BANANAS

Bananas are very nutritious. They contain fiber, potassium, vitamin C, vitamin B6 and several other beneficial plant compounds. These nutrients may have a number of health benefits, such as for digestive and heart health. Our stomach takes a long time to digest a banana. On top of that, our body's metabolism is at its lowest in the night. Therefore, one should ideally consume bananas in the morning or the evening and must avoid eating them at night. They are high in sugar as well. There are two types of sugar: natural and refined, and since bananas have fructose (a naturally occurring sugar), it's a good source of carbohydrates.

Bananas, when fully ripe contain soluble sugar and thus can help treat constipation. However, unripe, or green, bananas have high levels of resistant starch, which can be very binding and cause constipation. Because of this, unripe bananas can be used to treat diarrhea. Bananas health benefits outweigh apples. That's because they have many more vitamins and nutrients than their round counterparts. Bananas have twice as many carbohydrates, 5 times as much Vitamin A and iron, and 3 times as much phosphorus as apples.

Hear for the Holiday: Three of My "Go To" Favorite Irish Songs

by Joe Molineaux

When Saint Patrick's Day comes around, my thoughts and listening habits tend to gravitate to a few of my favorite Irish artists and bands. The list is long and includes the likes of Van Morrison, U2, The Pogues, Foy Vance and more.

When it comes to songs, I could easily do a full column on each of the above mentioned artists and bands, since their catalogs in some of their cases are rich and full what adds up to decades of musical offerings. However with the holiday upon us, I will instead focus on three songs by three different artists that I have enjoyed since first hearing them. They each have significance for uniquely different reasons.

The Dirty Glass by The Dropkick Murphys – In 2002 the band released their fourth studio album "Blackout". They released a single that became a modest radio hit. I had not really discovered the Dropkicks until a fellow radio DJ turned me onto the band. The song she played was "The Dirty Glass" and it was my introduction to The Dropkick Murphys. To this day is still my favorite song in their entire catalog.

While the "The Dirty Glass" was originally recorded and featured on another less distributed album, the attraction for me to this song was instantaneous. The energy of the song along with the three distinct vocals take you right into the middle of a bar argument where finger pointing and accusation fly... all over what I believe is a bar that in the images in my mind has at least on "dirty glass" on it. I distinctly remember it being compared to storytelling songs by The Pogues (mentioned earlier). Give it a listen, with or without a dirty glass in front of you.

The Galway Girl by Steve Earle - The song was originally recorded by Steve Earle and Sharon Shannon on the album "Transcendental Blues" in 2000. I actually owe my discovery of this awesome song to my wife. She discovered the song while she was watching the film "P.S. I Love You" and starred Hillary Swank, Gerard Butler, and Jeffrey Dean Morgan. If memory serves me, I believe both Butler and Morgan sing the song to Swank at different parts of the movie.

I like to tell people that my wife's people are from County Westmeath in Ireland. So she is most definitely of Irish decent. If I can believe the information I received from the fine people that analyzed my DNA, I have about twenty percent of Irish in me. So of course on our 25th wedding anniversary we took a trip to Ireland. Not only was the song played at multiple bars along our trip traversing most of Ireland, it was especially part of the Galway scene's musical offerings.

In 2008, an Irish artist called Mundy and Sharon Shannon released a cover of "Galway Girl". The studio version of the song shot up to the number one spot on the Irish Singles Chart in April of that year. It ended up becoming the biggest selling singles / biggest-selling downloaded songs in Ireland in 2008. Plus it won a 2008 Meteor Awards.

My wife enjoyed the song and the movie that led her to the song so much that during our trip to Ireland we made a stop to visit the bar, Whelan's Pub in Dublin, where the song was performed in the film. And now the song is part of our soundtrack to one of the most memorable trips we have taken together.

If I Ever Leave This World Alive by Flogging Molly – This very well written and reflective song is from the band's 2002 album "Drunken Lullabies" Flogging Molly, like The Dropkick Murphys are an Irish-American punk band. The album has been certified gold by the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA).

Truth be told, my wife is not the only one who discovers songs and music through movies, television and other media methods. While "If I Ever Leave This World Alive" has been a song I had heard numerous times before, it may have been the same movie, "P.S. I Love You" that helped solidify the song as one of my top three. Upon my first and ongoing listening to the tune, I find myself reflecting on life and also what leaving this earthly place may entail.

If you are like me, music is both enjoyable and when the lyrics are thoughtfully crafted they do make you think. Here's to more musical discovery together and have a happy Saint Patrick's Day!

St. Patrick's Day Fun Facts & History

• St. Patrick wasn't Irish. Although he made his mark by introducing Christianity to Ireland in the year 432, Patrick wasn't Irish himself. He was born to Roman parents in Scotland or Wales.

• St. Patrick's Day used to be a dry holiday. As you might expect, St. Patrick's Day is a huge deal in his old stomping grounds. It's a national holiday in both Ireland and Northern Ireland, but up until the 1970s, pubs were closed on that day. (The one exception went to beer vendors at the big national dog show, which was always held on St. Patrick's Day.) Before that time, the saint's feast day was considered a more solemn, strictly religious occasion. Now, the country welcomes hordes of green-clad tourists for parades, drinks, and perhaps the reciting of a few limericks.

• New York City's St. Patrick's Day parade has been happening since 1762. New York City's St. Patrick's Day Parade is one of the world's largest parades. Since 1762, roughly 250,000 marchers have traipsed up 5th Avenue on foot—the parade still doesn't allow floats, cars, or other modern trappings. People like Miracle on 34th Street actress Maureen O'Hara and Cardinal Timothy Dolan, the archbishop of New York, have served as grand marshal. In 2020, the parade was canceled for the first time in its centuries-old history due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

• Chicago literally runs green for St. Patrick's Day. New York may have more manpower, but Chicago has a spectacle all its own. The city has been celebrating St. Patrick by dumping green dye into the Chicago River since 1962. And though the organizers won't reveal their exact formula, we do know that the powder used is dispersed through flour sifters by the local plumbers' union.

• Americans run up quite a bar tab on St. Patrick's Day. It's the biggest day for bars in the country. It was expected that Americans would spend $6.86 billion celebrating the holiday this year.

• St. Patrick's Day lingo makes sense. You can't attend a St. Patrick's Day event without hearing a cry of "Erin go Bragh." The phrase is a corruption of the Irish Éirinn go Brách, which means roughly "Ireland forever."

SMITHVILLE

April 15 - ART WALK
Smithville Greene
10am - 5pm

More than 75 artists participate in the annual Art Walk held at the Smithville Village. From 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and more than 40 tables are set up on the Village Greene side of the Smithville Village for the Art Walk.

Mike Spagnola said his store sells art and music from local artists. When Mike's store, Underground, sells local music all of the profits go to the musicians. The store takes a small percentage of the profits from art sales. "There are seasoned artists and there are new artists," Spagnola said. "Artists who are 16 and 17 years old will be here. A lot of them are excited to meet like minds."

There will be a wide array of art and artists on display.

"Everything is always cutting edge, but all genres will be represented, from traditional to low brow," Spagnola said.

The Wizard of Odds

The "Wizard of Odds" is a local casino maven who has first-hand and accurate inside information on the best and worst casino deals in Atlantic City. If you follow the Wizard's advice in patronizing the best and avoiding the worst casinos, your money will last longer, and you will have a better chance to win. This week's feature is about "The Wiz has been stumped again!"

Remember those Bagel-nomics columns the "Wiz" had offered over the past two years to illustrate the effects of high inflation and the risk of hyperinflation? He facetiously tried to calculate the odds of how many wheelbarrows full of one hundred trillion dollar Zimbabwean banknotes it would be required to purchase one bagel from Hot Bagels in Margate. (By the way, these delightful morsels especially topped off with Shop Rite's white fish salad are worth every penny!)

Now the "Wiz" has a new slot odds problem. Harrah's has a novelty deuces video poker slot whereby one hundred hands are played for a $5 bet. The attached screenshot reveals that not a single deuce appeared. The hand before displayed only one deuce on one hundred hands. How can that be?

If any math genius out there can calculate the odds of that happening let the "Wiz" know and he will dutifully have it published to his dear readers.

BUY AMERICAN & HIRE AMERICANS

The "Wiz" can be contacted at WizardofOdds@comcast.net
 Editor's Note: The opinions of the Wiz are not opinions of this publication.

Library Promotes Youth Literacy at Barbershops with 'Fade to Books'

The Atlantic City Free Public Library has provided children's books to city barbershops and salons the last several years through its Fade to Books program – and it is looking to add more locations this year. As part of the program, the library gives participating businesses a small bookcase and children's books. There is no cost to the business owner. A library staff member visits participating locations periodically to check on the condition of the bookcase and restock it with more books. Barbers and stylists encourage their young clients to select books to read as they sit in the waiting area, during their haircuts or at home. Children are allowed to take home books from the Fade to Books bookcase to keep.

There are currently Atlantic City Fade to Books bookcases located at Aminia Hair Braiding (113 S. Tennessee Ave.), Just Cutt'n Up (526 Atlantic Ave.) and Mencia's Barbershop (3109 Atlantic Ave.).

Atlantic City barbershops and salons interested in being a Fade to Books site can call Kristen Reid-Ortiz at (609) 345-2269, ext. 3044. Also, residents are welcome to encourage their barbershop or salon to contact the library about becoming an Atlantic City Fade to Books location.

Lucy the Elephant

A National Historic Landmark

Where is Lucy The Elephant located? 1 Lucy Plaza (9200 Atlantic Ave, Margate

When are you open? In winter, we are open Saturdays and Sundays from 11am-4pm with guided tours through the interior of Lucy every 45 minutes

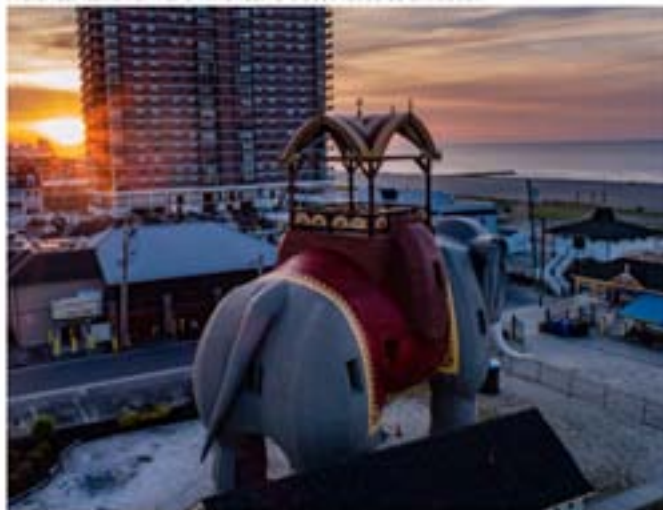

What does your venue specialize in? Giving tours of the world's largest elephant and providing a unique, great space for special events.

What is the current reason one MUST come to Lucy The Elephant? Lucy just completed a $2.5 million exterior restoration and she looks "ELEPHANTASTIC!" Where else in the world can you walk through an elephant and come out alive?!!

What is your favorite secret that the crowds have yet to discover? Lucy isn't female.

Why is Lucy The Elephant a necessary part of Atlantic City? Lucy is a National Historical Landmark and American's oldest roadside attraction.

What are some other special reasons to come visit Lucy The Elephant? Lucy is a 6-story elephant. She offers spectacular views from her howdah (riding carriage) and she is the oldest surviving example of zoomorphic architecture (buildings in the shape of animals) in the world.

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about Lucy The Elephant. Lucy was one of the first structures built in what was then called South Atlantic City, now Margate, in 1881. She was the first of 3 elephants built by entrepreneur, James Lafferty. The other two, Elephantine Colossus in Coney Island burned down in 1896 and Light of Asia built in Cape May was destroyed in 1900.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

The Seeing Eye Online Auction

Plans are underway for The Seeing Eye's 2023 Online Auction! The auction will take place April 27 through May 10, 2023. Proceeds from this annual event go directly toward fulfilling our mission to nurture the partnership between specially trained Seeing Eye® dogs and people with vision loss.

AUCTION DONATIONS

The online auction is made possible by generous individuals and businesses who donate items for bidding. Not only will you be supporting our mission, you will also be showcasing your products and services to thousands of our supporters!

The online bidding runs April 27 through May 10, 2023 and when the auction is live it will be hosted at www.seeingeye.org/auction. Each item listing will include a detailed description, photographs, your company's logo and a direct link to your webpage. Auction items range from jewelry, gift cards, dog toys, sports tickets, vacation stays and more!

For additional information or to donate item(s), please contact us at 973-525-1088 or auction@seeingeye.org.

Item donations should be received no later than March 24, 2023 and addressed to:

The Seeing Eye Auction Team
 1 Seeing Eye Way
 Morristown, NJ 07960

Just a little less than a month until the auction stops accepting donations. Thank you to all those who have donated already!

Seeing Eye pup Bart has been very busy helping his raiser volunteer for the online auction. Last week he picked up beautiful pearls from the very generous Roman Jewelers in Bridgewater. This week him and his raiser went around Chester to see if any stores would be interested in donating to the auction. We are sure he did a great job!

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.
