Release the week of April 5 - 11, 2024

HOROSCOPE

APRIL 4 - APRIL 10, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
 It's not the moment to pre-empt anything as Mercury moves from shadow to retrograde on April 1st in Aries and everything should be viewed as tentative. Friday is when the love goddess enters your sign where she'll be resident for most of April lighting up your capacity to radiate love and magnetise all that makes you happy. Powerful Pluto adds extra oomph on Saturday.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
 As you are naturally a sensible soul you've already picked up the signals that now is not the time to rush in to anything. Mercury turns retrograde on Monday and April looks set to deliver what you least expected. Some of it thrillingly positive and other aspects requiring a lot of refining and definition. For now, remain open minded and look for the little wins.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 Mercury's retrograde cycle tends to affect Geminis more than most since this is your ruling planet and the reason why you are described as 'mercurial'. It doesn't change your phenomenal skill set, however outcomes are likely to incur several versions during the month of April so be your versatile self in all that you think and do.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
 Cancerians are circumspect by nature as you like to avoid wrong moves. So Mercury retrograde requires extra careful provision for plan B's during most of the month of April and a step by step approach. Meanwhile Venus arrives at the top spot in your chart highlighting all that you want to showcase out into the world - it's a powerful look.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
 Whilst you're re-thinking various plans around the month to come, try to build in plenty of leeway as Mercury's retrograde often throws in some curve balls. Play around with small details and enjoy the exploration of possibilities that lie further ahead which are likely to open up new horizons in all sorts of ways.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)
 As your ruling planet Mercury flips backwards from April 1st you need to be at your most open-minded. Getting out of a 'scripted' way of life and considering new options could provide valuable information and ideas which resolve old issues in the long run. Take great care around the 3rd when Venus meets with woo-woo Neptune - all is not what it seems and a relationship could go down the rabbit hole. Stay grounded.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 As Mercury begins its retrograde cycle in the relationship angle of your chart you're being given time to think about the trajectory of where you're going and with whom. It could be that the month of April offers you an alternative or that those close to you are changing their minds about something which affects you. For now, explore all possibilities and consider what's unfolding to be a point of interest.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
 So many issues are in flux at the moment you're having to make adjustments and certain plans remain open-ended. However, this is far from a cycle of passivity as huge celestial downloads are due for you this month on the 8th, 21st and 24th. Right now you may be playing a waiting game. Yet by next Saturday a great alliance between Venus and Pluto helps you see you are in fact in the power seat.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
 There's magic and mayhem in these stars as Mercury begins a retrograde cycle on Monday 1st followed by the union of Venus and Neptune which takes you into the dream state. Maintaining a grip on practical matters isn't easy so buy yourself some time before making any major commitments. The solar eclipse is brewing and April is subject to many twists and turns. Go carefully!

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
 This week should be used for exploration rather than decision making as Mercury's retrograde is going to change the landscape over the next few weeks. Right now you are not in possession of the full facts and even a realistic Capricorn has soft spots which can make you vulnerable to things that may not pan out exactly as you think. Watch for what might get lost in translation.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
 Prepare for extraordinary times as nothing is linear, straight forward or simple - it's going to be surreal and silly! Mercury is moving retrograde from April 1st and we know not to take a fool's leap on that day, but generally the next few weeks do come with this caveat. You may be thrilled that the hive mind is forming around an interesting idea or project but keep the details loose at this stage.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
 As Venus and Neptune smooch in your sign this week for some Pisceans there's a blissed out sense of gorgeousness. However, Neptune sometimes has a flip side which can be so confusing it takes you in and paints pictures that are a fantasy rather than reality. As Mercury is turning retrograde from the 1st enjoy the magic but wait to see if it's a mirage.

Nobu Atlantic City

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

Name of venue: Nobu Atlantic City

Where are you located? We are at Caesar's Atlantic City, 2100 Atlantic Avenue, Atlantic City, NJ 08401

Hours of operation: We are open Wednesday, Thursday and Sunday from 5pm - 9pm; Friday and Saturday from 5pm - 10pm

Parking tips: Park in the Hotel Garage, flat rates Monday through Friday $15, Saturday through Sunday $20, $40 for Valet

What does your venue specialize in? Japanese celebrity chef and restaurateur Nobuyuki "Nobu" Matsuhisa is renowned for his signature Peruvian-influenced modern Japanese cuisine.

What is the current reason one MUST come to your venue? Nobu is famous for its special menus and unique dining experience. Eating all of Nobu's special menu can be a once-in-a-lifetime experience for many foodies.

What is your secret favorite that the crowds have yet to discover? While it is impossible to play favoritism with our menu items, our Black Cod with Miso is the most popular dish – and for good reason. Cod is a very accessible fish that can be enjoyed by any experienced fish-eater, as well as someone who rarely eats seafood.

Do you have a signature dish or drink? Yes, our Tanoshi Hours are an unforgettable experience, hosted Wednesdays through Sundays, between 5 pm and 6 pm, featuring signature cocktails with curated bar bites.

Why is your venue a necessary part of Atlantic City? The debut of Nobu Atlantic City at Caesars Atlantic City is contributing to the revitalization of the famed Atlantic City Boardwalk. We are also aiding to raise the hospitality bar by introducing world-class experiences to the market.

Would you like to highlight a star employee or staff member? All our employees are equally exemplary.

What are some other special reasons to come visit? Boasting a sweeping view of the Atlantic Ocean, Nobu Atlantic City offers renowned Nobu Style cuisine, exceptional service, and an ideal setting for entertaining, from private intimate dinners in our Sake Room to cocktail parties in the lounge. The restaurant includes flexible spaces that can accommodate various-sized parties. For a comprehensive personal consultation, please inquire at nobureservationsac@caesars.com.

Do you have any weekly specials or upcoming events? Join us on Friday, April 19th at 6:30pm for Taste of Nobu Atlantic City hosted by Chef Nobu Matsuhisa. Indulge in a culinary journey with signature canapes, chef stations, and handcrafted cocktails. Tickets are limited, so don't delay!

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: We have a business or smart casual dress code, and we do accept rewards points in our restaurant.

Four Reads to Kickoff Spring

Coded to Kill by Marshall Runge, M.D.

Is medicine's greatest breakthrough also the world's most efficient killing machine? After a decade of development, Drexel Hospital's cutting-edge Electronic Health Records system is about to become the national standard and revolutionize health care. Housing the real-time medical records of every American, the EHR system will enable doctors to access records with a keystroke and issue life-or-death medical orders with a finger swipe.

No one wants the EHR to succeed more than Hugh Torrence, a former NSA honcho who sees the system as a tool for unimaginable and unaccountable power. The only thing standing in his way is a loose-knit group of Drexel employees with conflicting agendas and questionable loyalties.

While they search for answers, the suspicious patient deaths keep mounting as the target on their back grows larger. Purchase at <https://bit.ly/3TC7Dyz>.

Langston Mangston's Cool-Le-Made Adventure by Chandler G. Hayes

Join Langston-Mangston, his parents, and his imaginary best friend, the pink elephant Zonky, as they embark on fun family discussions about personal finance. Covering basic concepts that cultivate early awareness about how money affects our daily lives, Langston Mangston's Cool-Le-Made Adventure is a lively guide to success for young readers ages six to 12.

Encouraging parents to embrace their child's interest in family finances with mindfulness and care, children are empowered to develop and communicate new ideas, set goals, ask for help, overcome obstacles, and build confidence. The author, with two school-age children, motivates other children to be courageous when considering and planning new tasks and projects - a perfect book for entertainment, engagement and learning. Purchase at <https://bit.ly/3TxhGVF>.

The Dream Collector: Book I "Sabrine and Sigmund Freud" by R.w. Meek

The Dream Collector thrusts readers into the dynamic ambiance of late 19th-century Paris where science and art entwine. Against the backdrop of the emerging Impressionist and Post-Impressionist movements, the story centers on Julie Forette, a self-educated woman from Marseilles. Her journey leads her to the notorious Salpêtrière, a sprawling hospital and asylum governed by the esteemed neurologist Dr. Jean-Martin Charcot. Amidst the chaos of over five thousand disabled, demented, and abandoned women, Julie forges a friendship with the young intern Sigmund Freud. Together, they explore the conscious-altering power of cocaine, hypnotism, and dream interpretation, embarking on an urgent quest to find a cure for the star hysteric, Sabrine Weiss, before Dr. Charcot resorts to radical measures. As the narrative unfolds, Julie's entanglements extend beyond the asylum, intertwining with major artists like Cezanne, Gauguin, and Monet, making Belle Époque Paris come alive in an unforgettable way. Purchase at <https://geni.us/BS4c>.

At the Edge of the Ice by Carolyn Armstrong

The perfect book for middle-graders to celebrate Earth Day later this month, At The Edge Of The Ice is a heartfelt eco-adventure about the complexities of how habitats are affected by climate change and how small steps can make a big difference. Sydney Cabella talks to animals, but they never talk back — until one day, they do.

When an intuitive eleven-year-old Sydney, her brainiac twin sister Sierra, and her photojournalist parents explore the Arctic ecosystem near the North Pole, Sydney accidentally hits her head. When she wakes up, the impossible happens: she and the animals can talk to each other.

The first animal who speaks up, a ringed seal named Ringo, tells Sydney that loss of habitat and global warming have pushed this ecosystem to the brink of collapse. With just 72 hours, the twins must put their squabbles aside to decipher Ringo's clues and help. Purchase at <https://bit.ly/3VvHkvq>.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Raised Hands Pose (Urdhva Hastasana)

Built upon the foundation of Mountain pose, Urdhva Hastasana requires you to continue to root into the ground with your legs while reaching for the sky with your arms. The result is a full body stretch, a great way to usher in the physical part of your yoga session. This pose improves posture, strengthens the legs, and provides a full body stretch. If you've ever gotten out of bed in the morning and had a long languorous stretch, that's basically urdhva hastasana. But just as Mountain Pose is a lot more than just standing around, doing raised hands pose correctly requires attention to detail. This pose is also the foundation for many other poses, so getting it right can help you build toward more advanced poses.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Niacin (vitamin B3)

Niacin, also known as vitamin B3, helps:
the body release energy from food
keep the nervous system and skin healthy
There are 2 forms of niacin: nicotinic acid and nicotinamide. Both are found in food.

Good sources of niacin include:
meat; fish; wheat flour; eggs

CHI KIM & Nina

Musician. Inventor. Professor. It's hard to describe Chi Kim or his profession in just one word. He's all of the above... as well as a husband, father, and Seeing Eye graduate.

Chi is an Associate Professor at Berklee College of Music in Boston, and Nina, a black Labrador/golden retriever cross, is Chi's second Seeing Eye dog. He was matched with Nina after the retirement of his first Seeing Eye dog, Paige, also a cross.

Paige is still part of the family, as shown in the photo that depicts the happy Kim family seated outdoors, with Chi; his wife, Tiffany, with 5-month-old, Sky; 5-year-old, Sunny; and poised beside Chi, the youthfully alert Nina and elder stateswoman Paige.

While each Seeing Eye dog has given Chi the independence and confidence he needed to pursue his very busy life, they have very different personalities. Paige was high-spirited – Chi laughingly refers to her as “Rampaige” – and gave Chi the self-assurance to travel on business to 10 countries. Nina is a more reserved professional, but playful at home with the kids. Which makes her a perfect fit.

“I usually see problems as challenges to solve, not struggles to endure,” Chi said.

National Library Week – April 7-13, 2024

National Library Week, from April 7 to 13, allows us to promote our local libraries and their workers. Libraries are pivotal to society to both universities and to schools. Celebrating them, means celebrating silent reading, our communities and getting into college. Therefore, it's an obvious good deed. This National Library Week, let's look back on our love for the smell inside an old book, and wholeheartedly thank our local public libraries.

History of National Library Week

Research has revealed that by the mid-1950s, Americans were spending significant amounts of time listening to the radio, watching TV and playing musical instruments. Through concern that people were not reading enough, in 1954 a non-profit book committee was established by the American Library Association (ALA) and the American Book Publishers. National Library Week was first sponsored in 1958, and the weeklong event was developed with the intent to motivate people to read as well as to support and show appreciation to their local libraries.

The yearly affair is also doubly sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) who decided that this week be observed every April. When first set out, the aims of this week were described as ambitious. Some goals were thought to be overzealous. Things like, expecting this week to improve American household incomes and health, and helping to develop strong and happy family lives.

National Library Week also occurs during Support Teen Literature Day, School Library Month and National Bookmobile Day. The first theme ever in 1958 was "Wake up and Read!" The libraries expected to observe National Library Week are non-specific and much broader. This includes school libraries, local libraries, academic libraries, university libraries, and much more.

Ironically, 2020's theme for National Library Week is "Find Your Place at The Library" but due to the Covid-19 global pandemic, libraries are now closed amid a nationwide lockdown. However, many libraries are virtually open, providing services and digital content to your heart's desire.

National Library Week Activities

- Use their online resources - Due to Covid-19, this year, let's celebrate by showing our appreciation for libraries and librarians around the world who are still making content available to us this week. Let's use the online services they've made readily available to us and continue supporting them as a community in this strange time of crisis.
- Support your local library on social media - Show your support on social media. Follow the American Library Association and I Love Libraries, make sure you're using the correct hashtags. They're #LibrariesTransform and #NationalLibraryWeek. Follow these accounts and interact with other library lovers. ALA: Twitter: @ALALibrary, Facebook: @AmericanLibraryAssociation, Instagram: @americanlibraryassociation. Follow I Love Libraries: Twitter and Facebook: @IloveLibraries.
- Re-read your favorite books - In honor of this week, sift through your book collection and revisit the classics. Try and pick the books you first read by borrowing from the library. Relish in the moving corridors of Hogwarts, walk in the snow in Narnia or skip down memory lane by reading a great novel that makes you reminisce and that can also transport you to another place and time.

Why We Love National Library Week

- We love librarians - National Library Workers Day also falls on National Library Week. It celebrates library staff, administrators, library groups, users and all who work in libraries all over the country. This special day also recognizes the valuable contributions made by these library workers.
- Books! Books! Books! Every day is a book themed revelation! Each day during the week are book and library themed, a haven for book junkies out here. On Monday there is a "State of America's Libraries Report" released which includes a list of the "Ten frequently Challenged Books" of the year list. On Thursday, we are encouraged to share our library stories including which books we've read there.
- Free stuff - The American Library Association (ALA) plans for each year in advance. They reveal the theme around January and offer free promotional tools to promote the week. These materials include press releases, ready-made graphics that can be shared on social media and PSA's. They also plan a webinar where they share creative ideas from the public on how libraries can use National Library Week to reach communities even further. Email campaign@ala.org to contribute.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Catch all the action from the men's and women's NCAA tournaments on ESPN, TBS.

Even though it's now April, March Madness isn't over quite yet. The Final Four is on the horizon, meaning a trip to the national championship is on the line. Whether you want to see Caitlin Clark light it up from deep for the Iowa Hawkeyes in the women's NCAA tournament or witness Zach Edey try and bring the Purdue Boilermakers one step closer to their first men's basketball title, we're here to help you stream all the action. Keep scrolling for the lowdown on the Final Four and to find out how you can catch every minute of every upcoming game.

When is the Final Four?

The women's Final Four begins on Friday, April 5, in Cleveland, Ohio. No. 3 seed NC State will square off with the undefeated South Carolina Gamecocks at 7 p.m. EST. Then, in perhaps the biggest March Madness game of the year, Caitlin Clark's Iowa Hawkeyes take on the perennial women's college basketball powerhouse that is UConn. This highly-anticipated matchup will start at 9:30 p.m. EST.

As for the men, the Final Four tips off in Glendale, Arizona on Saturday, April 6. The first game, starting at 6:09 p.m. EST, will feature the top-seeded Purdue Boilermakers and the 11th-seeded NC State Wolfpack. After that, the reigning champion UConn Huskies will face the fourth-seeded Alabama Crimson Tide at 8:49 p.m. EST.

Thanks to the dominance of UConn and NC State, this is the first time in March Madness history that two programs were able to have two teams reach the Final Four in the same season. However, there's no guarantee either school wins an NCAA title, as the Final Four is just the semifinal matchup. The winners of the Final Four showdowns will advance to the national championship game, with the women's final game falling on Sunday, April 7 at 3 p.m. EST and the men's on Monday, April 8 at 9:20 p.m. EST.

How to watch the Final Four 2024?

Both women's Final Four games will be on ESPN. These contests can be streamed on ESPN.com as well as the ESPN app, or you can sign up for Sling TV or FuboTV. Both FuboTV and the Sling TV Orange plan include access to ESPN. When you sign up for SlingTV you'll pay just $20 for your first month, instead of the usual $40 price. Meanwhile, newbies to FuboTV can take advantage of a one-week free trial offer to stream the games for free. Following the Final Four, the women's national championship game is set to air on ABC.

The final March Madness games for the men will simultaneously air on TBS and TNT. If you don't have cable, these games can also be watched via Max's B/R Sports add-on. Who are the players to watch in the Final Four?

Women's NCAA Tournament - There are plenty of high-profile hoopers to keep an eye on during the Final Four. First, and foremost, is Caitlin Clark. She's the biggest name in college basketball and has been tearing up opposing defenses throughout March Madness. This will be her final season as a Hawkeye, so expect some fireworks in the Final Four against a talented (but injured) UConn team led by star point guard Paige Bueckers. Despite all the attention Iowa and UConn are getting, you shouldn't sleep on South Carolina versus NC State. Dawn Staley's Gamecocks haven't lost a game since March 31, 2023, meaning they've gone unbeaten after losing to Iowa in last year's Final Four. They'll be looking for revenge and for a chance to extend their perfect season against the Wolfpack, who should be significant underdogs.

Men's NCAA Tournament - Speaking of NC State and underdogs, the men's team was seconds away from not even making March Madness. However, the Wolfpack escaped with an overtime win over Virginia in the semifinals of the ACC Tournament and went on to win the whole thing, earning them a spot in the Big Dance and their first ACC crown in over 35 years. They've been led by center DJ Burns Jr., who has dominated opposing defenses with his size, strength, and smile. He'll have a tough matchup though, as the heavily-favored Purdue Boilermakers boast 7-foot-4 big man Zach Edey, who was the 2023 Naismith College Player of the Year. Last, but not least, are the University of Connecticut men, who are the reigning champions of men's college basketball. They've dominated en route to the Final Four thanks to a potent starting five featuring 7-foot-2 center Donovan Clingan. While UConn has loads of experience, its semifinal opponent, Alabama, never made a Final Four until this season. In the face of extreme adversity, the Crimson Tide will have to hope for a clutch performance from sharp-shooting point guard Mark Sears.
