NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

STAYING ACCOUNTABLE

Tracking your food and drink intake can help you be aware of your eating habits. This can make it easier to identify unhealthy habits and replace them with healthier ones. It can also be a great tool to make more conscious meal choices throughout the day and keep you from mindlessly grazing between meals. Write down the specific foods you eat throughout the day. Include in your journal "Portion Size." Include specific amounts of the food you eat. Next note the time of day you eat. Then include "Place." Another factor that helps identify your patterns is tracking where you eat. What is your hunger level? Last express your feelings through the day. Journaling is one of the most effective ways to reach your weight loss goals.

HOROSCOPE

APRIL 11 - APRIL 17, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
The big news for you is the total solar eclipse in your sign Aries on Monday 8th which presages a fresh start. The Sun will be briefly knocked out by the Moon creating an interruption of light and Chiron, the wounded healer is also here at the same time so exploring your story, your battles and sense of yourself and who you are in the process of becoming is important. Mars and Saturn also say 'this is serious' whilst the Sun and Mercury cazimi on Thursday give you a newflash.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
Be kind to yourself when so much activity is taking place in the zone best described as your inner world. You can't be expected to explain yourself or even know exactly how you feel at this point but you are aware that a catalyst is here to change your destiny and you're on the verge of making vital changes. Meanwhile, keep things simple.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
There seems to be a re-set taking place around your cohort or social circle. Perhaps someone is playing a pivotal role in altering the direction of the community or you're looking at an invitation or exit route. Wednesday's 'hard work' meeting between Mars and Saturn spells out what you need to do.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
Your role in life is under the powerful energies of the solar eclipse on Monday. Perhaps it won't be felt immediately but little by little you are going to be drawn to new things. Meanwhile certain people are expecting rather too much from you and it's time to set some boundaries and change the narrative.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
You no doubt feel as if you're on the edge of some kind of breakthrough. Perhaps a new discovery or a journey that intrigues and stimulates you. One thing's for sure the solar eclipse is highlighting what's there in your future and it's over to you to set foot in it. However, you're well aware that there's some work to be completed beforehand. Tick it off your list.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)
As the solar eclipse highlights what's at stake between you and other people you're trying to find a way to broker a new strategy. However, Mars and Saturn can throw up a road-block. This week is all about thinking differently and as the Sun meets with Mercury at the midpoint of its retrograde cycle you are scheduled to enjoy an aha moment.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
Eclipses in the signs of Libra and Aries are hardly plain sailing for those born under the harmony seeking sign of Libra. So as you move into Monday's solar eclipse on the heels of the eclipsed Full Moon in Libra on March 25th you need to find the calm within yourself rather than looking for it in the outside world. Dig into the jobs and tasks that make you feel grounded and keep all lines of communication open.

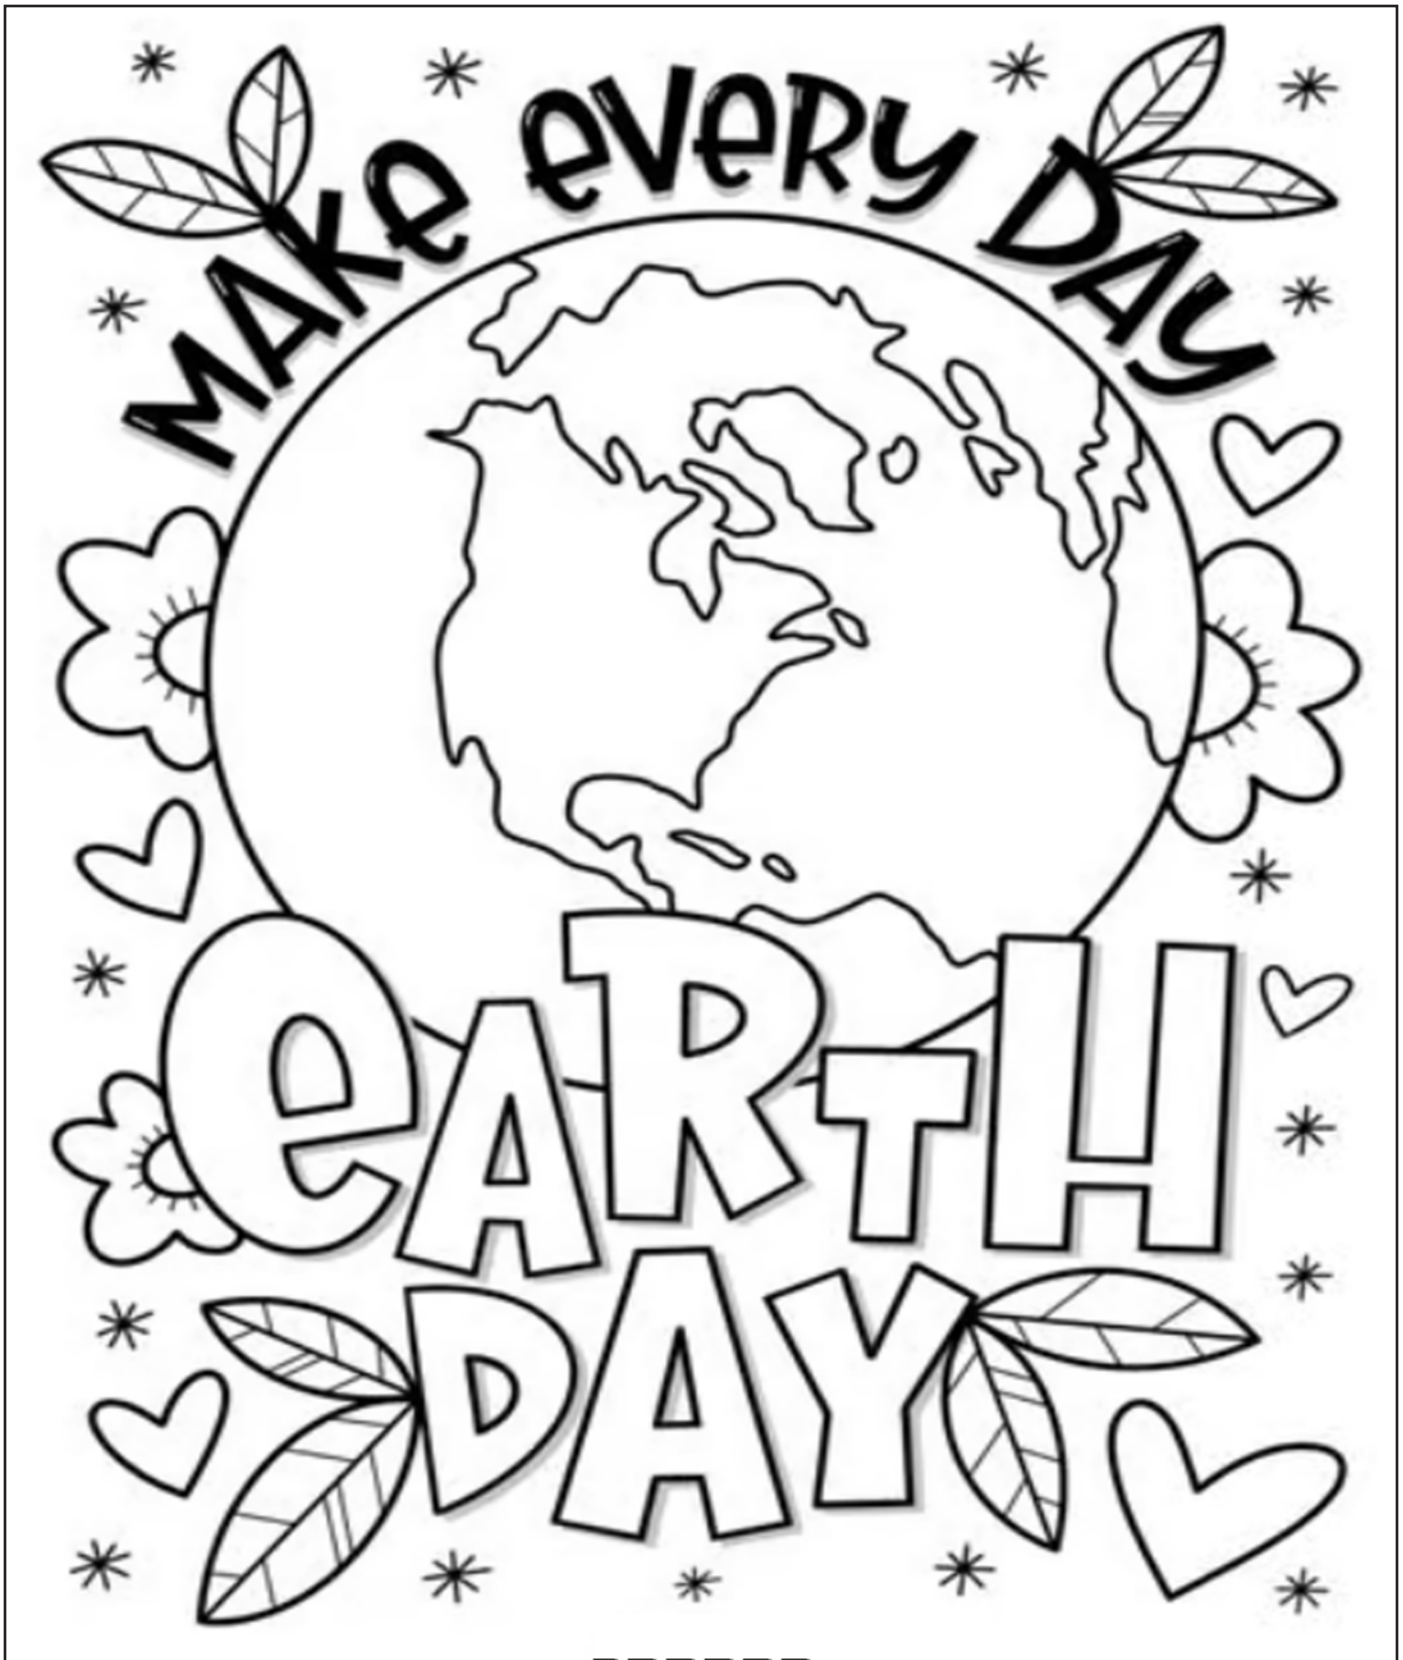

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Although Monday's solar eclipse is likely to plant seeds of new beginnings related to your working life or life-style, there's an element of simply having to get stuck in this week as Mars and Saturn require a practical, hands-on approach. April is a month of intense celestial activity with many twists and turns. Therefore challenges could lead to positive transformation.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
If you're wondering where the joy has gone Monday's solar eclipse pushes you to notice the little things that are conducive to a creative, playful state of mind. Right now, you may not be in a position to immerse yourself in being care-free as Mars and Saturn indicate you have your work cut out. But then there is the reward to come.....

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
A new era is being ushered in which changes your personal landscape, whether you're stepping into a new dimension in terms of home and family or kissing goodbye to the past. Mars and Saturn are saying 'the time has come' - and therefore you're ready to do everything necessary to make the new reality the new normal.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
Whilst new ideas appeal to you there are certain financial realities which need to be put in order before you can forge ahead. As always your capacity to think outside of the box will be helpful in opening up other people's minds. Have those conversations and remain steady even if you get temporary pushback. April as a whole is a game-changer.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
A whole lot of celestial activity is taking place in the financial area of your chart - which also means how you feel about your earning power and accompanying self worth. There's a lot to think about in terms of new arrangements. Meanwhile as Mars and Saturn meet in your sign mid-week there's a need to keep things real.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

From adaptations to original works of fiction to stories starring Shakespeare himself, there are so many ways to approach the Bard's legacy. Whether you're well-versed in the plays, are trying to build your way up to reading them, or are looking to expand your knowledge beyond the canon, these novels are just what you're looking for. We've gathered a list of four Shakespeare-inspired stories you're sure to love.

Mad Blood Stirring by Simon Mayo

Mad Blood Stirring is a fictional tale inspired by true events that is impeccably researched. With vivid personalities and impressive depth, Mayo takes readers to the first-ever all-Black Shakespeare production staged by segregated American prisoners of war. As countries piece together treaties and decide how to handle the return of the prisoners of war, the occupants of Dartmoor prison are not sitting idle. The facility is overcrowded, disease-ridden and barely contains the violence that erupts between rival gangs inside.

A group of imprisoned men create their own theatre group in order to help pass time, with a production of Romeo and Juliet steered by the brutal King Dick. In war's aftermath, the author shines a dramatic spotlight on a hotbed of racial tension and a unique pursuit of creativity.

Such Stuff as Dreams by Thomas Garlinghouse

In 1936 Hollywood, with stars like Clark Gable and Carole Lombard shining, a screenwriter named Joe Holliday is trying to make his mark in the ultra-competitive industry. The head of Holliday's film studio, C.L. Greenwood, wants "the public's money and the critics' praise." He comes up with the idea for a modern-day Hamlet developed as a movie script — and he wants Joe to write it.

But Joe carries a secret, one that has been dormant for a long time; he has the ability to communicate with ghosts. On the way to writing the modern Hamlet, he keeps coming across a supposedly unfinished manuscript of Shakespeare's, a play entitled The Apple Orchard. When the ghost of Shakespeare appears before Joe, the Bard convinces Joe to abandon his work on Hamlet and help him complete The Apple Orchard.

The Tragedy of Arthur, King of Britain by Arthur Phillips

In this remarkable piece of meta-fiction, Arthur Phillips' father, a con artist, has been imprisoned for decades before he reveals something to his novelist son. He knows of a play called The Tragedy of Arthur, written by William Shakespeare, which has never seen the light of day. With the help of his twin sister, Arthur takes on his father's dream to bring this play to the public and see to its publication.

Is it truly the last great work of the Bard, or is this another con orchestrated by their clever father? Containing the entirety of the play within its pages, the novel explores the intertwined fates of Arthur Phillips, both author and character, and the great historical King Arthur at the center of the play.

The Weight of an Infinite Sky by Carrie La Seur

Environmental lawyer Carrie La Seur tells a stunning story about family, murder, betrayal, and love, drawing in elements of Shakespeare's Hamlet. In the unforgiving, open land of Montana, Anthony Fry rebelled against the family expectations that, as the only son, he would take over the cattle ranch from his father; a business that had been in the family for generations. Instead, Anthony left Montana for New York City.

With the unexpected death of his father, he is forced to return home, finding that while the years have changed him, they've also changed the home he left behind. His black sheep of an uncle is getting a little too close to his mother, and a mining company is looking to overtake the Fry land. Anthony must confront himself, the ghosts of his past and decide what he really wants, the answer to which will decide his fate and that of those closest to him.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Low Lunge

The alignment of your lunge is super important. Try to make a right angle with your front leg so that your knee is directly over your ankle and your thigh is parallel to the floor. At the same time, keep your hips level and energize your back leg. Many people don't go deep enough into the front leg and sag in the back leg. Glance in the mirror to make sure you're getting it right. To modify, place your hands on blocks and/or lower your back leg to the mat (with a blanket or towel as needed for cushioning). One of the hip flexors is the psoas muscle. You have one on each side of your body, each working to lift your thigh to your torso. Many people get tight hip flexors from sitting for long periods, as when at a desk, in a vehicle, or while watching television. Others may do so from sports such as cycling, which can result in tight hip muscles, or snowboarding and skiing, which require significant hip flexibility.

STANDING LUNGE

NOTE

Keep your hips square and your chest open. Don't let your knee bend past your toes.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin B6

Vitamin B6, also known as pyridoxine, helps:
the body to use and store energy from protein and carbohydrates in food

the body form haemoglobin, the substance in red blood cells that carries oxygen around the body

Good sources of vitamin B6

pork; poultry, such as chicken or turkey; some fish;
peanuts; soya beans; wheatgerm; oats; bananas; milk;
some fortified breakfast cereals

COLLEEN WUNDERLICH & Nora

Soon after graduating with an MBA from the University of Chicago and beginning a new job in Downtown Chicago, Colleen Wunderlich found her daily commute to be a labyrinth of construction sites, traffic jams, and rushing pedestrians. After several mishaps including “getting knocked over in a train station,” she learned about the comfort and confidence that a Seeing Eye dog could provide. And choosing that made a huge difference in her life.

Nearly 25 years later, Colleen is now the Vice President of Partnership at The Chicago Lighthouse and working with her fourth Seeing Eye dog, a black Labrador/golden retriever cross named Nora. Colleen leads a busy and professionally satisfying life and Nora’s a major part of it. Nora is even a lifesaver who saved Colleen from being hit by a city bus!

The photo shows a smiling Colleen in business dress on a leisurely stroll on a tree-lined sidewalk in Chicago with Nora in professional mode leading the way.

Colleen says, “With Nora, every day is more of a happy adventure. When I want to go somewhere or attend an event, I see it as an adventure for Nora and me. We always have fun and meet people while we are out together. And when we get in a bind, we figure our way out together. Nora’s presence brings many people to me who I would otherwise miss the opportunity to meet.”

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

Walk & Learn with The Seeing Eye

Our Walk & Learn program is returning this spring with three new dates! Learn how Seeing Eye dogs are trained on the streets of Morristown. This unique opportunity allows you to follow a Seeing Eye graduate and dog team while learning all about their partnership. Each program begins with a brief presentation and tour of our downtown training location, located at 14 Maple Avenue. Participants will then take a walk through the streets of Morristown and learn how Seeing Eye dogs guide their handlers safely. The walking distance is about 1 mile and is appropriate for ages 12+. This is an experience you will not want to miss! Spots are limited, so secure your spot today.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

National Peach Cobbler Day – April 13, 2024

National Peach Cobbler Day on April 13 celebrates peach cobbler, the undeniable American classic — it even comes from early European settlers in America! Something we love about cobblers is that there's basically an endless variety. From classics like peach- and blackberry cobblers, to crisps, crumbles, Brown Betties, and pandowdies — if you have juicy fresh berries and some kind of dough, you have a cobbler!

History of National Peach Cobbler Day

Varieties of pie and cobbler have existed for thousands of years, yet peach cobbler is distinctly tied to early European settlers in America. As Americans pushed into the West and settled the frontier, fruit could be difficult to come by. Simple and easy fruit cobblers became popular dishes for breakfast as well as dessert! It was in the mid-1800s, as westward expansion in America took off, that peach cobbler rose in popularity.

These pioneers had to make do — though preserves and foods with baking powder added weren't considered fine cuisine, the settlers didn't have many options and often relied on these ingredients. They would cobble together fruit filling with plain biscuit dough on top, and the result looked like a cobbled street! Lacking real ovens, settlers would use campfire 'Dutch ovens' to heat up the dessert.

Cobblers eventually took off in popularity. Today, there are countless varieties including crisps, crumbles, Brown Betties, tarts, and crumbles. What do they have in common? Fruit, sugar, flour, and butter! Despite the variations on the classic, it's still easy to find old-time recipes for cobbler, just like early Americans would have made. It's hard to improve on the original!

In the 1950s, the Georgia Peach Council began to promote Peach Cobbler Day in April. This was part of an effort to drive canned peaches sales, as April isn't the time of year for fresh peaches! Their efforts paid off and the national holiday was born. Since, there have been many celebrations of peach cobbler, including at the Georgia Peach Festival. In 2007, the largest peach cobbler was made at the festival and was more than 11 feet long! Peach cobbler remains a popular and classic American dessert today.

National Peach Cobbler Day Activities

- Bake up your own peach cobbler - Cobbler is simple by nature. Even if you're a timid baker, have no fear — all you need is dough and fruit! It's almost impossible to ruin a cobbler. Bake with friends, family, or roommates, and bond over both the baking and the dessert!
- Have your family taste-test peach cobbler - Once you've whipped up your cobbler, invite some friends or family over for a taste test! Or you could hold a taste test of various store-bought peach cobbler brands. Just remember, any piece of cobbler is going to be better with vanilla ice cream.
- Post your peach cobbler to social media - Use the hashtag #PeachCobblerDay to inspire other bakers and share the national holiday! Show off your masterpiece peach cobbler and make your social media feed even more delicious.

4 Fun Facts About Peach Cobbler

1. It's no diet food - One cup of peach cobbler averages around 450 calories!
2. The 'World's Largest Peach Cobbler' is a yearly treat - At the annual Georgia Peach Festival, visitors can taste the 11 by 5 foot 'World's Largest Peach Cobbler' — the tradition began in 2007.
3. It's traditionally served with vanilla ice cream - In the southern part of the United States, peach cobbler is rarely served without two classic scoops of vanilla ice cream.
4. It's not all unhealthy - While we can't say the buttery crust is exactly a health food, peaches are actually very nutritious — they are a great source of vitamins A and C.

Why We Love National Peach Cobbler Day

- It's full of nutritious peaches - While it's true the buttery crust isn't a health food, peaches actually offer many nutritious benefits! They are packed with antioxidants and nutrients, they can protect your skin and heart health, and may even prevent certain types of cancer.
- It's a classic indulgence - They say there's nothing more American than apple pie, but we know peach cobbler is right up there. A favorite of the early American settlers, who didn't have much but found the means to cobble together a makeshift pie, peach cobbler is undeniably a classic indulgence.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Volunteers will be out on local beaches this weekend picking up what others have carelessly left behind.

Clean Ocean Action will be holding Beach Sweeps across the state to improve the quality of the marine waters and remove trash and debris from beaches and waterways. Volunteers are needed in 80 locations, including six sites in Atlantic County.

The Beach Sweeps will be held rain or shine 9 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. Saturday, April 13 in the following Atlantic County locations:

- Atlantic City – S. Albany Avenue & Boardwalk; S. Florida Avenue & Boardwalk
- Brigantine – S. 17th Street at Brigantine Beach Patrol
- Longport – 33rd and Atlantic Avenues
- Margate – Granville Avenue beach
- Ventnor City – Newport Avenue beach Community Building

Volunteers are asked to bring their own bucket and work gloves. Each municipality will provide registration services and instructions and provide volunteers with collection cards to record what they find on the beach.

Data collected is compiled to determine sources of pollution and monitor trends and promote solutions to beach litter. Data may also be used to forward legislation that protects the ocean, such as the beach smoking ban. The most recent annual report indicates that nearly 80% of all debris collected is made out of some form of plastic.

Read the 2023 report here: <https://rb.gy/xxjsri>

Register in advance at <https://rb.gy/wgjt4y> or on Saturday morning at the registration site, where you will be asked to fill out a waiver form. Volunteers must be registered to participate. Family members and groups must register individually. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Check in and registration is at 9 a.m.

39th annual Spring Beach Sweeps this weekend

Volunteers are instructed not to pick up anything that makes them uncomfortable. Volunteers are not required or expected to pick up potentially hazardous debris. Alert the Beach Captain about safety concerns. Beach Captains will supply trash and recycling bags, data cards and pencils. Hand sanitizer will be available. To reduce the use of plastic bags, volunteers are asked to bring a repurposed bucket.

Wear comfortable, sturdy shoes and dress for the weather. It is advisable to bring a reusable water bottle, snacks, sunscreen, bug spray and a positive attitude.

The next Beach Sweep will be held in October.

About Clean Ocean Action

COA Mission Statement: "Our goal is to improve the degraded water quality of the marine waters off the New Jersey/New York coast."

COA uses research, education, and citizen action to unite and empower people to protect the ocean.

Clean Ocean Action is a 501(c)3 tax exempt nonprofit organization.

Clean Ocean Action (COA) is a broad-based coalition of 125 active boating, business, community, conservation, diving, environmental, fishing, religious, service, student, surfing, and women's groups. These "Ocean Wavemakers" work to clean up and protect the waters of the New York Bight. The groups came together in 1984 to investigate sources, effects, and solutions of ocean pollution. What follows is a description of the network.

Under the guidance of COA's Board of Trustees, COA's staff researches pollution issues affecting the marine environment, then formulates policy and campaigns to eliminate each pollution source. The staff then coordinates and organizes the Ocean Wavemakers (Participating Organizations, Concerned Businesses, Educators for a Clean Ocean, and Concerned Citizens) to use their individual experience and expertise to help. Press events, rallies, writing letters, making phone calls, testifying at public hearings, and distributing literature are just some of the ways members of the coalition become involved.

With eight ocean dumpsites closed, powerful new clean water laws on the books, and a greater public awareness of the ocean and its improved health, it's clear the system works.
