STRAWBERRIES

Strawberries are very healthy, containing many antioxidants and vitamins. They are also low in calories, containing only about 32 calories per half cup. Strawberries are rich in vitamin C and other antioxidants, which help reduce the risk of serious health conditions like cancer, diabetes, heart disease and stroke. It is recommended that individuals eat a serving of 8 strawberries a day. Strawberries are an excellent source of magnesium and phosphorous. Strawberries are loaded with caffeic acid, a compound that alleviates inflammation, which is good news for arthritis sufferers. Strawberries are powerful boosters for your skin, eyes and immunity thanks to their high levels of collagen building and anti-inflammatory Vitamin C.

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 10 - AUGUST 16, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Keep your feelings to yourself if you want to avoid embarrassment. Finish off old projects before starting something new. Physical limitations are possible if you aren't careful. Travel will be in your best interest regardless of whether it is business or pleasure.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Health problems may prevail if you haven't been getting enough rest. A female colleague may cause problems for you. You can help a close friend find solutions to personal problems. Catch up on any correspondence you've neglected.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You can make financial gains through your unique and creative approach to business. Social activity should be on your agenda this week. You may need help with your financial situation. Take the time to do something nice for your friends and relatives.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Secret affairs can only lead to devastating circumstances. Channel your energy into projects that will enhance your home. You'll find it easy to deal with government agencies or large institutions. Relatives will want to get together.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Your attitudes are changing rapidly. Red tape could be impossible to clear up this week. You really can't do anything to change matters this week. Problems with skin, bones, or teeth may mess up your schedule.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Pleasure trips or friendly get-togethers will be satisfying and intellectually stimulating. Partnerships may be strained if one of you has been erratic and hard to deal with. Use your obvious talent to work with detail and you can come up with something great. Don't let coworkers interfere with your objectives.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You may have the day off but your thoughts will be on your work and your cash situation. You are best not to discuss your personal life with others. You may have difficulties finishing projects you start. Be wary of those who have overly strong convictions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Your personal secrets may be revealed if you let coworkers in on your family dilemmas. Take on positions that offer on the job training or pay for courses related to the business. Your positive attitude and intellectual outlook will draw others to you. Opportunities will come through long term investments.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Restrictions may be difficult for you to live with, but try to do things by the book. You can enjoy social events and meet new potential mates; however, avoid being lavish. You can make or break your personal relationship this week. It may not be the best day to confront employers or to present your ideas.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

You may find that purchases or entertainment could be expensive. Help children with important projects. You can expect to have some problems with skin, bones, or teeth if you haven't taken proper care of them. Be aware that minor accidents or injury may prevail if you are preoccupied.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Travel will result in new romantic attractions. Get into some activities that will help you in making new friends. Spend time with youngsters this week. Old friends may not like your choices.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Beware of colleagues who don't have your best interests in mind. Travel and family gatherings should be in order. Do your own thing without drawing attention to it. Be aware that you might be at fault as well.

'ROUND THE REGION
with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello South Jersey:

NONNA'S GRILLE, GRANDMOTHER
INES WOULD LOVE IT

What better way for brothers Santiago and Fidel Flores to honor their Nonna (grandmother) Ines Flores's life than to name their new Northfield restaurant after her?

Nonna's opened on May 29. Coincidentally, like its predecessor Fresco, Nonna's also offers two different cuisine options, thanks to each brother's experience. Santiago worked at Naples Pizza in Little Egg Harbor for more than 22 years. Fidel's food background is in Mexican dining. So, it made perfect sense to combine their talents.

How do experienced Italian and Mexican cooks from Ocean County come to Atlantic County? Santiago has operated a small kitchen oven/range hood cleaning business for five years, so he hears all kinds of news. Once he learned this location was available, the rest is history. I always love small family business stories.

Norman and I ate there recently and plan to return soon. The amazing transformation of the space hits you immediately at the entry. The Flores brothers gutted almost everything and began their own renovations in February. Three months later, they opened.

Nonna's contemporary look includes wooden plank flooring, white walls with pictures of food and an open floor plan from front to back. Four comfortable booths line one wall while five tables for two line the opposite wall.

As a casual neighborhood place, you know the Flores family will recognize you every time you walk in the door. That evening, Santiago's wife Anna was our server. Their older son Alan and brother-in-law Edgar were also present.

Anna immediately served a basket of fresh, hot nacho chips with salsa. There is also Cholula Hot Sauce from Mexico for the adventurous.

We decided to go the Mexican route since we eat Italian food way too often. Every platter, whether it is tacos, planchadas, burritos or quesadillas, is less than $14. All are served with different accompaniments like pico de gallo, excellent homemade guacamole with a tang of lime in the avocado, black beans-not refried- and Mexican or white rice.

I chose the chicken quesadillas ($10). What made them especially tasty was the cheese. Unlike most places that cook with cheddar or mozzarella, Nonna's uses authentic Mexican queso cheese. Norman's Carne Asada burrito ($12) included grilled steak with juicy fillings that oozed from the wrap. I asked for extra pico de gallo and there was no charge.

Eyeing other tables, we saw Anna serve a large appetizer plate of 12 giant wings ($16.50) with sauce. Portions on other appetizers were just as large.

Nonna's offers two desserts, but these are so delicious that no others are really necessary. Santiago makes two tiramisu trays at a time and I am surprised he has anything left since he cuts such large portions at $6. The sweet cannoli ($4) has plenty of whipped cream and abundant filling. We loved the tiramisu.

Four ladies at the next table had multiple takeout boxes of many items. They said they make it a habit to eat at fun, delicious places and take food home.

On the Italian menu, expect standards like numerous varieties of pizza, hot subs, wraps, paninis, burgers, salads and appetizers, all under $14. Classic Italian chicken, shrimp and seafood dishes are between $19-$25. Pasta lovers can either select their pasta "favorites" on the menu ($14-$18) or build their own from $12-$15.

Nonna's is a great neighborhood place for a quick lunch or dinner and easy takeout. Their motto-"you chill, we grill" says it all. Catering is available and Santiago says they are considering local delivery since dinner is busier than lunch.

At 38, Santiago Flores is a happy man. He claims, "I have achieved my dream to be my own boss and partner with my brother Fidel." With that attitude, he should enjoy years of success.

CARDS AND CHARITY ARE A GOOD COMBINATION

Ask many women about their favorite charitable activity and playing cards or Mahjong may be their answer. Jewish Family Services (JFS) will host its 9th Annual Card Party on Thursday, 8/24 at Harbor Pines Golf Club in Egg Harbor Twp.

The event's popularity compelled organizers to set two game times for bridge, canasta and Mahjong. The morning session is sold out, but the afternoon session is available-as of press time-from 2-6:30pm.

A $75-per-player fee includes hors d'oeuvres and two glasses of wine. Both sessions will feature door prizes, games, auction baskets (10 tickets @$25) and a silent auction. Prizes are gift cards, hotel stays, wine and more. Proceeds benefit The Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore for adults over 50. The program provides intergenerational events, transportation, grocery shopping and delivery, Kosher Meals on Wheels and more. Participants should organize their own tables and supply their own cards or game sets. Buy Card Party tickets at www.jfsatlantic.org or (609) 822-1108 x356.

RIP CURRENTS

HOW TO AVOID & SURVIVE

A rip current is a specific kind of water current that can occur near beaches with breaking waves. A rip current is a strong, localized, and narrow current of water which moves directly away from the shore, cutting through the lines of breaking waves like a river running out to sea.

- Check water conditions before going in by looking at the local beach forecast before you leave for the beach and talking to the lifeguard at the beach.
- Only swim at a beach with lifeguards. The chances of drowning at a beach with lifeguards are 1 in 18 million (U.S. Lifesaving Association).
- Don't assume! Great weather for the beach does not always mean it's safe to swim or even play in the shallows. Rip currents often form on calm, sunny days.
- Moving at speeds of up to eight feet per second, rip currents can move faster than an Olympic swimmer.
- Panicked swimmers often try to counter a rip current by swimming straight back to shore—putting themselves at risk of drowning because of fatigue.
- Lifeguards rescue tens of thousands of people from rip currents in the U.S. every year, but it is estimated that 100 people are killed by rip currents annually.
- If caught in a rip current, don't fight it! Swim parallel to the shore and swim back to land at an angle.

Historic Cold Spring Village

Aug. 12 & 13

Heritage Music Weekend

Lend us your ear for Heritage Music Weekend at Historic Cold Spring Village, August 12th, and 13th from 11am-4pm. Join us as we pay homage to the sounds that bring us all together. The Ministers of Apollo will be with us both days in the Welcome Center, playing popular music from the late 18th century. Karate Garage will knock your socks off with their uplifting 80's and 90's montage-esque motivational music. We'll be listening to Irish music on Saturday from artists Tom Brett, and Maura McKinney – Mastro on Sunday. Saturday, August 12th, the ever-accomplished Elina Karokhina returns with a fantastic balalaika trio. ## The Wildwoods - Doo Wop Capital of the World

Step into the past in the Wildwoods, where you'll discover the highest concentration of mid-century commercial architecture in the country. Embark on a journey through the five-mile island and witness a captivating array of mid-century themed hotels, motels, and businesses. These charming establishments pay homage to their original predecessors from the 1950s and '60s, boasting bold architecture, decor, and colors that transport you back in time. Born during an era when the nation's spirit was captured by architectural styles like "Googie," "Populux," or "Doo Wop," these buildings sprung up in the Wildwoods and continue to captivate visitors with their nostalgic charm. Plastic palm trees tower over kidney shaped pools, juttied roof angles, and wrought iron balconies - whimsical names and flamboyant themes give these similarly styled buildings individual character. Vivid imagery and vibrant colors of aqua, oranges, and pinks bombard the eye of the motoring public, as bright neon signs beckon to travelers, each blatantly attempting to outdo their neighbor. The motels and their ample parking reflect the burgeoning era of automotive travel of the 1950s. The designs and architectural features pay tribute to the post-war pop culture. Their architecture continues to memorialize the bold spirit of a newly restless society, while motel names conjure up tropical paradises and other exotic destinations. A visit from Disney "Imagineers" to the Wildwoods in the 1990's for inspiration and ideas to complete their beach-and-boardwalk themed hotel, brought the realization to local Wildwoods business owners that their "unique surroundings" were a significant slice of Americana and a key part of mid-century history. Out of this came the formation of the Doo Wop Preservation League in 1996. The League embarked on its mission to "foster awareness, appreciation, and education of the popular culture and imagery of the 1950s in an effort to promote preservation and unique renovations to the 220+ circa 1950s (doo wop) buildings in the Wildwoods." Steve Izenour, world-renowned architect of Venturi, Scott Brown, and Associates, headed a study that revealed the Wildwoods to have the largest collection of flamboyant circa 1950s mid-century architecture in the nation, now labeled "Doo Wop". As Art Deco is to South Beach, Doo Wop is to the Wildwoods, giving it its unique and distinct flair. More than 90 of what once were hundreds of historically significant motels remain in the Wildwoods, while some newer business arrivals, such as the TD Bank, McDonalds, and Wawa have incorporated the Doo Wop theme into their architecture. It is exciting to see that the privately owned, family-oriented motels are today being preserved and enhanced and becoming more popular than ever. But it's even more exciting to see new construction adopting the Doo Wop style in their design. The preservation movement was given a big boost in 2006 when the National Trust for Historic Preservation named the motels of the Wildwoods among the "Eleven Most Endangered Historic Sites in America." The value and importance of preserving, and building upon, Wildwood's Doo Wop architecture and lifestyle was recognized by the National Trust as an important American asset to be enjoyed by future generations. In 2011, the Wildwoods' Caribbean Motel was named to the Historic Hotels of America registry - the only motel to ever receive that designation. The Caribbean Motel and Chateau Bleu Motel are both listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Now billing the Wildwoods as the "Doo Wop Capital of the World," the Doo Wop Preservation League continues to move forward on many fronts. The League has developed a design manual titled "How to Doo Wop" that is given to developers of new construction to encourage them to incorporate Doo Wop design elements into their new properties. The Wildwoods' Doo Wop Experience Museum and Neon Sign Garden - brimming with cool artifacts, fun memories, fascinating history, and bright neon lights - offers visitors a chance to learn more about the Doo-Wop era of American culture. Located at 4500 Ocean Avenue in Wildwood, free to explore, and open seasonally from April to October - the museum is a celebration of architecture, design, music, pop culture, and everything else that made the Wildwoods famous in its heyday of the 1950s and 1960s. Outside at the entrance to the museum, a neon sign garden exhibits restored neon signs that were rescued from old Wildwood landmarks whose fate was a date with the wrecking ball. The entire complex glows with as much exuberance and optimism as the property's original Surfside Restaurant was intended to exude in its day...only this time, it's signaling in a whole new era of appreciation for Doo Wop in the Wildwoods! The Doo Wop Experience Museum hosts a Doo Wop Bus Tour that runs two nights weekly throughout the summer. For a small fee, guests can hop on board the bus and take a step back in time with a guided tour of the largest concentration of Doo Wop architecture in the country. Tour goers will learn about the shapes, images, and symbols of the '50s architecture, along with the fractured geography and Space Age intonation of the time during this award-winning tour. Also reflective of the Fabulous Fifties era and carrying the legacy onto the Boardwalk are the Wildwoods Icon Wall Murals. The Greater Wildwoods Tourism Improvement and Development Authority (GWTIDA) conceived and developed the Icon Wall Mural projects to beautify selected public spaces and heighten appreciation of how the Wildwoods evolved over the decades into a living, breathing slice of Americana. The Icon Wall Murals feature key music icons that have significantly contributed to Wildwoods' colorful history and unique culture that has drawn people of all ages to this shore resort destination for generations. Bobby Rydell, Bill Haley and the Comets and Chubby Checker are the subjects of three iconic Icon Wall Murals that are located throughout the Wildwoods celebrating the Wildwoods' rich musical history and its claim as the true "Birthplace of Rock 'n Roll Music." The Doo Wop Preservation League and the Wildwoods are preserving and enhancing the best of their past as they continue to build a year-round resort and recreation destination for the 21st century. ## WHY A VET MAY RECOMMEND PROZAC FOR YOUR DOG

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

My niece, who lives outside Philadelphia, adopted a now two-and-a-half-year-old mix breed dog from a reputable shelter about six months ago. She is in a nursing program and must spend long gaps of time doing her on-site studies; leaving Buckley to be walked by different dog walkers, or by her mother, or sending him to doggie daycare, or boarding him for weekends. Not only has it been hugely expensive but emotionally trying on both human and dog who long to spend more time together. When she came down for a visit with Buckley two months ago, I saw a depressed dog and a stressed-out person. Buckley enjoys doggie day care, and the place where he boards, but he has taken offense to being walked by various employed strangers with whom he has no bond, to the point that his protests are verging on aggression. Overall Buckley is very accepting of dogs and people, but I would not call him a jolly soul. My niece has consulted many specialists and behaviorists and is feeling guilty at the thought of rehoming him, like she is the failure when in fact he just may be the wrong match for her current (and future) lifestyle as he would do better with consistent human interaction and stimulation. Her two cats for company in a small apartment are not enough. Her vet has now started Buckley on Prozac.

Prozac may help rescue pets with bad life experiences like abandonment and/or abuse. Ebby, I later learned, may have been abused by the old man's wife, as she was supposedly his dog. Ebby has become quite friendly to neighbors and contract workers stopping by-until yesterday when she growled and snapped at Stu. "I thought I was your friend," Stu sadly remarked to her. Luckily, she did not bite him. Although I have been giving Ebby CBD oil in her nightly meal and a CBD Pet Stress Relief when we go to the vet or she gets groomed, we must always be on alert with her. My niece does not know much about Buckley's previous life. But the moment she was introduced, he rolled his sixty-pound body over in her lap for belly rubs. She was "hooked line and sinker." Buckley is her very first canine pet.

The generic name for Prozac is Fluoxetine. It is a drug that has been widely used for humans to treat certain anxiety disorders and more recently (perhaps 25 years), for companion animals suffering from anxiety and anxiety related anti-social and destructive behaviors. Prozac is a serotonin enhancer, giving longer feelings of happiness and well-being. "Serotonin is a chemical that carries messages between nerve cells in the brain and throughout the body. It plays a key role in such body functions as mood, sleep, digestion, nausea, wound healing, bone health, blood clotting, and sexual desire." It is especially helpful to dogs that are anxious and depressed. It is not particularly costly and can be a means to controlling a pet's aggression, fear of thunderstorms, anxiety around strangers, compulsive disorders (like Zoey licking her feet) and urine marking. Compulsive disorders also include, "licking of wrists and ankles, light or shadow-chasing, tail-chasing, rock chewing, compulsive digging and even compulsive swimming." Prozac has been used very successfully with SEPARATION ANXIETY.

Keep in mind that Prozac may not be the cure-all for every dog. It takes a few weeks to take full effect. Although it may not work for your dog there are similar drugs that you might try. Prozac must be monitored by your vet as it can cause reduced appetite, lack of energy, itchiness, and when given more than needed, anxiety, tremors, restlessness or panting. It also might be necessary to combine a Prozac regimen with behavior modification techniques and/or desensitization to the negative triggers. Don't allow stigmatization of this drug to cause you to despair or refuse its potential success. Although it may help Buckley to accept his new life's order, it still may not be the best home for him or he the best companion for my niece at this time.

PEANUT BUTTER PUMPKIN DOG TREATS

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 cup Pumpkin Puree, not Pumpkin Pie Filling
- 3 Tbsp Peanut Butter, Dog Safe
- 2 Eggs
- 2 1/2 cups Whole Wheat Flour, Plus Additional as Needed

INSTRUCTIONS:

Preheat oven. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Line baking sheet with a silicone baking mat or parchment paper. Make the dough. Using a stand mixer with the paddle attachment or a hand mixer and a large bowl, beat the pumpkin puree, peanut butter, and eggs on medium-high until combined. This will take 1-2 minutes. Reduce speed to low, and slowly add the flour, mixing until just incorporated. If needed, add additional flour until the dough is not sticky and the texture of cookie dough (this depends on the moisture level of your peanut butter and pumpkin). Roll and cut treats. On a lightly floured surface, gently knead and press the dough together a few times until it comes together. Roll the dough to 1/4 inch thickness. Cut into desired shapes and place on prepared baking sheet. Bake. Bake until the edges are golden brown and fully set. About 20-30 minutes, depending on size and thickness. I've found that my dog prefers treats to be crunchy and hard vs chewy. So you will bake these treats longer than you would 'human cookies'. When done, they should look well past set, but not burnt. But bake them according to your dog's preference. Allow to cool. Allow to fully cool - the treats will crisp up once they cool.

DON'T CHASE. PLEASE CALL US OR POLICE WITH HER LAST SEEN LOCATION.

Roxy, a 9-year-old, 15lb, tan and white Italian Greyhound (looks like a miniature Greyhound) and resident of Ocean City, went missing from Maple Ave and Fairbanks in Northfield. She dug her way out from under a fenced-in backyard and has been missing since 2 PM on May 18th, 2023. Her family was away when it happened and realized she was missing at 4 PM, immediately starting a relentless search with the help of the community.

Roxy has been sighted near the following streets in Northfield and Pleasantville: Lafayette, Doughty, Dolphin, New Road (by Mazzeos), Old Tilton, Fernwood, Ashland, Church, Risley, and New Maple. Search efforts include working with an experienced dog tracker, thousands of shares on social media, the creation of the "Finding Roxy" group on Facebook with over 300 members, hours of searching on foot, notifying all local shelters, vets, and police stations, and posting over 1000 flyers (all of which will be taken down when she is found. If you see a flyer up, please assume she is still missing).

Please call
with any information.

Sightings are the key to bringing Roxy home. If you see her, please call the police or the numbers on the flyer immediately. Including photos of her would be even more helpful. Roxy's family would like to extend a sincere and heartfelt thank you to the residents of Northfield and Pleasantville for their continued efforts in the search. Your support has been overwhelming, and it won't be possible to bring her home without you. Again, if you have any information regarding her whereabouts, please notify the police or call 609-287-6780 or 609-513-2935 as soon as possible.

He needs a home with no small animals and no children under the age of 10 due to his food motivation and activity level. He has done well with other dogs here at HSAC.

NATIONAL MIDDLE CHILD DAY AUGUST 12, 2023

If you have siblings, you know the rivalry can get real. Middle children often get less attention from busy parents. But despite the commonly held belief that their insecurity and resentment carries on into adulthood, middle children actually develop some critical skills that help them become successful adults.

Whether or not "Middle Child Syndrome" is real, it's true that middle children, particularly in large families, can get overlooked in the hustle and bustle of daily life. Started in 1986 by Elizabeth Walker, National Middle Child Day celebrates our middle siblings and reminds us that each child is precious and important.

National Middle Child Day is observed to honor that in-between child in the family. The interesting thing is even larger families celebrate more than one middle child, too!

HISTORY OF NATIONAL MIDDLE CHILD DAY

Middle children have a reputation for being ignored by their family, consequently growing up resentful, withdrawn, and disaffected. Although research shows little correlation between birth order and personality, the stereotype has persisted in pop culture characters like Jan Brady, who epitomizes the embittered middle child.

In fact, middle children might have some distinct advantages in adult life. The skills they develop as the "forgotten" sibling often translate into important qualities like empathy, diplomacy, and flexibility. In fact, over half of U.S. presidents were middle children, along with many other successful leaders.

Resourceful and independent but also cooperative and patient, middle children often grow up to be good leaders and helpful teammates. They can negotiate a variety of personalities but also do well on their own, and are known as risk-takers and independent thinkers. Because they're frequently left to their own devices, middle children develop a self-sufficiency less common in their older and younger siblings.

Until the 1970s, American families had an average of 2.5 children. Today, due to modernization and economic and environmental pressures, fewer and fewer families have middle children, with the average American family having just under two kids.

National Middle Child Day began in 1986 as a way to celebrate the siblings who feel left out or unseen and give them a special day of their own. Until now, it's been celebrated on August 12.

Not everyone agrees on the holiday's date: the International Middle Child's Union, founded by Bruce Hopman, wants to change National Middle Child Day to July 2, which falls in the exact middle of the calendar year.

5 FASCINATING FACTS ABOUT MIDDLE CHILDREN

1. Abe Lincoln was a middle child - Over half of U.S. presidents, including John F. Kennedy, were middle children.
2. We see middle children as the peacemakers - In pop culture, middle children are often portrayed as the level-headed, responsible ones who quietly keep their siblings out of trouble. Think Malcolm Wilkerson, Michael Bluth, and Lisa Simpson.
3. TGIF Crossover - When Full House's middle daughter, Stephanie Tanner, feels self-conscious about wearing her new glasses, a guest star from another popular TGIF sitcom stops by to cheer her up and give her a lesson in self-confidence. That guest: Steve Urkel, the bespectacled neighbor from Family Matters.
4. "Marcia, Marcia, Marcia!" - Jan and Marcia Brady's rivalry wasn't just good on-screen chemistry; the two actresses didn't have a good relationship during filming, and today they're still not on speaking terms.
5. Bill Gates started programming as a teen - Microsoft co-founder, philanthropist, and middle child Bill Gates wrote his first computer program as a teenager. It was a version of tic-tac-toe.
