HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 23 - OCTOBER 29, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

After weeks of pushing ahead, this week calls you to slow down and look inward. A financial, emotional, or intimate situation may require deeper reflection—and some courage to confront. You don't have to control everything to be safe. Real power comes from letting go of fear.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Partnership themes intensify this week, and you may be facing a fork in the road. A relationship—romantic, professional, or even with yourself—needs clearer terms. Don't avoid the hard conversations. Honesty now will either strengthen the bond or set you free.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You're being asked to get serious about your wellness—body, schedule, energy, all of it. This week favors clarity through cleanup. A minor adjustment could bring major relief. Your future self is already thanking you.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Creative energy is rising, but only if you allow yourself to explore joy without guilt. Romance, art, or play is calling—don't drown it out with duty. This week is about what lights you up. Not everything has to be useful to be meaningful.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You're pulled toward your roots now—your home, your past, your inner sense of safety. Something old may need resolution so something new can grow. Let yourself feel what comes up, even if it's messy. Home isn't always a place—it's a state of peace.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Conversations may carry hidden weight this week—what's left unsaid is just as important as what's spoken. A sibling, neighbor, or familiar routine could hold surprising insight. Write it down, speak it out, or sit with it quietly. Clarity starts in the mind before it moves into motion.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Money, value, and worth are all themes this week—and not just in the material sense. Ask yourself where your time and energy are going, and whether it reflects your true priorities. The eclipse left you raw, but also real. Now you get to rebuild with intention.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Scorpio season arrives, and with it a wave of personal intensity. This is your reset button, but it requires you to show up fully—mess and all. Shed the version of yourself that's keeping you small. You're not just evolving—you're stepping into your power.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Your inner world is loud right now, even if you're staying outwardly busy. Don't ignore what's bubbling up in your dreams, instincts, or late-night thoughts. This is a private transformation, but no less powerful. Clear space for what your spirit is trying to tell you.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

You're redefining what community means to you—and who fits into your future. Friendships or collaborations may shift this week, and that's okay. This isn't about cutting people off; it's about choosing alignment. Trust your vision, even if others don't fully see it yet.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You're standing at a professional or public threshold, and something big is stirring. If you've been questioning your path, this week brings a sign. You're ready for more—but only if it supports your growth. Step up with purpose, not pressure.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

A new belief is taking root, and it may change how you see the world—or your place in it. Whether it's travel, study, or spiritual realignment, you're expanding. Let curiosity guide you, not dogma. Growth doesn't have to look radical to feel revolutionary.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Low Lunge

The alignment of your lunge is important. Make a right angle with your front leg so your knee is directly over your ankle and your thigh is parallel to the floor. At the same time, keep your hips level and root into your back leg.

Many don't go deep enough into the front leg and sag in the back. Glance in the mirror to make sure you're getting it right.

To modify this yoga pose, place your hands on blocks or lower your back leg to the mat (with a blanket or towel as needed for cushioning).

STANDING LUNGE

TIPS

Keep your hips square and your chest open. Don't let your knee bend past your toes.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin C

Your symptoms may not go away any sooner with Vitamin C, but staying hydrated can help you feel better while your symptoms run their course. Your body also needs vitamin C to help your bones, skin, and muscles grow. You'll get enough by including bell peppers, papaya, strawberries, broccoli, cantaloupe, leafy greens, and other fruits and veggies in your diet.

Atlantic County High School Football: Week 8 Roundup

Week 8 delivered clarity and fireworks across Atlantic County. Absegami finally exploded on offense, Atlantic City proved its defense travels, Cedar Creek powered to a seventh straight win, and Holy Spirit unleashed its biggest scoring night of the season. St. Augustine continued to look playoff-ready, St. Joseph survived another nail-biter, and Mainland ran into a buzzsaw as late-October separation set in. With just one regular-season weekend left, the line between postseason locks and hopeful spoilers has never been sharper.

Absegami authored its best night of the year, torching Middle Township 47-14 behind a balanced attack that showed what the Braves have been building toward all month. Dameir Burke broke through for more than 150 rushing yards, while Chris Singleton added a pick-six and a 40-yard punt return that swung momentum early. The win, their first in league play, bumped them to 3-5 overall and provided a welcome home statement for an offense averaging more than 30 points per game since mid-season. They'll host Cumberland Friday at 6 p.m., where production will be tested against one of South Jersey's stingiest defenses.

Atlantic City leaned on defense to stretch its win streak to five, blanking Hammonton 13-0 on the road. Quarterback Marvin Burroughs Jr. found Don'Taye Thompson for the lone offensive touchdown before the defense closed the door with two late red-zone stands. Kyree Barksdale and Ahmad Chambers combined for over 120 return yards, flipping field position all afternoon. The Vikings, now 7-1, have surrendered just nine points per game during their road run and won't play again until Thanksgiving morning against Holy Spirit in the traditional rivalry at the Thorofare, where local bragging rights and playoff seeding could both be in play.

Cedar Creek kept right on rumbling, burying Timber Creek 49-14 for a seventh consecutive victory. Aamir Dunbar stayed automatic with 170 yards and three scores on the ground, bringing his season total to more than 1,300 yards. The Pirates rolled up 276 rushing yards as Justus Peyton and Gyan King each came away with interceptions for the second week in a row, while Malik Hammond added a 62-yard punt return touchdown. At 7-1, they head to Ocean City on Friday, where two top-10 defenses collide in a game that could decide the Cape-Atlantic League's public-school pecking order and first-round home field.

Holy Spirit lit up Ocean City 48-0 in its most complete performance of the season. Tyler Bell ran wild for over 150 yards and two touchdowns, and Noah Sanchez anchored a front that allowed barely a first down per quarter. The passing game also clicked as Derek Healy threw for three scores, including a 45-yard strike to Josh Graves on the opening drive. It was the Spartans' second straight blowout, lifting them to 4-3 and setting up a showdown with St. Augustine Prep in Richland on Oct. 31 that could shape both teams' postseason positioning.

Mainland hit a wall at Winslow Township, falling 41-6 and dropping back to 4-4. The Mustangs' streak of three straight road wins ended as Winslow quarterback Jalen Parker threw for 290 yards and five TDs. Mainland's lone highlight came from Jake Eckman, whose second-quarter interception briefly stopped the bleeding. They return home Friday against Delsea aiming to reset their rhythm before brackets lock and to prove their defense can still dictate pace against power offenses.

St. Augustine stayed surgical in a 28-14 win over Rancocas Valley, flipping last year's loss behind a poised effort from Matt Reed and a defense that again held steady late. Jason Tucker led the charge up front as the Hermits held Rancocas under 50 yards rushing. At 6-1, they'll travel to Millville Friday at 6 p.m. for what could be the regular season's defining power-test in South Non-Public A and a chance to secure a top-three seed.

St. Joseph kept its edge in tight games, escaping Oakcrest 23-20 on Friday after edging ACIT 13-12 the week before. Anthony Salamone hit Cole Brubaker for 86 yards and a touchdown while the Wildcats' defense held off a furious final drive to move to 6-1. Gavin Sutton added two field goals, including the 32-yard game-winner in the final minute. Oakcrest (2-6) travels to Lower Cape May this week looking to finish strong after back-to-back heartbreaks.

Pleasantville's bye came well-timed; the Greyhounds (5-2) reenter play Friday at 6 p.m. against Willingboro with their defense still riding a 12-quarter shutout streak. Keon Jefferson and Khalil Evans will look to sustain the offensive spark that fueled their 42-0 win two weeks ago as Pleasantville eyes a late-season home playoff berth.

Egg Harbor Township dropped its third straight, 27-0 to Triton, and sits 1-7 heading into a rivalry test with ACIT. The RedHawks (2-5) fell 28-0 to Bridgeton and now share the same urgency level—win or fade before seeding day. Buena (1-5) also seeks a spark hosting New Egypt after its idle week, hoping for a repeat of its early-season road form.

Week 8 cemented what's real. Atlantic City and Cedar Creek remain the headline acts, St. Augustine and Holy Spirit are peaking when it matters, and St. Joseph keeps finding ways to close. Absegami's offense finally arrived, Mainland and Oakcrest fight to steady, and Pleasantville's defense is postseason-ready. With one final Friday left before the brackets freeze, every drive now doubles as an audition — because in Atlantic County football, November remembers who finished, not who started.

We celebrate International Artist Day on October 25. Art as a creative human expression encapsulates myriad things. It portrays the beauty of life or a bitter reality. It records history, revolutions, rebellions, and sometimes is a means to escape them. In short, there is no history or culture without art. This day celebrates all forms of art - paintings, sculpture, photography, architecture, music, and more. Through this celebration we show our respect for the passion and creativity in all artists. As art provide you with a medium of speech let us also see the work of those artists who study, research and criticize artists to showcase their art of words, here is a list of top art journalist.

History of International Artist Day

In the summer of 1961 President Kennedy made an effort to settle a salary dispute between the Metropolitan Opera and the American Federation of Musicians. He succeeded. Kennedy's actions signaled his passion for the arts. Congress, in the mid 60s, designated the National Cultural Center, launched in 1958, as a "living memorial" to President Kennedy and authorized $23 million to begin construction. It's now simply known as the Kennedy Center.

The following year President Johnson signed the National Foundation on the Arts & the Humanities Act, which created the National Endowment for the Arts.

By 1970 focus on the arts increasingly spread to television and cinema. Mobil Oil committed more than $1 million to the Corporation for Public Broadcasting for presentation of Masterpiece Theatre on PBS - and for 5 million copies of new Sesame Street magazine to be given free to preschool children in low-income neighborhoods. This was the largest gift to CPB from the business community to date.

A decade later President Reagan, himself a former actor appointed a Presidential Task Force on the Arts & Humanities to review the purposes of the National Endowments; broaden private support; engage more non-government professionals, private groups & individuals; & recommend ways to strengthen the overall structure of both agencies.

Still another president would show his support as well. Bill Clinton, in his 1997 State of the Union Address, asked Congress to maintain support for the arts - and urged citizens to make the year 2000 a national celebration "so that we can remain the world's beacon not only of liberty but of creativity, long after the fireworks have faded."

Recently the Museum of Modern Art in New York City reopened after a $400 million renovation - adding over 40,000 square feet for galleries (including two at the street-level) - inside the new West 53rd St. tower. They are free to the public.

5 Colorful Facts About Famous Art And Artists

- 1 - Dali - but not cheesy - Salvador Dali once explained that the idea for melting clocks in his famous painting "The Persistence of Memory" came from Camembert cheese he saw melting in the sun.
- 2 - She was famous after being stolen - The Mona Lisa only gained notoriety after she was stolen in 1911. For about 350 years only a few critics and scholars celebrated and acknowledged this painting!
- 3 - Painting for sport - Did you know art competitions used to be a part of the Olympics? The categories were painting, sculpture, architecture, music, and literature.
- 4 - A gem of a painting - Gemstone paintings originated in Rajasthan, India. Painters use precious and semi-precious gemstones, like ruby, sapphire, jade, lapis lazuli, etc., in fine powdered form to create beautiful works of art.
- 5 - The youngest artist - Picasso could draw before he learned to walk! And the first word he spoke was "pencil."

Why We Love International Artist Day

- It recognizes all artists - Artists are a passionate and talented lot that deserve our respect for their work and contributions to our culture.
- It inspires us - Great works of art are truly uplifting and on this day we can open our senses to such inspirations.
- It encourages creativity - All artists, regardless on skill level, earnings, or status benefit from a celebration like this one.

Art, Atlantic County Style

In Atlantic County, art doesn't just hang on walls - it lives in the hands of the people who make it. Among those who helped define the region's creative spirit is Carl L. Rosner, a lifelong painter whose career has spanned more than seven decades. Born in Atlantic City in 1929, Rosner studied commercial art at Pratt Institute in New York before building an extraordinary body of work - more than a thousand paintings now held in private and public collections around the world. Even into his nineties, he continues to teach and mentor, sharing his belief that creativity doesn't fade with age - it deepens. His life and work stand as a testament to the enduring power of art and its ability to connect generations through shared vision and craft.

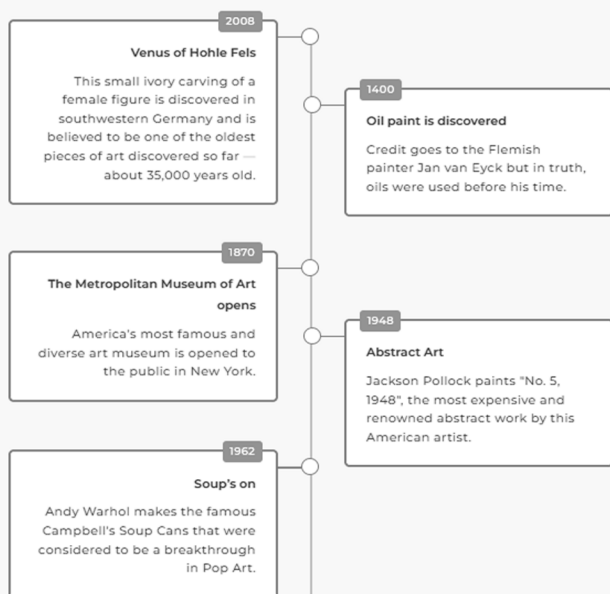

That same spirit of creativity thrives today at the Noyes Arts Garage of Stockton University, where art, education, and community meet in the heart of Atlantic City. The Arts Garage is home to working artist studios, rotating exhibitions, and hands-on workshops that make art accessible to everyone - from first-time creators to seasoned professionals.

On Saturday, October 25 - the very day we celebrate International Artist Day - the Noyes Arts Garage will bring that mission to life with a trio of events that showcase the many ways art can shape a community. The day begins at 11:00 a.m. with the Fall Portrait Workshop led by artist Amanda Auble, an intimate, small-group session designed for painters of all levels inside the Arts Garage studios at 2200 Fairmount Avenue. At 12:00 p.m., families can join SatARTdays, a free art program for children that introduces young artists to new techniques in color, texture, and creative expression under the guidance of local instructors.

Later in the day, Stockton University's Community Day & Party in the Park runs from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at O'Donnell Memorial Park, located about a mile from the Arts Garage at 3501 Pacific Avenue. The event invites residents, students, and volunteers to help beautify the park through art-based clean-up projects, installations, and family-friendly activities - proving that creativity doesn't stop at the studio door, but extends into every part of community life.

Together, artists like Carl Rosner and institutions like the Noyes Arts Garage embody what International Artist Day is truly about - the people who turn inspiration into action, who make art not only something we admire, but something we live. For more information or to register for events, visit noyesmuseum.org or stop by the Arts Garage to experience Atlantic County's creativity in motion.

DOG ACID KNOWN AS GERD OR GASTROESOPHAGEAL REFLUX DISEASE

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson

A customer contacted me at home about her dog's reflux problem. I decided to do further research to enhance the small amount of advice I was able to offer. This morning while I was out in the garden, I noticed the dogs searching for a particular grass that they eat when their stomachs are upset, which is one of the indicators of GERD-but if done in excess. Other indicators would be vomiting bile-usually a yellowish fluid as opposed to white foam. (vomiting is usually more frequent after a meal), licking the floor, or gulping at night which are loud noises like lip smacking, opening, and closing the mouth repetitively, which may mean that the dog is feeling distressed. I have GERD, so I can relate. Other indicators are regurgitation of small amounts of food, especially when using the stairs, getting up or down, or being picked up. It is usually food that has not been sufficiently swallowed. Sour or bad breath is caused by the acid in the stomach.

Nausea may cause a dog to be reluctant to eat anything, especially first thing in the morning. Ebby always gobbles up her treats in the morning, but Zoey is often not interested. I tell Bob to let her be for another hour or so and then see if she has an appetite. Sometimes dogs will start panting or become restless, especially after a meal. I make dinner (their only main meal) for the dogs at around 8 p.m. and sometimes they will finish it within 30 minutes. Sometimes Zoey won't touch her bowl until I put it with her in my bed and force a piece of topper into her mouth. Sometimes she spits it right out and then eats it. Sometimes she swallows it at once. Then she appears to think "Oh, that was pretty good. I think I'll eat some more." I go into the bathroom and get ready for bed, and by that time she has finished it, and will woof at me that she now is ready for her bedtime dental chew. Ebby gets her dental treat after she eats all her dinner, given when Zoey gets hers.

Dogs may get GERD from several causes. *Inefficient digestion which builds up stomach acid. *Dietary inadequacies like too much fat which slows down movement, or difficult to digest ingredients like corn. *Sensitivity to certain foods. Keep a journal of everything you feed your dog each day. That will help key in on the problematic ones. I get reflux especially from spicy foods, and mostly if eaten along with wine and chocolate! Intestinal *Dysbiosis is an imbalance of gut digestion which may be my problem too. I am going to consult a nutritionist. *Also, IBD or inflammatory bowel disease, or other gastrointestinal disorders can contribute to the problem of reflux. *More serious contributors may be cancer, liver, or kidney disease. At bedtime, try giving your dog an easily digestible treat, so the dog is not going to bed on an empty stomach, like a little goat milk which has a soothing effect. Check these out on the internet: Soothing Digestive Relief by ASK ARIEL, Their LypoZyme Digestive Enzymes for small and sensitive dogs, and a product called Gastro ULC Acid Reducer which has been proven to help soothe and repair the stomach lining.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

The Lost Seigneur by David Loux

This riveting sequel to the award-winning Chateau Laux unravels the story of the du Laux family's patriarch, Jean-Pierre du Laux, in the late 17th century and the decades that followed, in a land plagued by a persistent legacy of religious turmoil. Jean-Pierre, a nobleman in southern France, was wrongfully imprisoned during the brutal Dragonnades, a campaign designed to crush Protestant faith in the wake of France's long history of persecution. When he emerges from captivity years later, reunion with his family seems impossible - until he meets an unexpected ally, a spirited young companion, who proves that even in the darkest times, loyalty and compassion can light the path home.

The novel has been described as "a meticulously crafted tale of emotional depth," with reviewers exalting how the story rewards readers with the author's "exquisite writing, a finely plotted story and immersion into a family saga of love, loyalty, tragedy and triumph." Purchase at amzn.to/4nNCdl9.

If Necessary Alone by V M Knox

During the dark days of winter, 1941, Britain fights on alone against the Nazi threat. Major Clement Wisdom of the Special Duties Section of the Secret Intelligence Service (MI6) is sent to far North Scotland to investigate illicit radio signals being picked up by the local out-station. But as soon as he gets there, a man is found brutally murdered, his body displayed for maximum effect. Is it a warning or a terrible accident?

As more murders are discovered, Clement realises he is facing not only an embedded Nazi spy but also a ruthless killer. Alone and struggling against the bitter Scottish weather, as well as a web of silence from the locals, Clement must unmask his enemy before he becomes the next victim. If Necessary Alone is the second in the Clement Wisdom Series of WW2 Intelligence War novels. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/4mGmmE5>.

Help save lives. Give blood.

Why Donate Blood?

You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

The need is constant. The gratification is instant. Give blood.

Ava

Public speaker, author, blogger, singer, musician, music teacher, and former Ms. Colorado Senior America, Gail Hamilton has another credit to her long list of accomplishments: Seeing Eye graduate!

Gail often travels with Ava, her sixth Seeing Eye dog, for public speaking engagements, musical performances, and other events. “I have always been independent,” she said. “If you tell me another blind person has done it, then that means I can do it, too!”

And while Gail — who has a master’s degree in psychology and counseling — is no longer a practicing therapist, she still often gives advice to her friends... or strangers!

“You can’t take the therapist out of me any more than you could take the musician out of me,” Gail said. “I want to share hope and whatever insight I have, and to let people know they’re not alone. We only have a very short life here. Don’t be afraid to do the thing you want to do.”

"MEET THE PACK!"

WALK & LEARN WITH THE SEEING EYE - OCTOBER 24TH

WALK & LEARN

with The Seeing Eye

Friday, October 24th from 9 am - 10:30 am

Learn how Seeing Eye dogs are trained on the streets of Morristown. Each program begins with a brief presentation and tour of our downtown training location located at 14 Maple Avenue. Participants will then take a walk through the streets of Morristown and learn how Seeing Eye dogs guide their handlers safely. The walking distance is about 1 mile and is appropriate for ages 12+.

Location: 14 MAPLE AVENUE, MORRISTOWN, NJ (Signs alongside the building will be pointing to the entrance of the training center.)

Time: 9:00 am - 10:30 am

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY
 MAGAZINE

In November, The Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore at Jewish Family Service (JFS) will offer 11 interactive, entertaining, and unique programs. Plan to participate with friends, family, and neighbors and enjoy these virtual and in-person programs.

The Basic Beliefs of Islam: A Secular Scholarly Discussion – Part 2 – Tues, Nov 4th – 10:30am-12pm
 Dr. Jack Pesda returns to focus on the central belief system of Islam that encompasses laws, spiritual teachings, and moral codes. This program will offer insights into the history of the lives of Islamic women and the differences between Islamic sects and more. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by November 1.

Thoughts from the Bookshelf – Tues, Nov 4th – 3-4pm
 Join Village Community Specialist Tina Serota for a book club gathering. This month, we will discuss October's novel, The Lions of Fifth Avenue, by best-selling author Fiona Davis, which tells the story of two women – Laura in 1913 and her granddaughter, Sadie, in 1993, who independently investigate a series of rare book thefts. The story encompasses family ties, lost dreams, and redemption that comes from discovering the truth. Additionally, we'll discuss the New York Times's best-seller, Inheritance, by award-winning memoirist, Dani Shapiro. This book is a gripping genetic detective story and a meditation on genealogy, paternity, and love. Attend in-person at the Margate Library Meeting Room, 8100 Atlantic Avenue, Margate. RSVP by November 3.

The Great White Hoax: Two Centuries of Selling Racism in America – Wed, Nov 5th – 7-9pm
 Join Professor Philip Kadish as he places today's racial politics into historical context by exposing a centuries long tradition of white supremacist deception. From the antebellum era to the Civil War, Kadish traces a consistent pattern of racial fraud. Ultimately, he reveals white supremacy as the original "fake news" and exposes the figures – past and present – who have exploited racism for political gain. Attend in-person at Shirat Hayam, 700 North Swarthmore Avenue, Ventnor. RSVP by November 3.

JFS' Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore Programs in November

Lunch Around Town – Fri, Nov 7th – 12-1:30pm
 Enjoy a leisurely lunch with friends while supporting a local restaurant. This month, we will dine at Hannah G's, 7310 Ventnor Avenue in Ventnor. Come prepared for good food and conversation. Order off the menu and pay individually. RSVP by November 5.

Musical Connections – Mon, Nov 10th – 1-2pm
 Feel the stress of the day peel away as we share familiar tunes from various genres (Broadway, Classical, Contemporary, Jazz) and instruments with friends and neighbors. Whether you are a caregiver, cared for, or community member, we look forward to welcoming you. If you are sharing music, send the title, composer and/or performer to Tina Serota at tserota@jfsatlantic.org. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by November 6.

Village Film Society – Tues, Nov 11th – 10:30-11:30am
 Join Village Community Specialist Tina Serota for a discussion of the documentary, Food, Inc. 2, which reveals how corporate consolidation has gone unchecked by the government leaving people with a highly-efficient, but vulnerable food system which is dedicated to only increasing profits. The film seeks solutions through innovative farmers, food producers, workers' rights activists, and legislators to inspire change and build healthier, more sustainable future. Available for free at the Ventnor Library. View on Amazon Prime, Apple TV, Fandango, Google Play Movies, Hulu, and YouTube or for free at the Ventnor Library. This program is via Zoom and a link will be emailed. RSVP by November 10.

Coffee Klatch – Thurs, Nov 13th – 10:30-11:30am
 Your world in 60 minutes! Join a fast-paced discussion on neighborhood happenings, technology, social topics, world events, the arts, and more. Moderated by Village Community Specialist Tina Serota and Board of Jewish Education Executive Director Josh Cutler. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. RSVP by November 10.

Philadelphia's sports calendar is shifting with the season itself. The Eagles regained their footing with a statement win, the Phillies have officially turned the page to the offseason, the Union are polishing for playoff form, the Sixers are piecing together their new rhythm abroad, and the Flyers have hit the ice running with all the energy of a team eager to surprise. October in Philadelphia never slows down - it just changes jerseys.

Eagles: Resilience Restored

The Eagles' 28-22 victory over Minnesota looked and felt like a reset. After the frustrations of early October, the offense exploded back to life, powered by Jalen Hurts's best outing of the season: 326 yards, three touchdowns, and a perfect passer rating. A.J. Brown and DeVonta Smith tore through the Vikings' secondary for over 300 combined yards, restoring the vertical spark that had been missing during the team's brief slump.

Defensively, the tone was sharper from the first series. The front four regained control of the line, collapsing pockets and forcing hurried throws, while the secondary - anchored by standout rookie Quinyon Mitchell - played with poise and patience. Fangio's pressure looks finally hit home again, producing the kind of late-down stops that change outcomes. The run defense still leaked a few chunk plays, but the overall rhythm was restored.

Depth continues to define this roster. Kelee Ringo's emergence as a steady outside corner has given the Eagles flexibility they lacked in September, and Nakobe Dean's return from injury steadied the second level. Fangio's rotation leaned on youth, and it paid off - proof that the bench isn't just filling gaps, it's earning trust.

The schedule won't ease up. A Thursday-night trip to the Giants offers a short turnaround and a quick test of focus. Philadelphia's record still shines, but now comes the stretch that decides whether this team's identity is resilience or reaction.

Phillies: Season Ends, Work Begins

The Phillies' season closed last week in a four-game NLDS loss to the Dodgers - a quiet ending to what had been a loud summer. One late defensive miscue and a string of missed chances sealed their fate, and the offseason begins with more questions than regrets. Rob Thomson will return, but the bullpen blueprint and contact-hitting strategy will dominate winter conversations. The core remains strong; the challenge now is evolution, not overhaul.

Union: Calm Before the Bracket

With a postseason berth long secured, the Union continue to use these final weeks for sharpening rather than scrambling. The club's compact midfield, led by veterans who know how to manage tempo, has been its backbone all season. Bruno Damiani remains clinical in front of goal, and Andrew Rick's consistency between the posts gives the team confidence in tight matches.

The focus now turns to execution details - set-piece timing, substitution management, and how to stretch play on the right flank without exposing counter lanes. It's the quiet kind of preparation that wins knockout games. Subaru Park will be ready; the only question is how fine-tuned the Union can become before the bracket begins.

Sixers: Structure Over Speculation

The Sixers' preseason trip to Abu Dhabi offered something more valuable than rest: clarity. Nick Nurse used the back-to-back games against the Knicks to test closing combinations and integrate pace into the half-court offense without sacrificing defensive cohesion. Early results suggest a smoother balance - Joel Embiid anchoring inside while Tyrese Maxey orchestrates rhythm from the perimeter.

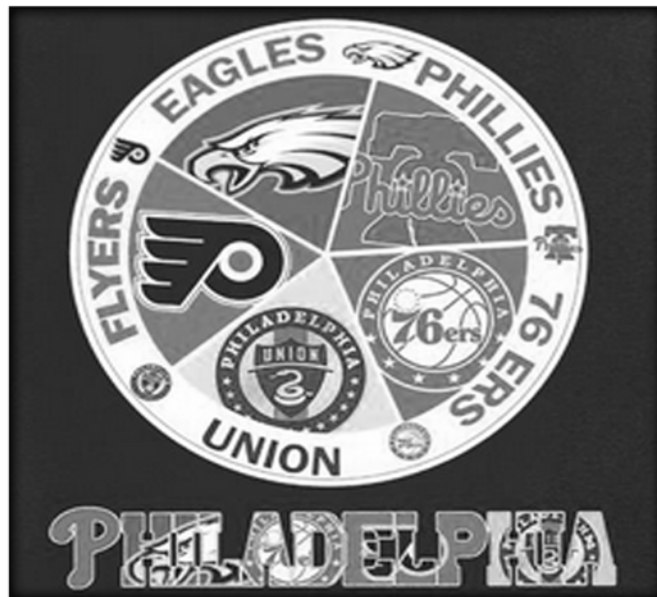

Jared McCain's steady recovery continues to influence the guard rotation, opening the door for expanded pace and spacing once he's fully cleared. Nurse's emphasis on decision speed rather than raw tempo has been a visible difference; ball movement feels purposeful instead of rushed. It's still early, but the foundation looks firmer than it did a year ago.

Back in Philadelphia, camp energy remains high but measured. After last season's turmoil, this team feels less interested in proving headlines and more focused on building habits. The real tests will come soon, but the structure is finally showing through the noise.

Flyers: Youth Movement Takes Flight

The Flyers' return to the Wells Fargo Center felt electric, even if the results have already covered the emotional spectrum. A 5-2 opening win over Florida had the building buzzing - Sean Couturier racked up four points, Trevor Zegras flashed highlight creativity, and Dan Vladar held strong in net. But the momentum cooled just as quickly with a 5-2 loss to Winnipeg, where defensive miscommunication and neutral-zone turnovers turned the game.

Still, there's something different about this group. The speed is undeniable, the transition play is more fluid, and the young core seems unshaken by early adversity. Sanheim and York have stabilized the blue line, and the Zegras-Couturier connection has shown legitimate chemistry. There will be growing pains, but also nights that remind fans why this rebuild could be the start of something real.

Looking Ahead: City in Motion

The Eagles are back to looking like themselves, the Phillies are looking inward, the Union are tightening their edges, the Sixers are building structure, and the Flyers are turning promise into proof. It's that rare overlap when every Philadelphia team is active at once, every storyline pulling in a different direction - but all pointing to the same truth: this city doesn't just play, it endures.
