HOROSCOPE

MARCH 7 - MARCH 13 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
 This week is anything but ordinary so tap into your raw talent for doing things differently and take that leap of faith. Dreams remain in the ethers unless you do everything you can to land them and the astrology is helping you align with your Aries super-powers of courage combined with the capacity to channel a force-field of can-do energy.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
 The maverick planet Uranus in your own sign is upending your set-up and unplugging the old status quo. Really you have to treat your life like impro and pluck answers out of the air. Unsettling as this may seem, you will surprise yourself as you actually do know exactly what to do in the moment. Getting yourself out of a rut propels you into a new and exciting adventure.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 Things are moving rapidly which delights you as long as you're poised to handle the unexpected. Exploring tangents adds a creative edge to your thought process. What can you magic up at this time which takes you beyond the norm? In the run-up to Sunday's New Moon on your midheaven let your imagination run wild but go with the obviously workable option.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
 Being true to yourself becomes easier when you mind less about what other people think and pay more attention to your inner knowing about what's right for you. You are being pulsed to shake things up a bit - you feel change is long overdue. Freeing yourself from old expectations is entirely liberating and delivers the plus point of a new lease of life.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
 As Uranus cuts you loose you're beginning to enjoy the electric energy sizzling around you. Part of the joy is actually not knowing what's going to happen next and there's a certain freedom in being able to live more spontaneously and make things up as you go along. Even if the externals in your life still stand, underneath you're buzzing.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
 Making snap decisions requires you to think on your feet rather than from a place of a long analytic process. Uranus is putting you on the spot and asking you to go with your gut instincts. Nevertheless you may have to talk others down from a dream-state. You still have your feet on the ground not down the rabbit hole!

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 Taken as a whole, March leaves you in a different place from when it started. The process begins this week with Uranus removing old strands of your existence which you've outgrown. This planetary energy can feel jolting and unexpected but it allows things to move forward unencumbered by an old mindset or situation. What's to come this Spring will be free-ing and enlightening.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
 Throwing off the way things used to be can be a shock to the system. However, you're in a period of rapid growth and change even if things feel destabilised. Stay calm and prepare for lift-off..... you're entering a new chapter over the next couple of months. Meanwhile emain in touch with the magic of the creative process.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
 Ground-breaking aspects are everywhere during March and April so the new normal is forming whilst the old one is rendered obsolete. In the meantime there's a period of change that needs to be navigated with your customary faith and optimism - yet mindful of the importance of keeping things real. Explore everything but buy time, not instant answers.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
 What's going on is certainly not what you expected - as the planet Uranus always adds something out of left field. However, embracing change allows you to think and live in new and stimulating ways which release you from the old routine. This is not only life-enhancing, it enables you to contact a part inside of yourself which is a free spirit. Who knew!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
 As both Venus and Mars in your own sign are at odds with the change-maker planet Uranus, unexpected events or plot twists are adding an air of intrigue to this week. You do like to be kept on your toes and enjoy the thrill of being or receiving a wild card. Even so, what's unfolding is likely to either light up your world or cause a sudden flash of disruptive energy.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
 In the run-up to Sunday's New Moon in Pisces you're receiving a stream of cosmic energy which takes you out of the ordinary. Perhaps into the bliss-state or an unknown territory, perhaps something unexpected that dips you into an out of body experience. One thing's for sure you need to gather yourself for the re-set at New Moon so start making a list of intentions.

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Hot Spot:
Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall
 Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
 Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

Name and Location: Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall is nestled in the middle of the iconic Orange Loop at 133 S Tennessee Ave in Atlantic City.

Hours of Operation: We are open Wednesday-Thursday from 11:30 am - 11:00 pm, Friday from 11:30 am - 1 am, Saturday from 10:00am - 1 am, and Sunday from 10:00 am - 11:00 pm.

Parking Directions/Tips: Free parking lot across the street!

What does your venue specialize in? 40 taps. Award-winning food. Live music. Where culinary excellence meets vibrant entertainment in the heart of Atlantic City. At the Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall, we redefine the dining and social scene, blending award-winning gastropub food, hand-crafted cocktails, and the best beer list in South Jersey to create a destination that transcends the ordinary. Whether you're enjoying a laid-back evening with friends or celebrating a special occasion, our commitment to providing an unparalleled experience ensures that every visit is a memorable celebration of craft, flavor, and rhythm.

What is your secret favorite that the crowds have yet to discover? We started serving a special cheeseburger inspired by the hit film "The Menu" for a limited time that started on Wednesday, Jan. 18.

What is the current reason one MUST come to your venue? There are little to no venues that offer over 40 of the best beers on tap and over 80 bottles and cans to choose from!

Why is your venue a necessary part of Atlantic City? Part of Tennessee Avenue restaurant group, we helped pioneer the revamping of Atlantic City. We wanted to give Atlantic City a mainstream and somewhere safe for people to enjoy outside of the casinos.

Do you have a signature dish? Our Kentucky Ave Chicken Sandwich is a must have, with Japanese Pepper Spiced Chicken, Kimchi Slaw & Sweet Chili Aioli.

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: Our Venue also hosts private events for any occasion. And we know how to throw an unforgettable experience at Tennessee Avenue Beer Hall! From a girls-night-out, to a family reunion, birthday or holiday party, wedding reception or engagement shower, and everything in between – we have you covered! Our packages start at only $26 per person, and all options can be customized and personalized - just ask!

What are some other special reasons to come visit? There is always something to do at Tennessee Ave Beer Hall, be it Quizzo on Wednesday Nights at 8 pm, pop up Paint and Sip Events, Live Music every week, and Comedy Specials!

Do you have any weekly specials or upcoming events? We offer $5 Happy Hour weekdays 3-6pm, and all-day happy hour on Wednesdays. Live music, craft cocktails, the best beer list in the city with over 40 taps and 80 cans/bottles. We are also hosting Saint Patrick's Day on Tennessee Ave this year! And we're currently recruiting people for our Kazoo band during the parade!

A True Account Hannah Masury's Sojourn Amongst the Pyrates, Written by Herself by Katherine Howe

In Boston, as the Golden Age of Piracy comes to a bloody close, Hannah Masury – bound out to service at a waterfront inn since childhood – is ready to take her life into her own hands. When a man is hanged for piracy in the town square and whispers of a treasure in the Caribbean spread, Hannah is forced to flee for her life, disguising herself as a cabin boy in the pitiless crew of the notorious pirate Edward “Ned” Low. To earn the freedom to choose a path for herself, Hannah must hunt down the treasure and change the tides. Meanwhile, professor Marian Beresford pieces Hannah's story together in 1930, seeing her own lack of freedom reflected back at her as she watches Hannah's transformation. At the center of Hannah Masury's account, however, lies a centuries-old mystery that Marian is determined to solve, just as Hannah may have been determined to take it to her grave. (Nov 2023)

The Assassin of Venice by Alyssa Palombo

Valentina Riccardi is many things: beautiful, cultured, deadly. As one of Venice's famous courtesans, she's perfectly positioned to seduce powerful men, get them alone, and assassinate them. Spies. Traitors. Who they are doesn't matter—only that they made an enemy of the Council of Ten, the shadowy and seemingly omniscient power from which Valentina takes her orders without question. Venice is her home, and after losing everything once before to an invading army, there is nothing she won't do to protect her city, for there is nothing she loves more. Almost nothing. (June 2024)

4 Historical Novels That Burn Down Stereotypes of Lawless Women

The Last Twelve Miles by Erika Robuck

In the Prohibition Rum Wars, the Coast Guard is losing. But the Coast Guard has a new, secret weapon one of the husband-and-wife pair who invented cryptanalysis and trained Great War soldiers to crack smuggler codes, intercept traffic, and destroy the trade, one skiff at a time. That secret weapon is a 5'2" mastermind in heels, who also happens to be a wife and mother: Mrs. Elizebeth Smith Friedman. Enter Marie Waite wife of a rumrunner and mother of two little ones notices discrepancies in cargo, she insists on accompanying her husband, Charlie, on a run from their home in Miami to Nassau. So begins Marie's plan to rise as rumrunner royalty long enough to get her family in the black. What she didn't count on was that the more sophisticated her operation grows, the more she comes on the radar of the feds, nabbing criminals by the daily dozen. (June 2024)

Queens of London by Heather Webb

When Alice Diamond, AKA “Diamond Annie,” is elected the Queen of the Forty Elephants, she's determined to take the all-girl gang to new heights. She's ambitious, tough as nails, and a brilliant mastermind, with a plan to create a dynasty the likes of which no one has ever seen. Too bad she's now the target for one of Britain's first female policewomen. Officer Lilian Wyles isn't merely one of the first female detectives at Scotland Yard, she's one of the best detectives on the force. Even so, she'll have to win a big score to prove herself, to break free from the “women's work” she's been assigned. When she hears about the large-scale heist in the works to fund Alice's new dynasty, she realizes she has the chance she's been looking for and the added bonus of putting Diamond Annie out of business permanently. A tale of dark glamour and sisterhood, Queens of London is a look at Britain's first female crime syndicate, the ever-shifting meaning of justice, and the way women claim their power by any means necessary. Three Things to Know About Real Service Animals

Since service animals are not required to wear a vest or have other ID, here's three ways to recognize a legitimate service animal.

1. Real Service Animals Perform Specific Tasks.

Service animals are working dogs, not pets. They may range in size and breed but ALL are specially trained to do work or perform tasks that are directly related to a person's disability. When it's not obvious what service the dog provides, staff may ask two questions: (1) is the dog a service animal required because of a disability, and (2) what work or task has the dog been trained to perform.

2. Real Service Animals Are Trained to be Calm.

From an early age, service animals are carefully exposed to a variety of environments and situations. They are socialized with people, other animals, and taught basic obedience. By the time they become service animals, they are confident, well-adjusted, and able to reliably perform their essential services, no matter what. Without such training, dogs may become overly stressed, leading to inappropriate behaviors that are not suitable for public places.

3. Real Service Animals Are Well Behaved in Public.

When service animals are working, they are not permitted to repeatedly bark, growl, jump, lunge, or freely wander around. They don't bite or harm people or other animals, and they don't urinate and defecate on the floors. If a particular service animal is out of control and the handler doesn't take effective action to control it, staff may request that the animal be removed from the premises.

For more information about service animals and the ADA, please visit ADA.gov or call the ADA Information Line at 800-514-0301.

DORA

Dora is a 2 year old female German Shepard mix. She recently came to us from a hoarding situation in Galloway. She a little nervous on leash but warms up quickly. Dora gets along well with other dogs and doesn't seem to mind cats. Due to her being food motivated, we are recommending a home with no young children.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. International Women's Day – March 8, 2024

International Women's Day (March 8) is a global day celebrating the historical, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also observed in support of taking action against gender inequality around the world. We all know the world couldn't run without women (we mean, just listen to Beyoncé). This is the day to appreciate their efforts! Organizations large and small come together to show women just how valuable they are in today's society. Also make sure to help women around you find resources on scholarships available for women from around the world to help them spread their wings and fly higher.

HISTORY OF INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

Susan B. Anthony was a political activist and an advocate of women's rights. After the Civil War, she fought for the 14th Amendment that was meant to grant all naturalized and native-born Americans citizenship in the hope that it would include suffrage rights. Although the 14th Amendment was ratified in 1868, it still didn't secure their vote. In 1869, the National Woman Suffrage Association (NWSA) was founded by Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony to continue the fight for women's rights.

In the early 1900s, women were experiencing pay inequality, a lack of voting rights, and they were being overworked. In response to all of this, 15,000 women marched through New York City in 1908 to demand their rights. In 1909, the first National Women's Day was observed in accordance with a declaration by the Socialist Party of America. This was celebrated on the last Sunday of February until 1913.

An International Women's Conference was organized in August 1910 by Clara Zetkin, a German suffragist and leader in the Women's Office. Zetkin proposed a special Women's Day to be organized annually and International Women's Day was honored the following year in Austria, Denmark, Germany, and Switzerland, with more than one million attending the rallies. On August 18, 1920, the 19th Amendment was ratified and white women were granted the right to vote in the U.S.

The liberation movement took place in the 1960s and the effort led to the passage of the Voting Rights Act, allowing all women the right to vote. When the internet became more commonplace, feminism and the fight against gender inequality experienced a resurgence. Now we celebrate International Women's Day each year as we push continuously with the hope of creating a completely equal society.

TRADITIONS OF THE DAY

As women come together to celebrate the advancement of gender equality and women's rights on International Women's Day, they receive ample support from men who give them flowers or other gifts. This tradition extends to educational institutes and workplaces as well. Inspiring female leaders and women with success stories in different areas of life are put in the spotlight to encourage and influence other women all over the world.

In Spain and Turkey, political activities and protests take place on this day. The aim is to motivate change in policymaking. In China, women are often allowed a half-day off from work and receive special treatment in general at work and home.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY ACTIVITIES

- Get involved - There's an International Women's Day event in nearly every major city and you can pick and choose what attracts you most. There are concerts where you can listen to live music, art exhibitions where talented creators display their work, and networking summits where you can hear guest speakers discuss women's rights.
- Do like they do in the rest of the world - Send a bouquet, thank you card, or some small gift to your mother, sister, or co-worker. It's guaranteed to brighten their day, give you a boost in their eyes, and help commemorate a wonderful day.
- Learn more about a woman you admire - We all have our favorite musicians, actresses, and historical figures, but have you taken the time to truly know their story? Do some digging and learn about what their life was like. Chances are they've been through their fair share of trials and tribulations, and you'll be inspired by their perseverance.
