisp. In a bowl, mix ricotta with lemon zest, lemon juice, herbs, and a pinch of salt. Spread ricotta mixture on a platter, pile grilled asparagus on top, and finish with a drizzle of olive oil and a sprinkle of crushed red pepper if you like heat. Serve warm or room temp.

Strawberry-Rhubarb Slab Pie

Serves 12 | Prep time: 20 minutes | Bake time: 45 minutes

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 ½ cups chopped rhubarb
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- 1 pre-made pie crust package (2 crusts) or homemade if you're ambitious
- Coarse sugar for sprinkling
- 3 cups sliced fresh Jersey strawberries
- ¼ cup cornstarch
- 1 egg, beaten (for egg wash)

INSTRUCTIONS: Preheat oven to 375°F. Roll out one crust and fit it into a 9x13 baking dish. Mix fruit, sugar, cornstarch, and vanilla in a bowl. Let sit 5 minutes. Pour mixture into crust, then top with second crust. Crimp edges and cut slits or make a lattice pattern. Brush with egg wash, sprinkle with sugar, and bake for 40-45 minutes or until golden and bubbling. Cool slightly before serving. Serve with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream.

So... anything new and exciting happening over there? You could say that! We elevated our wine list, and are now offering new additions to the menu including: Salmon to Riches, grilled salmon with teriyaki glaze over stir-fried vegetables, and The Butcher's Bankroll, a 10-ounce boneless New York strip steak topped with garlic herb butter and served with parmesan rosemary fries. Customer favorites such as the American Beauty Burger, lobster tater tots and more are still on the menu.

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Spotlight:

Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

What is the current reason one MUST visit your venue? If the revamped furnishings and menu don't grab your attention, we have something fun slated for every night of the week! With Karaoke on Tuesdays, Quizzo Wednesdays, Thirsty Thursday drink specials, live music on Fridays and Saturdays, and an outrageous brunch experience on Sundays, there's no reason to not stop by!

We understand some hands shifted a bit? Yes! We are beyond thrilled to welcome Salvatore Spina, an Atlantic City native, and experienced in the restaurant industry. Sal has joined the partnering team at the beer hall, a staple in the city's Orange Loop dining-and-entertainment district. He knew he could bring a renewed vision and commitment to excellence to Tennessee Avenue, with a strong desire to show both residents and visitors why this is the place to be for dining and nightlife. Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall opened in November 2018 under Mark Callazzo, who remains active as co-owner and partner as well as a developer in the Orange Loop.

Why is your venue necessary for Atlantic City? To continue the thought from above, we are part of the Orange Loop, an integral part of the revitalization of this great city. The Orange Loop borrows its name from everyone's favorite board game, Monopoly, and includes the beach blocks of New York Avenue, St. James Place, and Tennessee Avenue; the Orange properties in Monopoly. Here you'll find the best of the new Atlantic City. Land on the Orange Loop today!

Are you offering any specials or additional services you wish to talk about? We are NOT just a Beer Hall... we offer full catering and event services on site and off site! Our onsite venue is the best spot for any large group dining, or private event! Nothing is too small or too big! Our prices, food quality and service will blow you away!

Holocaust Survivor and Author Michael Bornstein to Bring His Powerful Story to Survivor Day Event on June 4th

Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein will share his life journey during Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate. Bornstein was liberated from a concentration camp and subsequently made his way to the United States six years later. (Photograph courtesy of Michael Bornstein)

Join Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein as we honor local survivors, incorporate community connections through Jewish peoplehood, and explore generational wisdom for Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate.

As co-author of the New York Times best-selling book, Survivors Club: The True Story of a Very Young Prisoner of Auschwitz, Bornstein was four-years-old when he was liberated from a concentration camp and made his way to the United States six years later.

For 70 years, Bornstein opted not to speak of his Holocaust experience, despite his image being one of the most recognizable where he is seen showing his tattoo in the iconic WWII footage. However, his second-generation Holocaust Survivor children, Debbie Bornstein Holinstat and Scott Bornstein, encouraged their father to share his powerful story of survival and resilience.

Iso speaking at the event is Holinstat, a veteran television news producer and co-author of her father's book, and Scott Bornstein, Executive Vice President of Greenberg Traurig, who dedicates his expertise combatting antisemitism on behalf of Israeli and American victims of the October 7th terrorist attacks.

The program is co-sponsored by Seed the Dream Foundation, Jewish Federation of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, KAVOD, Marjorie & Lewis Katz JCC, and Stockton University Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center.

This presentation is free to attend, open to the entire community, and designed for audiences ages 10 – 110. The first 50 households that RSVP and attend the program will receive a complimentary, signed copy of the book. You must RSVP at info@jewishbytheshore.org.

Bob & Taryn

Robert Fenton, KC, is the Director of Legal Services at the Calgary Police Service in Alberta, Canada. The "KC" after his name stands for King's Counsel, a designation made by the Minister of Justice to recognize a legal professional who has demonstrated superior legal ability; proof of good character and integrity; membership in the Canadian Bar Association; and who has been entitled to practice law for at least 10 years.

"When it happened, I was in court on another matter, and we were doing it by Webex. All these weird messages kept flashing on my screen saying congratulations, and I said, 'What is all this about?' Afterward a colleague called me to congratulate me and I said, 'For what?' and he told me I had been designated King's Counsel," Bob said.

"I was shocked, I was surprised, I was humbled... and to some degree, I still am. It is nice to be recognized by your peers. But you do this work because you want to help people, not for awards or recognition."

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

THE DOGIST VISITS THE SEEING EYE CAMPUS

We were excited to welcome The Dogist back to our campus this week! Photographer and author Elias Weiss Friedman signed a copy of his upcoming book, "This Dog Will Change Your Life," which mentions the important work of Seeing Eye dogs.

Be sure to keep an eye on The Dogist later this week to watch for more about the Seeing Eye teams, staff, and, of course, the dogs he met during his visit.

P.S. "This Dog Will Change Your Life" is available for pre-order in physical, e-book, and audiobook formats at penguinrandomhouse.com.

Photo Descriptions: 1 - Elias Weiss Friedman (The Dogist) stands with Seeing Eye President & CEO Karen Leies as she holds his book "This Dog Will Change Your Life" in one hand and a leashed German shepherd puppy wearing a Seeing Eye puppy raising program bandana in the other in the lobby of the main building. 2 - Elias and Seeing Eye instructors Bryan Harr and Kristen Oplinger pose beside the Morristown Green statue of Seeing Eye co-founder Morris Frank and Buddy. Bryan has a golden retriever Seeing Eye dog by his side, and Kristen has a yellow Lab Seeing Eye dog with her. 3 - Elias films Kristen training a yellow Lab Seeing Eye dog on sidewalk barricades in downtown Morristown. 4 - The signed interior of "This Dog Will Change Your Life" with a message that reads, "For The Seeing Eye - Thank you for transforming people's lives one dog at a time. Always honored to visit your campus and meet your dogs! -Elias/The Dogist"

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

From atmospheric thrillers to heart-wrenching, grief-laden ghost stories and pulpy novellas, the summer book season is coming in hot with these steaming new reads.

The Night Birds by Christopher Golden

When Charlie and Ruby's love ended years ago, they never expected to see each other again. Now, Charlie lives aboard a 19th-century freighter half-sunken off the shore of Galveston and Ruby needs his help — but the night birds are already circling in Golden's gripping, atmospheric novel.

Feeders by Matt Serafini

When a video depicting the brutal murder of a former classmate leaks online, Kylie Bennington's curiosity gets the better of her. This darkly satirical supernatural thriller follows a would-be influencer whose dreams of online fame spiral into nightmare territory when she encounters a mysterious and dangerous social media platform.

Aftertaste by Daria Lavelle

When Konstantin Duhovny discovers he can reunite people with their deceased loved ones through their favorite foods, he thinks his life's purpose might be to offer closure to grieving strangers. But as his culinary skills catch up with his ambitions, Konstantin is too blind to see the catastrophe looming in the Afterlife in this ghost story about all the ways we hunger.

Pam Kowolski is a Monster! by Sarah Langan

Twenty-plus years after high school, Janet's mortal enemy has become America's manic pixie sweetheart, an online psychic predicting the end of the world. Langan delivers an unabashedly, brutally fun thrill ride in this totally unhinged, absurdly delightful ripper of a novella.

Never Flinch by Stephen King

A killer on a diabolical revenge mission. A vigilante targeting a feminist celebrity speaker. Twinned narratives converge in a chilling and spectacular conclusion — a feat of storytelling only King could pull off in this wildly fun and outrageously engrossing new novel from horror's master storyteller.

Be Mine by Lizzy Barber

When Beth joins wellness group Elixir, she thinks it is the answer to everything. But when she's warned of the darkness lurking beneath the brand's gleaming exterior, Beth finds she cannot let go in this story about finding our place in the world today, and where we turn to belong.

Tell Them You Lied by Laura Leffler

Two New York artists' tumultuous friendship gets turned on its head when one of them goes missing and the other may be to blame. Leffler's debut is a taut slow-boiler that will appeal to readers who enjoy alternating timelines and unreliable narrators.

HONORING THROUGH TRADITION: 2025 MEMORIAL DAY PARADES ACROSS ATLANTIC COUNTY

Memorial Day weekend in Atlantic County, New Jersey, offers more than just the unofficial start to summer — it's a time when communities come together to honor the service and sacrifice of military personnel through longstanding and heartfelt traditions. Across the region, several towns will host vibrant Memorial Day parades on Monday, May 26, 2025, each reflecting local pride, community spirit, and solemn remembrance.

Linwood: A Small Town with Big Patriotism - Linwood's annual Memorial Day Parade is a cherished community tradition that blends celebration with reflection. Set to step off at 10:00 a.m., the parade features veterans, scout troops, civic groups, and first responders marching along Shore Road, concluding at All Wars Memorial Park. This year's event will also spotlight the 2025 Linwood Citizen of the Year — a beloved tradition recognizing a local resident who has gone above and beyond in service to the community. Linwood's parade is one of the more personal and family-friendly events, fostering a strong sense of local unity.

Margate: Bikes, Strollers, and a Seaside Salute - Margate brings a festive, family-oriented flair to its Memorial Day Parade, also beginning at 10:00 a.m. Participants will gather at Margate City Hall (9001 Winchester Avenue) at 9:30 a.m., and the parade will proceed along the scenic Parkway toward the All Wars Memorial at Ventnor and Mansfield Avenues. What sets Margate's event apart is the enthusiastic participation of residents — especially children — who are encouraged to decorate their bicycles, wagons, strollers, and even golf carts. Hosted by the Mothers of Margate Association, the parade is a lively and inclusive way for families to mark the day with patriotic pride and community involvement.

Ventnor and Brigantine: Traditions That March On - Ventnor's Memorial Day Parade steps off at 10:00 a.m. from Ventnor Avenue and Lafayette Avenue, heading down to the boardwalk. Known for its seaside charm, Ventnor's parade includes appearances by the Ventnor City Beach Patrol, local dignitaries, marching bands, and vintage military vehicles. This year marks another chapter in a tradition that underscores the city's strong support for veterans.

Meanwhile, Brigantine's parade is also slated for a 10:00 a.m. start and follows a well-loved route along Brigantine Avenue. Local schools, civic organizations, and first responders will participate, while residents line the streets waving flags and wearing red, white, and blue. Brigantine has a longstanding reputation for being one of the more spirited Memorial Day celebrations along the coast.

Somers Point: Music and Patriotism - Somers Point hosts its Memorial Day Parade down Shore Road beginning at 11:00 a.m. With its rich colonial and maritime history, the town brings historical resonance to the event. Attendees can expect performances by the Mainland Regional High School Marching Band and appearances by local veterans' groups. The parade typically ends near City Hall or Patriots Park, continuing the town's dedication to honoring those who served.

Plan Ahead and Show Up Early - Parking for these events can be tight, especially in shore towns, so attendees are encouraged to arrive early and bring a lawn chair. Many towns also feature flag-raising ceremonies immediately following the parade. Whether you're marching, observing, or cheering from the sidewalk, Memorial Day parades in Atlantic County offer a moving, hometown way to remember America's heroes.
