The Friday night lights are ready to shine again across Atlantic County, where tradition, grit, and star power define the gridiron each fall. The 2024 season saw playoff thrillers, record-breaking performances, and plenty of reasons to believe 2025 could be even bigger. Here's how each local program stacks up heading into the new campaign.

MAINLAND REGIONAL (10-4, Group 3 South Jersey Champions)

Mainland's season was defined by resilience - and one unforgettable overtime in the Group 4 state semifinals. Trailing Somerville 35-28 in OT, Rocco DeBia's 7-yard score brought them within one. Coach Chuck Smith gambled on the two-point try, and John Franchini found Jake Blum for the game-winning conversion in a 36-35 stunner. Blum, who set a school record with 15 receiving touchdowns and totaled 1,294 yards, also had 10 catches for 175 yards in that semifinal. DeBia led all CAL rushers with 17 TDs, and kicker Nate Kashey added 64 points. Mainland's defense allowed just 15.4 points per game, with Matt Muits recording nine sacks. The Mustangs fell to Old Tappan in the state final but return a core that makes them immediate contenders again.

ST. AUGUSTINE PREP (7-4, Non-Public A Semifinalist)

The Hermits boasted the CAL's stingiest defense, allowing just 9.9 points per game. Navy-bound RB Julian Turney capped his career with 1,174 yards and 12 TDs, surpassing 3,300 yards in two seasons. Three-year starting lineman Joe Tenaglia cleared the way, while junior Demari Simeon (47 solo tackles) and senior LB Julian Giambuzzi (84 tackles) anchored the defense. Kicker Luke Tanzola tied for the longest FG in the CAL at 45 yards.

ATLANTIC CITY (8-4, Constitution Division Runner-Up)

The Vikings started hot with an eight-game win streak and ended with an 8-4 mark, reaching the Group 5 playoffs. QB Khajuan "Peaky" Roseborough threw for 2,109 yards and 24 TDs while adding 803 yards and seven scores on the ground. WR Sahnye "Ice Cup" Graffenreidt set the Atlantic County career receiving TD record (37) and had 12 more in 2024. The defense scored three touchdowns, with Jeremiah Williams returning two.

CEDAR CREEK (8-3, Group 3 Playoff Qualifier)

The Pirates opened postseason play by beating Triton 39-14 before bowing to Delsea. RB Amir Dunbar rushed for 1,264 yards and 14 TDs, while QB Reilly Hoffacker passed for 1,506 yards and 16 scores. WR Jahmir Campfield had eight receiving TDs, and LB Justus Peyton made 108 tackles. Cedar Creek's defense allowed just 15.4 points per game.

EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP (6-4, Memorial Division Co-Runner-Up)

EHT scored 28.8 points per game, third-best in the CAL, and posted key late wins over Vineland and ACIT. Sophomore QB/RB Xavier Cocci threw for 1,582 yards and 11 TDs and rushed for 13 scores. Maximus Cocci made 124 tackles, second in the league, and Joe Lacross had two return TDs.

OAKCREST (6-4, Liberty Division Champions)

The Falcons led the CAL in fewest passing TDs allowed (5) and scored 31.4 points per game. LB/RB Donovan Linthicum was a force, with 122 tackles, 711 rushing yards, and 10 TDs, plus five sacks. QB Andrew Estrada passed for 1,091 yards and 12 scores.

HOLY SPIRIT (10-2, Non-Public B Finalist, Constitution Division Champions)

Holy Spirit's defense gave up just 13.7 points per game. RB Jahcere Ward ran for 801 yards and 13 TDs, while K/P Mason Forte hit eight field goals (long of 41) and made 34 of 35 PATs. DE Nick Medina led the CAL with 10 sacks.

HAMMONTON (1-9)

It was a rebuilding year for Hammonton, but senior RB Deandre Clemons still eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards and returned two kicks for touchdowns. The Blue Devils notched three return TDs overall.

BUENA (4-7, United Division 4th Place)

The Chiefs ran for 25 TDs as a team. RB Benjamin Cohen had 860 yards and eight scores, and LB Lucas Gellura added 772 rushing yards and 100 tackles. Troy Gregory led the CAL with six two-point conversions.

ABSEGAMI (5-5, Liberty Division 3rd Place)

WR Donald Johnson had 300 yards and five receiving TDs, plus a kick return score. QB Kendall Armstrong threw for 1,148 yards and 12 TDs, and the Braves' defense scored twice.

PLEASANTVILLE (2-8, Continental Division 5th Place)

Sophomore WR Takiess Barnes posted 407 receiving yards, while RB Nazir Griffin ran for six TDs. The Greyhounds converted 10 two-point tries, most in the CAL.

ST. JOSEPH ACADEMY (2-7, Liberty Division 6th Place)

WR Keaton Doyle caught six TD passes, and RB Hanif Hernandez had 576 yards rushing. The Wildcats fought through a tough schedule in a deep division.

ACIT (2-6, Memorial Division 3rd Place)

Competing in a balanced division, the Red Hawks notched wins over Bridgeton and Deptford but couldn't string together momentum late in the season.

LOOKING AHEAD

With 2024 in the books, Atlantic County's football landscape is primed for another fall of fierce rivalries and Friday night drama. This preseason will give fans their first look at new quarterbacks stepping into big shoes, returning stars trying to repeat breakout years, and young talent hoping to make a name for themselves before the games start to count.

Scrimmages and preseason matchups over the next week will help coaches fine-tune lineups, test schemes, and see which underclassmen are ready for varsity speed. Rosters are settling, captains are emerging, and each team's identity is beginning to take shape.

When the regular season kicks off at the end of August, expect plenty of storylines to follow: Mainland's quest to get back to a state final, Atlantic City's rebuild after losing its record-setting duo, Cedar Creek's push for another playoff run, and the always-tense battles between CAL division rivals.

Next week, we'll dive into the opening slate of games - who's playing where, which matchups could set the tone for the season, and what fans should watch for under those first Friday night lights.

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 21-27, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

The urge to take charge is strong—but this week asks you to work with, not against, the current. A detour or delay might feel frustrating at first, but there's a lesson in the pause. Keep your ego in check and your ears open. Patience now sets you up for a more rewarding win.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You're reconnecting with your values and reevaluating what's worth your time, energy, and money. A quiet realization midweek may shift your priorities in a lasting way. Don't ignore the subtle nudge to let something go. What you release now creates room for something far more aligned.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You're feeling bolder, and your presence is commanding attention—use that wisely. This is a great week to clarify your image, speak up, or set intentions for how you want to be seen. A new beginning is taking shape, and your voice matters. Just be sure to back it up with action.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

This is a week for rest, release, and behind-the-scenes recalibration. You're tying up a chapter, even if you can't quite name it yet. Give yourself time to process before pushing forward. Something powerful is brewing beneath the surface.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

The spotlight's dimming just enough for you to see what matters most offstage. A meaningful connection or team effort could come into sharper focus. You don't always have to lead to make an impact. Let others shine, too—you'll be surprised what comes back around.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

With your season approaching, you're ready to clean house—literally or metaphorically. Goals get sharper, and you're craving results. Take stock of what's working and what's just taking up space. It's time to align your environment with your intentions.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Your world is expanding, whether through travel, learning, or a shift in perspective. A philosophical or creative breakthrough may change how you see a current challenge. Stay open to unfamiliar ideas. The best path forward might not be the one you'd planned.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Something deep is surfacing—emotionally, financially, or spiritually. You're being asked to confront a truth you've been circling for a while. Lean into it; there's freedom in clarity. By the weekend, you'll feel lighter and more in control.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Relationships take the spotlight, and a partnership may need more definition—or more space. Honest conversations will get you further than assumptions. Your needs are valid, but so are theirs. Find the balance that respects both.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

This is a high-focus week for productivity, wellness, and practical upgrades. Whether it's your body, your workflow, or your time, streamlining pays off. Don't take on more just to feel accomplished. Simplicity is the most powerful tool in your belt right now.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You're stepping into a more expressive, joyful zone—so let yourself play a little. Romance, creativity, or a fun distraction could spark something unexpected. Not everything has to be serious to be meaningful. Lighten your grip and follow what feels good.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Home and emotional safety are in focus now, and you may feel the urge to nest or retreat. Trust that pull—it's part of your deeper reset. Let yourself soften and reconnect with your foundations. What stabilizes you now will support your next big leap.

The Phillies kept rolling from August 12-17, going 4-2 in a stretch that tested them against playoff-caliber opponents. The week opened in Houston, where Ranger Suárez squared off with Framber Valdez on Tuesday, August 12. Suárez looked sharper than in recent outings, giving the Phillies six innings of two-run ball. Trea Turner sparked the offense with a first-inning homer, and Bryson Stott added a clutch RBI double in the seventh. But a late rally by the Astros proved too much, and Philadelphia dropped the opener, 5-3.

Wednesday's matchup belonged to Cristopher Sánchez, who continued his breakout season by scattering four hits over seven shutout innings. He struck out seven and lowered his ERA to 2.61, while Kyle Schwarber's two-run blast provided all the cushion the Phillies needed in a 3-0 win. Taijuan Walker closed the set on Thursday, working five innings in a hard-fought 4-2 loss, as the Phillies couldn't solve Houston's bullpen.

Returning to Citizens Bank Park on Friday, August 15, Philadelphia reset against the Cincinnati Reds. Zack Wheeler was electric in the opener, striking out nine over eight innings and allowing just one run in a 6-1 win. Bryce Harper finally broke through with a three-hit night, including his 18th home run, while Brandon Marsh and Nick Castellanos each chipped in multi-hit games. The momentum carried into Saturday, when Ranger Suárez redeemed himself with six efficient innings and Turner added three more RBIs in a 7-3 victory.

Sunday's finale turned into a slugfest, with the Reds jumping ahead early behind Elly De La Cruz's two-run shot. The Phillies clawed back behind Stott's two doubles and Harper's game-tying single in the eighth, but Cincinnati held on, 8-7, to avoid a sweep.

For the week, Turner and Harper paced the lineup—Turner driving in nine runs while Harper notched seven hits in 20 at-bats. Marsh stayed steady with five hits and strong defense in center, while Jhoan Duran notched his 25th save on Saturday. Sánchez's dominance stood out once again, solidifying his role as the team's most reliable starter down the stretch.

Looking Ahead: Keys to This Week

The Phillies host the Washington Nationals beginning Monday, August 18, before hitting the road for a crucial weekend series against the division-rival Mets starting Friday, August 22. Washington's young arms have shown flashes, but the Phillies' power bats will look to jump on them early. The Mets series looms large, as Philadelphia holds a 5½-game cushion but will face New York's top arms in a playoff-like atmosphere at Citi Field.

Final Word

With Sánchez and Wheeler anchoring the staff, and Harper beginning to heat up alongside Turner, the Phillies are finding the balance of pitching and timely hitting needed to push into September with confidence. If they can weather the rivalry test in Queens, they'll be in prime position to tighten their hold on the NL East and keep momentum pointed toward October.

RIP CURRENTS

KNOW YOUR OPTIONS

IF CAUGHT IN A RIP CURRENT

- Relax, rip currents don't pull you under.
- Don't swim against the current.
- Swim out of the current, then to shore.
- If you can't escape, float or tread water.
- If you need help, yell or wave for assistance.

Rip currents are powerful currents of water moving away from shore. They can sweep even the strongest swimmer away from shore. If at all possible, swim near a lifeguard.

Stay Safe in the Surf: A Guide to Water Safety at the Jersey Shore

The Jersey Shore is synonymous with summer fun—sunny beach days, refreshing ocean dips, and thrilling surf. But as inviting as the Atlantic Ocean, bays, and inlets may seem, these waters demand respect. Each year, thousands of visitors flock to Atlantic and Cape May Counties to enjoy the shore, and knowing how to stay safe can mean the difference between a great day and a dangerous one.

Respect the Ocean's Power

The ocean at the Jersey Shore can change quickly, with shifting tides, sudden drop-offs, and powerful currents. Rip currents, in particular, pose a significant hazard. Often invisible from shore, these narrow channels of fast-moving water can pull swimmers out beyond the breaking waves. If caught in one, stay calm—don't try to swim directly back to shore. Instead, swim parallel to the beach until you're free of the current, then angle back toward land.

When possible, swim only at guarded beaches. Lifeguards are trained to spot hazards, assist swimmers in distress, and respond quickly in emergencies. Many Jersey Shore towns, including Ocean City, Wildwood, Cape May, Atlantic City, and Brigantine, staff their beaches with lifeguards daily during peak season, typically from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

Know the Conditions

Before heading out, check the day's surf and weather reports. Local news, beach patrol websites, and flag systems provide updates on tide times, rip current risks, jellyfish sightings, and storm advisories. Be especially cautious after storms, when surf conditions can remain rough even if skies are clear.

Additionally, always be aware of boat traffic in bays and inlets, where swimmers, kayakers, and paddleboarders share the water with motorized vessels. Wearing a U.S. Coast Guard-approved life jacket is essential for boating and recommended for inexperienced swimmers in deeper waters.

Supervise Children Closely

Even on calm days, waves can knock over small children or carry them farther out than expected. Stay within arm's reach of young swimmers, and consider outfitting them with brightly colored swimwear or rash guards for visibility. Teach children to recognize lifeguards and seek help if they feel unsafe.

Smart Shore Habits

- Stay sober while swimming or boating. Alcohol impairs judgment, balance, and reaction times.
- Obey posted signs and lifeguard instructions. Many towns prohibit swimming after hours, when no lifeguards are present.
- Don't overestimate your abilities. The ocean is not a pool. If you're not a strong swimmer, stay in shallower water where you can touch bottom.

Enjoy the Water, Respect the Risks

The Jersey Shore's waters offer unforgettable fun but a safe beach day starts with smart choices. By understanding the ocean's power, heeding local guidance, and watching out for one another, visitors can make the most of their time at the shore - keeping memories joyful and worry-free.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Warrior II (Virabhadrasana II)

Unlike Warrior I, the hips face the side of the mat in Warrior II. The hips and shoulders are open to the side when moving from Warrior I to Warrior II.

You'll also rotate your back foot, angling your toes at about 90 degrees. In both Warrior poses, aim to keep your front knee stacked over the ankle. Your front toes face forward.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin K

You need Vitamin K for blood clotting and healthy bones. A serving of leafy greens -- like spinach, kale, or broccoli -- will give you more than enough K for the day.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

PEACH BBQ SAUCE FOR ALL YOUR WILD GAME & DOMESTIC FOOD

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 Cup Peach Juice
- 1 Fresh New Jersey Peach
- 1 TBS. Granulated Sugar
- 3/4 Cup Ketchup
- 1 TBS. Molasses
- 1 tsp. Raw Honey
- 1/2 tsp. Worcestershire Sauce
- 2 TBS. Apple Cider Vinegar
- 2 TBS. Dark Brown Sugar
- 1/2 tsp Garlic Powder
- 1/2 tsp. Onion Powder
- 1 tsp. Sweet Thai Chili Sauce
- Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:

Peel and rough chop the peach into chunks, leaving the skin and seed behind. Pour juice into a sauce pot. Add in sugar and peaches. Cook the liquid down by half with the peaches being soft. Add in the remaining ingredients. Simmer over medium low heat for about 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Pour sauce into a food processor or blender. Pulse until smooth. Use as needed. Enjoy! Hint: I myself refrigerate this for 24 hours before using. It allows all the flavors to really come together. I use this a lot with pork and wild boar, but it works well with just about anything. If you like peaches and BBQ sauce, wait till you put them together.

National Tooth Fairy Day on August 22 celebrates the excitement and wonder of kids losing their teeth! National Tooth Fairy Day is a reminder for kids, young and old, to relive the fun of visits from the Tooth Fairy when a newly lost tooth was exchanged for a fun surprise as they looked under their pillow in the morning!

History of National Tooth Fairy Day

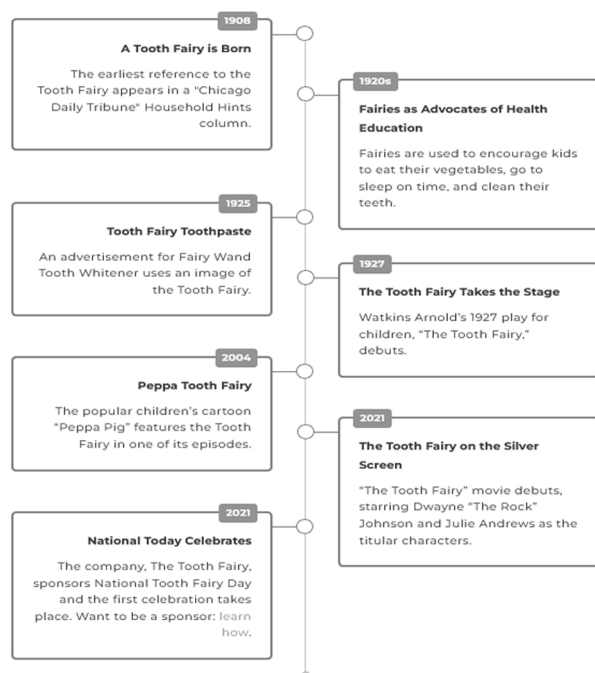

There are three figures that are the pillars of modern mythology for children—Santa Claus, the Easter Bunny, and the Tooth Fairy. While the first two are well documented and discussed, not much is known about our elusive flying friend. But the Tooth Fairy is quite popular because every night children around the world excitedly anticipate the Tooth Fairy's arrival after they have lost a tooth.

The origin of fairies dates back to 13th-century England when they were described for the first time by Gervase of Tilbury. The tradition of a child receiving a gift for a lost tooth can be traced back to medieval Europe. In a collection of writings called the "Eddas" about the Norse and Northern European traditions, there is a reference to a "tand fe," which directly translates to 'tooth fee.' As part of this tradition, children would receive a small fee from their parents when they lost their first tooth. This is because teeth were a symbol of good luck and prosperity. Some Viking warriors would even wear a string of teeth as a necklace during battle to protect them.

The closest counterpart of the modern Tooth Fairy came in the form of an 18th-century French fairytale, "La Bonne Petite Souris" ("The Little Good Mouse"). However, the first written American record of a reference to the 'Tooth Fairy' dates back to a 1908 "Chicago Tribune" article in which the author, Lillian Brown, provided parents with a magical suggestion on how to get their children to have their loose milk teeth pulled. That suggestion was, you guessed it, telling their kids that the Tooth Fairy would leave five cents under their pillow for every tooth they lost. In 1927, an eight-page script for a children's play titled "The Tooth Fairy" was written by Esther Watkins Arnold. The play became widely popular, with schools reenacting it and imaginations being stirred with thoughts of a tooth fairy collecting teeth in exchange for money or presents. Since then, the Tooth Fairy has become a global phenomenon, reportedly paying visits to children in the U.K., Canada, and Australia.

Just like the mystery surrounding the fairy, the origin of the holiday is just as mysterious. Someone somewhere created National Tooth Fairy Day to be celebrated in August but in the lives of children who are losing their baby teeth, the Tooth Fairy is celebrated all year round, as they partake in the enchanting experience of receiving visits and surprises from the Tooth Fairy for every tooth they lose.

NATIONAL TOOTH FAIRY DAY TIMELINE

National Tooth Fairy Day Activities

- Watch a movie or read a book about Tooth Fairy tales - There are dozens of books about the Tooth Fairy and other popular fairy tales. Go to your local library and check out a few. Read them with your child or an important kid in your life. There's also the "The Tooth Fairy" movie and its sequel, both great for the whole family!
- Prepare for a Tooth Fairy visit - If your child happens to be close to losing a tooth on National Tooth Fairy Day, help them get ready for a visit! Tell them about the legend of the Tooth Fairy. You can even try the various common tricks to get that tooth to fall out today! And if you succeed, help your child hide the tooth under their pillow for the Tooth Fairy to find and exchange for a small surprise. A hand-written letter from the Tooth Fairy is another great way to get your child excited about the upcoming visit — they'll be sure to cherish it for years to come.
- Take care of your teeth - This is something most of us should do every day but sometimes we slack off. Let National Tooth Fairy Day inspire you to dig out that floss and brush those teeth until your pearly whites sparkle! This day is also ideal for evaluating the brushing technique of children and assisting them in perfecting it. Make sure your child is brushing their teeth twice a day, for two minutes. All around, inside and out, tops and bottoms—including the biting surfaces!

5 Fun Facts About The Tooth Fairy To Dig Your Teeth Into

1. The Tooth Fairy collects a lot of teeth - On average, the Tooth Fairy collects about 300,000 teeth from children every night.
2. The going rate for teeth - About 10 years ago, the Tooth Fairy paid around $1 for a tooth, while today, due to inflation, they're paying up to $5 for a single tooth—on average, however, they leave $3.70 per tooth.
3. There was a Tooth Fairy Museum - A professor and expert in the Tooth Fairy, Rosemary Wells, opened the first Tooth Fairy Museum in Deerfield, Illinois, in 1993—it closed down in 2000 after Wells' death.
4. Most children believe in the Tooth Fairy - About 40% to 65% of children believe in the Tooth Fairy, depending on their age.
5. No one actually knows what the Tooth Fairy looks like - Unlike Santa Claus, there isn't a widely-held consensus on the Fairy's appearance—Dr. Rosemary Wells (widely recognized as America's foremost Tooth Fairy Expert) conducted a survey in 1984 and found that while 74% of Americans viewed the Tooth Fairy as female, another 12% believed the Tooth Fairy was neither male nor female. The remaining 14% imagined the Tooth Fairy as a bear, a bat, a dragon, and various other characters!

Why We Love National Tooth Fairy Day

- Excitement in children - Children love the excitement of waking up to a gift from a fairy in exchange for a lost tooth. It's a fun myth for parents as well as children. Participating in the fun and watching the pure joy little kids exude is wonderful. The excitement for both parents and children is akin to waiting for Santa Claus at Christmas and we all love it!
- The fun of folklore - Everybody loves a good story, especially if it's sprinkled with fairy dust. For centuries, fairy stories have enthralled both children and adults around the world.
- It shows how resilient and brave kids really are - From the day they pop their first tooth, to the day they lose their last, a child's smile goes through SO many changes in the first few years of their lives! Some changes can be physically painful, while others may be figuratively painful as the awkward toothless years create smiles resembling happy little jack-o-lanterns. The idea of the Tooth Fairy celebrates these moments in a fun way by encouraging children to be brave and face the unknown, while never losing their sense of whimsy and imagination—not to mention, discovering something shiny and new under your pillow makes it all worthwhile.

The dog days of summer are winding down, and with them go the lazy mornings, sandy beach bags, and impromptu ice cream runs. As the calendar turns toward September, it's time to give your home a quick tune-up to make the shift from summer fun to school-year structure as smooth as possible.

Declutter the Summer Gear

Start by rounding up everything that belongs to "beach season." Wash and store swimsuits, towels, and picnic blankets. Empty coolers, shake the sand out of beach chairs, and check sunblock bottles for expiration dates before tucking them away. Storing these items neatly now means they'll be clean and ready next year—and frees up space for what's coming next.

Create a School-Day Launch Pad

Whether it's a mudroom, hallway corner, or space by the front door, set up a dedicated area where backpacks, lunchboxes, and shoes can live during the week. Hooks at kid-friendly heights and labeled bins make it easy for everyone to grab what they need in the morning rush—and for you to see what's missing at a glance.

Refresh the Kitchen Game Plan

Back-to-school mornings run better with a stocked breakfast station. Keep quick options like granola bars, yogurt cups, and fresh fruit within easy reach. Dedicate a shelf or drawer for lunch supplies—sandwich bags, refillable water bottles, and snacks—so packing lunches becomes a grab-and-go job.

Reclaim Homework Space

Summer often turns desks into catch-all surfaces. Clear them off, check that chairs and lighting are comfortable, and restock with pencils, paper, and chargers. If space is tight, a rolling cart with school supplies can turn the dining table into a homework hub in seconds.

Ease the Bedtime Transition

Long summer evenings can push bedtimes later, but adjusting gradually—moving lights-out 10–15 minutes earlier each night—helps avoid that first-week-back fatigue. Set the stage for good sleep by keeping bedrooms cool, quiet, and free from late-night screen glow.

Keep a Bit of Summer Alive

Back-to-school doesn't have to mean all business. A bowl of seashells on the table, a framed beach photo, or weekend trips to the boardwalk can keep that summer spirit alive even as routines tighten.

With a little prep now, your home can shift seamlessly from flip-flops to first-day photos, giving everyone a smoother start to the new school year.

EAT MORE TOMATOES!

Getting more tomatoes into your diet may make you less likely to have a stroke, which is when blood flow gets cut off to a part of your brain. Studies suggest that they may ease inflammation, boost your immune system, lower your cholesterol levels, and keep your blood from clotting.

Tomatoes in small amounts are safe to eat everyday and as an added bonus they are low in calories and have a high water content. So it's best advised to eat tomatoes in moderation, and tomatoes are packed with an alkaloid called solanine.

Eaten raw or cooked, each form of the tomato is offering unique benefits. Cooking tomatoes increases the bioavailability of lycopene, a powerful antioxidant linked to reduced risk of heart disease and certain cancers. However, cooking can also reduce vitamin C content. Raw tomatoes, on the other hand, retain their full vitamin C content and are a good source of hydration. A balanced diet that includes both raw and cooked tomatoes is recommended for optimal health.

What does your venue specialize in? The Arts Garage houses artist studios, galleries, shops, a flexible workshop/classroom, and hosts special events throughout the year. It includes a 1,200 square ft. satellite gallery of The Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton University and the African American Heritage Museum of Southern New Jersey. At the Arts Garage, you will find individual artists working in their studio/shop spaces. Each artist focuses on a different medium including painting, pastels, photography, illustration, sculpture and more. Visitors are invited to watch the artists at work, ask questions about their creative process, and purchase original artwork. Stroll through the galleries and shops and enjoy convenient parking in the heart of Atlantic City adjacent to Tanger Outlets, the Convention Center, Boardwalk Hall and Dante Hall Theater.

Tell us a little about your history. Over the past century, the Knife & Fork Inn has led a long and colorful life, making it one of the oldest and most historically charged establishments in Atlantic City. Standing where Atlantic, Pacific and Albany Avenues converge, the Knife & Fork was originally established in 1912 by then Atlantic City Mayor William Riddle, the Commodore Louis Kuehnle, and their cronies as an exclusive men's drinking and dining club. The second floor was graced with curtained dining alcoves and a separate "ladies lounge" where women, who were not permitted at the bar, waited to be summoned. Private rooms on the third and fourth floors were used for gambling and, perhaps, other activities.

During Prohibition, rebellious club members defied the laws of an alcohol-free society and continued to openly serve liquor at the bar. The club survived without being raided for some time, perhaps due to the influence of Enoch "Nucky" Johnson, who was a Knife & Fork regular. Eventually, federal agents decided to crack down and, in true roaring twenties style, entered the bar and destroyed all of its contents.

After the raid, the club's membership declined and in 1927 the building was sold to Atlantic City's Latz family, who removed the bar feature, and converted the establishment into a public restaurant. Over the years, the Knife & Fork became a favorite of local politicians, wealthy vacationers, and Hollywood celebrities including Frank Sinatra, Bob Hope and Vic Damone. In a famous scene from the movie "Atlantic City," Burt Lancaster and Susan Sarandon dined in the restaurant's popular porch, now known as the Terrace. After many years of trying to find a buyer, it was finally sold to Frank Dougherty, who then embarked on a journey to refurbishing and restoring the Knife & fork back to its glory; back to the look and feel of its prohibition era look, including rich mahogany millwork, hand-painted ceilings, a sweeping staircase, and lushly appointed dining rooms.

What does your venue specialize in? We are very well known for our concentration on classic fine-dining items such as Lobster Thermidor, Filet Mignon, Lamb Chops, Crab Cakes and Seafood Risotto, to name just a few. We also have quite the extensive wine selection, having been recognized by Wine Spectator each year, receiving the Best of Award of Excellence for its wine program. With over 7,000 bottles on hand kept in a temperature-controlled cellar, our guests can expect to enjoy red, white, sparkling and fortified wine by the glass or by the bottle perfect for any occasion.

What makes your essential for Atlantic City? Our commitment to excellence and history! We have been serving the community with consistently exceptional cuisine and service for well over 100 years.

What other aspects do you offer? The Knife & Fork Inn offers a unique dining experience in an Atlantic City landmark. With five distinct dining areas, seating from 12 to 80 for sit down dinners (more for cocktail parties), we can offer the perfect spot for any event - anniversary or birthday party, business dinner, bachelor or bachelorette party, rehearsal dinner, shower, or even an intimate wedding! Our exquisite menus, Prohibition-era ambiance, and professional service will make any occasion an event to remember!

Is there any other important information we should know? Visit our sister properties; all located in Atlantic County! Choose from Dock's Oyster House, The Linwood Country Club, and Dougherty's Steakhouse and Raw Bar.

Philadelphia Sports: Phillies in Full Swing, Eagles Preseason Sizzle

As August heads into its final stretch, Philadelphia sports fans are treated to non-stop excitement: a Phillies ramp-up at Citizens Bank Park and the Eagles inching toward their season opener with a key preseason showdown. Whether you're soaking up sunlit innings or analyzing roster depth, this week delivers a punch.

Phillies: Home-Field Momentum

The Phillies open the week at home on Wednesday, August 20, hosting the Seattle Mariners at 1:05 PM. It's a one-game wrap before Washington comes to town for a three-game weekend series that promises plenty of NL East tension. Friday's game on August 22 begins at 7:05 PM, Saturday's matinee is set for 4:05 PM, and Sunday's closer gets underway at 1:35 PM - complete with the Phillies wearing their City Connect uniforms for added flair.

Off the field, the team is rolling out game-day promotions to energize fans. On August 22, attendees 21 and over will receive a Miller Lite floppy hat as a giveaway. Later in the month, on August 30, children 14 and under will take home a Chick-fil-A Bryce Harper Funko Pop! collectible.

The August Ballpark Pass continues to offer excellent value: for $125, pass holders get standing-room-only access to all 16 home games with seat upgrade opportunities available before first pitch. There's also a separate, more budget-friendly September Pass for weekday games, though that falls slightly outside this week's scope.

Citizens Bank Park also stands out as a fan-favorite for its amenities - voted Best Ballpark Food by Food Network viewers and regarded as one of the most vegetarian-friendly venues in professional sports. That experience, plus efforts toward sustainability - like recycled materials and renewable energy sourcing - keep fans coming back for more.

Eagles: Gearing Up in the Preseason

While the Phillies hold court in South Philly, the Eagles head to MetLife Stadium on Friday, August 22, for a preseason clash against the New York Jets. Kickoff is at 7:30 PM, with local coverage on NBC10. With rosters shrinking soon, this game carries high stakes for players on the cusp.

Backup quarterback Tanner McKee has emerged as a major story. In the preseason opener, he completed 20 of 25 passes for 252 yards and two passing touchdowns, and added a rushing score with the "Tush Push" - earning praise as a potential trade asset for teams seeking a reliable QB. His ongoing consistency positions him as a cornerstone of the team's depth chart.

Undrafted rookie wide receiver Darius Cooper impressed again, leading the team in preseason receiving with six catches, 82 yards, and a touchdown. His performance, along with others like returning receiver Johnny Wilson, positions him strongly in the battle for the WR spot on the 53-man roster.

On defense, rookie cornerback Cooper DeJean continues to shine. He was recently named the NFL's top slot corner by ESPN for his shutdown coverage last season. His versatility also hints at a possible safety role down the stretch. Meanwhile, Jihaad Campbell, the 2025 first-round pick, is gaining ground with first-team reps as injuries mount among key defenders.

Roster dynamics extend beyond players: the Eagles begin this season under new offensive leadership. Kevin Patullo steps in as offensive coordinator after Kellen Moore's departure to the Saints. The coaching shake-up adds strategic intrigue to this preseason - watch for shifts in play-calling and player usage as the Eagles fine-tune their system.

Future Phillies Road Trip

After the home stretch, the Phillies head north to Queens for a two-game set against the Mets on Monday and Tuesday, August 25-26, both beginning at 7:10 PM. With the division race heating up, these interleague games could carry playoff implications—and give fans a compelling reason to follow from afar or plan a quick road trip. The Phillies and Mets have a long-standing rivalry that often draws large, energetic crowds, making Citi Field an intense environment for visiting teams. Pitching matchups are expected to be a focal point, with both clubs leaning heavily on their aces as they fight for postseason positioning.

From stadium giveaways to roster battles, this week's Philadelphia sports scene packs depth—both on and off the field. Perfect for fans and features alike.

BAYFRONT BITES & BEACHFRONT FUN: THE DOWNBEACH SEAFOOD FESTIVAL RETURNS

As summer begins its slow slide toward autumn, the Jersey Shore gets one last big taste of the season - literally. The Downbeach Seafood Festival, returning to Ventnor City's Ski Beach on Saturday and Sunday, September 13-14, 2025, is the kind of event that reminds you why the shore isn't just about sand and surf. It's about the people, the flavors, and the way a bay breeze can turn an ordinary afternoon into something unforgettable.

Ski Beach, perched at Dorset and Burke Avenues, is a gem of a setting for a food festival. The wide grassy areas overlook the Intracoastal Waterway, dotted with kayaks, paddleboards, and the occasional sailboat. The view alone is worth the trip, but once the tents go up and the grills start sizzling, the air becomes thick with the scent of garlic butter, smoky crab cakes, and fresh-shucked oysters. Vendors from across South Jersey will be dishing up everything from classic lobster rolls and fried shrimp baskets to creative seafood-inspired specials you won't find on a typical menu.

One of the festival's most anticipated highlights is the Chowder Cook-Off, running from noon to 4 p.m. each day. For $10, you get a wristband and a mission: taste every chowder you can and vote for your favorite. It's a battle of creamy New England versus tangy Manhattan, with plenty of surprises in between. In 2024, festivalgoers' appetite for competition translated into a $5,000 donation to the Community Food Bank of New Jersey - enough to provide about $100,000 worth of meals to families in need. This year's field promises to be just as spirited, and the bragging rights last far longer than the weekend.

For those who prefer their seafood raw and briny, the Oyster Tour of the Shore is a must. Local aquaculture is on proud display, with Cape May Salts, Sloop Point Oyster Co., McGee's Shellfish, and other purveyors serving up ice-cold beauties straight from the water. It's a crash course in just how much variety New Jersey waters have to offer, with each farm bringing its own flavor profile, texture, and story.

The perfect pairing for oysters? A cold beer, of course. The Great Brews of NJ Tasting Tent brings together a dozen of the state's top breweries for a mini beer festival within the festival. Ten tasting tickets cost $10, and with pours starting at noon, you can sip your way through a diverse lineup - bright IPAs, smooth lagers, and maybe even a seafood-friendly saison.

If eating is your competitive sport, the Crab Cake Eating Contest, sponsored by Jay's Crab Shack, might be calling your name. This lighthearted showdown is open to non-professionals, with sign-ups happening on site. Space is limited, so those serious about their speed-eating skills should arrive early. Even if you don't compete, it's worth stopping by to cheer on the brave souls who do.

Entertainment runs throughout both days, weaving music, movement, and artistry into the mix. The South Pacific Island Dancers bring a burst of color and energy with authentic Polynesian performances, while local sculptor Matt Deibert - better known as "The Sandman" - crafts intricate sand art live on site, turning a simple pile of sand into a detailed, photo-worthy sculpture before your eyes. Under the eat-in tent, cooking demonstrations give attendees the chance to watch chefs prepare seafood dishes from start to finish, sharing tips you can take home to your own kitchen.

Logistics are as smooth as the oyster shells being passed across the counters. Free parking is available at 4800 Wellington Avenue, with a complimentary shuttle ferrying guests directly to Ski Beach. The site is also accessible by water - non-motorized vessels can use the boat ramp for a truly bayside arrival. The layout makes it easy to wander without missing a thing, and with plenty of space to sit, eat, and soak in the views, it's as family-friendly as it is food-focused.

The Downbeach Seafood Festival isn't just about indulging - it's about celebrating the shore's culinary and cultural identity. Many of the participating restaurants and vendors are small, family-run operations that have weathered storms both literal and economic. For them, the festival is a chance to connect with locals and visitors face-to-face, to put a name and a smile behind the flavors they're proud to serve. For the community, it's a reminder that food can bring people together in a way few things can.

And while it's easy to get lost in the abundance of fried, grilled, steamed, and raw delights, the event offers more than just what's on the plate. It's an end-of-summer tradition for many - an excuse to gather friends, make new ones, and send the season off with a full stomach and happy heart. Whether you're a chowder fanatic, an oyster purist, a craft beer enthusiast, or simply someone who enjoys a good waterfront view, there's something here for you.

So come hungry, come curious, and come ready to linger. The Downbeach Seafood Festival only happens once a year, but the memories - and maybe even the recipes - you take home can last far longer.

Festival Info: Downbeach Seafood Festival, Ski Beach (Dorset Ave & Burke Ave), Ventnor City, NJ. September 13-14, 2025. Free parking at 4800 Wellington Ave with shuttle service to the festival. Chowder Cook-Off, Oyster Tour of the Shore, Great Brews of NJ Tasting Tent, Crab Cake Eating Contest, cooking demos, live entertainment, and sand sculptures all included with general admission; food and tasting tickets sold separately. Full schedule and vendor list at DownbeachSeafoodFest.com.

A Magical Loveliness of Ladybugs by Amy L. Stark, Ph.D.

In a world filled with zany, fast-paced children's books, A Magical Loveliness of Ladybugs offers a refreshing style that acts as a gentle reset button for busy minds. Imagine finding your bedroom filled with ladybugs. That is exactly what Jan finds when she comes home from school. This beautifully illustrated children's book, based on a true story, helps kids notice and find value in the natural world around them. The story focuses on children and adults' interactions with plants, bugs and butterflies, and demonstrates how nature can be sustained by planting habitats and gardens.

"Small creatures often carry the biggest truths," the author says, and that ideal can be found throughout every page of the book. If you're looking for a picture book that celebrates quiet moments, encourages close observation and fosters a lifelong love for nature, this one belongs on your shelf. Bitter End Birding Society by Amanda Cox

Hometown hero Ana Leigh Watkins ventures to Bitter End, Tennessee, to help her great-aunt prepare for retirement. A town called Bitter End seems an ironic place for Ana to refresh her weary spirit, but she's desperate for respite from the attention and unwarranted admiration of her community. While on a hike in Roan Mountain, a ragtag group of amateur bird-watchers takes her under their wing — a little against her will. However, she quickly warms to these genuine souls seeking solace in the great outdoors.

But when Ana's adventures in Bitter End lead her to a severed branch of her family tree — one that involves the forbidden love between a moonshiner's daughter and a preacher's son — what began as a getaway to help her great-aunt becomes a transformative journey that binds together two women who, though they live on the same street, have been estranged for sixty years. Anchored by Love by Marie-Claire Moriah Wright and David Saccoh Wright

Siblings Clara, Max and Ash all found their own paths in life, but despite their individual achievements, it was the strength of their family that truly defined them. The cruise had been a chance to reaffirm that love, to reconnect and remind themselves of what mattered most: their bond as a family.

Through love, they found a way to withstand every obstacle life had thrown at them. Their journey had taught them that success isn't just about achievements or accolades — it's about the moments of connection. Because true joy and fulfillment came not just from what they had done, but from whom they had shared it with. Their story is a testament to the power of love — and as they sailed into the future, they did so knowing that their hearts, their lives, and their family were forever anchored by love. Design for Your Mind by Annie Guest

Homes are more than buildings; author, attorney and mental health therapist Annie Guest discovered this after the death of her parents. "My parents left their house to me. I decided to reimagine it in ways that would help me remember the whole of my parents' lives — not just those sad final years — as I rebuilt my own life."

Guest takes us through her journey and shows us the magic of how she transformed her home sustainably and on a budget. Using 95 "before" and "after" photos accompanied by easy-to-follow explanations of the science of good interior design, Guest helps us discover the true purpose of each room and how it can promote healthy living. This is more than a book of inspired, affordable interior design. It's a guide for anyone facing a new beginning who wants to recreate a home that supports well-being, self-expression and personal empowerment. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/3lACnxa>.

Jersey Fresh Grilled Corn & Tomato Confetti Salad

- 4 ears fresh sweet corn, husked
- 1 large ripe tomato, diced
- 1 small red onion, finely chopped
- 1 orange bell pepper, diced
- 2 tablespoons fresh basil, chopped (or substitute parsley)
- 2 tablespoons olive oil OR melted butter)
- 1 tablespoon red wine vinegar (optional, for brightness)
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

Preheat grill to medium-high. Lightly brush corn with olive oil and grill 8–10 minutes, turning occasionally, until kernels are tender and lightly charred. Let corn cool slightly, then cut kernels from the cobs into a large bowl. Add diced tomato, onion, and bell pepper. Drizzle with remaining olive oil (or melted butter), toss with basil, and add vinegar if using. Season generously with salt and pepper. Toss well and serve warm or chilled. Fresh Tip: For extra flavor, sprinkle with crumbled feta or queso fresco before serving.

Jersey Fresh Peach & Berry Crisp

- 4 ripe Jersey peaches, sliced (about 4 cups)
- 2 cups fresh blueberries (or blackberries)
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- ¼ cup granulated sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Topping:

- 1 cup rolled oats
- ½ cup brown sugar
- ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
- ½ cup all-purpose flour
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- 6 tablespoons cold butter, cubed

Preheat oven to 375°F. In a large bowl, toss peaches and berries with lemon juice, sugar, and cornstarch. Spread evenly in a greased 9x9-inch baking dish. In another bowl, mix oats, flour, brown sugar, cinnamon, and nutmeg. Cut in the butter with a fork or your fingers until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Sprinkle topping evenly over fruit. Bake 35–40 minutes, until fruit is bubbling and topping is golden brown. Cool slightly and serve warm, ideally with a scoop of vanilla ice cream or whipped cream. Fresh Tip: Farmers markets are overflowing with stone fruit right now - you can swap in nectarines or plums, or mix in raspberries for a tangy twist.

Taryn

Robert Fenton, KC, is the Director of Legal Services at the Calgary Police Service in Alberta, Canada. The “KC” after his name stands for King’s Counsel, a designation made by the Minister of Justice to recognize a legal professional who has demonstrated superior legal ability; proof of good character and integrity; membership in the Canadian Bar Association; and who has been entitled to practice law for at least 10 years.

“When it happened, I was in court on another matter, and we were doing it by Webex. All these weird messages kept flashing on my screen saying congratulations, and I said, ‘What is all this about?’ Afterward a colleague called me to congratulate me and I said, ‘For what?’ and he told me I had been designated King’s Counsel,” Bob said.

“I was shocked, I was surprised, I was humbled... and to some degree, I still am. It is nice to be recognized by your peers. But you do this work because you want to help people, not for awards or recognition.”

BEATING THE HEAT: FOUR TIPS TO KEEP YOUR DOG SAFE DURING THE SUMMER!

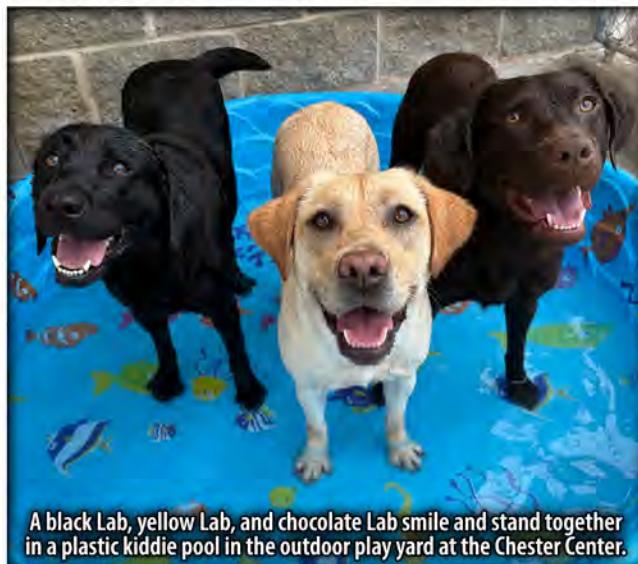

The Seeing Eye hopes you and your pups are having fun and staying cool in this warm weather.

If you're looking for fun activities to beat the heat, you may consider taking your pups swimming. Some like to swim in the pool or on a leash/line in a lake or the ocean!

But please consider the following four tips when taking your dogs to any of these spots:

- Prolonged exposure to the sun can cause a dog's skin to burn (just like humans!). And hot sand can burn their pads, so avoid long walks on the beach and always provide a shady spot for them to rest.
- Salt, chlorine, and algae can irritate a pup's coat and make them sick if ingested. Please discourage them from drinking the water and monitor for signs of itchiness, GI upset, and/or disorientation.
- Always rinse off/bathe your pup after it is done swimming. Remember to dry the fur and ears thoroughly. Use an ear cleaner with a drying agent so they don't develop an ear infection. Watch for hot spots or skin irritations that may develop under moist fur.
- Provide the pup with plenty of fresh, clean water and give them time to chill out and observe what's going on around them. It's a great exposure opportunity; think of it like TV for dogs!

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Mark your calendars and polish your clubs—Golf Fore Kids is back on Monday, September 29, bringing golfers, sponsors, and community supporters together for a day of sport and giving at the prestigious Atlantic City Country Club. This annual fundraiser benefits the Boys & Girls Club, helping to fund programs that provide local children with educational support, mentorship, and safe spaces to learn and grow.

The event offers players the chance to experience one of the region's most celebrated golf courses while making a tangible difference in young lives. From its rolling fairways to its storied history, the Atlantic City Country Club sets the perfect backdrop for a day of friendly competition and community spirit. Participants can look forward to an 18-hole scramble format, on-course contests, and plenty of opportunities to network with fellow players and local leaders.

Beyond the greens, Golf Fore Kids is also a vital fundraising engine. Sponsorships help cover event costs and maximize proceeds for the Boys & Girls Club's after-school programs, summer camps, and athletic activities. Whether you register as a foursome, join as an individual golfer, or step up as an event sponsor, your involvement directly supports the Club's mission of inspiring and enabling all young people to reach their full potential.

Founded more than 160 years ago, the Boys & Girls Club has grown into a national organization serving millions of children across the country. Locally, the Atlantic City Boys & Girls Club provides critical resources to youth in Atlantic County, from homework help and college prep to leadership development and sports programs. For many kids, the Club is more than a place to go after school—it's a second home and a safe haven.

The Golf Fore Kids tournament has become a cherished tradition in the Club's annual calendar, drawing repeat participants and long-standing sponsors who look forward to combining their love of the game with their commitment to community service. Over the years, the event has raised substantial funds that have gone directly into programming, facility improvements, and scholarships—ensuring that every child who walks through the Club's doors has the tools and opportunities they need to succeed.

Registration is now open, and sponsorship spots are available. To sign up, secure your sponsorship, or learn more about the tournament, contact Ms. Brianna Register at events@acbgc.org or call (609) 347-2697, extension 108. Don't miss your chance to tee off for a cause—every swing helps shape a brighter future for kids in our community. Player check-in will begin at 8:00 a.m., with a shotgun start scheduled for 9:00 a.m., and lunch and awards to follow. Space is limited, and early registration is encouraged to guarantee your spot on the course.
