NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

APPLES STOP THE CRAVINGS

Apples can support weight loss for a few reasons: they are low in calories, rich in antioxidants, contain fiber and are naturally sweet. They promote satiety and they help to ward off any sugar cravings you may be having that can ruin all your good intentions to stay on your healthy lifestyle. Apples alone can't achieve weight loss, but you can support your goal by combining them with a healthy and balanced diet. While apples are unlikely to cause spikes in blood sugar levels, they do contain carbs. If you are counting carbs, be sure to account for the 27 grams of carbs an apple contains. Also be sure to monitor your blood sugar after eating apples and see how they affect you personally. Cooked apples are very wholesome and contribute to maintaining overall health. Best apples to use if baking are Honey Gold or Crisp, Johnston, Fuji, Gala, and Granny Smith. Add a tsp. of cinnamon to the apples and drop blood sugar even lower!

Release the week of February 9 - 15, 2024

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 8 - FEBRUARY 14, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

You will be focused on your career for the first part of the week, Aries, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You might be developing big work projects, or you may be met with recognition or new opportunities at work. You will also be thinking about your long term career goals and what is worth committing to moving forward. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you may be seeing friends or organising a group activity. You could also be more optimistic about your future, or you might be putting effort into dating and meeting new people.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You will be motivated to learn at the start of the week, Taurus, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You might be reading or doing research, or you could be making progress with a piece of writing or public speaking work. You might be travelling too, or you're feeling connected to your spiritual beliefs. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, work will be picking up. You may be met with significant job opportunities, or you could be thinking about what direction you want to pivot in next with your responsibilities and overall career path.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You will be introspective at the start of the week, Gemini, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You might be having emotionally open conversations with people, and you could want to better understand yourself and why you have certain reactions and behaviours. You may simply be paying off bills or making a big purchase too. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you could be inspired to learn, and you may be developing a teaching or writing project. You could even be enrolling in a class, or you might be preparing to travel in the near future.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

You will feel connected to people at the start of the week, Cancer, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You may be going on a date or spending quality time with your partner or a good friend. However, you could be addressing underlying problems in a relationship, or you might be working on communicating openly with someone. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you may be reflecting on your behaviours, and you could want to improve upon certain aspects of yourself. You may also be looking for ways to save or invest your money for the future.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You will be sticking to a solid routine at the start of the week, Leo, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You may feel extra productive at work, as you cross numerous small tasks off of your to-do list. You may also be exercising regularly or cooking healthy meals for yourself. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you will be establishing new relationships. You could be going on a date or entering into a new chapter of your current relationship. You may also be spending quality time with a friend or forming a business partnership.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You will be slowing down and relaxing at the start of the week, Virgo, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You may be socialising with friends, or you could want to tend to a creative hobby outside of work. You may also be reflecting on how you can inject your unique point of view into a passion project. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you may be motivated to develop healthy habits. You could be exercising regularly, or you may be making an effort to cook nutritious meals. New work opportunities may arise as well.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You will be tending to activities around the home at the start of the week, Libra, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You may be cleaning and organising your living space, or you could be visiting with family. You may feel more introverted too, or you could be reflecting on childhood memories and family dynamics. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you will be carving out time to develop hobbies or creative projects. You may also be building greater confidence in your unique skills, or you're finding outlets for self expression, like painting or dancing, for example.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

You will be moving around at the start of the week, Scorpio, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You might be attending events, running errands, or meeting up with friends. You could also have ideas flowing to you for writing or speaking related work. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you may begin to see more activity take place at home. You could be preparing to travel or move homes, or you may be calling or visiting your family more frequently. You could be a bit emotional about family relationships though, or you're feeling nostalgic.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You will be motivated at work at the start of the week, Sagittarius, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You may be developing work projects and asserting your own ideas. You could also be shopping for yourself or dealing with numerous expenses that are popping up. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, your attention will shift to your social life. You may be scheduling meet-ups with friends, or you could want to attend an event in your city. In addition, you might be travelling somewhere nearby, or you're reading more or taking a quick workshop.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)

You will feel seen by other people at the start of the week, Capricorn, as the moon moves through your sign. You may be approached about new opportunities, or you could be paying greater attention to your personal style and how you're presenting yourself to the world. You will also be gaining confidence in what sets you apart from people. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you might be launching new work projects or getting your own business ideas off the ground. On the other hand, you could simply be shopping more than usual.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

You will want to slow down and rest at the start of the week, Aquarius, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You could be a bit emotional, or you may be tending to work and hobbies behind the scenes. You may also be finding peace in a journaling or meditation practice. With the new moon in your sign on Friday, you will be ready to set personal goals and pivot in a different life direction over the coming months. You may be approached about exciting opportunities, or you could be announcing something you've worked on for a while.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

You will be connecting with friends at the start of the week, Pisces, as the moon moves through Capricorn. You could be organising a group activity, or you may be joining a community event. You may also be inspired to set new goals for your future. With the new moon in Aquarius on Friday, you will be slowing down and taking time to rest. You may be letting go of a situation, relationship, or mindset that is no longer serving you, or you could be turning to a spiritual practice, like astrology or meditation, to feel at peace.

GIVE BLOOD

Why Donate Blood?
You don't need a special reason to give blood. You just need your own reason.

- Some of us give blood because we were asked by a friend.
- Some know that a family member or friend might need blood some day.
- Some believe it is the right thing to do.

Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your contribution is important for a healthy and reliable blood supply. And you'll feel good knowing you've helped change a life. To learn more, visit www.redcross.org

Super Bowl Fun Facts – The Big Game By The Numbers

Super Bowl LVIII (58) will crown either the San Francisco 49ers or the Kansas City Chiefs as champions of the National Football League's 103rd season. This will be the eighth Super Bowl for the 49ers, who have achieved victory five times, with the last one being in 1995. On the other side, this is the sixth time the Chiefs have made it to the Super Bowl, with the team having taken home the trophy three times, including last year.

It's no wonder why millions of people will tune in to this big sporting event on television. But the fact that we'll again consume more than a billion chicken wings while watching billions of dollars' worth of commercials with a bit of football mixed in might just boggle your mind. And if you want interesting Super Bowl facts, we've got plenty more where that came from.

Only time will tell which team will come out on top this year. But we can certainly get you prepared for the action in the meantime. Below, you'll find an awesome infographic with our favorite Super Bowl LVIII fun facts, plus a Q&A with a panel of sports business experts. Enjoy the game!

Top 5 Super Bowl Facts for 2024:

- $6,680: The average cost of a ticket to the past five Super Bowls.
- $8,586; Lowest price of a Super Bowl LVIII ticket on the resale market just after the conference championships (113% increase from 2023).
- $1.1B: Estimated economic impact for the Southern Nevada economy in 2024.
- 16.2M: Americans plan to watch the game at a bar or restaurant.
- 192%: 20-year increase in the cost of a 30-second Super Bowl ad.

A record number of Americans are expected to tune into Super Bowl LVIII, with consumer spending linked to the game also forecast to hit an all-time high, according to the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

More than 200 million U.S. adults plan to watch the Super Bowl, according to a survey from the National Retail Federation — that's well over half the country's population of 335 million — and more than half of those fans say they'll either host or attend a watch party. Another 16 million fans plan to watch from a bar or restaurant, the trade group found.

Such numbers underline the event's sheer economic scale. In all, spending on food, drinks, apparel, party decorations and other categories related to the Super Bowl is expected to reach $17.3 billion, according to the NRF. That's up about $1 billion from last year's game and breaks down to roughly $86 per person.

It also adds up to serious revenue for a wide array of businesses. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce said the event, which pits the Kansas City Chief against the San Francisco 49ers, is expected to generate an additional $500 million for the Las Vegas economy. That includes a projected 150,000 visitors to the city who are forecast to spend $215 million in spending on food and beverages, hotel rooms, game-related merchandise and other items.

Such figures don't include the vast sums likely to be waged on the Super Bowl in what is, after all, the gambling capital of the U.S. Nearly 68 million American adults — about 1 in 4 — plan to bet on the contest, according to the American Gaming Association. That includes bets placed with legal outlets, as well as with illegal bookies and online operations in other countries.

Super Bowl LVIII will air on CBS and Nickelodeon and stream on Paramount+ on Feb. 11 from Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. Kickoff is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Eastern time.

While I still have my training wheels on, since I am a bit rusty getting back into this, my writing priorities are going to come off a bit mish moshed, so please bear with me. Yes, last week was dedicated to my return. But what I really wanted to talk about for the month of February, was Black History Month, highlighting black-owned businesses and nonprofit organizations in Atlantic County. So, I am using this week as my impetus for that. This week I want to discuss the Rhythm and Blues Preservation Society.

If you currently preside under a rock and have no idea what R&B is, allow me to illuminate. Rhythm and Blues, frequently abbreviated as R&B, is a genre of popular music that originated within African American communities in the 1940s. The term was originally used by record companies to describe recordings marketed predominantly to African Americans, at a time when "rocking, jazz-based music" was becoming more popular. Chances are, if you're a human being, and you have ears, you have listened to, and enjoyed this genre at some point in your life. Now that we've gotten that out of the way... I digress.

What IS the Rhythm and Blues Preservation Society, you ask? The Rhythm and Blues Preservation Society (or RBPS) is a nonprofit music society chapter, based in Atlantic City, New Jersey, founded in 2018 by Mr. Perry Thompson, Founder/Executive Director, with a sole mission to preserve the culture of Black music one record at a time. These angels are committed to spearheading an African American Music Studies in colleges and universities in America as a degree program by 2030. They presented their 1st black music preservation lecture & panel series at Stockton University Department of African American Studies in Atlantic City, on February 21, 2022, proclaimed "The Rhythm and Blues Preservation Society Day" by Former Mayor of Atlantic City and presently Assemblyman Donald J. Guardian, as well as received a Letter of Support from NJ Governor Phil Murphy.

What they are doing for the community is crucial. If you have ever read anything I've written in the past, you will know ((that aside from being a colossal nerd and food ogre)), I am an avid lover of all things that have to do with musical and art development. And why? Because studies have proven that music introduced to a child at a young age helps them succeed in academics, namely math and science. Because after all, what is music? Math in symphonic form. Aside from their vast array of programs like their Oral Tradition Project, and International Blues Challenge, they have a fantastic program for the youth, called Instruments for Children. This program started in 2006, in the Rhode Island chapter, to support musical training for students who may not otherwise have been able to afford or participate in music studies, and to keep the African American legacy and tradition of R&B alive for the next generation of aspiring musicians. Since then, they have expanded to a series of participating schools, across multiple states, shaping the minds of our youth. To donate instruments, just contact the RBPS. I have a collection of kazoos and slide whistles they may not necessarily be interested in, but I'm sure they will accept what you can spare. I implore you to checkout their website: <https://bluespreservationsociety.org>.

Keeping the history and traditions of R&B alive for our youth is paramount, and what better way to celebrate the Youth of R&B than by checking out their showcase, celebrating the Young, Gifted, and Talented Artists in the community, on February 21, 2024, from 2 pm to 4 pm, at the Stanley Holmes Village Community Center, on Adriatic Avenue, in Atlantic City? Also on February 21st, in Camden, NJ, at the Paul Robeson Library, they will be hosting a live Lecture and Performance, by the Queen Diva herself, Rev. Dr. Sonja Elise Freeman. You are guaranteed to be entertained and amazed. Check it out. Celebrate, keep R&B alive, and stay informed. Until next week, friends...

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight
"MEET THE PACK!"

Talk about making a PAWS-itive impact!

Becoming a puppy raiser or sitter makes a difference not only in those matched with a Seeing Eye dog but also allows you to join a community like no other. Seeing Eye puppy clubs consist of people of all ages and walks of life who all share the desire to help others.

A puppy raiser is the primary caretaker for a Seeing Eye puppy for about one year. A puppy sitter is someone who is available to help care for a puppy for short periods of time (typically for a night or weekend) when their primary caretaker cannot. This is a great way to get started in puppy raising, or to help out if you cannot commit to raising a puppy full time. We could not continue our mission without all our amazing volunteer puppy raisers and sitters.

If you are interested in joining our puppy raising community, please visit seeingeye.org/raise

PD: A collage shows photos of a yellow Lab/golden retriever cross puppy sound asleep in a Seeing Eye staff member's arms, a German shepherd wearing a Seeing Eye puppy raising bandana sitting amidst daffodils with his head tilted, a young girl with the black Lab/golden retriever cross puppy she is raising sitting at her side, and a group shot of a puppy club sitting together at a park with puppies of all breeds. Text reads, "Join Our Family - Raise a Seeing Eye Puppy - seeingeye.org/raise"

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Standing Forward Bend (Uttanasana)

To do Standing Forward Bend, exhale, and fold over your legs. If the hamstrings feel a little tight at first, bend the knees so that you can release your spine. Let the head hang heavy. Keep the legs gently bent with feet hip-width apart for better stability (you can straighten the legs, but it is unnecessary). You can clasp opposite elbows with opposite hands while swaying gently from side to side. Standing Forward Bend stretches and lengthens the hamstrings and calves. It is common to have tight hamstrings if you run or play a sport that involves lots of running. It is regarded as a relaxing and stress-relieving pose. Traditionally, it is said to help relieve insomnia.

STANDING FORWARD BEND

TIP:

Engage your quads and avoid locking your knees as you let your head hang down.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Iodine

Iron is important in making red blood cells, which carry oxygen around the body. A lack of iron can lead to iron deficiency anaemia. Good sources of iron include: liver (but avoid this during pregnancy), red meat, beans, such as red kidney beans, edamame beans and chickpeas, nuts, dried fruit – such as dried apricots, fortified breakfast cereals and soy bean flour.

The Last Days of the Midnight Ramblers by Sarah Tomlinson

In this upcoming debut, perfect for fans of Daisy Jones & the Six, one ghostwriter uncovers the past of an iconic rock band, whose lives were gripped by murder, betrayal, suspicion and a legacy that will go down in history.

Anke Berben had romances with all three members of the Midnight Ramblers. With an inside knowledge of the inner workings of the band, their appeal, mystique and drama, she knows about their dark past — the death of the band's founder, who was Anke's husband. Now, Anke is ready to tell the truth with the help of Mari Hawthron, a ghostwriter desperate to uncover the secrets of this death. Immersed in the world of these musicians, Mari finds herself getting lost in their stories, compelled by the magic of the music and legacy they created. Can she stay unbiased and grounded in the present long enough to discover the truth of what happened all those years ago, in 1969?

Fireflies and Zeroes by Liz Larson

Max, the leader and songwriter of a three-person pop-punk band goes missing on the eve of their reunion tour in Charlottesville, Virginia. Just six months earlier, the explosive racial violence of August 12, 2017 rocked the city and dominated the news. Two band members reckon with the dark past of their home, a once-Confederate city, while their reunion tour turns deadly. After a scuffle in the dark, one person is dead.

No one knows where their bandmate Max is, and ominous signs suggest he isn't safe. Soon, it is a race against time to rescue a beloved band member in this punk portrait of music and a Southern town. Fireflies and Zeroes suggests a hope of resolving our past as it explores the lasting impact of a bloody and divisive war that ended over a century and a half ago.

Books About Musicians Reckoning with a Complex Past

Mayluna by Kelley McNeil

The 90's English alt-rock band, Mayluna, led by the legendary Carter Willis put out music that rocked the world with angsty, emotional songs of love and heart-break. Who were all of these songs about? And what compelled Carter to write music about her for a generation of fans?

Evie Waters' children find a magazine-printed photo of rockstar Carter Willis next to a younger version of their mother. As a music journalist in the 90s, Evie started her career interviewing musicians, lingering backstage, and connecting with one handsome young musician destined for success... For fans of Mayluna, there has been a long-standing question about what could have gone wrong between the two. Between decades-ago interviews and present-day revelations, Evie and Carter reveal a love story powerful enough to change music history, as they try to come to terms with a past that is simply that — past.

Windy City Blues by Renée Rosen

From 1947 to 1969, Windy City Blues sounds with the rhythms of the music of Chicago, the beats of racial tension, of women's struggles for independence, and of the difficulties of immigrants trying to succeed in a new country. Rooted in the real and legendary blues recording studio, Chess Records, the story follows Red Dupree as he tries to make it big as a blues guitarist.

Leeba Groski is a young woman whose Orthodox Jewish family wants to keep her sheltered — a past she is trying to break free from. So when her responsibilities at Chess Records grow, she develops her own talent for songwriting and struggles to circumvent the airwaves that are dominated by male singers. Soon, Red and Leeba fall in love, though an interracial relationship in the 1950s brings out the uglier side of Chicago. The pair become involved first with the Freedom Riders and then the Civil Rights Movement, as they try to right the wrongs of the past and build a future that has room for a female songwriter and a Black musician.
