HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 4 - JANUARY 10, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
 For ages, you've had certain plans and projects on your mind. But every time you thought you'd got things going, unexpected events derailed those plans. Now that the no-longer retrograde Mercury has moved into practical Capricorn, between events and your quick thinking, things will fall into place swiftly, and magically.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
 Having invested considerable time and, in some cases, heart in certain plans, you're in no mood to make changes. However, not only are these inevitable, they're wise. Tempting as it is to put off taking action, don't. The more swiftly you get involved in making them happen, the better things will go.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 Being ruled by the clever, and quick-thinking, planet Mercury, you often enjoy a lively exchange of ideas, especially if the individuals in question disagree. You regard it as more of a sport than a serious discussion. Be aware, however, that others are taking what's said seriously, and could be upset by your easygoing attitude.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
 As a sensitive water sign, you go to great lengths to avoid raising issues you know will be upsetting to others. At the moment, however, you have no choice. Actually, you've become increasingly aware these not only can't be ignored, frank discussions won't just be timely, they'll be a lasting relief.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
 You don't think of yourself as being stubborn. However, not only do others insist you are exactly that, they avoid even mentioning certain changes or new ideas because you'd dismiss these without discussion of any kind. The problem? Actually, once you begin exploring them, you'll discover that several of these are worth considering.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
 One of the advantages of being a Virgo is that, often, you'll think things through without even mentioning it to others. This means that when the individuals in question raise their concerns, you'll already have thought things through and may have answers for their questions. If not, you can seek those insights together.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 Thinking through recent discussions, often in detail, comes so naturally that often you're unaware you're doing it. Recently, however, you've had other things to keep track of, in many cases pressing, if not urgent. Ironically, by the time those practicalities are dealt with, the issues in question will have resolved themselves.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
 As an intuitive water sign, you'll often sense when certain arrangements are coming undone, long before those changes are obvious. While, often, you'll say nothing, this once you're encouraged to discuss your feelings with those concerned. Don't be hesitant. Others will find what you raise and, equally, suggest it amazingly helpful.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
 Now that the forthright, and impatient, planet Mars has moved to accent certain financial matters, it's time to turn the ideas you've been discussing into action. The problem? While you're confident they'll work, you're less sure about your ability to deal with tedious details. When the time comes, you will.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
 When certain plans were made and certain individuals committed to them, you were uneasy, especially about those arrangements being reliable. Despite that, you proceeded. Since then, you've discovered your concerns were correct yet you've learnt so much that, in truth, you've little to complain about.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
 From time to time, those who know and love you are concerned about what, and who, you're putting first in your life. Yet you think they're missing the point. How will you learn about the world if you don't explore. While you're right, this variety of exploration can distract you from making deeper commitments.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
 One of your greatest gifts, as a Pisces, is your amazing intuition. While this influences your ability to spot what's going on around you and, equally, what to expect next, not everybody understands this. In fact a few people fear you can tell their fortune. Explain, frankly but tactfully, that there's little likelihood of that.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Warrior I (Virabhadrasana I)

Warrior I is one of yoga's foundational poses, but getting the alignment right can be a little tricky. It teaches you balance and to be more aware of your body positioning. You will recognize the lunge stance as one common for exercise and stretching. Incorporate this pose into a flow as part of a standing yoga sequence. Warrior I strengthens the legs and upper arms, improves balance and core strength, stretches the muscles around the hips. You get a good stretch of both the front and rear thigh (quadriceps and hamstrings), hips, and chest, as well as a back extension of the erector spinae muscle. It is a hip opener, which is a good antidote for sitting all day. This pose can be therapeutic if you have sciatica. It is also an energizing pose, allowing better breathing and circulation.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin E

Vitamin E helps maintain healthy skin and eyes, and strengthen the body's natural defence against illness and infection (the immune system). Vitamin E is a group of compounds found in a wide variety of foods. Good sources include: plant oils – such as rapeseed (vegetable oil), sunflower, soy, corn and olive oil, nuts and seeds, wheatgerm – found in cereals and cereal product.

Big Phil and Little Steven
2023 Match of the Year

"With every project we work on, Phil has a life lesson. He always tells me to make sure I am grateful for what I have but to also strive to be better." - Little Steven Phil and Steven were our 2023 Match of the Year! The pair were first matched in 2018 and have been friends ever since. Steven's mom recognized that he could use some extra support as he'd been struggling with bullying and his grades were failing in school. He had some really tough, down times where he talked about life not being worth living and she was scared he would take his own life. Phil was not swayed by the challenges in Steven's life and was there for him through these difficult times. Within no time at all everyone could see things changing for the better for Steven. Matches like Phil and Steven's are only possible with donations like yours. There are still lots of kids in our area who are still waiting to be matched with a Big. Today, you can help change that! Your gift will directly support more mentor matches like theirs.

by Marion Lotka

The Gallery at the Ocean City Arts Center brings the new year in with "and then again", featuring colorful expressive paintings by Marion Lotka. The show opens January 3 and runs through January 29. A "Meet the Artists" reception will be held on Friday, January 12 from 7pm to 8:30pm. The Gallery is located in the Ocean City Arts Center, 1735 Simpson Avenue, 2nd Floor, Ocean City, NJ.

Marion graduated from Philadelphia University and also studied at Philadelphia College of Art, Moore College of Art and Fleisher Art Memorial. As a New Jersey resident, she studied with Rita Mikalenka, Andrea Sauchelli and currently teaches art and design for the Cape May County Library. She is on the board of directors with Ocean City Fine Arts League, volunteers and exhibits at the Art On Asbury Gallery. Marion's paintings have been purchased by Atlanticare and are part of the Healing Arts permanent installation in Atlantic City. She is an Associate Member Artist with Riverfront Renaissance and a member of Society of New Jersey Artists. Her award winning work has been exhibited in many solo and group shows in New Jersey. Marion's work and updates can be seen on Instagram @mlokaartist.

The exhibit includes work from three of Ms Lotka's recent series: "Three Little Figs", "Factory Work" and "The Produce Series". Marion says, "The intention of my work is to convey feelings about a subject seen. If a view or object makes my heart beat a little faster, I'm inspired to paint it. I am interested in still life, but in a way that questions perspective and context. Figs and peaches make lovely, stillsubject models. My paintings are often inspired by the evolving sky, land and sea views here in southern New Jersey, using layered acrylic and mixed media gestures and marks to explore scale, color and texture, I can only hope that the viewer shares a similar visceral response."

The show runs from January 3-29, 2024. The Ocean City Arts Center is located on the second floor in the Community Center at 1735 Simpson Avenue, Ocean City, New Jersey 08226. Hours of operation are 9am to 9pm, Monday through Friday and 9am to 3pm on Saturday. The Arts Center is closed on Sunday. For further information, call (609) 399-7628. Check out the Ocean City Arts Center's website (oceancityartscenter.org) or on Facebook and Instagram. This program is made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, a partner agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.

National Soup Month – January 2024

How do we love thee? Let us count the ways – chunky, clear, creamy, low-fat, with a dash of spice, or naturally sweet, served hot, sometimes cold. Oh, there are a million ways to enjoy soup! And now there is another reason to do so. January is National Soup Month. Perfect isn't it because nothing drives away those chilly winter blues like a hot bowl of your favorite soup. And it's nutritious too! So, go ahead indulge and get souped-up on soup this month.

NATIONAL SOUP MONTH ACTIVITIES

- Throw a winter soup party - Start off the menu with a soup made with winter vegetables and other farm-to-table ingredients, and end with a heavenly dessert consommé. Or the uninitiated can hit the stores and pick from an impressive selection of heat and serve soups. Whatever works!
- Pay it forward - If you have soup at your table, you are fortunate. Volunteer at a soup kitchen and feed the hungry.
- Invent your family soup recipe - Put on your chef's hat. Ask everyone in the family to pick their favorite vegetable, meat, herb, or spice. Include them in a family recipe that you can hand down to the next generation!

WHY WE LOVE NATIONAL SOUP MONTH

- No cook spoils the soup - Try it! Throw all your favorite ingredients in broth, with a bit of pre-made spice mix (whatever you fancy). Add cayenne for an extra kick. Or not. Slow cook. Cool. Purée. Add butter. Salt. Voila! A tasty soup is ready. Anybody can cook soup. And survive on it, if needed.
- You can never tell what's in it - And that's a good thing. How else would mothers hide all those yucky but nutritious veggies that kids turn up their noses at!
- It's a double-edged sword - Soup can work up an appetite when served at the start of a course, or stave off hunger when eaten as a meal, helping in weight management.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

The unfamiliar can be intimidating, especially when you move to a new country, immerse yourself in a new culture, or are thrown into unexpected living conditions. But a strong will, a kind stranger, a loved one, or a good enough reason to stay is all it takes to get through the discomfort and find something special. This December, we are celebrating women's fiction titles that show characters adapting to a new culture.

Red Clay, Running Waters by Leslie K. Simmons

Before the Civil War... Before the Trail of Tears... Red Clay, Running Waters is the little-known story of John Ridge, a Cherokee man dedicated to his people, and his White wife, Sarah Northrop, a woman forfeiting everything to join him.

In 1824, John Ridge, the promising son of a Cherokee leader, returns from his New England education with his White bride, Sarah. John burns to realize the dream of an independent Cherokee Nation. Peace at home evades when tensions rise between the Southern states and the federal government, pulling the couple into the crossfire of a divided country on the brink of civil war. Faced with expulsion during the 1830s Indian Removal crisis, the Ridges forge a path to save the Cherokee Nation, testing the strength of their beliefs and the limits of commitment. Compelled to join forces with those who oppose them in the midst of tyranny and deceit, John and Sarah must confront an agonizing choice about the future of the Cherokee Nation and the meaning of home.

Dreamcatcher: Story of an Immigrant Bride from India by Dita Basu

Shila's stable life in India crumbles the day her husband, Asim, declares he's going to America. She follows Asim to a foreign land, far away, assured by her father's words: "This man has ambition. He'll rise to the top." Frustrated by her husband's career ambitions, Shila learns to bring up their daughter in the new culture with little help. Asim spends most of his time traveling for work, wrapped in his own dreams. Years later, the crisis peaks when Asim returns to India and their daughter prepares for college three thousand miles away, leaving an empty nest.

Asim gives Shila an ultimatum. Shy Shila must choose between returning with him to India, or staying in America alone. Should she answer the desires of her heart, putting her secure marriage of twenty years at stake?

New Horizons: 4 Stories About Adapting in an Unfamiliar Culture

The New Town Librarian by Kathy Anderson

Queer middle-aged librarian Nan Nethercott, a wisecracking hypochondriac with a lackluster career and a nonexistent love life, needs to make a drastic life change before it's too late. When she lands a job as a librarian in a seemingly idyllic small town in southern New Jersey, Nan quickly discovers unforeseen challenges.

Nan's landlady, Immaculata, launches daily intrusions from below. The library, housed in the former town jail, is overrun by marauding middle-schoolers. A mysterious reader leaves distressing messages in book stacks all over the library. Thomasina, the irresistible butch deli owner, is clearly a delicious affair and not the relationship Nan craves. There's no turning back though. Nan must come up with her own wildly unorthodox solutions to what the town and its people throw at her and fight for what she wants until she makes a shiny new life — one with her first true home, surprising friends, a meaningful career, and a promising new love.

Daughter of the King by Kerry Chaput

La Rochelle France, 1661. Fierce Protestant Isabelle is desperate to escape persecution by the Catholic King. Isabelle is tortured and harassed, her people forced to convert to the religion that rules the land. She risks her life by helping her fellow Protestants, which is forbidden by the powers of France. She accepts her fate — until she meets a handsome Catholic soldier who makes her question everything.

She fights off an attack by a nobleman, and the only way to save herself is to flee to the colony of Canada as a Daughter of the King. She can have money, protection and a new life — if she adopts the religion she's spent a lifetime fighting. She must leave her homeland and the promises of her past. In the wild land of Canada, Isabelle finds that her search for love and faith has just begun.

Based on the incredible true story of the French orphans who settled Canada, Daughter of the King is a sweeping tale of one young woman's fight for true freedom. Kerry Chaput brings the past to life, expertly weaving a gripping saga with vivid historical details. Jump back in time on a thrilling adventure with an unforgettable heroine.

Golden Globe Awards – January 7, 2024

An event to recognize brilliance in both American and international film and television, the Golden Globe Awards in January is one of the major Hollywood awards for the entertainment industry. This year, it takes place on January 7. Actors, directors, cast, and crew have vied for this golden statuette and the prestige that comes with it since 1944, although these awards have been somewhat embattled of late. Recognition by their peers is still a much-cherished act, and the Golden Globes deliver the rewards.

HISTORY OF GOLDEN GLOBE AWARDS

A group of Los Angeles-based foreign journalists came up with the idea for the Golden Globes to help the distribution of cinema to non-U.S. markets. They initially created the Hollywood Foreign Correspondents Association in 1943. By then, the Academy Awards were well-established and the organization realized what a good idea it would be to have a similar award ceremony, to honor film contributions from American and foreign cinema.

The first Golden Globe awards — in January 1944 — were held at the 20th Century-Fox studios and only gave out scrolls in place of awards. The idea for the current statuette — a golden globe surrounded by a film strip — came the following year from the president of the organization, Marina Cisternas. Six years later, the group split into two, only to reunite five years later, becoming the Hollywood Foreign Press Association (HFPA). Award ceremonies continued to be held in various venues across the U.S., with new award categories added.

By 1963, the Golden Globes featured individuals to specially hand out the awards, in addition to the host or presenter. Introduced as 'Miss Golden Globe', (later renamed 'Golden Globe Ambassador'), these persons were often the daughters, (and sometimes the sons) of celebrities. Over the years, the awards were broadcast globally, reaching 167 countries worldwide and airing live across all U.S. time zones.

While questions of credibility have dogged these awards — voter fraud, allegations of awards-for-attendance, and more — the current generation's adoration for all things entertainment raised Golden Globe status to bigger and better heights. According to TV ratings, this ceremony has consistently been one of television's most-watched events.

In the wake of new challenges against the HFPA, they eschewed live streaming for the 2022 awards ceremony, releasing the list of Golden Globe winners via their social media.

5 HISTORY-MAKING GOLDEN GLOBE AWARDS

- The youngest Golden Globe winner - 9-year-old Rick Schroder won the Golden Globe for 'Best New Male Star of the Year' in 1980, the 1st and youngest person to do so.
- Three winners for one award - For the first and only time, the 1989 Golden Globe Awards saw a tie between three actresses for the 'Best Actress in a Motion Picture' — Jodie Foster, Shirley MaLaine, and Sigourney Weaver.
- The most Golden Globe Awards - Across the competitive and honorary categories, Barbara Streisand and Meryl Streep lead, with 11 and 7 wins respectively, although Streep has been nominated a total of 33 times.
- Sandra Oh makes history — twice - She won her second award in 2019, making her the only woman of Asian descent to win multiple Golden Globes — this while she made history that same year by being the first Asian to host the award ceremony.
- Making history one more time - M.J. Rodriguez won Best Actress in a Drama Series at the 2022 Golden Globes, making her the first black transgender woman to do so.

WHY WE LOVE GOLDEN GLOBE AWARDS

- We have fun star gazing - What they're wearing, who they bring to the ceremonies, and what they say in acceptance speeches — every single thing about the Golden Globe Awards holds a lot of fun for us, and we hate missing even a moment of it.
- We love seeing people get their due - Deserving stars who give their all to shows get some well-earned recognition, and we are here for it.
- It's a glamorous stand-up show - They've begun featuring hosts that love showing off their comedic talent, and often, acceptance speeches lean toward the funny (and inspiring) too.

Pet of the Week

MOMO

Momo is about 2 years old and 51 lbs. He's a border collie or aussie mix, very smart with the energy to that is typical of these breeds. He's very social and gets along with other dogs. We would recommend a home with no small animals as he does bark & try to get them to run so he can chase them. He would love a fenced yard to play in or an active family to take him for hikes/jogging.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

A Round of a-PAWS to one of our FUR-iends

Colgate-Palmolive is a proud sponsor of our organization and helps us continue our mission. To thank them for their support, we recently visited their employees in Piscataway, NJ, with the help of a few puppy raisers, Seeing Eye puppies, and a Seeing Eye instructor. Thank you so much for your continued support!

PD: Three puppy raisers with two golden retriever puppies and a yellow Lab puppy stand together with three Colgate-Palmolive employees and a Seeing Eye instructor with a black Lab Seeing Eye dog in training.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.
