HOROSCOPE

APRIL 2 - 8, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Energy shifts toward execution as plans begin taking real form. What you've been thinking about now requires action. Stay focused on follow-through rather than perfection. Progress builds through consistency.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

A steadier pace brings clarity to something that recently felt rushed. You may find that slowing down actually moves things forward. Trust your timing instead of comparing it to others. Stability comes from patience.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Conversations take on a more decisive tone as lingering questions get answered. You may need to take a clear stance where you once stayed flexible. Speak with intention and avoid mixed signals. Clarity strengthens connections.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your attention turns toward maintaining balance between responsibilities and personal needs. Something small may require adjustment before it grows into a bigger issue. Stay present and responsive. Thoughtful boundaries keep things steady.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Momentum builds around something that excites you, but it needs structure to last. Channel your energy into a clear direction rather than spreading it too thin. Confidence grows through focused effort. Keep your priorities tight.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Details come into sharper focus, making it easier to move forward with confidence. What once felt uncertain now feels manageable. Avoid overanalyzing what's already working. Trust the process you've built.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

A shift in communication brings more ease to your interactions. You may notice things flowing more naturally without as much effort. Let conversations unfold without trying to control the outcome. Balance returns through simplicity.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Your instincts sharpen, helping you recognize what deserves your attention and what doesn't. A situation may reveal more than it initially showed. Move carefully but without hesitation. Awareness becomes your advantage.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

A renewed sense of direction makes it easier to commit to what matters most. Distractions lose their pull as priorities become clearer. Focus on what feels aligned rather than what feels urgent. Purpose drives progress.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Your steady approach continues to pay off as results begin to take shape. Others may start to recognize the work you've been putting in. Stay grounded and avoid overextending yourself. Consistency remains your strength.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

New ideas begin to take on practical form, giving you something tangible to build on. What once felt abstract now feels actionable. Stay open to refining your plans as you go. Flexibility supports growth.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Emotional clarity strengthens your ability to make grounded decisions. A situation that once felt unclear now reveals its direction. Trust what feels steady rather than what feels urgent. Stability comes from within.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Extended Side Angle (Utthita Parvakonasana)

One modification of the Extended Side Angle yoga pose is to bring your forearm to your thigh instead of placing your hand on the floor. It should rest lightly on your thigh and not bear much weight. This modification enables you to keep your shoulders open. You can also place your hand on a yoga block.

If you reach toward the floor before you're ready, you may compromise the position of the torso, turning your chest toward the floor instead of toward the ceiling.

EXTENDED SIDE ANGLE POSE

Open your chest and make sure your left shoulder is aligned over your right shoulder.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin D

Like calcium, it keeps your bones strong and helps your nerves carry messages. It also plays a role in fighting germs. Careful time in the sun -- 10 to 15 minutes on a clear day, without sunscreen -- is the best source. Or you could eat fish such as salmon, tuna, and mackerel. There's a little in egg yolks, too. You can also get milk and sometimes orange juice with added vitamin D.

Physical Wellness Month is celebrated in April every year. This time of the year, everyone is encouraged to check on themselves and observe a healthy lifestyle. From exercising and eating healthy to unwinding, there are a lot of simple activities you can do for a fit body and a sound mind. It's also time to explore different ways to improve your daily habits. Everyone should ask themselves: "How can I be better inside and out? How can illnesses be prevented? How can stress be minimized?" If you find yourself asking these questions, April is the month to seek the answers.

History of Physical Wellness Month

Physical wellness dates back to ancient times. While staying fit and healthy seems like a contemporary concept, the evolution of wellness started thousands of years ago. It began between 3000 and 1500 B.C. with 'Ayurveda,' a natural medicine system in India. The term originated from two Sanskrit words, 'Ayur' (life) and 'Veda' (science). The Indians introduced the concept of science to stay healthy and fit, using natural herbs and plants to treat diseases and boost overall health.

The cultivation of body and mind as one to promote a human being's health started with the ancient Chinese. They introduced Traditional Chinese Medicine (T.C.M.), a holistic approach to improving physical and mental health. They used herbal medicine and acupuncture, two elements that have greatly influenced modern-day medicine, fitness, and wellness.

When the 20th century came, observing one's physical wellness became a priority for many people. While the official origin of Physical Wellness Month remains unclear, records show that health and wellness gained national popularity when doctoral student Donald B. Ardell profiled physician John W. Travis' illness-wellness continuum in the April 1976 issue of "Prevention" magazine. Robert Rodale, the magazine's editor, boosted the profile, calling it an "exciting field of wellness enhancement."

How to Observe Physical Wellness Month

- Get enough exercise - Research has shown that individuals include at least 30 minutes of exercise in their daily activities during this month. Why not join in and change your fitness routine during Physical Wellness Month?
- Do the 30-day water challenge - Drinking water and staying hydrated for 30 days is a popular movement during Physical Wellness Month. The 30-day water challenge is a popular trend on social media where individuals eliminate sodas, juices, caffeine, and alcohol from their diet. Individuals who participate in this challenge note a significant improvement in their digestion and decreased stress levels.
- Explore healthy options - The golden rule of staying healthy is being mindful of what you eat. During Physical Wellness Month, start exploring different healthy recipes such as vegan options, low-sugar foods, and high-fiber meals.

5 Important Facts About Physical Wellness

- 1 - Sleep is key - Sleep helps your body recharge, your cells regenerate, and your muscles repair.
- 2 - Regular physical activity is paramount - Regular exercise helps you lose weight and helps prevent and manage Type 2 diabetes.
- 3 - A balanced meal - A balanced meal provides enough nutrition from all the different food groups without drastically changing your diet.
- 4 - Combining diet and exercise work best - According to the National Weight Control Registry, 89% of people who combine diet and exercise successfully lose weight.
- 5 - Simple activities are effective exercises - Simple activities like brisk walks, gardening, or playing with your dog are great exercises to build your body strength and increase your stamina.

Why Physical Wellness Month is Important

- It promotes health education - Physical Wellness Month educates people worldwide about the importance of staying healthy. It also introduces simple ways to improve your lifestyle without misinformation and misguidance.
- For the bonding experience with loved ones - Staying healthy can be a family or friend affair. Invite your loved ones to attend exercise classes, yoga, or meditation. If you want to stay home, you can simply introduce a new recipe where you can all cook and bond in the kitchen.
- It helps reduce stress and anxiety - Physical and mental health go hand in hand. While this month is all about boosting physical wellness, your mental health simultaneously improves as exercise reduces stress levels and anxiety.

National Fair Housing Month is celebrated to be grateful for the Fair Housing Act which was passed in April. A law that forbids discrimination in buying houses through different schemes. These include discrimination in the rental, sale, and financing of houses based on color, race, and even gender.

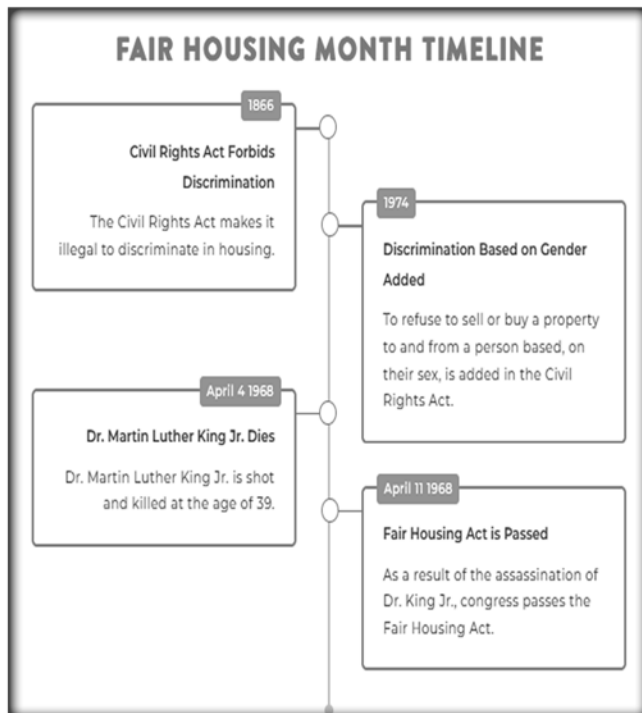

Students often are on a hunt for housing facilities and scholarships are available to help you fund your accommodation while you are at school.

History of Fair Housing Month

April is the month when we celebrate National Fair Housing Month. In this month we feel grateful for the Fair Housing Act that was passed on April 11, 1968. This law was designed to protect Americans from facing discrimination in selling or buying houses. It is also a basic human concept, and entitlement for people. As a community, we have the right to be free of any form of discrimination. In our communities, people belonging to diverse backgrounds should be warmly welcomed as our neighbors.

In the past, people used to show discrimination towards others in terms of housing. Some of the most damaging discrimination examples are found in the past, including minority neighborhoods that were located far from quality schools, public transportation, and jobs.

The Fair Housing Act was signed by President Johnson and it was passed after the death of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., who was in Memphis on April 4, 1968, to support the sanitation workers strike when he was shot and killed. As a result of the tragedy, Congress collectively passed the 1968 Fair Housing Act.

How to Observe Fair Housing Month

- Support to end discrimination in housing - Take part in activities that support the elimination of housing discrimination in your community or country.
- Welcome people of different backgrounds to your neighborhood - Give a warm welcome to people moving in your community or belonging to a different background, race, or color.
- Arrange seminars to create awareness about housing discrimination - Promote awareness for housing discrimination, let people know about this issue, and encourage them to raise their voices against it.

Girls of the Week

Julietta, Mia, Denice, Kalla, Jacquelyn & Lenox

These Girls of the Week celebrated Jacquelyn and Mia's birthdays at Scarpetti in Hammonton, with plenty of love, laughter and exciting milestones to toast. Along with the birthday cheers, raise a glass to Kalla, who is preparing to open Crust & Co (see their ad on page 2), and to Denice, who will be returning to The Seeing Eye at the end of the month for formal training - often called "puppy college" - where she'll move from basic socialization into specialized guide work, advanced navigation training and the next stage of her journey toward being matched with a blind handler. We are so proud of her and are really going to miss that sweet, sassy girl. Here's to birthdays, bold beginnings and the girls who leave paw prints on our hearts. You can read more about The Seeing Eye on pages 32 and 33.

SPLIT PEA SOUP

- 1 Tbsp olive oil
- 1 1/2 cups chopped yellow onion (1 medium)
- 1 1/4 cups chopped celery (about 3 ribs)
- 1 tsp minced (1 clove)
- 4 cups unsalted chicken broth
- 4 cups water
- 1 (16 oz) bag dried split peas, picked over and rinsed
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 1/2 tsp chopped fresh thyme, or 1/2 tsp dried
- Salt and freshly ground pepper
- 1 1/2 lb meaty ham bone or ham shanks
- 1 cup chopped carrots
- Chopped fresh parsley for garnish (optional)

OFFICE LOCATION.

Heat olive oil in a large pot over medium-high heat. Add onion and celery and saute 3 minutes. Add garlic and saute 1 minute longer. Pour in chicken broth and water.
Add split peas, bay leaves and thyme. Season lightly with salt and with pepper to taste (I like to wait to add more salt until the end to see how salty the ham has made the soup). Nestle ham bone into soup mixture. Bring mixture to a boil, then reduce to medium-low. Cover and let simmer, stirring occasionally until peas and ham are tender, about 60 - 80 minutes. Remove ham from soup, let rest 10 minutes then shred or dice meat portion into pieces, cover. Meanwhile add carrots to soup. Cover soup and continue to simmer, stirring occasionally, until peas have mostly broken down, about 30 minutes longer. Stir ham into soup, season with more salt as needed. Serve warm garnished with parsley if desired.

It's just steps from the Boardwalk and Resorts Casino Hotel, so it's the ultimate beach bar experience - no passport needed!

They have a diverse and coastal-inspired menu with lots of different dishes, like coconut shrimp, fish tacos, and peel & eat shrimp. You can also find signature burgers like the Caribbean Burger and Sriracha Crunch Burger, appetizers that are perfect for sharing, such as nachos, wings, loaded fries, and tuna tartare, and a salad & sandwich selection that includes seafood lettuce wraps and Philly cheesesteaks. All the food is made fresh, and many dishes have house-made sauces and dressings.

The kitchen is set up to support beachside service, so you can get full food and beverage delivery to your lounge chairs and cabanas. Outdoor deck dining is comfortable year-round with heaters and retractable walls. Their full bar offers handcrafted cocktails, margaritas, and their signature LandShark Lager. Specialty drinks are designed to go great with the tropical menu.

Their kitchen is equipped for large group orders, with menus that can be tailored just for you, making it the ideal spot for private events! They offer catering for events with up to 650 guests, including the beach bar, and they're happy to accommodate any dietary restrictions or special needs. You can enjoy gluten-free, dairy-free, and vegetarian options, as their dishes are made fresh to order. For fried items, they use their own signature batters and sauces. And the seafood? Steamed or grilled with house-made seasonings and aiolis.

Last week, LandShark Bar & Grill was so kind as to host The GACCA and New Jersey Lifestyle Magazine for a spring networking mixer. Sheila Ronquillo, the sales manager at LandShark, and her team made us feel right at home with flower leis, tasty treats, and incredible hospitality. We were absolutely amazed by the delicious crab cakes, veggie spring rolls, mac and cheese wedges, pretzel bites, and The People's Margarita! It was a fantastic night of connecting with other hospitality professionals and enjoying each other's company in such a wonderful setting. If you haven't had the chance to visit LandShark Bar & Grill yet, we really recommend it!

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

The Rain by William Barney

A young man already straining under grief and family conflict is pulled out of ordinary New Jersey routines and into an increasingly uncanny, frightening world. What begins as a slice of small-town life - backyard parties, coffee shop conversations and the daily grind of working at a family hardware store - gradually darkens into something far more unsettling. Still grieving his mother's death, Adam finds himself at odds with his father and uncertain about his future when a strange, destructive force begins to ripple through his New Jersey town. As reality shifts and violence erupts, the familiar spaces of his life become unrecognizable. Barney's novella leans into slow transformation; the horror doesn't just descend - it grows out of emotional fault lines already in place. At its core, The Rain is as much about grief and fractured relationships as it is about survival in a world that's quietly coming apart.

Pet Sematary by Stephen King

Few novels capture the dangerous pull of grief as powerfully as Pet Sematary. When Louis Creed and his family move to rural Maine, life initially feels idyllic - until tragedy strikes and the nearby burial ground reveals its terrible secret. King takes a familiar premise - the desire to undo loss - and pushes it to its logical, horrifying conclusion. What makes the novel so enduring is how grounded it feels before everything goes wrong. The domestic details, the family dynamics, the quiet rhythms of life all make the descent more devastating. By the time Louis makes his fateful choices, the reader understands exactly why - and fears the consequences all the more. It's a masterclass in how ordinary love can become something far more dangerous.

Monstrilio by Gerardo Sámamo Córdova

After the death of her young son, Magos makes an unthinkable choice: she removes a piece of his lung and nurtures it into something living - something hungry - and Monstrilio unfolds from there. What follows is not a traditional horror story, but something stranger and more intimate, tracing how grief reshapes identity, relationships and even the boundaries of the human body. Sámamo Córdova blends body horror with emotional depth, creating a narrative that is as tender as it is unsettling. The true horror isn't just the creature itself, but the question at its core: what does it mean to hold on to someone you've lost, and how far is too far? It's a haunting exploration of love that refuses to let go.

Horror Novels Fueled by Loss and Grief

The Return by Rachel Harrison

Julie vanished two years ago without explanation. When she suddenly reappears, her friends gather for a reunion that should be joyful - but quickly turns uneasy. Julie is different. Subtly at first, then unmistakably. Harrison leans into the discomfort of that shift, exploring how friendships strain under the weight of absence, change and unspoken resentment. The horror here is deeply psychological, rooted in the idea that the people we know best can become strangers. As tensions rise, the novel captures the fragile balance between nostalgia and reality, showing how the past can distort the present. It's a chilling reminder that sometimes the scariest thing isn't losing someone - it's getting them back.

The Fisherman by John Langan

Following the deaths of their wives, two widowers form an unlikely friendship rooted in shared grief. Their bond leads them to a remote creek rumored to hold mysterious powers - a place where loss might be undone. Langan's novel unfolds with a deliberate pace, weaving together personal sorrow and cosmic horror. What begins as a story of companionship and healing gradually expands into something far stranger and more ominous. The deeper the characters venture into the unknown, the more they risk losing what remains of themselves. It's a meditation on grief and obsession, showing how the desire to reclaim the past can open doors better left closed.

JEFF BILLS & Bodine

At age 65, Pastor Jeff Bills was matched with his first Seeing Eye® dog, a yellow Labrador/golden retriever cross named Bodine.

The photo shows Pastor Bill standing alongside Bodine outside Hope United Methodist Church in Voorhees, New Jersey – their usual spot before and after services.

“I knew almost nothing about guide dogs. I knew they existed, that was about it,” Jeff said. “My vision was getting worse and I went out as little as possible. I was very tentative about going out alone. My wife, Marilyn, had to be my ‘Seeing Eye wife’. Bodine changed my life, and it changed my wife’s life, too. Now I have the independence I wanted thanks to Bodine.”

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight

"MEET THE PACK!"

Endlessly Thankful

With over 600 volunteers dedicated to helping us pursue our mission, we cannot help but begin #NationalVolunteerMonth with the biggest thank you we can muster.

Thank you for raising a puppy, bathing Seeing Eye dogs before they are matched with their handler, teaching the next generation about our organization, greeting everyone who comes to our campus, and so much more! Without each and every one of you, we could not have created over 18,700 partnerships in 97 years. You are the heart of The Seeing Eye!

Learn more about how you can join our wonderful volunteer community at seeingeye.org/you-can-help/volunteer/

 2 - A volunteer dries a yellow Lab with a towel in the bathing area of the kennels.
 3 - Seeing Eye volunteer, Don MacGowen, holds up a handmade poster in the shape of a penny that reads, "In dogs we trust - Seeing Eye - Pennies for Puppies"
 4 - Anita Eigen, a Seeing Eye front desk volunteer, laughs as the yellow Lab puppy she is holding in her arms licks her cheek.
 5 - Twelve Monmouth County puppy club raisers pose with a golden retriever, five yellow Labs, three German shepherds, and two black Labs on a wooden bridge in Spring Lake, NJ.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

The End of Ambition: America's Past, Present & Future in the Middle East

- Wednesday, April 15 at 7pm Join us for a dessert reception with Author Steven Cook, Eni Enrico Mattei Senior Fellow for Middle East and Africa studies at the Foreign Relations Council, to discuss his book, The End of Ambition. As one of the country's leading experts on Middle East politics and U.S. foreign policy, Cook will discuss the defining foreign policy debates of our time. After decades of war, upheaval, and frustration in the Middle East, some argue the U.S. should step back and Cook challenges that assumption. Drawing on over 75 years of history, he argues while America made mistakes, it has largely succeeded in protecting interests in the region. In this timely and wide-ranging conversation, Cook will explore what went wrong, lessons learned, and what a more disciplined and realistic American strategy in the Middle East should look like today. Attend in-person at Beth Israel, 2501 Shore Road, Northfield. RSVP by April 10.

Brunch & Learn: The Jews of Sarajevo, Life in a Post Srebrenica World - Thursday, April 16 from 10:30am to 12pm

Join us as we explore how Jewish communities in the region navigate memory, identity, and resilience after the traumas of the 1990s. We will examine the role of remembrance in shaping contemporary Jewish life alongside broader Balkan societies still grappling with the legacy of war and genocide. Attend in-person at the Katz JCC Boardroom, 501 North Jerome Avenue, Margate. A $5 donation is appreciated. RSVP by April 13.

Shabbat & Schmooze - Friday, April 17 from 10:30am to 12pm
