HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 12 - 18, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Momentum increases as recent choices begin to show practical results. Conversations around goals, leadership, or direction shift fully into action. Move forward with steady focus rather than overcorrecting pace.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Practical progress strengthens as long-range ideas move into visible motion. Discussions tied to learning, travel, or commitments feel more grounded and real. Continue building confidence through steady effort.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Clarity deepens as shared matters become easier to navigate. Financial discussions or emotional agreements benefit from thoughtful follow-through. Apply recent lessons to reinforce trust and balance.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relationship energy remains constructive as communication stays open and direct. Emotional needs align more smoothly with practical expectations. Maintain honesty to support lasting understanding.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Daily routines feel smoother as systems settle and efficiency improves soon. Work and health habits respond well to simple repetition and timing. Keep refining the small parts so the week stays on track and easier.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Creative focus returns as pressure eases and motivation feels steadier again. Responsibilities stay active yet inspiration comes easier when you pause and reset. Make room for play so your mind stays clear and sharp all week.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Home life stabilizes as decisions become practical and workable. Planning talks about shared spaces or family roles lead to clear next steps. Choose structure that makes life easier not stricter, for everyone.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Conversations move with better timing as details line up. What felt tense last week becomes manageable through patience and clarity. Listen closely, then speak precisely to keep things moving.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Financial direction strengthens as priorities sharpen as plans get real. Commitments feel easier to assess when you slow down and check facts. Spend with care so momentum stays firm through the week.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Personal direction sharpens as feedback becomes useful and specific. Leadership demands feel clearer, with fewer moving parts to juggle. Keep steady effort, and let results build over time with confidence.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

A fresh cycle builds as ideas feel lighter and more actionable now. Mercury favors smart edits, clear choices and follow-through. Pick one focus, then commit to it fully.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Group goals move ahead as roles and expectations stay clearer. Collaboration improves when you speak early, and often. Offer support, but keep boundaries so your energy stays strong and steady.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY
MAGAZINE

In the Chinese zodiac cycle, 2026 is the Year of the Fire Horse, a pairing often linked with momentum, independence, and major turning points. The Horse is traditionally associated with movement and self-direction, while the Fire element amplifies drive and urgency. For many people, it's less about "prediction" and more about pattern - an invitation to notice what's been outgrown, where energy has been leaking, and what's ready for a clean reset as the year begins.

If you're curious about exploring those themes in a grounded way, Zen Landing Wellness Studio is hosting "A Lecture on Power, Freedom & Unbridled Transformation" as part of The Year of the 2026 Fire Horse: Insights & Predictions for the Year Ahead. Presented by Zen Landing Wellness Studio and Amaline Bassetti, the program draws from astrology and animal medicine teachings to examine the Fire Horse archetype through both a practical and personal lens. Rather than repeating what you can read on a flyer, the lecture is designed to connect the big themes - freedom versus control, instinct versus conditioning - to real life choices, relationships, and the habits that shape day-to-day energy. Attendees can expect an approach that emphasizes awareness and steadiness: how to work with heightened momentum without burning out, how to protect your energy when emotions run hot, and how to stay embodied when change starts moving faster than comfort. It's especially well-suited for truth-tellers, creatives, and anyone who feels pulled toward something more authentic but hasn't quite named what needs to shift. Come ready to listen, reflect, and reconnect with what feels true beneath the roles.

The lecture takes place Saturday, February 14, 2026, from 1:00 to 3:30 p.m. at Zen Landing Wellness Studio, located at 4450 Black Horse Pike, Suite 3990A, Mays Landing, NJ 08330. Admission is $10, and the event is open to anyone on or off Facebook. Registration and additional details are available at zen-landingwellness.com.

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Spotlight: ByrdCage Atlantic City

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

If you haven't yet discovered this fantastic spot in the heart of Atlantic City, you absolutely must! The ByrdCage, which opened its doors in January 2025 at 3426 Atlantic Ave, is the city's first bar and restaurant that's fully LGBTQ+-owned and operated in more than twenty years. It was created by our newly appointed board member, Jason Tell, along with Rich Helfant and Giulietta Consalvo. The name "ByrdCage" pays homage to the 1996 film "The Birdcage," capturing the vibrant, welcoming, and artistic vibe of the place. ByrdCage celebrated its grand opening weekend on January 24, 2025, in the former Good Dog Bar space. It's designed to revive a dedicated, 7-day-a-week LGBTQ+ nightlife scene, featuring a delightful blend of dining, dancing, entertainment, and inclusivity.

This two-story spot has a cozy restaurant serving up comfort food, a piano lounge, and an upstairs area perfect for drag shows, themed nights, and DJ sets. It's a huge win for LGBTQ+ representation in the area, offering a permanent, welcoming, safe haven. And just this last month they celebrated their one-year anniversary, solidifying their success and making a real difference in the local community.

They've always got fun happenings every week! If you're new to line dancing, you can join The Side Story Steppers for a fun session on Thursdays at 7 pm. On Fridays, you can groove to the music of Nick Myers as he tickles the ivories from 5 to 8 pm. On Fridays, don't miss the RuPaul's Drag Race viewing party, kicking off at 7 pm. And Fridays and Saturdays are all about the nightlife - get ready to boogie! Head to ByrdCage's La Cage from 9 pm until close, where Top DJs like DJ Kit Kat, Emmer, Const, and Da Boo Boo will be spinning high-energy beats upstairs. And the best part? There's no cover!

To wrap up the weekend, join ByrdCage's for "Sinatra Sundays" every last weekend of the month, where they offer an Italian menu featuring a real family recipe that once delighted Ol' Blue Eyes himself.

Get ready for some exciting events at Byrd Cage this Saturday, Valentine's Day! Instead of the usual, make it extra special and fun with Underwear & Lingerie Night! The atmosphere will be fun, flirty, and respectful, all while keeping consent at the heart of it. Doors open at 9:30 pm with DJ Kit Kat on the decks. Embrace your true self, be bold, and be confident.

Next weekend, come and enjoy a lively afternoon of live jazz with Andy Lalis & The JazzByrds - Dean Schneider, Bob Shomo, and Melanie Rice, at ByrdCage AC's Jazz Brunch, on February 21st! The $50 Prix Fixe includes The JazzByrds from 12 pm to 3 pm, a delicious brunch from their special menu, and a Mimosa or Bloody Mary. It's the ideal way to celebrate the season!

To wrap up February, mark your calendars for ByrdCage's AC Pride Love is Love Mixer! February 26th from 5 to 8 pm, enjoy a fun night of mingling with the community. Enjoy free light bites, free parking, and stay for some line dancing to keep the good times rolling!

To recap, Birdcage is all about that high-energy, campy nightlife with a super warm and friendly community feel - it's a "happy place" for everyone! If you haven't been yet, you really should!

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

If you've ever dreamed of building your own video game - not just playing one - now's your chance to put those ideas into action. The Atlantic County Library System is spotlighting a new coding challenge from Fiero Code that turns creativity and logic into a real competition, giving young programmers an opportunity to design their own game and vie for a prize.

The challenge begins with a fun premise: imagine you're a tourist exploring the ancient Planet Fiero jungle temple of Tikal. Before you know it, a centuries-old artifact ends up in your pocket and a magical protector of the temple appears, hot on your trail. Your mission? Create a video game in Code Blocks where your character runs through the jungle, jumping and ducking to avoid obstacles, trying to stay alive as long as possible before being caught.

Atlantic County Library Spotlights Fiero Code's "Temple Raiders" Game Design Challenge

Participation is free and open to coders of all ages - from 8 to 108 - making it a great project for beginners and experienced young developers alike. The competition runs from February 1 through March 31, 2026, and winners will receive a tech prize from Fiero Code.

To get started, log into Fiero Code through your ACLS account; if you don't already have one, you can use your Atlantic County Library System card to create it. Once you're logged in, navigate to the Challenge page via the top menu, join the Temple Raiders Code Challenge, and begin building your project. All entries must be published before March 31 to qualify.

The challenge asks participants to meet several fun and practical requirements: design a character that looks like it's running, with jumping controlled by the up arrow and ducking by the down arrow. At the start of the game, your character should appear to run automatically - accomplished visually by having the ground move under them as they stay in place. The game needs to auto-generate obstacles that force players to jump or duck, deduct lives when obstacles are hit, and increase in difficulty over time by speeding up. Coders are encouraged to implement a points system, sound effects, background music, an opening story animation, and "You Win" or "You Lose" screens to round out the experience.

For students seeking guidance, Fiero Code offers helpful courses such as Hour of Code, Code Blocks, and Code Blocks Game, which can provide foundational skills and inspiration for your entry. Previous participants have described the challenge as both demanding and rewarding, emphasizing the creative problem-solving and persistence required to build a well-crafted project.

Whether you're just learning to code or looking to stretch your abilities, the Temple Raiders Code Challenge is a chance to turn imagination into interactive experience - with the added thrill of competition and community recognition. And thanks to the Atlantic County Library System for highlighting this opportunity as part of their programming and digital resources.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Supine Spinal Twist (Supta Matsyendrasana)

A passive twist is a classic way to end a yoga session, although there's no rule against doing this yoga pose at the beginning of your practice. The position of the legs is up to you.

You can bend them both; you can straighten the top leg and hold onto your foot if you have the flexibility, or you can twist your legs around one another (as in Eagle pose) to stretch the outer hips. Keep knees in line with your waist.

SUPINE SPINAL TWIST

TIP

Keep both of your shoulders flat on the ground throughout the pose, even if your knee floats up a bit.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin B3

This is a family of compounds that your body needs to turn food into energy and store it. It helps protect your skin and tissues, too, and may improve your cholesterol levels. Three ounces of canned tuna has nearly all you'll need in a day. Or serve up some chicken, turkey, salmon, or other lean meats. You're vegan? Eat crimini mushrooms, peanuts, and peanut butter.

GUIDE DOG AT WORK

Keep Guide Dog Teams Safe!

Guide dogs work to help people who are blind safely navigate the world. It is crucial that pet owners keep their dogs at a safe distance away from a guide dog team. While it may seem harmless for pets to visit with a guide dog at work, that dog is responsible for leading someone who cannot see. Distracting the guide dog could jeopardize the safety of the handler.

Please follow these tips to help keep guide dog teams safe:

- Please do not distract guide dogs. This includes calling the dog, making eye contact, feeding or petting the dog.
- Never let your pet be near a guide dog, even if leashed.
- It is helpful to greet a person who is blind and let them know you have a dog with you.
- Always speak to the handler directly and never touch the handler or the dog without the handler's permission.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

The Seeing Eye's 2026 Winter Guide

"The reality is, I couldn't have what I have today if it wasn't for the independence and the confidence that I have gained from being a Seeing Eye dog handler. I would not be where I am today without Fern and Briana," Seeing Eye graduate Heather explained in the cover story for The Seeing Eye's 2026 Winter Guide.

Read the entire story and learn more about The Seeing Eye's Chester Outdoor Enrichment Project, Volunteer of the Year, Puppy Airport Trips, and more at <https://seeingeye.org/resources/publications/>

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Girl Scout Cookie Weekend is celebrated on the third weekend of February every year in the United States. This year, it takes place from February 13 to 15. The weekend aims to encourage the American public to support the Girl Scouts of the United States of America (G.S.U.S.A.) in their mission to support entrepreneurship in young American girls. The iconic Girl Scouts cookies are readily available throughout the weekend. Customers can support their local Girl Scouts at cookie booths or by online delivery. The entire event is girl-led, where a real Girl Scout is doing every task and performing every role. All proceeds of the cookie sales benefit the Girl Scouts and the local organizations that power their experience.

History of Girl Scout Cookie Weekend

The Girl Scouts was started in 1912 by Juliette Gordon Low in Savannah, Georgia. The first ever troop of Girl Guides (as they were called back then) were 18 in number, and all of them shared a common sense of curiosity and self-efficacy. American women did not even possess the right to vote then and were expected to adhere to very restrictive societal norms. The first cohort of Girl Scouts, however, sparked a movement across the country that allowed girls (albeit only White girls) to realize their potential and make the world a better place in the process.

In 1913, the Girl Guides of America was changed to the Girl Scouts of the United States, and the organization's headquarters were moved to the national capital, Washington D.C. The headquarters was again shifted when the organization was incorporated in 1915. During World War II, Girl Scout troops were even organized in Japanese internment camps. Girl Scout troops remained segregated for many years. The first ever troop of African American girls was established in 1917, the first Native American troop in 1921, and the first Mexican American troop in 1922. They changed their name to the Girl Scouts of the United States of America (G.S.U.S.A.) in 1947. The G.S.U.S.A. started advocating to desegregate troops at a national level around the 1950s. One of the first successful desegregations happened in 1956.

One of the most popular projects run by the Girl Scouts is the Girl Scout Cookies Program. Every third weekend of February, Girl Scout Cookie Weekend is celebrated to encourage Americans to support the Girl Scouts and to foster entrepreneurship in young American girls. Their cookies can be bought almost anywhere throughout the weekend. People can support their local Girl Scouts by buying cookies in person at their booths or by buying them online.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY
MAGAZINE

The snacks are fire, the commercials are iconic, the halftime show plays ... but let's be real: sometimes the real thrill isn't on the field. It's in the stories where sweat-soaked egos collide with raw longing, where the playbook gets thrown out the window for one electric glance and love becomes the ultimate high-stakes play.

These aren't fluffy sports tropes. These books treat football like the pressure cooker it is - identity, performance, ego, scrutiny - and then drop heart-stopping romance right into the chaos. Perfect for curling up while the game's on mute, or ditching the yelling at the TV altogether. Dive in and let the feelings tackle you.

Intercepted by Alexa Martin

Former NFL wife energy. Alexa Martin exposes pro football as the relentless machine it is - no glossing over the ugly. Sharp wit, grounded emotion and a heroine who refuses to fade into her man's fame. Trust, privacy and loyalty get tested hard under constant scrutiny. The romance lands with real weight because it never flinches from the truth.

Rival Hearts by Maggie Rawdon

I'm the league's favorite underdog. Madison Westfield wants me gone for good. Her ex-best friend's little sister has every reason to despise me: I took her boyfriend's spot, her brother's career is on the line and our broken engagement years ago fueled a family feud that's got the whole league watching. She'd love to ruin me, but she's stuck rehabbing my PR disaster instead. Her brutal checklist is torture I'll happily take - if it means proving everyone wrong together. Forced proximity with Madison? I'll steal every second, consequences be damned.

Game On: 5 Football Romances That Hit Harder Than the Super Bowl Did

Until Friday Night by Abbi Glines

West Ashby is Lawton High's golden boy - cocky, gorgeous, state-champ quarterback. But inside, he's breaking as cancer slowly takes his dad. Maggie Carleton hasn't spoken since her father murdered her mother two years ago. She told the truth, then went silent forever. Even a new town couldn't fix her. One dark post-game party, West spills his pain to the quiet girl he trusts won't talk. He expects relief. Instead, she speaks - revealing a grief deeper than his. Their connection ignites, fierce and unbreakable. The whole Field Party series is dangerously addictive. One hit and it'll have you in a chokehold, bingeing like your next breath depends on it.

Blind Side by Kandi Steiner

Emotionally heavy, beautifully done. Football sets the stage for grief, healing and intimacy that feels risky because it is. The romance doesn't erase scars or tie them up neatly - it asks what closeness looks like when you're still shattered. The sport heightens every stake without stealing focus. Gut-punch immersive perfect for high-drama game day.

The Hook Up by Kristen Callihan

Kristen Callihan's The Hook Up proves that the fastest way to fall in love is to pretend you absolutely won't. Anna Jones wants control: finish college, keep her independence, avoid complications. Enter Drew Baylor, a Heisman-winning quarterback who's confident, charming, and very bad for her carefully drawn boundaries. Their rules-only arrangement feels safe - until chemistry, banter and desire start calling the plays

Everyone's voice is different. We want to hear yours.

Come together with other teens (13 - 18) at a Write to the Mic workshop designed to showcase your words and ideas.

But the focus is on you: What frustrates you? Where do you find joy? What does this city and country look like from your unique, powerful perspective?

So be a part of the conversation. Join us to write your own verses and then (if you choose) speak them out loud at the open mic that ends every session.

These FREE workshops will be held at The Noyes Arts Garage
2200 Fairmount Avenue, Atlantic City, NJ.
Snacks will be provided.

Monday, February 16 @ 4:30 - 7PM
