SMITHVILLE

November 29 & 30 - Holiday Dickens Fest

Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company will bring the Spirit of Christmas back to Historic Smithville, when they return to present their two-day outdoor "Dickens Fest" featuring an original, musical adaptation of "A Christmas Carol", Charles Dickens' heartwarming, classic tale of Ebenezer Scrooge's journey from greed to redemption that will surely raise your spirits and warm the cockles of your heart as you travel through time with the Ghosts of Christmas and witness the ultimate transformation of this miserly skinflint into a jolly Father Christmas, himself!

The performances are FREE to the public and outdoors, so dress appropriately and maybe bring a folding chair if needed! Each show takes place on three separate stages, spread out across the town, providing ample ability to peruse the many shops and vendors in the village! The cast of the shows include actors from the Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company troupe along with many children of all ages from the local community. Event is rain or shine.

The cast of the shows will include actors from the Riddlesbrood Touring Theatre Company troupe along with children of all ages from the community, with a rousing Christmas carol sing-along playing a featured role in the production. HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 27 - DECEMBER 3, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

You're in launch mode this week as Mars boosts your confidence and cuts through hesitation. Something you've been circling around now becomes a clear yes - or a definitive no. Trust the surge of clarity; it's steering you exactly where your energy thrives.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

A financial or emotional entanglement comes into sharper focus, asking for honesty rather than avoidance. You may need to renegotiate terms or expectations to feel secure again. What you stabilize now becomes the foundation for smoother weeks ahead.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Relationship dynamics intensify, but in a productive way. Someone's feedback lands differently, revealing a truth you're finally ready to hear. Let collaboration - not competition - shape the conversations that matter most.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your schedule demands refinement and your body asks for balance, not burnout. Streamline anything that drains more than it delivers. By midweek you'll realize that simplifying isn't losing control - it's regaining it.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Creativity and pleasure return in a way that feels restorative rather than distracting. A spark - romantic or artistic - reminds you what makes life feel bright. Make room for what delights you; it's not indulgence, it's nourishment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Home matters take precedence as Mercury highlights old conversations, unfinished repairs, or emotional knots. Handle them with softness, not scrutiny. Reorganizing your physical space helps settle your internal space, too.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Your voice lands with precision this week, making your ideas hard to ignore. A message you send - or a meeting you lead - opens new pathways. Be intentional with your words; they're carrying more influence than you realize.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Financial insights arrive suddenly, helping you rework a budget, opportunity, or purchase with sharper instinct. Don't rush, but don't undervalue yourself either. A small, strategic shift now pays off bigger than expected.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Your season continues to deliver momentum as the Sun amplifies your personal magnetism. You're rewriting your story in real time, and people feel the difference. Lead with authenticity - doors open faster when you do.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

It's a week of inner clearing as old memories or unresolved tension rise for release. Instead of powering through, let stillness do the heavy lifting. The quieter you get, the more obvious your December priorities become.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

Community ties strengthen as you reconnect with friends, collaborators, or shared goals that actually excite you. Something about this circle feels forward-leaning again. Invest in the people who energize your future, not the ones who drain your present.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your career zone lights up with movement that feels both validating and overdue. Someone in a position of authority may offer support, recognition, or a new lane to step into. Say yes with confidence - you're more prepared than you think.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Bridge Pose (Setu Bandha Sarvangasana)

Bridge pose is a gentle way to explore spine extension, also known as a backbend. It's a good idea to start incorporating this type of movement because it improves the mobility of your spine and counters the effects of too much sitting.

If the Bridge yoga pose seems too intense, try a supported bridge with a block. Remember to root into the feet, which helps use your leg muscles to support the pose.

BASIC BRIDGE EXERCISE

TIP

Push your heels into the floor and tighten your glutes and abdominal muscles as you lift your hips off the floor.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Folic Acid

For moms-to-be, it's a must. It helps make DNA and prevent spina bifida and other brain birth defects. Asparagus, Brussels sprouts, dark leafy greens, oranges and orange juice, and legumes (beans, peas, and lentils) are rich in folic acid. Your doctor may want you to take a supplement, too.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Slices of Life: A Comic Montage by Qu

This masterful collection of comics features universal vignettes that examine the small moments in life, reveling in all its quiet beauty. Originally created as the author's thesis project for her MFA in Illustration Practice at MICA, this collection of insightful and subtly magnificent silent comics is now being brought to English readers, as it has previously only been published in China. This edition of "Slices of Life" not only features sublime comics that inspect and reflect the majesty of everyday life, but will also include behind-the-scenes backmatter presenting Qu's journey and artistic process. Readers are saying Qu is "one of the best contemporary cartoonists to pay attention to" with her "elegant, gorgeously rendered style." Early readers call the collection "peaceful ... yet hilarious," praising it as a "deeply nostalgic" tribute to what makes "life worth loving" and "all the little moments that are magical and worth slowing down to celebrate." Purchase at <https://bit.ly/3LsvpeO>.

From Doctor to Healer by Erica M. Elliott, M.D.

In this final volume of her memoir trilogy, Dr. Erica Elliott begins her medical training as an enthusiastic, wide-eyed student but soon becomes a disillusioned doctor, sick from toxic chemicals at the clinic where she works. This health catastrophe, followed by a near-fatal accident and the harrowing, experimental brain surgery that saved her life, forces Erica off the path of mainstream medicine and onto a path that leads to her profound healing, along with the profound healing of her patients. Now, more than half a century after a Navajo grandmother offered a prophecy about her life, Erica fulfills it in ways she never could have imagined. From Doctor to Healer follows on the heels of her first two groundbreaking memoirs, which followed her time serving the Navajo people as a young school teacher and as a medical doctor (Medicine and Miracles in the High Desert) and her later decade-long odyssey in search of her life's purpose (From Mountains to Medicine). Four Fall Reads You Won't Want to Put Down

Maya, Dead and Dreaming by Lana Sabarwal

Agatha Christie meets "Gone Girl" in a 1950s small town. A sleepy town. A precocious girl. A drizzly night. A chilling death that makes no sense at all. June 1938: Popular teenager Maya Hickman is found dead in a shallow creek, leaving the sleepy town of Shogie, Washington, shocked and baffled. Fourteen years later, Maya begins haunting the dreams of her childhood friend and quiet Indian immigrant, Munna Dhingra, just as an anonymous letter arrives musing "Why Maya Had to Die."

Stalked by guilt and desperate to prevent more deaths, Munna befriends Karenina - a fiendishly brilliant psychoanalyst - and together, the two unravel a web of jealousy, betrayal and forbidden relationships within a tight-knit community desperate to cling to its veneer of tranquility. But every secret uncovered leads to more questions and every step forward heightens a sense of encroaching dread. Will they find out in time... why Maya had to die? Purchase at <https://amzn.to/3ScYX0I>.

If Today You Hear His Voice by Irene Lynch

Throughout our rich and inspiring Catholic history, many saints have proclaimed to have had a conversation with Christ or the Blessed Mother. I believe that everyone can hear the voice of God! He is as alive and involved in our lives today as He was when He walked the earth over two thousand years ago! God wants a loving relationship with each one of us. I believe that through the Holy Spirit, God prompted me to write this book. My complete trust in His endless love and mercy has given me blessings beyond my greatest dreams. My prayer is for you to seek God in all things, walk with Him in your life journey, and listen to His voice. Come walk with me and let me show you how! Purchase at <https://amzn.to/3LIgnTs>

Atlantic County High School Football: Cedar Creek Marches to Rutgers as Holy Spirit Turns the Page Toward Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving week arrives with one Atlantic County team still chasing a state championship and one more preparing for one of the longest-running holiday rivalries in New Jersey. Cedar Creek punched its ticket to Rutgers with another explosive postseason performance, while Holy Spirit closed its playoff run at DePaul and now shifts its focus to an annual Thanksgiving tradition that brings the entire community together.

Cedar Creek: Pirates Power Into the State Final

Cedar Creek continued its November magic with a 48-38 win over Holmdel in the Group 3 state semifinal, extending its postseason surge and securing the program's spot in the state championship at Rutgers University.

The Pirates' ground attack overwhelmed the Hornets again, piling up 276 rushing yards - marking their fourth straight game over the 200-yard mark. Aamir Dunbar led the way with 85 bruising yards and a touchdown, while quarterback Frenchmon Bethea delivered one of the most complete performances of the weekend. Bethea not only guided the offense but intercepted two passes on defense, sparking key momentum swings in a high-scoring battle.

Now 11-2, Cedar Creek heads to Piscataway for a Friday night showdown with Old Tappan, a Golden Knights offense that has topped 31 points in six straight games. The Pirates enter Rutgers with power, poise, and arguably the hottest offense in Group 3.

Holy Spirit: Playoff Run Ends at DePaul

Holy Spirit's postseason surge met a tough opponent in Wayne, where DePaul Catholic closed the Spartans' season with a 49-22 win in the Non-Public B semifinal. The loss snapped Holy Spirit's five-game winning streak, but the run that got them there - highlighted by a 91-yard, game-winning drive the week prior - remains one of the county's most dramatic performances of the year. Holy Spirit finishes the playoff portion of its season at 7-4 with momentum that carries well into 2026.

Thanksgiving Spotlight: A Nearly Century-Old Rivalry Returns

While most of South Jersey has moved away from holiday football, one tradition still holds firm in Atlantic County: Holy Spirit at Atlantic City, Thanksgiving morning at 10am. It's the longest-running Thanksgiving Day game in county history and one of the few left anywhere in the state - second in longevity only to the legendary Vineland-Millville rivalry that began in 1871. This one kicked off in 1926, back when Calvin Coolidge was President, and has marched forward for nearly a century without interruption, even surviving the COVID-19 pandemic that disrupted so many other schedules.

This year's matchup arrives with both teams carrying full arcs of their own. Atlantic City enters Thanksgiving at 9-2, having delivered its deepest postseason run in years. Holy Spirit walks in battle-tested after a Non-Public B semifinal appearance. The rosters offer plenty of talent to keep the tradition vibrant: Atlantic City's Marvin Burroughs Jr. has emerged as one of South Jersey's most dynamic young quarterbacks, supported by senior leaders like Sirr Luckey, Tamir Rex, and Kyree Barksdale. Holy Spirit counters with veteran quarterback Ty Costabile, a steady hand who has guided the Spartans through their late-season surge, along with weapons like Taylor Cartwright and a deep upperclass skill group.

But what elevates this game beyond football is its history. Over the decades it has been played everywhere - from the old Bader Field, to the storied Boardwalk Hall where the rivalry once unfolded indoors before thousands, to the present-day home at Dr. Jack Eisenstein Stadium. Generations of families return home for it; alumni pack the stands; parents and grandparents swap memories of the games they played in or cheered from decades ago. The series is tight and fierce - Atlantic City leads 50-38-4 - and layered with crossover loyalties, from coaches who played for one school and led the other, to households split right down the middle.

In a county where Thanksgiving football has largely slipped into the past, this game endures as the last great gathering: part reunion, part rivalry, part reminder of how deeply woven high school sports are into the culture of the Shore. Nearly 100 years after its first kickoff, Atlantic City vs. Holy Spirit remains one of the strongest living links to the region's football story - and one of the most meaningful traditions left on the holiday calendar.

The Wrap

Thanksgiving week brings both celebration and final chapters across the county. Cedar Creek stands one win from a state championship at Rutgers, Holy Spirit closes its postseason and turns toward one of New Jersey's oldest rivalries, and Atlantic City prepares to host a holiday tradition that continues to define November in this part of the Shore. From Egg Harbor City to Atlantic Avenue, it's a season that reminds everyone why football here still hits different when the air gets cold - because around here, history, community, and pride don't just shape the games, they elevate them. And on Thanksgiving morning, that spirit is on full display.

Pinky is so grateful for the loyalty from her customers throughout the years. Her greatest gift is her son Jaden and daughter Jennifer.

Pinky Nail Bar will be opening in December 2025 and will continue to offer the same great service with her classic a creative manicures and pedicures 7 days a week. The salon still located at 6814 Tilton Road, Egg Harbor Township (Pep Boys center). Call for your appointment (609) 484-0366. And as always, walk-ins welcomed! It's the most wonderful time of the year, and I can't believe it's finally here! This time of year is all about family, togetherness, and all the festive decorations and traditions. It's a time for creating memories, giving gifts, and enjoying the magic of the season. Some of us have been counting down the days since January 2nd, and I can't wait to see what the holiday season has in store for us. One of the best things to do this time of year is to visit the big guy himself! There are so many opportunities to take photos with Ol' Saint Nick, and there are even a few full experiences with Santa in our area that you can check out. Here are a few suggestions to add to your calendar.

Ducktown Tavern, in conjunction with Goodtime Tricycle Productions, is hosting a Brunch with Santa on Saturday, December 6th from 11 am to 12 pm. Offering delicious food, festive vibes, and maybe even a surprise visit from a sneaky grinch! General admission is only $15 and kids are $5. It's a one-hour experience jam-packed with very cool vibes and festive holiday spirit! Purchase your tickets at ducktowntavern.com!

Deauville Inn's iconic Santa Brunch Series returns this year on December 6, 7, 13 and 14, from 10 am to 2 pm. They are offering a new a la carte brunch menu for the adults with festive and delicious holiday brunch cocktails. The cost for children is $25 and includes an activity book, cookie decorating, face painting, a hot cocoa station, and a visit with Santa Claus where he will listen to all the kiddies' wishes and give them a gift. Plus, The Official Department for Determination of Naughty or Nice Behavior will be onsite to administer certificates appropriately. This is a fantastic experience for both kids and adults alike and every date is selling out quickly. Visit deauvilleinn.com/brunch-with-santa to book your reservations today!

WWII and their role in the Pearl Harbor bombing. The Kuehns, once a prominent Berlin family, embraced Nazism to escape hard times. When their daughter, Ruth, had an affair with Joseph Goebbels, he discovered she was half Jewish. Instead of executing her, Goebbels sent the Kuehn family to Hawaii to spy for the Axis powers. There, Ruth and her parents built a covert operation, relaying secrets that helped enable the Pearl Harbor attack. Jumping back and forth from Christine discovering her family's secret, to the untold past of spies in Germany, Japan and Hawaii. Family of Spies is fast-paced history at its finest, and will rewrite the narrative of December 7, 1941. Brunch will be served. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by Dec 4.

Latkes, Lox & Learning - Fri, Dec 12 from 10:30am-12pm. Join us for a special morning featuring traditional latkes, bagels, and lox! This engaging program will explore the history of Chanukah in a fun, educational way. Expect something a little different as we dive into holiday trivia, hands-on fun, and lively discussion, all centered around classic Jewish foods and festive Chanukah traditions. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by Dec 8.

Book Club Brunch with Meryl Rodgers - Tuesday, December 16 from 10:30am-12pm. Join local educator Meryl Rodgers as we examine the book, All Who Go Do Not Return, which focuses on the life of author Shulem Deen, who was raised as a member of the Skverers, one of the most insular Hasidic sects in the United States. Deen knows little about the outside world, only that it is to be shunned. After an arranged marriage at 18 years of age, several children soon followed. While his first transgression of turning on the radio is small, his curiosity leads him to the library and internet. Soon he begins a feverish inquiry into the tenets of his religious beliefs, until several years later, his faith unravels entirely. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by Dec 11.

GIVE SOMETHING THAT Means Something

GIVE BLOOD

Why Donate Blood?

You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give blood.

MEKEIO JACKSON & CoCo

Mekeio Jackson travels often as a director at SourceAmerica, a non-profit agency that creates employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

When a visually impaired co-worker touted the benefits of a Seeing Eye dog, Mekeio decided to take the leap. She came to The Seeing Eye and was matched with CoCo, a yellow Labrador retriever. And now, Mekeio is able to travel with more confidence and ease. “It’s nice to not have to be tethered to another person,” Mekeio says. “I can set my own speed and move independently.”

The photo shows Mekeio smiling with one arm around CoCo, who is in harness and sitting on a raised platform alongside Mekeio.

Traveling with CoCo is a unique experience, especially on airplanes. “Children love to see dogs on planes,” Mekeio says. “She travels very well and is very calm. People just love her. I use her as a foot warmer because she will lay right on my feet.”

CoCo and Mekeio aren’t just travel companions. They do just about everything together with CoCo always by Mekeio’s side. “My family likes to say we’re co-dependent,” Mekeio says with a laugh. “The bonding is unlike any other. She’s become part of the family. If I leave the room, she’s following. It’s something that can’t be expressed in words – it’s just a feeling.”

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

A PAW-SITIVE SHOUT OUT!

Thank you to Recreation Farm Society Inc., our Top Dog Sponsor for this year's Online Auction! Your support is greatly appreciated. All of the proceeds of our auction directly help us continue to breed, raise and train world-renowned Seeing Eye dogs.

Thank you as well to everyone who has donated an item, volunteered, or has already placed a bid!

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is an annual event held on Thanksgiving Day and this year, it falls on November 27. Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is one of the biggest and most anticipated events during this holiday. It's become a tradition among families to watch the parade on Thanksgiving Day. The parade was first introduced in 1924 and has continued to grow and develop since then, becoming an important part of the holiday season. Each year the floats become bigger and more elaborate with thousands of volunteers joining in to make this holiday celebration enjoyable for all those watching from home or coming to attend the parade.

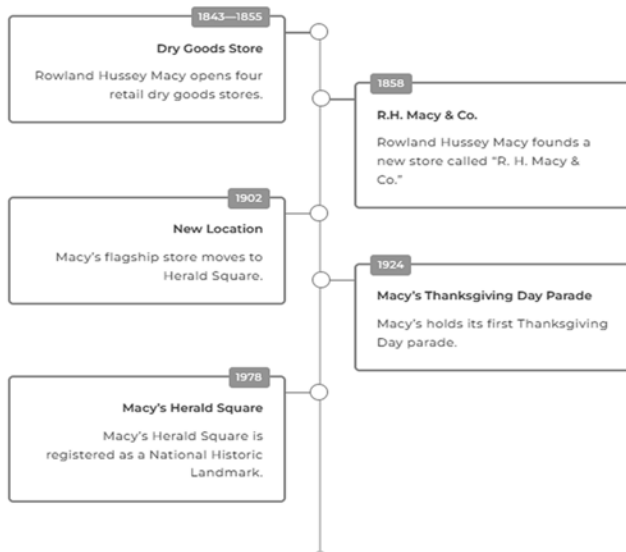

History of Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

Rowland Hussey Macy was a businessman born in 1822 in Massachusetts. In 1843, Rowland Macy opened four dry goods stores to serve the mill industry. He failed to launch his business and, by 1858, moved to New York City, renaming his store "R.H. Macy Dry Goods". That store saw great success, but Macy didn't live long enough to see his vision actualized. Macy died in 1877 and ownership of the company eventually went to his partners, brothers Isidor and Nathan Straus.

In 1902 came a great business decision when the flagship store was moved to Herald Square. What started as one building expanded through the years to become the world's largest store. In 1978, the building was added to the National Register of Historic Places and became a National Historic Landmark. It welcomes 20 million visitors every year. Macy's hosts many of its events in that location, including the Macy's Flower Show, Macy's Santaland, and Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Each year the building's windows have elaborate Christmas displays that visitors look forward to seeing.

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is its most important and famous event. It has been hosted annually in New York City in Macy's flagship store since 1924. In the first parade, Macy's employees marched in costumes along with floats, a band, and live animals. Now, bands compete months ahead to play in the parade and thousands of people volunteer to help organize the event. The parades have become grander and more elaborate throughout the years. The parade introduced its first giant balloon in 1928. The balloons were initially shaped like various animals but then developed to feature cartoon characters such as Mickey Mouse, Popeye, Superman, and Olaf.

MACY'S THANKSGIVING DAY PARADE TIMELINE

Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade Activities

- Attend the parade - Macy's parade extends to 2.5 miles. Macy's official website details the streets with viewing available as well as restaurants and restrooms around the area. Meet up with your friends and family and enjoy the experience.
- Watch the livestream - Don't want to leave the house on Thanksgiving Day? No problem. Watch the livestream on T.V. with your family while enjoying Thanksgiving dinner and save yourself from all the tedious small talk.
- Donate - There's no better way to give thanks than to give back. Many kids dream of joining Macy's Great American Marching band but not everyone who makes it can afford the trip. Donate to help make a kid's dream come true.

5 Obscure Facts About Macy's

- 1 - They love to give back - Each year Macy's organizes a charity event such as donating tickets to their event, partnering with Meals on Wheels to give seniors a Thanksgiving meal, and giving grants to marching bands that perform in their parade.
- 2 - The first liquor license in N.Y.C. - Before becoming a major department store, R.H. Macy's & Co. was issued the first liquor license in New York City.
- 3 - They introduced new things to America - In the 20th century, Macy's became the first store in America to feature colored bath towels, tea bags, and baked potatoes.
- 4 - The logo was inspired by a tattoo - The famous Macy's logo is inspired by the founder Rowland Macy's tattoo of a red star (either on his hand or forearm), which symbolizes the time when he was lost at sea while working as a whaler, and found a star that guided him to shore.
- 5 - Macy's owner was in the Titanic - Isidor Straus and his wife, Ida, found themselves aboard the most famous ship on earth that only the most elite could be on but, sadly, the couple didn't make it, as Ida, when instructed to get on the lifeboat, refused to leave her husband behind saying, "As we have lived, so will we die together."

Why We Love Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

- It's a fun tradition - Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade is a great way to start your Thanksgiving holiday and a nice family tradition. It's fun for all ages to watch and see people's creativity.
- It builds anticipation - Many look forward to the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade with anticipation, curious to see what new creative floats people will come up with. It makes for fun family discussions. Can you guess what cartoon character will make the next parade?
- It's inspirational - Macy's is one of the most well-known stores in America and has become a part of the culture. This was all started by one man with a simple upbringing. His vision has now become a part of history.

Philadelphia enters Thanksgiving week with a different kind of energy than last week - less swagger, more urgency. The Eagles collapsed in Dallas after building a three-score lead, the Sixers continue to search for consistency on their homestand, the Flyers unleashed a historic scoring burst but still seek stability, and the Union's Supporters' Shield season came to a sudden postseason end. Winter is setting in, and the city's teams are facing the moment where identity becomes reality.

Eagles: Stunning Collapse in Dallas Raises Big Questions

The Eagles authored one of the strangest games of the NFL season - a 21-0 start that morphed into a 24-21 loss to the Cowboys. Jalen Hurts accounted for three early touchdowns, and the defense came up huge with an end-zone interception by Reed Blankenship that gave Philadelphia a 96% win probability midway through the second quarter. Everything pointed toward a statement road victory.

Instead, the offense froze. Seven straight scoreless drives stretched through the second half, including five punts, a Saquon Barkley fumble, and a missed 56-yard field goal. The run game disappeared entirely - Barkley held to just 22 yards - and the timing on quick-hitting concepts never returned after halftime. The result was a Dallas defense allowed to dictate the fourth quarter.

Penalties proved fatal. Philadelphia's 14 infractions marked its most under Nick Sirianni, derailing drives and gifting Dallas second chances. Meanwhile injuries in the secondary - Blankenship, Adoree' Jackson, Andrew Mukuba - left Vic Fangio's defense scrambling against Dak Prescott, who finished with 354 yards and two touchdowns.

Now at 8-3, still atop the NFC East but no longer unshakable, the Eagles have no time to brood. Chicago arrives Friday night at the Linc. A short week offers little rest but an immediate opportunity to prove the collapse was an aberration - not a warning.

Sixers: Flashes of Greatness, Followed by Growing Pains

The Sixers are living two parallel realities: the one where Tyrese Maxey looks like a full-fledged superstar, and the one where the team cannot string together winning stretches. His 54-point masterpiece in Milwaukee showed how high the ceiling is, but the follow-up 127-117 home loss to Miami revealed the inconsistency they've yet to shake.

Joel Embiid remains day-to-day with knee management, and without him the interior presence suffers. The shooters have oscillated between red-hot and ice-cold, forcing Maxey to shoulder heavy usage nights while the supporting cast tries to find its rhythm. Norman Powell's 32-point outburst for Miami exposed defensive rotations still needing polish.

Still, Philadelphia has a crucial opportunity ahead. A multi-game homestand continues Tuesday and Wednesday, offering rhythm, rest, and a chance to stabilize before December's gauntlet. If any team is built to surge once fully healthy, it's this one.

Flyers: Historic Scoring Burst Highlights Untapped Potential

The Flyers delivered one of the wildest shifts of the NHL season in their 6-3 win over the Devils, erupting for three goals in just 26 seconds - a franchise record. Tyson Foerster buried two of them, Matvei Michkov added another, and Noah Cates tallied a goal with two assists as Dan Vladar anchored the win with 32 saves. It was the kind of offensive explosion that hints at a higher gear.

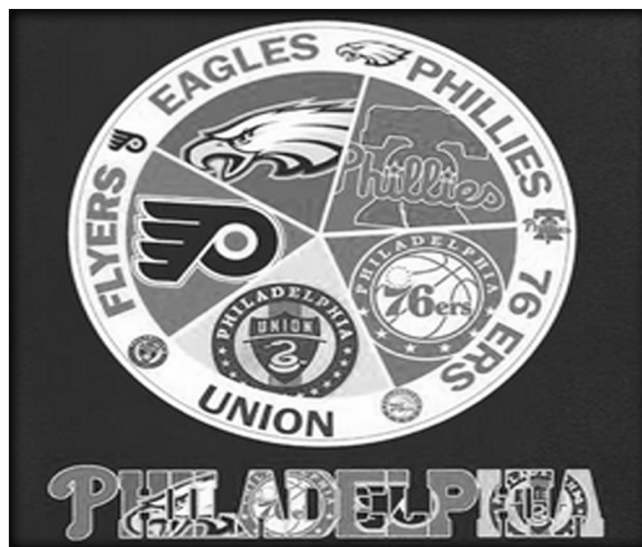

But sustaining that level remains the challenge. Philadelphia has been streaky: stretches of strong defensive structure followed by lapses, moments of aggressive forecheck followed by long shifts struggling to exit the zone cleanly. Their 11-6-3 record puts them firmly in the wild-card conversation, but Tortorella wants consistency above chaos.

A pair of home games this week - Colorado and Calgary - offers a chance to build real standings cushion before December's schedule tightens. If the Flyers can bottle even half of that New Jersey scoring run, they'll start climbing quickly.

Union: Shield Winners, Playoffs Cut Short

The Union's extraordinary regular season ended in disappointment as NYCFC stunned Philadelphia 1-0 in the Eastern Conference Semifinal at Subaru Park. Maxi Moralez's 27th-minute strike was the difference, sending the Shield winners into an early offseason despite fielding the deepest, most complete roster the club has ever assembled.

Still, the season belongs in the club's upper tier of achievements. Dominant defense, breakout scorers, and a consistent identity carried them through the year - now comes the task of translating that into 2026 momentum.

Looking Ahead: Response Week in Philadelphia

As Thanksgiving arrives, the theme across the city is simple: rebound. The Eagles must restore rhythm on a short week, the Sixers must find footing at home, and the Flyers look to turn sparks into sustained dominance. The Union begin their reset, but the rest of Philadelphia enters a holiday week defined not by comfort - but by the need to respond.
