FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

**ALWAYS ON THE THIRD SATURDAY AT 12pm****

Location: Gateway building 1433 Bacharach Blvd, Atlantic City, NJ 08401

Details: We will bring the pizza and plates for our homeless friends. We are asking you to please bring 5-10 bags of food (brown paper bag lunches) and toiletries to hand out to homeless people. Most people make turkey sandwiches or peanut butter jelly sandwiches and a bag of chips. Travel size toiletries are always very popular. If you can bring soap, deodorant, toothbrushes, and toothpaste that would be a huge help.

If you don't want to hand out food, clothing, and toiletries with us but would like to donate food, clothing, and toiletries we'll be there from 12:00 pm to 1:00pm so you can drop your items off. Your donation would mean a lot to someone in need.

We accept adult clothing donations at this event.

We'll be at this location handing out food, clothing, and toiletries. Kids are always welcome to come out with us.

We encourage you to tell your neighbors, family, and friends about the event. This is a free public event, come out with us and do one kind act a month. If we all come together we can have a huge impact on a homeless community.

Having a blast on National Pizza Party Day is no pie-in-the-sky idea. Pizza's the very definition of a good time and your May 16 options are plentiful. Whip up something at home or head out to a wild pizza place for food and fun on the third Friday in May.

Although mainly thought of as an Italian dish, pizza has seemingly existed forever. The ancient Greeks used to flavor their flatbread with oils, herbs, and cheese, while Persian soldiers used to bake their own pizzas on the hot surfaces of their shields. Traditional pizza is also known as Neapolitan pizza, and it originates—as the name suggests—from Naples, around the middle of the 16th century.

Italian immigrants later introduced the dish to their new American compatriots, and eventually, pizza became the savory crowd-pleaser we know it to be today.

National Pizza Party Day Activities

- 1. Throw your own pizza party - What better way to bond with your friends and meet new people than by inviting them to your place and feeding them pizza? You can decorate your place with pizza-themed decorations — after all, you're celebrating a national holiday — and put together pizza-themed party games. If you'd like to serve other food in addition to pizza, that's entirely up to you.
- 2. Make your own pizza - Haven't you ever wanted to make your own pizza crust? To knead the dough into a circle and toss it into the air, just like the pros do? You can either buy ready-made pizza dough or you can mix your own—there are plenty of recipe books to help you. Don't stress if you don't get the spin right the first time. All the best things in life "knead" practice.
- 3. Do a "pizza crawl" - If you've ever wondered where to find the best pizza in town, today is the perfect day to do it. Gather up a group of friends or go solo. Find out where you can get a pizza in your area, and go out on the town. You can carry a notebook or you can freewheel it, but the most important thing is to have a good time and eat some great pizza.

Why We Love National Pizza Party Day

- Pizza is delicious - There is something about the combination of standard flavors—sauce, cheese, spices and herbs—that is fundamentally appealing to us. At the same time, the recipe is so basic that it allows for endless experimentation and innovation. (Whatever your stance on whether pineapple should belong on pizza or not, you have to give folks points for creativity).
- Pizza complements a party perfectly - Pizza is a finger-food by default, which has the effect of making any atmosphere feel more easy and comfortable. People tend to have the most fun when they feel comfortable around others, so pizza can help create the perfect atmosphere for any party. And if that party happens to be a pizza party...well, that's just a bonus.
- It's the ultimate multicultural food - John Green once said that "for almost all of human history, pizza was impossible." Pizza as we know it today requires ingredients from very disparate corners of the world. As we mentioned before, tomato sauce wasn't used on pizza until trade routes were established between Europe and the Americas. Modern pizza requires creativity and collaboration between people of very different backgrounds—and the result is delicious.

Celebrate National Pizza Party Day with a Flavorful Pizza Crawl in Atlantic County, NJ

National Pizza Party Day is the perfect excuse to indulge in one of America's favorite comfort foods. This year, why not take your celebration to the next level with a pizza crawl through some of Atlantic County's most beloved pizzerias? From the wood-fired delights of Ventnor to the creative pies of Northfield, here's your guide to a mouthwatering journey that promises to satisfy every pizza craving.

Stop 1: Sapore Woodfire Pizza & Restaurant – Ventnor City - Begin your pizza adventure at Sapore Woodfire Pizza & Restaurant, located at 6501 Ventnor Ave in Ventnor. Known for its rustic Italian cuisine with a modern twist, Sapore offers an array of wood-fired pizzas crafted with homemade dough and fresh tomato sauce made daily. Signature pies include the Margherita, Quattro Formaggi, and the Sweet Fennel Sausage Pizza. Beyond pizza, the menu boasts a variety of Italian dishes, from veal and seafood to pasta and gourmet sandwiches. With its cozy ambiance and commitment to quality, Sapore sets the tone for a delightful pizza crawl. Ad on page 2.

Stop 2: Nonna's Grille – Northfield - Next up is Nonna's Grille, where Italian tradition takes a bold detour into Mexican territory. Located in Ridgewood Plaza (2327 New Rd), this family-owned gem in Northfield puts a unique spin on pizza by fusing Old World comfort with south-of-the-border flair. While you'll find plenty of classic Italian dishes here, it's Nonna's Mexican-style pizzas that steal the show — like the Al Pastor Pizza and Pizza a la Mexicana, both showcasing unexpected but delicious combinations that reflect the restaurant's Italian-Mexican roots. This fusion gives Nonna's an edge, offering pizza lovers something refreshingly different without straying too far from the familiar. Ad on page 13.

Stop 3: La Pizza Tega – Northfield - End your pizza crawl strong at La Pizza Tega, a Northfield staple known for quality ingredients, flavorful combinations, and generous portions. Tega is a local favorite not only for its pizza, but also for its involtini — Homemade ribbon-like pasta rolled and stuffed with a variety of filling. But pizza is the star of the day, and La Pizza Tega delivers big. Try the indulgent Chicken & Broccoli Alfredo Pizza, a rich, creamy pie loaded with tender chicken and fresh broccoli. The Alfredo Pizza, featuring garlic, mozzarella, and a velvety white sauce, is a go-to for white pizza fans. And if you're craving something simple and perfect, the Margherita Pizza — topped with fresh mozzarella, tomato, and basil — is a shining example of how quality ingredients can elevate a classic. Ad on page 13.

Tips for a Successful Pizza Crawl:

- * Plan Ahead: Check the operating hours of each pizzeria and consider making reservations if necessary.
- * Pace Yourself: Share pizzas at each stop to sample more varieties without overindulging.
- * Stay Hydrated: Drink water between stops to cleanse your palate and stay refreshed.
- * Take Notes: Jot down your favorite pies and flavors to remember for future visits.

Embark on this flavorful journey through Atlantic County and make this National Pizza Party Day one to remember. Whether you're a local or just visiting, these pizzerias offer a slice of the region's rich culinary tapestry. Enjoy!

Silent Horizons by Chad Robichaux

In this new military thriller, Foster Quinn is more than a former Force Recon Marine: he's a husband, father, and faithful brother to his teammates. When one of them is killed during a high-risk operation, Foster struggles to balance his roles as a dedicated family man and an elite warrior.

Then he gets the chance to step in where his best friend left off, assuming a cover identity that will pave the way for a critical mission. On his own in a new country, he must carefully choose who to trust. One wrong move could spell disaster.

From former Force Recon Marine Chad Robichaux and Navy TOPGUN fighter pilot Jack Stewart comes a thriller that gives readers a pulse-pounding glimpse into the clandestine side of special operations. It's perfect for fans of Jason Bourne and James Reece and makes a great Father's Day gift. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/43FrimM>.

Vested Interest by Bailey Herrington

Vested interest: "a special concern or stake in maintaining or influencing a condition, arrangement or action especially for selfish ends." — Merriam Webster Dictionary.

In Vested Interest: A David Elliott Mystery, an attractive, intelligent young member of David Elliott's congregation disappears; fear and ugly rumors spread throughout the community and the congregation. After her strangled body is found, the autopsy reveals startling details. The investigation, hampered by a lack of solid evidence, proceeds slowly. When another member of David Elliott's congregation dies mysteriously, the increasing anxiety rips the church apart and intensifies David's doubts about his ability and self-worth. David finds evidence that appears to incriminate members of his congregation as killers. His daring plan to confront the killers erupts in violence and death before the killers can be brought to justice. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/355X857>.

Portrait of a Feminist by Marianna Marlowe

Infused with a passion for justice, this expansive memoir by a biracial and multicultural feminist will appeal to fans of Crying in H Mart and How to Raise a Feminist Son.

With writing that is simultaneously wise and shimmering, nuanced and direct, Marlowe confronts her own experiences with the hallmarks of patriarchy. Interweaving stories of life as the child of a Catholic Peruvian mother and an atheist American father in a family that lived many years abroad, she examines realities familiar to so many of us — unequal marriages, class structures, misogynist literature, and patriarchal religion. Through braided memories that flash against the present day, Portrait of a Feminist explores the essential questions of feminism in our time: What does it look like to live in defense of feminism? How should feminism be evolving today? Purchase at <https://amzn.to/4iPNyHE>.

Invaders of the Heartland by James Bultema

After LAPD brass scrutinized his split-second decision in a deadly bank shootout, Detective Jake Dalton left the city behind for his hometown—Fairview, Oklahoma. But his return to small-town life is anything but quiet. Taking over a struggling four-person police department, Jake believes he's left big-city crime in the past—until the Chinese mafia moves in, turning Fairview into the hub of a ruthless billion-dollar marijuana empire.

When Jake sounds the alarm, federal agents dismiss him, and local officials look the other way. Outgunned and outnumbered, he stands alone as the last line of defense against a brutal syndicate determined to seize total control. One wrong move could cost him everything. Written by a retired LAPD officer, Invaders of the Heartland is a gritty, high-stakes police procedural brimming with real-world authenticity, crime, and conspiracy. The story may be fiction, but the crisis is very real. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/4iV5GGU>.

We are all about horses in the Preakness Stakes, celebrated annually on the third Saturday in May, which falls on May 17 this year. This is a thoroughbred horse racing event held every year at Pimlico Race Course in Baltimore, Maryland. This event is over a century old, attracting the most interesting and memorable personalities. Thoroughbred horses are the top tier of all racing horses, and the prestigious Pimlico Race Course is its best fit in the United States. Preakness Stakes comes in right after the Kentucky Derby and before the Belmont Stakes, making it the second jewel in the Triple Crown.

History of Preakness Stakes

The start of the summer is the beginning of the fanciest outdoor events, and one such event is the Preakness Stakes. This event boasts the crème de la crème of horse racing, touching the hearts of equestrians across America and the world at large. It is held at the Pimlico Race Course in Baltimore, Maryland, a racetrack strictly for thoroughbreds.

For those who don't know, thoroughbred horses are the best horses for racing that you could ever find. Why you may ask? Well, thoroughbred horses are crossbreds of native mares and oriental stallions. They entered the scene between the 17th and 18th centuries with the three oriental stallions — the Byerley Turk, the Darley Arabian, and the Godolphin Arabian — being imported to England.

Gaining popularity in the centuries to come, nearly 100,000 foals are now registered each year. These superior racing horses are often used for flat racing but can also be used for show jumping, dressage, polo, and fox hunting.

Flat racing is the most common form of horse racing carried out on oval-shaped, leveled tracks with turf variations. Pimlico Race Course had its grand opening in 1870 with the Dinner Party Stakes and 12,000 people in attendance. The Preakness colt was the winning horse of this race, and three years later, the Preakness Stakes came to be, named after the first winning horse at Pimlico.

It was the first major thoroughbred racing event that paved the way for two other major horse racing events — the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes. Today, we now know these three events as the Triple Crown. Preakness Stakes is a Grade 1 filly race, ran for 9.5 furlongs on dirt, held annually on the third Saturday in May.

Preakness Stakes Activities

- Attend the event - You'll enjoy the event more by attending in person. This is why you should take some time out with family and friends this fine Saturday to attend. If you find yourself in the Baltimore area at this time, you cannot afford to miss this prestigious event!
- Watch the event - If you cannot make the event in person, don't feel left out. There are several sporting channels on T.V. and streaming services where you can watch the event. It's no fun watching alone, so make sure you invite some friends over and organize some friendly betting games.
- Go horse riding - Ultimately, this event appreciates horse riding at its best. So another great way you can mark the day is by visiting nearby stables and going for a horse ride. If you are clueless about riding, this also presents the perfect opportunity to learn a new hobby.

5 Interesting Facts About Preakness Stakes

1. Its gift is a blanket - The winning horse at the Preakness Stakes is draped in the Black-Eyed Susan Blanket, which is a blanket covered in Viking poms.
2. It wasn't always observed after the Derby - Before 1969, the Preakness Stakes was run on the same day as the Kentucky Derby on two occasions and ran before it 11 times.
3. The purse wasn't always as large - The purse for the event is now a whopping $1.5 million, although it started at $2,050.
4. It's never held on a Sunday - Since 1931, the event has been held on Saturday afternoon, but before then it was scheduled on any other day of the week except on a Sunday.
5. One color takes the lead - Most of the winning horses of the Preakness Stakes have been bay in color.

Celebrating the 150th Preakness Stakes: A Historic Milestone in Horse Racing

The 2025 Preakness Stakes marks a monumental occasion in the world of horse racing — the 150th running of this iconic race. As the second jewel in the Triple Crown, the Preakness has a rich history filled with memorable moments, legendary horses, and significant milestones. This year, the celebration is even more special as we honor a century and a half of tradition and excellence.

🏆 A Historic Milestone - First run in 1873, the Preakness Stakes has evolved into one of the most prestigious horse races in the United States. The 150th edition, scheduled for Saturday, May 17, 2025, at Pimlico Race Course in Baltimore, Maryland, promises to be a spectacular event, showcasing the finest three-year-old thoroughbreds competing for the coveted Woodlawn Vase.

🏠 Farewell to Pimlico's Current Structure - This year's race is particularly significant as it will be the final Preakness held at the current Pimlico Race Course before its planned demolition and reconstruction. The Maryland Board of Public Works has approved a $14.3 million contract to begin the demolition and reconstruction of the historic venue, with plans to temporarily relocate the Preakness to Laurel Park in 2026, before returning to a newly rebuilt Pimlico in 2027.

🐎 Notable Horses and Trainers - Over the years, the Preakness has seen numerous legendary horses and trainers. This year, the field includes Journalism, the runner-up at the Kentucky Derby, who enters as the morning-line favorite at 8-5 odds. Other notable contenders include Goal Oriented, trained by the renowned Bob Baffert, and Sandman, who placed seventh in the Derby.

🎉 Preakness Festival 150 - To commemorate this historic milestone, Baltimore is hosting the Preakness Festival 150, a weeklong celebration featuring a variety of events. Highlights include:

- Magic of Maryland Music Celebration with DJ D-Nice on May 14
- Afro Preak — a three-day cultural celebration featuring live music, food, and entertainment
- Family-friendly artmaking and sports activities
- A spectacular fireworks and drone show illuminating the night sky

📺 How to Watch - The 150th Preakness Stakes will be broadcast live on NBC and Peacock. Coverage begins at 4:30 p.m. ET on CNBC, transitioning to NBC at 4:00 p.m. ET, with the race scheduled for 7:01 p.m. ET. Grammy Award-winning artist T-Pain will cap off the festivities with a trackside performance after the final race.

This historic edition of the Preakness Stakes is more than just a horse race; it's a celebration of tradition, community, and the enduring spirit of competition. Whether you're a seasoned racing enthusiast or a newcomer to the sport, the 150th Preakness Stakes is an event you won't want to miss.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Staff Pose (Dandasana)

Staff yoga pose is akin to a seated version of Mountain pose (above) in that it offers alignment guidelines for other seated yoga poses. Engage your leg muscles and flex your feet. Lift your chest and relax your shoulders. You can also allow a gentle bend in your knees so your shoulders can stack over your hips. Modify by using a block or folded blanket or two if you have trouble sitting straight with your butt flat on the floor. In a typical class, this yoga pose leads to a forward bend.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Iron

When your levels are low, your body doesn't make enough healthy red blood cells. And without them, you can't get oxygen to your tissues. Women who are pregnant or have heavy menstrual cycles are most likely to have anemia, the medical name for when you don't have enough iron in your blood.

Keep up your levels with beans and lentils, liver, oysters, and spinach. Many breakfast cereals have a day's worth added. Even dark chocolate with at least 45% cacao has some!

Holocaust Survivor and Author Michael Bornstein to Bring His Powerful Story to Survivor Day Event on June 4th

Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein will share his life journey during Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate. Bornstein was liberated from a concentration camp and subsequently made his way to the United States six years later. (Photograph courtesy of Michael Bornstein)

Also speaking at the event is Holinstat, a veteran television news producer and co-author of her father's book, and Scott Bornstein, Executive Vice President of Greenberg Traurig, who dedicates his expertise combatting antisemitism on behalf of Israeli and American victims of the October 7th terrorist attacks.

The program is co-sponsored by Seed the Dream Foundation, Jewish Federation of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, KAVOD, Marjorie & Lewis Katz JCC, and Stockton University Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center.

This presentation is free to attend, open to the entire community, and designed for audiences ages 10 – 110. The first 50 households that RSVP and attend the program will receive a complimentary, signed copy of the book. You must RSVP at info@jewishbytheshore.org.

Join Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein as we honor local survivors, incorporate community connections through Jewish peoplehood, and explore generational wisdom for Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate.

As co-author of the New York Times best-selling book, Survivors Club: The True Story of a Very Young Prisoner of Auschwitz, Bornstein was four-years-old when he was liberated from a concentration camp and made his way to the United States six years later.

For 70 years, Bornstein opted not to speak of his Holocaust experience, despite his image being one of the most recognizable where he is seen showing his tattoo in the iconic WWII footage. However, his second-generation Holocaust Survivor children, Debbie Bornstein Holinstat and Scott Bornstein, encouraged their father to share his powerful story of survival and resilience.

Bornstein will serve as the keynote speaker at the Holocaust Survivor Day program on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate. ## SYLVIA NEMMERS & Cutter

Dr. Sylvia Nemmers is the Department Chair for Environmental Science at American Military University/American Public University in Charles Town, West Virginia. One of her roles is orientating new students to the school. The photo shows Sylvia sitting on a colorful carpet with Cutter, a black Labrador retriever.

"I'm always proud of him and so proud that he and I are able to really shine with diversity and inclusion. He makes everything go so much smoother," she said of Cutter, her first Seeing Eye dog.

Sylvia's job often requires her to travel, including internationally. "I hated traveling for work," she said. "I hated going to conferences, conventions, graduations, airports – I suffered through them. Now, if it's the right airport and I know it well enough, I don't even need assistance anymore. I can work my way through it if it's one that I know. It's so liberating, instead of sitting and waiting and being asked if I need a wheelchair. I enjoy the process of travel now."

Sylvia said she can sense Cutter is slowing down and may retire soon, and Sylvia will return to The Seeing Eye to be matched with her second dog.

"I can appreciate how much these puppy raisers go through giving them back. I am prepared, I knew this would happen, but once it begins to happen it's super hard," Sylvia said. "A big thank you to all of the people along the way who are willing to let go so they can go on to do what they need to do, like I do now so he can relax and retire."

Spend your morning with The Seeing Eye! 🐕👁️

Our Walk & Learn program grants you the unique opportunity to follow behind a Seeing Eye team, speak with a retired instructor, and learn more about The Seeing Eye!

Be sure to secure your ticket to our next program happening on Friday, May 16th, at <https://e.givesmart.com/events/H10/>

Photo Description: An image of a black Lab Seeing Eye dog guiding her handler, captured from the shoulders down, along the sidewalk in downtown Morristown. Text reads, "Walk & Learn with The Seeing Eye - 9:00 AM - 10:30 AM - Friday, May 16 - seeingeye.org/visit"

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Go to NJ Saltwater Recreational Registry Program for registration information at dep.nj.gov/saltwaterregistry/.

SALTWATER FISHING

Atlantic City - Gardner's Basin Marina, North New Hampshire Avenue and the bay, is home to charter boats, sightseeing and fishing cruises. For more information call (609) 348-2880. Fishing is permitted on the beaches, outside of guarded areas, and from the jetties. The seawall along Sunset Avenue is a popular area for crabbing or fishing from land in the back bay. A municipal boat launch (fee required) is located at Albany Avenue and Boulevard Avenue.

Ventnor/Ventnor Heights - The Ventnor City Fishing Pier is located at Cornwall Avenue and the Boardwalk. The fishing pier offers seasonal rates for fishing or sightseeing. For additional information, call the piermaster at (609) 823-7944. Along the back bay, a seawall the length of Winchester Avenue is perfect for the family to fish or crab from land. A free boat ramp is located on the bay on Dorset Avenue, where there is plenty of free parking. For more information call (609) 823-7900.

Margate - Amherst Avenue, between Decatur and Monroe avenues, is home to several marinas and bait and tackle shops, including small boat rentals. Within the marinas are dozens of charter boats available on a daily basis throughout the summer and shoulder seasons. For more information on charters call Capt. Andy's at (609) 822-0916, or for a family outing on a pontoon rental boat call Ray Scott's Dock at (609) 822-6819. Surf fishing is permitted during non-guarded hours.

Somers Point - John F. Kennedy Park, located on Broadway, offers a boat ramp (fee required) granting access to Great Egg Harbor Bay. Another ramp (fee required) is located at Smith's Marina, 910 Bay Ave. Along the Bay Front Historic District on Bay Avenue there are several marinas which are home to many party and charter boats. There is also a crabbing and fishing pier located on the bay off New Jersey Avenue. Restrooms are located nearby.

Brigantine - Surf fishing is permitted on non-guarded beaches and at the seawall, Seventh Street north to 14th Street. The old Brigantine Bridge, across Absecon Inlet from Harrah's Marina, is used as a fishing pier. A public boat ramp (fee required) is located at Sixth and Bayshore avenues on the bay. For more information, call (609) 266-1122.

Leeds Point - Seasonal fishing and crabbing are permitted in designated areas of both the Brigantine and Barnegat Divisions of the Edwin B. Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge. These areas include saltwater fishing (from land) at the following locations: Graveling Point, Little Beach (with permit), Parkertown Dock Road, Cedar Run Dock Road, and Stafford Avenue. Boats may be launched at the Brigantine Division's Scotts Landing boat ramp, located at the end of Scotts Landing Road, off Moss Mill Road at Leeds Point. Freshwater fishing is permitted on Lily Lake in Oceanville. For more information call (609) 652-1665.

For a detailed list of saltwater fishing locations, see the Saltwater Fishing Guide at atlantic-countynj.gov/residents/recreation-leisure/fishing-in-atlantic-county.

Each park offers a variety of activities and facilities for residents and visitors to enjoy with its own entrance and access points. Boating is allowed on the lake with proper permits as required. All boaters must comply with state regulations and laws. No personal watercraft are permitted. For information on obtaining a boating permit and the associated fees contact the Lake Lenape Park office at (609) 625-8219.
