Release the week of March 29 - April 4, 2024

HOROSCOPE

MARCH 28 - APRIL 3, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

7 am on Monday was the lunar eclipse in the relationship angle of your chart making this a powerful week for releasing the hangers-on whether these are people clogging up your memory bank, relationship tentacles from the past which inhibit your personal growth or simply a judicial prune so that a current relationship can flourish in the future. Take a look at the chords attaching you to others and focus on your own path.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Re-assess what's important to you at this time and let go of your time-lines as Mercury will turn retrograde in early April through most of next month requiring adjustment and a pair of eclipses (the first of which is on Monday) suggest destiny plays its hand. In other words, less is more. Allow things to unfold and trust that developments in the air will happen for you when the time is right.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

A lunar eclipse in your sister air sign of Libra on Monday marks a turning point in your state of affairs. Connecting to all that brings you joy and encourages a creative spark and playfulness is the antidote to all that has been heavy. Choose to identify with your happy twin and begin exploring new places, people and projects.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

A lunar eclipse in the most personal angle of your chart suggests you're encountering a sea-change around home, family and matters that you care about. You may feel that withdrawing into your shell will offer you the safe spot you need and indeed anchoring and stabilising are the best options. However, soon enough you'll see exciting options are percolating. Don't miss out!

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

As a Leo you've a fair idea that you know better than most other people. However with the Libra lunar eclipse lighting up the mind-set angle of your chart you'd do best to open up to things you've never thought of. Letting go of the way things used to be is an art, as is creating mental space so that new links and discoveries can be made.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

If you've been trying to work out a solution to something, Monday's eclipsed Full Moon is likely to shed more light on the matter. Perhaps you've been focusing on the details and not the bigger picture. In which case, you can begin to explore angles that you have never considered before.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

The big news of the week is Monday's lunar eclipse in your sign Libra. You've probably been feeling the extra charge and intensity over the past few days and what's coming up or coming to an end will ripple for a while to come. At least it gets you off that Libran fence. Prepared to make important decisions that will propel you forward into living life more on your own terms.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

During eclipse season it's important to jettison what needs to go and embrace the transforming power of the future. Monday's eclipsed Full Moon in Libra signifies it's really time to begin a brand new chapter and release yourself from anything that's been holding you back. You really do deserve more Scorpio.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

As Monday's lunar eclipse falls in the people angle of your chart it's likely that others are making a huge impact on you. This is the moment to recognise who is a force for good in your life and where the energies do not feel right. As a new cycle of endings and beginnings is part of the eclipse process the coming weeks will make everything clear.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)

As Monday's eclipsed Full Moon lights up a highly visible sector of your skies, your direction is being made clear. As a Capricorn you don't necessarily want to be the poster person for a particular issue or movement but you want to let people know your intentions and where you're heading. This actually gives you openings that will help you on your way.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

This is likely to be a pivotal week with eclipse season starting on Monday's Full Moon. For many water bearers this will help to firm up a decision about directions, projects and places which have long interested you. If something has lost its lustre now is the time to drop it from your playbook. Alternatively, you could decide to go all in on a journey of discovery.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

As sensible Saturn has been in your sign for a whole year now you're getting used to the idea of saying no, having stronger boundaries and closing down those things that clearly won't work for you. So Monday's lunar eclipse with its energy of completion and decision making will help you in the process of confirming or withdrawing from a situation that involves another person and/or finances.

DEAUVILLE INN

the oyster bar | the sunset deck | the sandbar | the docks | the dining room

Name of venue: The Deauville Inn

Where are you located? We are located on Corson's Inlet, at 201 Willard Road, Strathmere, NJ

Hours of operation: Starting April 1st, we are open 7 days a week from 11:00 am to 10 pm

Parking tips: We have 2 parking lots for guests' convenience and if you come in the summer months we also offer complimentary valet!

What does your venue specialize in? We are a waterfront destination tailored for a weekend getaway of culinary delights. A place where days on the water come with fresh oysters and cold cocktails. Where boats dock, friends gather, and fine cuisine is served in waves. A place where vibrant summers give way to plush autumns, uniquely perfect for cozy dinners by the fireplace, with a waterfront view.

What is the current reason one MUST come to your venue? Rated #1 for the best view, our sunsets are truly spectacular!

What is your secret favorite that the crowds have yet to discover? While we produce some fantastic wedding celebrations, people are surprised we do them. We offer wedding ceremonies on our private beach and 3 different areas for receptions, all with an unforgettable inlet backdrop. We also offer complimentary, in house wedding design and planning services to help bring your wedding vision to life.

Do you have a signature dish or drink? People have travelled across state lines just to taste our Orange Crush. So much so that we sold over 48,000 last summer! On land we're famous for our Prime Rib. By the sea we are one of the only waterfront oyster bars at the Jersey Shore. You're welcome to reserve a seat at the oyster bar, or at a table and enjoy an assortment of the freshest local oysters, or any one of many fresh raw bar options.

Why is your venue a necessary part of Atlantic County? While we are not in Atlantic County we are right on the border. We all need a little getaway from time to time. As neighbors, we are less than 25 minutes from Northfield, we offer a destination for many Atlantic County residents without the airfare.

Would you like to highlight a star employee or staff member? We have a great program awarding exemplary employees every month, and an overall employee of the year. Our 2023 employee of the year winner was Stefano Fiducioso, of Carney Point, NJ. Stefano is a seasonal employee with us during the summer months, and a student at Rowan University during the school year. Stefano is one of our Barbacs and Bussers, and has been a rock star employee every day he worked. We need more Stefanos in the world.

What are some other special reasons to come visit? We offer 6 unique environments at our venue, each environment catering to people's different tastes. You can choose from enjoying the freshest catches at our oyster bar, pulling up in your boat and enjoying service directly on the dock, savoring drinks and food at one of our private beach cabanas, relaxing at our sand bar, enjoying a casual dining experience on our sunset patio and deck, or an elegant dining experience in our restaurant. If it's hard to choose just one? You're welcome to come back again and

Do you have any weekly specials or upcoming events? We are hosting Hops Into Spring Beer Festival, on Saturday, May 11th, between 12 pm and 4 pm, featuring over 25 breweries, live music by the band Space Camp, local art and craft vendors, and food catered by Deauville Inn, Yesterday's Creekside Tavern, and Capt. Obadiah's Seafood Market! Presale tickets at $35, $45 at the door. <https://deauvilleinn.com/hops-in-to-spring-beer-festival>

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: We host events every month of the year. Our Buffalo Trace Pairing Dinner on April 12th, Silent Disco Glow Part on May 27th, La Dolce Italian Dinner and Wine Pairing on June 2nd, and our Oyster Dining Experience on June 14th, and our legendary Apres Beach Happy Hour events on Sundays after July 4th, just to name a few. There is always something going on here. Go to <https://deauvilleinn.com/happenings> to find out more!

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

We've all heard the tired advice on weight loss. Dieting, eating less and practically starving ourselves in order to lose weight. But as any expert in the field will tell you — less food isn't the answer. You can enjoy the foods you love while you improve your overall health, energy levels and happiness. These five books show you it's not how much you eat, but what you eat that makes a difference. When you combine food with other wellness tools, you'll be able to change your life for the better.

Live Healthy With Laura by Laura Heflin

Laura Heflin details her experience with the strict, traditional style of dieting, the anxiety and depression that it caused her, and how she found a better way to diet. By taking a close look at what's wrong with calorie-counting diets, the book examines the why and when of our eating habits. This eating lifestyle book will help you "take a stand against the stigma of healthy eating," enjoy food, improve your nutrition and lose weight. "Happy" is an essential element in "healthy," and that in order to reduce stress hormones that ruin both happiness and health, you should love what you eat. The ideal result is "feeling satisfied, well-nourished, energetic, and full of life all day long!"

Obesity by Richard Fast

Despite what we've been told, obesity is not a weight issue, it's a health issue, and it's resulting in the greatest health crises we've ever faced. So what is the culprit, the cause, and the cure of this global epidemic? "The global obesity pandemic is a direct result of what we eat — too much ultra-processed, nutrient-void garbage." Obesity is loaded with research reports, scientific studies, charts, graphs, quotes, product information, corporate strategies and personal observations of how we got to where we are. With a focus on health rather than weight, author Richard Fast talks through a number of ideas and strategies, and the underlying belief that the solution lies in the proper mindset and perspective.

5 Healthy Living Books That Don't Buy Into Toxic Diet Culture

The Simple Seven: Body Basics for Vibrant Health by Marlene Veltre

Marlene Veltre takes the idea of improving your life far beyond just healthy eating — after all, wellness typically requires a holistic approach. This well-researched and engaging handbook for health and well-being will transform your thinking on what it takes to be healthy. Instead of struggling against your body, Veltre provides the information and tools to help you work with it. All it takes are simple changes that are flexible and easy to work into your daily routine, though they add up to big benefits. The body is an amazing, adaptive system, and if you can provide it with the right environment and support, it can do its thing naturally — heal and repair, adjust and thrive.

Food Sanity by Dr. David Friedman

Sure, diets might cause you to lose weight — but they won't help you keep that weight off. Dr. David Friedman says, "The reason most people achieve such poor results when trying to lose weight is because they are not addressing the true meaning of the word diet. Changing your routine leads to initial weight loss, but changing your way of living is what brings permanent weight loss." The real trick? Combine healthy eating with other lifestyle changes, like restorative sleep. With helpful tools to navigate the grocery store, make smart eating choices, and determine fact from fiction you can maximize your health.

Gut Driven by Ellen Postolowski

The phrase "trust your gut" is not too far off from the message of Gut Driven. This forgiving program will help readers determine what foods are negatively affecting their gut. As a trained chef and integrative health coach, Postolowski fully embraces whole-body well-being by way of gut health. She stresses the importance of self-care that goes beyond the basics of food, water and exercise. "When your gut is healthy, your hormones are balanced, your brain functions improve, and your immune response is prepared to defend your body against illness." The author reminds readers that while they all strive to be their best, this journey is really about finding a reasonable balance.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Pyramid Pose (Parsvottanasana)

Standing forward bends like Pyramid pose are an ideal time to break out your yoga blocks to make the pose more accessible. Place a block on either side of your front foot to "raise the floor" to a level your hands can comfortably reach. Your hamstrings will still enjoy a nice stretch, and they'll thank you for your consideration. This pose stretches and strengthens the legs, especially the hamstrings, and improves core strength. It is a great spinal stretch and also stretches your shoulders and builds your balance and coordination. If you engage in running and similar activities that tighten the hamstrings, this pose will help you maintain flexibility. It is also good for maintaining flexibility for all of those everyday tasks when you must bend over. The forward bend is an inversion and you will be sending blood to your brain, which may help provide mental clarity.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Riboflavin (vitamin B2)

Riboflavin, also known as vitamin B2, helps:
keep skin, eyes and the nervous system healthy
the body release energy from food

Good sources of riboflavin include:
milk, eggs, fortified breakfast cereals, mushrooms
& plain yogurt.

MEKEIO JACKSON & CoCo

Mekeio Jackson travels often as a director at SourceAmerica, a non-profit agency that creates employment opportunities for people with disabilities.

When a visually impaired co-worker touted the benefits of a Seeing Eye dog, Mekeio decided to take the leap. She came to The Seeing Eye and was matched with CoCo, a yellow Labrador retriever. And now, Mekeio is able to travel with more confidence and ease. “It’s nice to not have to be tethered to another person,” Mekeio says. “I can set my own speed and move independently.”

The photo shows Mekeio smiling with one arm around CoCo, who is in harness and sitting on a raised platform alongside Mekeio.

Traveling with CoCo is a unique experience, especially on airplanes. “Children love to see dogs on planes,” Mekeio says. “She travels very well and is very calm. People just love her. I use her as a foot warmer because she will lay right on my feet.”

CoCo and Mekeio aren’t just travel companions. They do just about everything together with CoCo always by Mekeio’s side. “My family likes to say we’re co-dependent,” Mekeio says with a laugh. “The bonding is unlike any other. She’s become part of the family. If I leave the room, she’s following. It’s something that can’t be expressed in words – it’s just a feeling.”

Embarking on a Sacred Journey: Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church Announces Construction of New Sanctuary

With profound joy and a steadfast commitment to their Greek Orthodox heritage, Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Egg Harbor Township, NJ, proudly announces a transformative decision - the construction of a new sanctuary. Collaborating with architect Christ J. Kamages, FAIA, of Novato, CA, renowned for his architectural brilliance in designing Byzantine sacred spaces, they embark on a journey to create a welcoming sanctuary that reflects their ancient faith and spiritual legacy.

"Our journey began with the vision of fifteen families in Atlantic County. From celebrating the first Divine Liturgy in a Linwood gymnasium to the joyous inauguration of our church in Egg Harbor Township on Palm Sunday, 1983, we've humbly thanked God for 41 years of blessings. Now, we are embarking on a new and exciting chapter!" said Dr. Haitham Dib of Linwood, President of the Parish Council.

Chairing the Building Committee is Tom Papademetriou of Linwood who said "The New Church Design, is based on a sixth-century Byzantine church in Constantinople (Istanbul). It embraces an octagonal plan reminiscent of the current sanctuary, fostering an expansive, open interior." The church will comprise a main altar, a dedicated chapel for St. Nektarios, an adult baptistry honoring St. John the Baptist, and a stately bell tower. He adds, "The resplendent dome, encircled by luminous windows, serves as a divine testament, reflecting the Glory of God adorned with Light. Upon entry, all will perceive an enveloping sense of God's Grace, creating an atmosphere where divine presence is palpable."

"Inspired by the vision of our founders who expanded the Greek Orthodox apostolic faith in South Jersey, we see building a new sanctuary as a witness to our faith for all people in our region," says Fr. George Liacopulos of Egg Harbor Township, priest at Holy Trinity.

The congregation has resolved to undertake a comprehensive fundraising campaign, aptly named "Building on Faith: Our Faith, Our Future, Our Responsibility." Co-chairs Maria Lianides of Linwood and Lia Potiris of Absecon, express their enthusiasm, "We are thrilled to announce: WE ARE BUILDING A NEW CHURCH! Our Holy Trinity family has embraced the plan to build a new sanctuary, eagerly anticipating worshipping God together in a beautiful, light-filled space designed and built to give Glory to God."

"To commence construction, we must raise $4,000,000 by the end of 2024. We are proud to announce that we have already raised $1,200,000, thanks to the generosity and dedication of our community," they add.

As Holy Trinity embarks on this sacred journey, they invite all to join them in celebrating the continuation of their cherished ancient faith tradition and the creation of a sanctuary that will stand as a beacon of light and hope for generations to come. For further details on the building campaign and opportunities to contribute, please visit the newly launched website: <https://holytrinityoutreach.com>.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Buy me some peanuts and cracker jack ... that's right, the wait is over. The 2024 baseball season, which kicked off in South Korea last week, sees its first action on American soil Thursday with 24 teams making their debuts. The Mets-Brewers and Phillies-Braves Opening Day contests have been postponed to Friday, March 29. Here's what to watch for on MLB's opening day:

THE SHO GOES ON

Shohei Ohtani already made his Dodgers debut last week in South Korea, but all eyes will still be on the two-way sensation as Los Angeles hosts the St. Louis Cardinals. The $700 million star is trying to remain focused on the field after the firing of his longtime interpreter and friend Ipppei Mizuhara, who Ohtani said Monday stole money from him to pay off gambling debts. Mizuhara was fired while the Dodgers were in Seoul last week for a season-opening, two-game series against San Diego.

Ohtani, who won't pitch this season while recovering from a second Tommy John surgery, was 3 for 10 with two RBIs as Los Angeles split the Seoul Series. Dodgers manager Dave Roberts posited Tuesday that Mizuhara's absence could be good for Ohtani, saying Mizuhara had been a "buffer" between the Japanese star and his new teammates.

BIG EAST BALL

Zack Wheeler and Spencer Strider square off in a juicy NL East opener between the Phillies and Braves in Philadelphia.

Wheeler is pitching with a new contract after agreeing to a $126 million, three-year deal for 2025-27 this spring. The 33-year-old could've become a free agent after this season, but instead he recommitted to Philadelphia, where he's been among the game's best since joining the club as a free agent for the 2020 season.

Strider, meanwhile, has a new pitch. The 25-year-old right-hander has been working on a curveball this spring to deepen his repertoire. A scary thought for batters — without that curve, Strider struck out a major league-high 281 in 186 2/3 innings last season, finishing fourth in NL Cy Young Award balloting.

Reigning NL MVP Ronald Acuña Jr. and the Braves finished 14 games ahead of Philadelphia each of the past two years. But the Phillies ended Atlanta's postseason in Game 4 of a Division Series at Citizens Bank Park both times.

NEW IN TOWN

Several stars are set to debut with new teams. Juan Soto, still just 25, was dealt from the Padres to the Yankees over the winter and will slot into the lineup along with Aaron Judge when New York faces Houston. Late in the game, the Astros might counter Soto with Josh Hader, a five-time All-Star closer who signed with Houston in January.

Corbin Burnes is on the mound for Baltimore against the Angels after a Feb. 1 trade from Milwaukee. Matt Chapman should be at third base for the Giants against San Diego, and Rhys Hoskins suits up for the Brewers against the Mets.

WELCOME TO THE SHOW

Two of baseball's top hitting prospects — the Brewers' Jackson Chourio and the Rangers' Wyatt Langford — are set to make their big league debuts. Chourio, 20, signed an $82 million, eight-year deal this offseason, the most money guaranteed to a player with no major league experience. Langford, meanwhile, will reach the majors less than a year after Texas selected him fourth overall in the 2023 amateur draft from the University of Florida.

Neither Orioles infielder Jackson Holliday nor Nationals outfielder James Wood cracked their opening day rosters despite impressive spring trainings.
