ATLANTIC CITY

March 4th & March 27th • 12:30-1:30pm

All are welcome to register for these FREE guided tours of the Camp Boardwalk: Atlantic City During World War II exhibit at the Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University led by curator Dr. Patricia Chappine. These tours will feature a special focus on the women who were active contributors to the wartime defense effort in Atlantic City. Enjoy live Q&A and conversations with the curator in these educational tours. Limited space available, register now to save your space!

About the exhibition: During WWII, Atlantic City, NJ became an essential part of the war effort, earning it the nickname "Camp Boardwalk." The Army converted major hotels into a military training and redistribution area and established the Thomas M. England General Hospital, a recovery and rehabilitation center for injured soldiers. The community mobilized its resources for Civilian Defense, calling on local men and women to be air raid wardens and airplane spotters. Women volunteered for the USO and the Red Cross, joined the military and worked as nurses. African American men and women served in the military, worked in the defense industry and volunteered on the home front. This exhibit showcases the wartime narrative of Atlantic City, connecting the stories of the men and women who trained, worked, recovered and volunteered there.

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 26 - MARCH 4, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Momentum shifts as priorities reorganize themselves late in the week. Decisions tied to career direction or leadership responsibilities require a steadier hand. Instead of reacting quickly, pause to measure impact.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Broader goals come back into focus as details demand refinement. Conversations about travel, expansion, or future plans need practical follow-through. Adjust expectations to match real timelines. Patient groundwork strengthens what you build next.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Financial and shared commitments require careful review as subtle shifts emerge. Discussions may reveal overlooked terms or assumptions. Address small imbalances directly rather than postponing them. Clear agreements protect both trust and stability.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relationship dynamics continue evolving as clarity replaces uncertainty. Emotional conversations benefit from steadiness rather than intensity. Express what you need without overexplaining. Balance strengthens when both sides feel heard.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Daily demands increase, calling for disciplined organization. Tasks that once felt manageable may need restructuring for efficiency. Protect your energy by eliminating unnecessary distractions. Consistency now prevents burnout later.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Creative energy rises as inspiration competes with responsibility. A small personal project or idea deserves focused attention. Carve out space for enjoyment without sacrificing obligations. Thoughtful pacing keeps both productivity and passion intact.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Home and family matters settle into clearer patterns. Decisions regarding shared routines benefit from transparent communication. Address lingering tension calmly to restore equilibrium. Stability builds through practical cooperation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 -Nov. 22)

Strategic conversations unfold as timing becomes essential. Information shared this week may alter your next move slightly. Ask direct questions before finalizing plans. Measured responses maintain your advantage.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Spending and resource management come under sharper focus. Reevaluate where energy and money are flowing most freely. Prioritize long-term gain over short-term reward. Discipline strengthens confidence.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Personal direction gains clarity as outside feedback sharpens perspective. Adjustments made now strengthen authority rather than weaken it. Stay grounded while refining expectations. Progress builds through steady alignment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Quiet insight replaces recent external pressure. Reflection reveals what deserves continued investment and what does not. Release distractions that no longer serve your focus. Subtle resets position you for stronger forward motion.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Team efforts move forward as responsibilities become more clearly defined. Group discussions benefit from practicality over idealism. Set realistic boundaries while maintaining supportive cooperation. Shared goals advance through consistency.

During the month of March, we give a little extra attention to all of the amazing accomplishments of strong, determined women. Since 1987, the United States has formally recognized March as National Women's History Month. Every woman has a story to tell and gifts to share with the world. So get ready, because this month is about honoring magnificent ladies, and we are ready to celebrate it to the fullest. Celebrating this women's month by supporting women chase her dreams and fulfilling her educational needs by finding her right scholarships from around the world.

History of National Women's History Month

Women's History Month celebrates the often-overlooked contributions of women in history, society, and culture. It has been annually observed in the United States and other countries, including the United Kingdom and Australia, every March since 1987. The month is observed in October in Canada. March is selected as the month for observing Women's History Month to correspond with International Women's Day on March 8, and Canada observes it in October in correspondence with Persons Day on October 18.

The month-long commemoration started with Women's History Day in 1978, organized by the school district of Sonoma, California. Hundreds of students participated in the essay competitions, many presentations were given, and a parade was held in Santa Rosa. The idea caught on and, a few years later, school districts, communities, and organizations all over the country were celebrating the day. In 1980, the National Women's History Alliance championed for the holiday to be observed as a national week, and this was backed by President Jimmy Carter, who issued the first proclamation declaring the week of March 8 as National Women's History Week. The following year, Congress forwarded a resolution establishing a national observance. Six years later, the expansion of the event to the whole month of March was successfully petitioned by the National Women's History Project.

How to Observe National Women's History Month

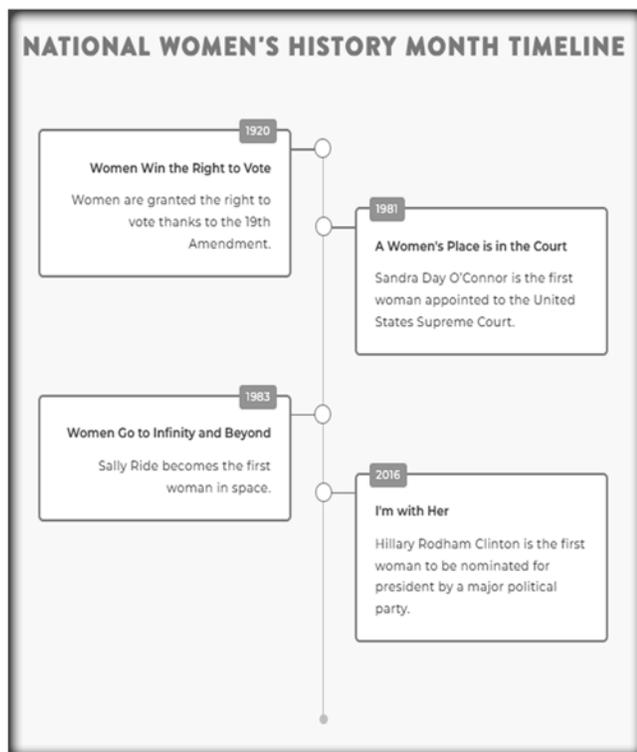

- Put it in writing - Think of a woman you look up to and admire. She can be someone in your personal life or a public figure. Write her a letter describing the impact she has had on your life. Your thoughtful gesture is sure to be appreciated.
- Have a girl's lunch - Lunch, breakfast, or dinner — it doesn't matter. Grab your granny, cousin Cheryl, or great-aunt Mimi and grab a bite to eat. Having the chance to spend some one-on-one time with the lovely ladies in your life is a great way to reconnect and remind them how much they mean to you. Who knows, they may even tell some interesting stories you've never heard before.
- Read up on women's history - There are some excellent museums dedicated entirely to the accomplishments of women. If you don't happen to live near one of these places, many venues set up special exhibits during National Women's History Month.

5 Powerful Facts About Women

- 1 - Women have always been present - Women have always been present in the military, temporarily and voluntarily.
- 2 - Army Nurse and Navy Nurse divisions - The Army Nurse Corps was created in 1901 and the Navy Nurse Corps was created in 1908.
- 3 - Progressive 1900s - Married women were allowed to own property in their own name and keep their own wages in the 1900s.
- 4 - First of its kind - The first college to accept women was Salem College, founded in 1772.
- 5 - Who runs the world? - More than 30% of all businesses today are owned and run by women.

Why National Women's History Month is Important

- We haven't given women their due attention - For many years, women weren't acknowledged enough in historical texts. This isn't because they weren't in the midst of important discoveries or helping out with important conquests. It's mainly because men wrote the majority of historical documents for thousands of years. In March, we dig deep to uncover many of the important roles women have played throughout history.
- Women are inspirational - Learning about women who have stood up for their rights and fought for what they believe is fantastic motivation. We all have the power to influence the direction our world is headed in, and National Women's History Month reminds us of that.
- It recognizes the strength and power of women - It's easy to get caught up in the grind of daily life, but this month is an excellent opportunity to put a spotlight on all of the major things women accomplish each and every day. From domestic chores and carrying babies to fighting wars and governing countries, women are pretty darn amazing.

KEEPING ACCOUNTABLE TO REACH YOUR GOALS

Keeping a food journal helps you become more mindful of your eating habits and patterns. By recording what you eat and drink, you may start to notice trends, such as certain times of day when you're more likely to snack or specific triggers that lead to unhealthy food choices. A food journal holds you accountable for your food choices by providing a clear record of your eating habits. Knowing that you'll need to write down everything you eat can encourage you to make healthier choices.

Reviewing your food journal can help you identify patterns and triggers that influence your eating behaviors. For example, you may notice that you tend to overeat when you're stressed or that you reach for sugary snacks when you're feeling tired.

Keeping a food journal allows you to set specific goals related to your nutrition and track your progress over time. Whether your goal is to eat more fruits and vegetables, reduce your intake of processed foods, or stay within a certain calorie range, a food journal can help you stay focused and motivated.

Research has shown that people who keep food journals are more successful at losing weight and keeping it off compared to those who don't. By recording your food intake, you can better understand your eating habits, make healthier choices, and stay on track with your weight loss goals.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

My Brilliant Friend by Elena Ferrante

Few novels capture the intensity of girlhood friendship with the precision of this one. Set in postwar Naples, the story follows Lila and Elena from childhood into adulthood, their lives intertwined by proximity, rivalry and deep affection. They are different in temperament and opportunity, yet inseparable in influence. Each measures herself against the other. Each pushes the other forward, sometimes intentionally, sometimes not.

What makes this novel so enduring is its refusal to simplify that bond. Friendship here is not sweet or tidy. It is competitive, sustaining, transformative. Ferrante understands that the girl who grows up beside you can become your fiercest critic, your greatest inspiration and the keeper of your origin story. It is a relationship that evolves without ever fully loosening its grip.

The Color Purple by Alice Walker

While often discussed for its exploration of resilience and survival, this novel is also a profound testament to the sustaining power of female connection. Through letters that span decades, we witness the unbreakable bond between Celie and Nettie, sisters separated by violence and silence yet spiritually tethered across time and distance.

Beyond sisterhood, the novel expands its vision to include the friendships that help women reclaim themselves. Celie's relationships with other women become spaces of affirmation, strength and redefinition. In a world that attempts to diminish her, these bonds restore her sense of worth.

It is a powerful reminder that friendship among women is not ornamental. It can be a force of survival, a source of dignity and a catalyst for transformation.

The Real Love Story? Powerful Books That Celebrate Female Friendship

The Island of Sea Women by Lisa See

On the Korean island of Jeju, two girls from vastly different backgrounds form a friendship that will shape the trajectory of their lives. Mi-ja and Young-sook train as haenyeo, part of an all-female diving collective whose work is both physically demanding and culturally significant. Their bond is forged in the sea, in shared danger and shared ambition.

As history intrudes with devastating consequences, their friendship is tested in ways neither could have imagined. See renders their connection with tenderness and gravity, showing how loyalty can be strained by political upheaval, family expectation and personal choice. This is a sweeping portrait of women bound by work, community and deep emotional history. It celebrates the ways friendship can endure ... and the cost when it falters.

Firefly Lane by Kristin Hannah

Tully and Kate meet as teenagers and quickly become central to one another's lives. Over the next three decades, their friendship absorbs the ordinary and extraordinary milestones of adulthood: career ambitions, marriage, motherhood, disappointment and triumph.

What resonates most in this story is its honesty about longevity. Long-term friendships are rarely static. They shift as circumstances change. Resentment and admiration coexist. Sacrifice and ambition sometimes pull in opposite directions. Yet beneath the conflict lies a shared history that neither woman can fully disentangle from her identity. This novel honors the depth of friendships that span decades and asks what it truly means to remain present in another woman's life as both of you evolve.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Eagle Arms

While seated in easy pose, take the arm position for eagle pose (arms crossed, bent, and parallel to the floor). This gives you a really nice stretch across the shoulder blades and center of the back, an area that is otherwise hard to stretch.

If you do the position with the right arm on top first, make sure to spend equal time with the left arm on top. Keep your legs in easy pose and twist to the right, bringing your left hand to your right knee and the right hand behind your back. Take your gaze gently over your right shoulder.

Then twist to the left, bringing the right hand to your left knee and the left hand behind your back, gazing over your left shoulder. Remember that this is a warmup, so this shouldn't be your deepest twist.

This is also a good place to take your easy pose into a forward bend. Since you've been sitting cross-legged for a while, switch the position of your legs so the opposite leg is in front. Continue to sit here until class starts or continue with a few more stretches.

EAGLE ARMS

STEP

Lift your elbows to the height of your shoulders, keeping your shoulders down and away from your ears.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin D

Often called the "sunshine vitamin," vitamin D helps your body absorb calcium and plays a key role in bone strength, immune function, and mood regulation. Research suggests it may reduce the risk of osteoporosis, support heart health, and help protect against certain infections. It's found naturally in fatty fish like salmon and tuna, fortified dairy products and cereals, egg yolks, and is also produced by your skin when exposed to sunlight.

GUIDE DOG AT WORK

Keep Guide Dog Teams Safe!

Guide dogs work to help people who are blind safely navigate the world. It is crucial that pet owners keep their dogs at a safe distance away from a guide dog team. While it may seem harmless for pets to visit with a guide dog at work, that dog is responsible for leading someone who cannot see. Distracting the guide dog could jeopardize the safety of the handler.

Please follow these tips to help keep guide dog teams safe:

- Please do not distract guide dogs. This includes calling the dog, making eye contact, feeding or petting the dog.
- Never let your pet be near a guide dog, even if leashed.
- It is helpful to greet a person who is blind and let them know you have a dog with you.
- Always speak to the handler directly and never touch the handler or the dog without the handler's permission.

Golden Moments and Grit: Team USA's Run in Milano-Cortina

After two fast-moving weeks across Milan and the mountain venues in Cortina and beyond, Team USA left the 2026 Winter Games with 33 medals and 12 golds, finishing second overall on the medal table. The medals came from a familiar American formula - speed on ice, fearless technical skill in the air, and just enough late-Games drama to turn the closing stretch into a highlight reel.

The first gold that set the tone arrived in alpine skiing, where Breezy Johnson attacked the downhill in Cortina and won by the thinnest of margins - a finish measured in hundredths that still felt like a mile when she crossed the line in first. It wasn't just a medal; it was an early message that Team USA wasn't showing up to "compete well" - they came to win.

From there, the Games settled into a rhythm of signature American strengths, led by skating. In speedskating, Jordan Stolz delivered one of the defining U.S. performances of Milano-Cortina, winning gold in both the 500 meters and the 1,000 meters, with record-setting pace that made his races feel inevitable by the final lap. On a team that won medals all over the map, Stolz's runs were a centerpiece: clean, aggressive, and timed perfectly when the pressure was highest.

Figure skating provided another anchor moment, especially in the team event, where the U.S. closed with a surge that brought real arena electricity - the kind that makes even casual viewers look up from their phones. Ilya Malinin capped a pivotal segment with a high-scoring performance that helped the Americans edge the field for gold, and the team effort was exactly that: pairs, dance, and singles contributions stacking up until the total clicked into place.

And then there were the winter-sport scenes that feel like pure Olympics: the cold air, the bright suits, and the split-second courage. In freestyle skiing, Team USA kept adding to its identity as a medals-in-the-air program. The mixed team aerials title was a headline moment, with Chris Lillis, Connor Curran, and Kaila Kuhn combining for a gold that pushed the U.S. gold count to a new high-water mark during the stretch run.

While the medals piled up, the Games also delivered the kind of closing-week punctuation that makes a final tally feel like a story instead of a spreadsheet. Hockey - always a sport that turns Olympic days into appointment viewing - gave Team USA a defining final-weekend moment when the American men beat Canada 2-1 in overtime for gold. It was a finish built for headlines: tight, tense, and decided in the one moment that matters most.

Across all of it, what made Team USA's 33-medal run compelling wasn't only the top-line number - it was the way the medals arrived in different flavors: dominant races, razor-thin finishes, and clutch team events that demanded composure as much as skill. By the time the final weekend arrived, the Americans weren't chasing a total; they were defending a standard, adding gold where they could and stacking silvers and bronzes when the podium was crowded by fractions of a second and one extra clean landing.

That's why the final table reads the way it does: 12 gold, 12 silver, 9 bronze - 33 medals, with the United States finishing behind Norway but firmly ahead of the rest of the pack. It was a Games defined by depth, star power, and a closing stretch that felt cinematic - the kind of Olympics that leaves the country not just proud of the medal count, but of the moments that built it.

Runners and walkers will gather on the Ocean City Boardwalk on Sunday, April 19, 2026, for the Mosaic 5K: Run the Boards for Dementia - a community event designed to raise awareness and funding for local Alzheimer's and dementia programs across South Jersey.

The morning begins at 8:30 a.m. with the 1-mile Family Fun Run and 5K walk, followed by the chip-timed 5K run at 9 a.m. The out-and-back course offers scenic beach views along one of the Shore's most iconic stretches. Awards will be presented at approximately 9:45 a.m., with medals for the top three male and female finishers in each age group, along with overall male and female winners in the 5K.

All proceeds benefit Mosaic's local programs serving Atlantic, Cape May, and Cumberland counties. Funds support dementia and Alzheimer's resources, caregiver support services, education initiatives, and enrichment opportunities for older adults. Organizers say the goal is simple: strengthen community connections while providing meaningful assistance to families navigating cognitive decline.

Mosaic 5K Returns to Ocean City Boardwalk to Support Dementia and Alzheimer's Programs

In addition to the race itself, participants can look forward to post-race amenities including a customizable breakfast box featuring fresh, local items, race shirts (while supplies last), and complimentary parking in the municipal lot for vehicles parked before 9 a.m. Packet pickup will be available the Friday prior to race day.

Whether competing for a personal best or walking in honor of a loved one, the Mosaic 5K aims to combine movement with purpose. Every registration directly supports community-based programming, ensuring that resources remain accessible to South Jersey families affected by Alzheimer's and dementia.

ATLANTIC COUNTY
MAGAZINE

Atlantic City St. Patrick's Day Parade Returns March 7

The Atlantic City Saint Patrick's Day Parade will step off at approximately 1 p.m. on Saturday, March 7, 2026, bringing thousands to the World-Famous Atlantic City Boardwalk for one of the city's longest-running and most spirited traditions.

Now in its 38th year, the non-profit parade celebrates Irish heritage while showcasing the energy and diversity of Atlantic City. Marching bands, string and pipe bands, Irish dancers, community organizations, and themed floats will line the boardwalk for a festive afternoon that draws families, visitors, and longtime locals alike. On parade day, organizers like to say, "everyone is Irish."

This year's Grand Marshal is Daniel J. Gallagher, an accomplished attorney and lifelong Atlantic City resident whose roots in the city trace back more than a century. Gallagher has served on the Parade Committee since 2021 alongside his wife, Denise, and has long been active in local civic and public institutions across Atlantic County. A Holy Spirit High School graduate and former Atlantic City Beach Patrol member, Gallagher has built a legal career focused on municipal, tax, and public-sector law while remaining deeply invested in Atlantic City's future.

Parade organizers say Gallagher embodies the spirit of the event - tradition, service, and community pride - making him a fitting leader at the front of this year's procession.

Beyond the pageantry, the parade continues to serve as an economic boost for Atlantic City, benefiting local restaurants, casinos, small businesses, and hospitality venues along the route. More importantly, it brings together residents of all backgrounds for a shared celebration on the Boardwalk.

For those who like to parade with a crew, Maynard's is once again organizing a group for the 38th annual event. Marchers can join Maynard's Crew and enjoy DJ CrazyTrane's festive music, with $20 covering a parade spot plus transportation to and from Maynard's. A limited number of commemorative parade badges will also be available for $10. Spots are limited, and sign-ups are available at Maynard's - see their ad on page 12 for more.
