HOROSCOPE

MAY 1 - MAY 7, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
You're feeling restless, but pacing yourself will lead to better results. A project you started earlier could finally show signs of real momentum. Trust your instincts midweek, especially when new ideas pop up. By the weekend, a moment of reflection helps you reset your direction.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
The focus is on your personal growth and how you show up for yourself. You may need to push through discomfort to claim something you deserve. Financial talks or big decisions favor a slow and steady approach. Celebrate your progress without losing sight of your next goal.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
There's a lot going on behind the scenes this week, and your mind races to keep up. Listen carefully—you might catch important clues others miss. A relationship could reveal hidden layers if you stay patient. Let your curiosity guide you, but don't overextend yourself.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
Dreams about your future feel more vivid now, and it's time to reconnect with them. Allies and friends could offer unexpected encouragement. Midweek is ideal for making a small but meaningful adjustment to your plans. The weekend promises a warm reminder of why you started.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
Recognition is coming your way, but it's important not to let pride cloud your judgment. A mentor or boss could offer feedback that's worth considering. Trust your talents, but remain open to learning. A playful attitude later in the week helps you regain balance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
New ideas about your path are forming, and it's a good time to challenge old beliefs. You're ready for something bigger, even if it feels risky. Midweek conversations could open doors you hadn't even considered. Stay flexible without abandoning your inner compass.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
Themes of trust and vulnerability surface strongly this week. You may need to renegotiate the terms of a key relationship—or at least set clearer expectations. Financial news could arrive unexpectedly, so stay alert. You're learning that your security begins with your self-respect.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24- Nov. 22)
Important relationships are shifting, and you're called to be honest about what you need. Negotiations go better if you keep your cool and listen deeply. Midweek clarity helps you decide which bonds deserve deeper investment. This weekend, meaningful connections are worth celebrating.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Daily habits and small tasks feel more important than usual, and it's a good time to tighten your focus. A minor adjustment to your routine could have major long-term effects. Health, work, and personal discipline all come into focus midweek. Leave time for fun to avoid burnout.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
Passion projects and matters of the heart take priority now. Creative energy is strong, but don't stress about perfect results—joy is the goal. Romance could feel sweeter or more adventurous if you stay present. The weekend brings opportunities to express yourself more boldly.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
Home, family, and emotional safety take center stage this week. You might feel torn between personal needs and outer world demands—choose wisely. Healing old patterns is possible now if you're willing to stay with uncomfortable emotions. By the weekend, a sense of peace returns.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Conversations carry more weight than usual this week, so choose your words thoughtfully. A fresh idea could light a new path forward, especially around midweek. Stay open to learning from unexpected sources. A little quiet reflection this weekend could spark a major insight.

Beltane, or May Day, is celebrated every year on May 1. It is one of the eight Sabbats and falls halfway between the spring equinox and the coming summer solstice. This day marks the coming summer and is associated with fertility. It represents the peak of spring and the beginning of summer when Earth's energies are considered the strongest. The festival is celebrated with bonfires, dancing, and performing fertility rituals. In ancient times, Celts used to light two bonfires because they believed the bonfires would purify people and increase their fertility. People would also pass cattle between the two fires, as they thought it would purify the cattle and ensure the herd's fertility.

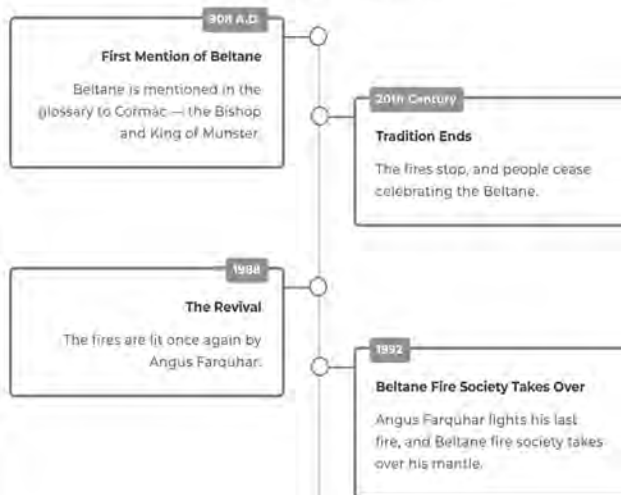

History of Beltane

The word 'Beltane' comes from the Celtic God 'Bel,' which is an Irish word for 'fire.' So, this festival should be celebrated by lighting a bonfire. The fires recall the growing power of the sun, and it is an opportunity to cleanse and renew the conditions of the community. But from ancient times, this practice declined, and the towns and villages slowly abandoned it in the 19th century. The last Beltane fire recorded in Helmsdale took place in 1820. The lighting stopped in the Shetland Isles by the 1870s. By the start of the 20th century, Edinburgh, which had celebrated Beltane since time immemorial and lit the fires during Arthur's time, stopped celebrating it.

It was in 1988 when there was a revival of the great tradition. In Edinburgh, Beltane fires were lit once again. Angus Farquhar led the movement, followed by the industrial band Test Dept, who took part in the first Beltane performance. They recreated the sense of community and an appreciation of the cyclical nature of the seasons. Within five years, the number of performers and the number of the audience grew.

People came to support the continuation of the festival. Calton Hill became the seat of the new Beltane celebrations. In 1992, Angus Farquhar organized his last Beltane. The Beltane Fire Society formed and took his mantle. By 1992, the audience reached 10,000, and by 2001, the festival took on its first paid production manager to coordinate the growing event. In 2004, they started charging for tickets to attend the event.

MOVING MAGGIE: A Midlife Moxie Novel by Nancy Christie

The year Maggie turned 60, she is hit with a triple whammy of unpleasant and definitely unwanted events: the loss of her job, the ending of her marriage and the need to find a new place to live. Her move to a small rural community sparks a series of unexpected opportunities and new friendships. But she's so focused on regaining her financial stability and professional status that she is afraid to make time for a personal life and possibly even a romantic relationship. Can Maggie learn how to create a more balanced life?

Moving Maggie (third in the Midlife Moxie novel series) is a contemporary novel about the challenges the 60-year-old protagonist undergoes as she is faced with starting a new life.

AGAIN, ONLY MORE LIKE YOU by Catalina Margulis

A story that's honest, hilarious, heartbreaking, and above all, immensely relatable.

In the bustling heart of New York, Carmen has it all — a high-profile career, a loving family and a home straight out of a magazine. But as her 40th looms, her life begins to unravel. A surprise pregnancy, a shocking job loss and the unwelcome sight of crow's feet force her to rethink her perfect life and what it means to truly have it all.

Meanwhile, in the quiet of Maine, Carmen's best friend Ally, a spirited marine biologist, confronts her own crisis as she faces the fallout from a doomed affair with her boss. With her romantic life in shambles and her professional life no better, Ally relocates to Portland, Oregon, hoping for a fresh start and one last chance at love.

As their individual journeys to happiness lead them in different directions, the strength of their friendship is tested. Tragedy strikes, bringing hidden resentments to the surface and forcing them to confront their past — and each other. In the process, they must answer a pivotal question: Are their best years really behind them or is turning 40 just the beginning of their greatest adventures?

Uplifting, Feel Good Reads to Brighten Your Days

BETTER IN THE MORNING by Fern Ronay

Veronica Buccino has a plan: marry John DelMonico and quit her soul-sucking job as a lawyer. And when he tells her he has big news, she's certain he'll pop the question. But instead of proposing, John informs her that he's moving to London.

Heartbroken, Veronica feels lost. Salvatore and Antoinette, her dead grandparents, begin to visit her dreams in an attempt to steer her in the right direction. At their suggestion, Veronica takes a news reporting class, which leads to a challenging freelance assignment covering a conspiracy trial. She also begins dating an unlikely suitor: creative Syd Blackman. Just when her love life and career are looking up, Veronica is tossed back to square one by an event that makes her question all her new choices.

HUSBANDS AND OTHER SHARP OBJECTS by Marilyn Simon Rothstein

After a lifetime of marriage, Marcy Hammer is ready to get herself unhitched — just as everyone else in her life is looking for a commitment. Her new boyfriend, Jon, wants to get serious, and her soon-to-be ex-husband, Harvey, is desperate to get back together. When her headstrong daughter announces a secret engagement to Harvey's attorney, Marcy finds herself planning her daughter's wedding as she plans her own divorce.

Now with two huge events on the horizon, the indomitable Marcy soon realizes that there's nothing like a wedding to bring out the worst in everybody. From petty skirmishes over an ever-growing guest list to awkward confrontations with her sticky-fingered new in-laws, pulling off the wedding is going to be a challenge; seeing her divorce through is going to be a trial. And trying to make everyone happy might prove to be impossible — because in the end, Marcy alone must make a choice between something old and something new.

So you think you know the Kentucky Derby? When a sporting event gets to be 151 years old, it can accumulate some trivia. The following just scratches the surface of some fun facts that make up the Greatest Two Minutes in Sports.

1. Temporary City: More than 125 temporary structures and 28,842 feet of fencing are built for Derby Week at Churchill Downs.
2. Mint Julep Madness: Over 300,000 mint juleps are served during Derby Week, requiring about 1,000 pounds of mint and 50,000 liters of bourbon.
3. Garland of Roses: The winner's garland weighs about 40 pounds, is 122 inches long, and contains over 400 "Freedom" roses. The first garland of roses was presented to Burgoon King in 1932.
4. Fastest Derby: Secretariat still holds the Kentucky Derby speed record at 1:59.40 for 1 1/4 miles, set in 1973.
5. First Mint Julep Glass: The now-iconic Mint Julep glass collectible tradition started in 1938.
6. Favorite Letter: Horses whose names start with "S" have won the Derby 19 times — more than any other letter.
7. Highest-Priced Derby Horse: Fusaichi Pegasus was bought for a record $4 million before winning the 2000 Derby.
8. Post Position Luck: No horse has ever won the Derby from Post 17.
9. Longest Shot: Donerail in 1913 paid a record $184.90 on a $2 win bet — the biggest Derby upset.
10. Fillies' Rare Feat: Only three fillies have ever won the Kentucky Derby — the last was Winning Colors in 1988.
11. Gelding Winners: Nine geldings have won the Derby, including recent ones like Funny Cide (2003) and Mine That Bird (2009). There's one in the race this year, Blue Grass Stakes winner Burnham Square.
12. Mystik Dan's Photo Finish: Mystik Dan's 2024 win was part of the closest three-horse photo finish since 1947.
13. Most Decorated Trainers: Ben Jones and Bob Baffert share the Derby record with six wins each.
14. Oldest Winning Trainer: Art Sherman, at age 77, won with California Chrome in 2014. D. Wayne Lukas, at age 89, could become the oldest this year.
15. Youngest Winning Jockey: Alonzo Clayton won aboard Azra in 1892 at just 15 years old.
16. First Female Jockey: Diane Crump broke barriers in 1970 by riding Fathom to 15th place.
17. Oldest Major Sporting Event: The Derby is the oldest continuously held major sporting event in the U.S., running since 1875.
18. First Saturday Tradition: The date for the Derby was officially established as the first Saturday in May in 1931. (It was run in September because of COVID in 2020).
19. Infield Revelry: The infield packs in around 80,000 fans every Derby Day, blending partying and picnics.

20. Derby Purse: The race purse rose to a record $5 million starting in 2024, with $3.1 million to the winner.

21. My Old Kentucky Home: The tradition of singing "My Old Kentucky Home" before the Derby dates back to 1921.

22. "Run for the Roses": The phrase was coined by sportswriter Bill Corum in 1925. The red rose became the official flower of the Kentucky Derby in 1904.

23. Longest Winning Margin: Eight lengths is the largest margin of victory, achieved four times, last by Assault in 1946.

24. Japan's Bid: Forever Young finished third in 2024, the best showing ever for a Japan-based horse in the Derby. Two Japan-based horses will again compete in this year's Derby — Admire Daytona and Luxor Café.

25. Triple Crown Offspring: This year's Derby will feature sons of both American Pharoah and Justify. Pharoah has two sons in the race — Publisher and Luxor Café. Justify is the sire of American Promise.

2025 Kentucky Derby Cheat Sheet

After an exciting several months of preparation, horse racing's biggest moment is only days away, as the best 3-year-old Thoroughbreds are set to compete May 3 in the $5 million Kentucky Derby Presented by Woodford Reserve at Churchill Downs.

The Kentucky Derby remains the one horse race that transcends the sport and becomes an international event, bringing approximately 150,000 spectators to the iconic racetrack in Louisville and attracting tens of millions of viewers worldwide. It is the first leg of U.S. Thoroughbred racing's Triple Crown, a very difficult three-race series followed by the Preakness Stakes May 17 and the Belmont Stakes June 7 that has only been swept by 13 horses.

Winning the Kentucky Derby itself is for most owners, trainers, and jockeys the biggest prize in horse racing. The 1 1/4-mile race is restricted to 3-year-olds, making it a one-time-only goal, and while the purse has been raised in recent years, becoming a part of history as a Derby winner brings its own prestige. Kentucky Derby entrants have already gained experience by starting in one or more qualifying prep races, but once that 20-horse starting gate opens in the early evening, a new test awaits. Every of them will face the challenge of competing against a field that's larger than any they've ever faced before plus trying a distance longer than in any of their prior races and in front of a raucous crowd to boot. It's these unique variables that justify the Derby's nickname as the "most exciting two minutes in sports."

Recent Kentucky Derbys have certainly lived up to that reputation. The past three have seen double-digit odds horses win under Churchill Downs' iconic Twin Spires, including the second-biggest longshot in the race's history in 2022. Last year's Derby resulted in a thrilling three-horse photo finish, with a nose separating winner Mystik Dan from runner-up Sierra Leone and the same margin between second and third.

What will this year's 151st Kentucky Derby bring? A competitive field is lined up featuring horses connected to some of the biggest names in the sport as well as contenders coming from less heralded origins. The Derby will be showcased on NBC Sports, which will broadcast the race live during a five-hour program from 2:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. ET on NBC and also stream it on Peacock. The network will also present coverage earlier Saturday from Churchill Downs on USA Network and Peacock from noon to 2:30 p.m. ET. Post time for the Kentucky Derby is set for 6:57 p.m. ET.

Conquer Small Clutter Hotspots!

Decluttering often means tackling a big area such as a kitchen or garage. If that feels overwhelming, start small. Tackling a tiny clutter zone gives you a quick win and the motivation to keep going.

The Dumping Zone (i.e., a counter, entryway or chair)

Toss unwanted mail, put what you need in a basket and place your keys on a tray or wall key holder.

The Catch-All Kitchen Drawer

Toss those random plastic takeout utensils, sauce packets, old pens and scraps of paper you don't need.

Bathroom Cabinets

Get rid of half-empty or leaking toiletries and expired products.

Spare Room Closets

Take everything out, then assess what to keep, toss or donate.

Coat Closet

Keep only what you need for the season you are in and store the rest.

The Car

Keep a bag handy for trash and wet wipes to take care of spills.

Digital Clutter

Computer slow? Try deleting old files in your download folder and emptying the recycle bin.

ADAM RODENBECK & Griffey

Indianapolis resident Adam Rodenbeck was paired with his first Seeing Eye dog in 2001. Since then, he has worked with two additional dogs, and he says each time he's learned something new about himself.

Adam especially enjoyed training with Seeing Eye instructors in New York City. "Weaving in and out of people and moving as fast as we do," Adam says. "That's freedom."

Adam's most recent companion is Griffey, a yellow Labrador/golden retriever cross. The photo shows Adam on the floor of the Dorothy Harrison Eustis Lounge in the Main House at The Seeing Eye, with Griffey sitting in front of him.

Griffey accompanies Adam wherever he goes and is especially helpful when he travels to conferences for his employer, Salesforce, a technology company. As a software engineer, Adam has given presentations to large audiences, Griffey by his side on stage. This fall, Adam was one of 40,000 people to attend a tech conference in San Francisco, a challenge Griffey and Adam tackled with ease.

"Griffey was amazing," Adam says. "It was really great to walk around, and he was on it the whole time. The independence I have while walking with him gives me the confidence to be in the business world."

THE SEEING EYE
Gala

WEDNESDAY, MAY 7, 2025 • 6PM - 9PM
 MOUNTAIN RIDGE COUNTRY CLUB • WEST CALDWELL, NJ

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Knees, Chest, and Chin (Ashtanga Namaskara)

Ashtanga Namaskara was once taught to all beginning yoga students as an alternative to and preparation for Chaturanga Dandasana. In recent years, it's fallen out of favor. As a result, some students are rushed into Chaturanga before they are ready. It belongs in the sun salutation series for beginners. Plus, it's an excellent warmup yoga pose for deeper backbends. Take your time and enter the yoga pose slowly from a plank. Lower your knees to the yoga mat with your toes tucked. Keep your elbows in toward your body as you lower your chest and chin to the floor. Shoulders should hover over your hands.

KNEES, CHEST, AND CHIN POSE

Keep your elbows tucked in and your hips lifted as you bring your chest to the floor.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Folic Acid

Here's a vitamin you definitely want to make sure you have enough of if you're a woman who's planning to get pregnant. Getting enough folic acid can help prevent birth defects in a baby's brain and spine. You need 400 micrograms (mcg) per day, and the CDC recommends taking that much in a supplement, along with whatever you get from your diet.

WHAT'S UP WITH FRESHPET?

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

As with Farmer's Dog, written about in an earlier article, there are positive reports and negative reports about Freshpet. I personally don't like to sell or feed pet food that is controversial. Once a food has a serious recall like Victor, it is off our shelves. That may seem harsh but we at The Wagging Tail do not like to take chances when it comes to the health of beloved pets. On a practical level, we can only buy Freshpet from a single distributor and the financial requirement to buy from them is substantial which means we must carry more product than we sell before the best buy date. Consequently, we end up discarding too much product and made the decision to discontinue selling Freshpet.

Positive experiences cited by Freshpet customers (according to the article I reviewed), have been noticeable improvements in the pet's skin and coat, digestion, and energy levels. Perhaps that was due to an upgrade of what they had previously been feeding? Freshpet cites using high-quality human-grade ingredients and a gentle steam cooked method. Whether it was truth or fiction - I never delved that far - the Freshpet sold to pet stores was supposedly a higher quality than found in the local supermarket. Another positive element, like Farmer's Dog, is convenience of pre-portioned meals in refrigerated packaging. One added benefit to Farmer's Dog is that it can be frozen which prolongs its longevity. Freshpet can only be refrigerated and must be used within a given time once opened.

Negative issues have been mounting, and even their stock on the NASDAQ global market trading as FRPT, took a hit in January 2025 after a disappointing 4th quarter in 2024 going from $162 per share to $84, but they are optimistic. Some of the decline in revenues could be from customer complaints. One issue was the possibility of DCM-Dilated Cardiomyopathy from an abundance of legumes and peas in Freshpet. I checked that claim and it was debunked online. Besides, Freshpet contains Taurine. And legumes, including peas and beans, are good for gut health, blood sugar control, and heart health. A problem that is factual is the appearance of mold at times in the product. There have been reports as well of Listeria contamination which causes elevated liver numbers. Freshpet has had recalls due to salmonella contamination. There is one site which claims that there are dozens of testimonials about the death of pets from eating Freshpet. It would behoove you to do extensive research on any food that you feed your pets.

My mantra, is don't feed foods that advertise extensively - you are paying for their advertising campaign, not good quality. And stay away from foods that have corn, wheat, or soy, as well as other questionable ingredients.

Thank you again for choosing The Wagging Tail as Best of The Jersey Shore, three years in a row.

Thank you always for helping a small, local business
