HOROSCOPE

JULY 30 - AUGUST 5, 2026

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

Motivation returns this week, helping you tackle something you've been putting off. Your determination gets noticed at work or in a personal project. Make time for fun, too, as an unexpected plan could become your highlight.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

A small change brings welcome relief and greater peace of mind. Trust your instincts when making an important decision. Protect your personal time, and don't be afraid to slow down when you need to recharge.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

An interesting conversation sparks a fresh idea or exciting opportunity. Stay open to unexpected changes in your plans. A new connection could lead you somewhere you never expected to go.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

Family and close relationships bring comfort and connection this week. An honest conversation helps clear the air and strengthen a bond. Slow down and appreciate the people who make you feel most at home.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

Your confidence is shining brightly, and others are taking notice. Step forward and pursue an opportunity you've been considering. Encouragement from someone special reminds you just how much you're capable of accomplishing.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 23)

Focus on progress rather than perfection this week. A helpful favor or useful advice makes a busy task much easier. Clearing something lingering from your to-do list brings a satisfying sense of accomplishment.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23)

Social connections bring fresh energy and positive momentum this week. A casual encounter could lead to a meaningful new connection. Compromise helps resolve a disagreement and restores harmony where it's needed most.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

Something you've been quietly working toward is finally beginning to move forward. Stay patient and trust your timing. An important conversation brings clarity and strengthens your understanding of someone close.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 21)

Break out of your usual routine and embrace something different this week. Trying something new could spark inspiration or excitement. Keep an open mind, because an unexpected opportunity may be closer than you think.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 20)

Your steady efforts are beginning to produce results you can see and appreciate. Progress arrives in a work or financial matter. Take a moment to celebrate how far you've come before moving on to your next goal.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

A sudden change in plans may work in your favor this week. Stay flexible, particularly when it comes to relationships and routines. Honest communication helps strengthen an important connection and brings a welcome sense of trust.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

Trust your intuition when deciding where to focus your energy. A creative activity or relaxing pastime lifts your spirits and inspires fresh ideas. By the weekend, you'll feel lighter after finally making a decision you've been considering.

GROUND BISON WITH PASTA

- 1 lb of ground bison
- 1 lb whole wheat pasta, penne preferred
- 2 yellow squash, sliced thin
- 2 zucchini sliced thin
- 1 eggplant cubed
- 1 red bell pepper cut in the strips
- 1 orange bell pepper cut into strips
- 1/4 of a purple onion
- 2 cloves of garlic, chopped
- 1 tablespoon of olive oil
- 8 tablespoons red wine vinegar

Preheat oven to 425°. Place all veggies on a cookie sheet or two in a single layer and drizzle with some olive oil, salt and pepper to taste and any other seasonings like oregano or basil. Place sheets in oven and roast for about 30 minutes. Well vegetables, roast go ahead and brown the meat and start a pot of salted water boiling to cook the pasta. For those who are new to cooking buffalo, it's slightly bland compared to beef so you may want to season with salt and pepper. Cook the pasta to desired tenderness. Once everything is done cooking, toss everything together and enjoy.

Secrets, Legacies and Second Chances

Day of Wrath by Otho Eskin

There are secrets within the Church. Some are worth killing for. When Washington, D.C. homicide detective Marko Zorn arrives at the city's cathedral, he finds the cardinal archbishop dead beneath a high balcony, a tarot card clutched in his hand. What first appears to be a single murder soon opens onto something far darker: an ancient cult devoted to Holy Death, a trail reaching back to Mexico and a conspiracy threatening the Vatican itself.

With the pope dying and a conclave approaching, Marko has only days to uncover who wanted the archbishop silenced - and why. Complicating matters is his sharp-tongued new partner, Saoirse Richmond, who distrusts both his methods and his judgment. Fast, sly and steeped in history, Day of Wrath sends its unconventional detective into a world of ritual, power and buried secrets where faith can be weaponized and the past holds the key to a modern threat. Marek of the Mists: The Sword of the Moon Maiden by Corey E. King

In the mist-shrouded kingdom of Storm's End, Marek has built a life among the Wolfe Gypsies, the clan that raised him after he was found abandoned. A gifted swordsman with a talent for spectacle and survival, he expects danger to come from challengers in the ring - not from an ancient evil gathering beyond the coast. When a monstrous attack reveals that darker forces are moving, Marek is drawn into a quest involving a shattered celestial blade, a vanished village, a moon goddess and the demon Vuoto, whose followers are preparing for war. Joined by loyal friends, a wolf-husky and the woman he loves, Marek must decide whether he is merely an orphan or the champion Storm's End has been waiting for.

Fast-paced, illustrated and rich with banter, battles and found-family bonds, Marek of the Mists launches a fantasy saga of courage, identity and light against darkness. Purchase at <https://tinyurl.com/marek-of-the-mists>.

Allegory by Jack Martin Haley

Set along the Yukon River, Allegory follows Fred, a Korean War veteran and once-respected Gwich'in elder whose life has narrowed under the weight of illness, alcohol and public shame. Once known as Sarge, he was a master fish wheel builder and a proud descendant of Shahnyaatii, the legendary "Christian Grandpa." Now, younger men mock him, and even Fred struggles to hold on to the dignity he once carried so naturally. When a cancer diagnosis makes it clear that his days are numbered, Fred turns back toward the river - and toward the old fish wheel that once gave him purpose and helped feed his village through the long winters. With the aid of Jere, a young man preparing for the ministry, Fred begins a final act of restoration and redemption that becomes both practical and mythic. Rooted in Gwich'in tradition and Christian faith, Allegory is a resonant story of one man's last chance to be remembered rightly. Purchase at <https://tinyurl.com/allegory-epiphany>.

My Hip-Hop Wiz: A Journey Through Rhythm, Resilience, and Self-Discovery by Innton Tagger

Innton Tagger puts a bold, beat-driven spin on a beloved classic in My Hip-Hop Wiz, a high-energy reinvention of The Wizard of Oz rooted in hip-hop culture, humor and resilience. Dorothy Jones is no Kansas farm girl. She's a self-made real estate mogul whose life is upended when a supernatural storm sweeps her and her loyal Rottweiler, Governor, into a strange new world. Along the way, she joins forces with a sharp-tongued Scarecrow, a bionically rebuilt Tinman and a powerful Lion still learning to master his fear. As music, magic and danger collide, Dorothy's journey becomes less about finding a way home than recognizing the strength, wisdom and courage she already carries. Filled with swagger, pop-culture references and plenty of heart, My Hip-Hop Wiz celebrates the power of rebuilding after hardship. An accompanying soundtrack (on Apple and Spotify) extends the experience beyond the page, bringing the story's rhythm and inspiration to life. Purchase at <https://a.co/d/08r160GZ>.

National Golf Month celebrates the joy of golf throughout August, encouraging seasoned players and newcomers alike to grab their clubs. Whether you're aiming for a hole-in-one on the course or just enjoying a round of mini-golf, it's the perfect time to embrace the sport. Explore local courses, take a lesson, or simply enjoy the camaraderie of the game.

History of National Golf Month

It was the Professional Golfer's Association of America (P.G.A.) who founded the first National Golf Month back in August 1993. The purpose of this was to promote golf as a family-friendly and inclusive sport that could be accessible to all ages, genders, and skill levels. Initially, the P.G.A. used to host an annual charity event on National Golf Day (which falls on a different day each year), and due to the success of this, they decided to make the entire month a promotion and celebration of the sport.

Although most historians would agree on the fact that the modern-day version of golf (involving 18 holes) originated in Scotland in the 1400s, there are some who contest this. Some versions of golf can be traced back to The Netherlands (the 1200s), while at the same time, there is still some debate about the origins of golf tracing back all the way to the Roman Empire. The Roman game referred to was called 'paganica', and it involved the use of a bent stick to hit a wool or feather-stuffed leather ball. Since the Roman Empire had so much influence across Europe, it is thought that 'paganica' spread and evolved this way. Still, others say that the Chinese game of 'chuiwan', played during the Ming Dynasty (1368-1644), was the original, which spanned the evolution of the sport as we know it today.

Many decide to go with the theory of Scottish origins based on the fact that it involved knocking a ball into a hole, as well as being called 'golf'. A 1457 Act of the Scottish Parliament even banned golf as a sport because King James II of Scotland considered it a distraction from military training. However, it quickly became popular with future monarchs, including Mary Queen of Scots, and by the 1900s, more than 1000 golf clubs were established in the U.S. alone. Through major funding and sponsorship, the U.S. quickly became the epicenter of professional golf. However, the oldest golf tournament still takes place at the Prestwick Golf Club in Ayrshire, Scotland.

National Golf Month Activities

- Get out onto the green - There are so many different types of golf ranges out there to explore, so whether you're a beginner, intermediate, or pro, there's something for everyone. It may be worthwhile investing in golfing lessons if you find yourself loving the sport. Additionally, mini-golf promises fun for the whole gang without the commitment of 'serious' golfing.

- Create your own backyard course - Get creative and plan out your own backyard golf course. The sky's the limit in terms of the different themes and materials you can use, and the best part is that you can adjust the difficulty level to suit the players (so maybe even your neighborhood toddler gang can take a shot).

- Plan a golfing trip - Golf courses can be in surprising places. Some camping sites come complete with a course of their own, so why not plan a trip this summer that includes a day stop at a golfing course or even a complete camping trip with golf as the chosen outdoor activity.

5 Important Facts About Golfing Terms

- 1 - Bogey - Completing a hole, one stroke over the par limit.
- 2 - Birdie - Completing a hole, one stroke under par.
- 3 - Fore - Shouted out to warn anyone around of impending danger due to the ball heading in that general vicinity.
- 4 - Par - The expected number of strokes it should take to sink your ball into the hole, or the expected total strokes for the entire course of 18 holes.
- 5 - Ace - A hole-in-one - the chances of this are apparently 1:12,000!

Why We Love National Golf Month

- It's a celebration of sport - Any month which celebrates a sport is bound to get our heart rate up, both literally and figuratively. You don't need us telling you how great sports are overall, so to dedicate an entire month to a sport is always encouraged. Since it's great stress relief too, maybe your next office outing could be on the green.

- The benefits of golfing - Though it may not seem so sporty on T.V., golfing actually burns a lot of calories, thanks to all the walking around, and it's, therefore, a great form of low-impact exercise. While it can be frustrating, it's also great as a form of mental exercise, as it takes some strategizing and a very level head to stay on track.

- The Fun factor - Golf is so popular and played the world over because it can actually be fun especially when it comes to mini-golf, which is open for all ages and often features exciting themed courses with a range of difficulty levels. So instead of going out bowling with the gang next time, why not mix it up and try your hand at putting?

LeBron James Chooses the Sixers for One More Championship Run

Philadelphia basketball fans got the news they had been waiting for on Friday, July 24th, when four-time NBA champion and all-time leading scorer LeBron James announced that he would join the Philadelphia 76ers. The decision came after weeks of speculation and uncertainty, as James seriously considered whether his 23rd NBA season might be his last.

In a social media post announcing his decision, James revealed just how much thought went into his next move. "I thought I was done when the season ended," he wrote, explaining that he needed time to decide whether he still loved the game enough to continue. His answer was clear: "I still truly love this game, and I have more to give."

James, who turns 42 in December, ultimately chose Philadelphia and agreed to a two-year, roughly $8 million contract with a player option. He will now suit up for the fourth franchise of his remarkable career, following stops with the Cleveland Cavaliers, Miami Heat and Los Angeles Lakers.

But for James, this move isn't simply about adding another team to his résumé. It's about chasing one more championship. "I still want to sacrifice. I still want to work. I still want to grind. I still want to compete, to win and to have a chance at the feeling of winning another championship," James wrote. He added, "I believe I can help make the Philadelphia 76ers a championship team."

The Sixers certainly have the star power to make that goal interesting. James joins a lineup featuring Joel Embiid, Tyrese Maxey and Jaylen Brown, giving Philadelphia one of the NBA's most intriguing collections of talent. The combination of James' experience, Embiid's dominance and the scoring ability of Maxey and Brown has fans dreaming about what could happen when the new-look team takes the court.

There is also history on the line. James already owns four NBA championships - two with Miami, one with Cleveland and one with the Lakers. If he leads Philadelphia to a title, he would become the first player in NBA history to win championships with four different franchises. The Sixers' last NBA championship came in 1983, making the arrival of one of basketball's greatest stars an especially exciting moment for a city hungry for another parade.

James also took a moment to acknowledge the places that shaped his career, writing, "Thank you LA. Miami I'll forever love and Northeast Ohio will always [be] home!" Now, a new chapter begins in Philadelphia.

For South Jersey and Atlantic County basketball fans, the timing couldn't be more exciting. Philadelphia is just across the Delaware River, and suddenly, watching the Sixers means watching one of the greatest players ever take the court in a new uniform. The King has chosen Philly - and now the basketball world gets to see whether LeBron James can help bring another championship parade to Philadelphia.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Cobbler's Pose (Baddha Konasana)

Let gravity work on stretching your inner thighs in Cobbler's pose. Props can help if you find this yoga pose challenging. Sitting on a block, cushion, or blanket raises your hips so your knees can open more naturally.

If your knees are high, it takes a lot of effort to hold them up, and your legs need to be relaxed to enjoy the benefits of the stretch. The solution is to place a block (or something else supportive) under each knee to give them something to rest on.

Since it's unusual to sit this way in everyday life, this yoga pose stretches neglected areas of the body, particularly the adductor groups of the groin.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Calcium

This mineral helps concrete harden. Its strength makes it the building block for your bones and teeth. It's also key to make muscles move, including your heart. Get calcium from milk, cheese, yogurt, and other dairy foods, and from green vegetables like kale and broccoli. How much you need depends on your age and gender. Check with your doctor about whether you should take a supplement.

Celebrate America's 250th with Spectacular Friday Night Drone Shows

This July, Ocean Casino Resort is giving visitors a unique way to celebrate America's 250th birthday with a series of dazzling drone light shows illuminating the Atlantic City skyline. Every Friday evening in July—July 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31—hundreds of synchronized drones will take to the skies above The Park at Ocean, creating an unforgettable display of patriotic colors, animated designs and breathtaking aerial artistry.

Unlike traditional fireworks, drone shows combine cutting-edge technology with creative storytelling, using hundreds of precisely choreographed lights to form stars, flags, eagles and other iconic American images high above the Boardwalk. Set against the backdrop of the Atlantic Ocean, the performances promise to be one of the season's most memorable family-friendly attractions.

The free outdoor shows offer the perfect excuse to spend an evening in Atlantic City. Arrive early to enjoy dinner at one of Ocean Casino Resort's restaurants, stroll the world-famous Boardwalk or relax at The Park before looking to the sky as the nighttime spectacular begins. Whether you're visiting for the weekend or enjoying a local night out, the drone shows provide a fun and memorable way to celebrate summer on the Jersey Shore.

Bring your family, invite your friends and experience a modern twist on patriotic entertainment as Ocean Casino Resort helps commemorate our nation's milestone birthday with five unforgettable Friday nights under the stars.

National Peach Month celebrates the peak of peach season throughout August. This sun-kissed fruit, a symbol of youth and vitality in many cultures, brings a burst of flavor to summer dishes and drinks. Dive into delicious recipes, explore local orchards, and discover new ways to enjoy this beloved stone fruit.

History of National Peach Month

Let peach be your theme, and may your days be just peachy as you gear up to celebrate National Peach Month this August. The tradition dates back to June 16, 1982, when President Ronald Reagan declared that August would officially be National Peach Month for health and nutritional reasons, no less, which we highly appreciate. Peaches are a rich source of Vitamin A and C and great for the gut too, so it makes perfect sense that President Reagan wanted them to be included in the American diet by promoting peaches through programs and activities all through the month; for there is much to celebrate in a month dedicated to peaches and all that is associated with them. Within this month itself, one can celebrate Eat a Peach Day on August 22 and National Peach Pie Day on August 24, and who doesn't love a good food holiday? But before you reach for a slice of peach pie or sink your teeth into the fleshy goodness of the fruit itself, take a minute to learn something new about this mouth-watering fuzzy fruit.

The history of the peach can be traced all the way back to ancient China, in 6000 B.C. in the Zhejiang Province. Initially discovered in its wild form, the Chinese domesticated the fruit, and it became a luxury food, eaten by the emperors and served in royal circles only. Somehow, the Persians then got a hold of it, and it spread to the Persian Empire, with the Romans terming it as the Persian Apple. Thanks to Alexander the Great, Europe then got a taste of this fleshy fruit and by the 1500s, so did America, as Spanish explorers like Christopher Columbus introduced the fruit on American shores.

Today, China is actually the biggest producer of peaches globally (58%), with Italy following a close second. As for America, peaches are actually the third most popular fruit grown in the nation, and the U.S. supplies about a quarter of the world's total supply of fresh peaches.

National Peach Month Activities

- Attend a peach festival - Clearly, we aren't the only ones excited about National Peach Month, since all over North America, there are various peach festivals, which occur this time of year. Why not check out a peach festival this month, and to whet your appetite, we bring you a few suggestions: the Penticton Peach Festival, the Winona Festival, the Virginia Peach Festival, and the Palisade Peach Festival.
- Satisfy your sweet tooth - Where do we even begin when it comes to listing out the million and one ways in which peaches can satisfy every kind of sweet craving by starring in myriad desserts. If you need ideas to start you off, you have only to look at some of the other national food holidays like Peach Melba Day, Peach Ice-Cream Day, Peach Cobbler Day, Peaches, and Cream Day. So without further ado, don that apron and get your family to "peach" in too!
- Read peach-themed literature - There is a world of peach-themed literature out there for kids and adults alike. Whether you want to revisit a childhood classic like "James and the Giant Peach" by Roald Dahl or try some new ones out like "Peach," by Emma Glass, "Eat a Peach: A Memoir," by David Chang, and "Each Peach Pear Plum," by Allan Ahlberg and Janet Ahlberg (for little ones learning to read)

5 Important Facts About Peaches

- 1 - World's largest peach cobbler - Every year, the world's largest peach cobbler is made in Georgia, measuring a good 11 ft. by 5 ft.
- 2 - "You're a real peach" - This popular phrase originated from the tradition of giving the friend you liked most a peach.
- 3 - Giant peach - The largest peach in the world is located in Gaffney, South Carolina, and weighs over 10,000 pounds.
- 4 - 12 years a peach - The average peach tree produces fruit for 12 years and can be harvested multiple times in the same season.
- 5 - Tri-color peaches - Peaches can actually come in three different colors - yellow, white, and red.

Why We Love National Peach Month

- Fruit is at the forefront - It's time for fruit to get the appreciation they so rightly deserve, considering how fruits are pretty much great for us in every way! Peaches are packed with vitamin C and A, as well as being a great source of fiber, so it comes as no surprise that we want to celebrate them all month long. Not to mention how great peaches are in desserts.
- More than the fruit - Going beyond just the fruit, this month can also celebrate the color peach, or what peaches represent in different cultures and literature. There is so much to explore relating to peaches, the color peach, peach flowers, and the peach tree itself - especially in the realm of cosmetics, folklore, spiritual-ity, and even dream symbolism!
- Pop cultural allusions - Peaches are everywhere - not just in myriad forms for consumption, but also in songs, books, art, and all other forms of pop culture the world over. From the song 'Peaches' by Justin Bieber to the peach getting its emoji and being used to allude to many different things, peaches rule the world apparently.

DON'T FORGET THE JERSEY PEACH

When most people think of peaches, Georgia may be the first place that comes to mind - but New Jersey deserves a spot in the conversation. The Garden State is one of the country's top peach producers, and with more than 100 varieties grown across approximately 80 peach orchards, Jersey Fresh peaches are a true taste of summer. From sweet, juicy yellow peaches to the delicate flavor of a perfectly ripe white peach, there's nothing quite like enjoying one at the height of the season.

This August, skip the supermarket aisle and seek out the real taste of summer at your local farmers market, farm stand or roadside market. Look for the Jersey Fresh label, bring home a basket of peaches, and enjoy them while they're at their peak - or try something new with them in the kitchen. After all, there's no better time to discover just how delicious a Jersey peach can be.

National Lighthouse Day shines a light on these iconic structures every August 7. From their vital role in maritime safety to their enduring beauty, lighthouses have captivated hearts for centuries. Visit a local lighthouse, learn about its history, or support preservation efforts to keep their stories alive.

NATIONAL LIGHTHOUSE DAY HERO - GEORGE WASHINGTON

As the first President of the United States, George Washington signed the Lighthouse Act of 1789, which brought all existing lighthouses under federal control and established the U.S. Lighthouse Establishment. This act marked a pivotal moment in the nation's commitment to maritime safety and the development of its coastal infrastructure, ensuring the continued operation and maintenance of these vital navigational aids.

HOW TO CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIGHTHOUSE DAY

- Visit your local lighthouse - National Lighthouse Day calls for lighthouses, when possible, to be open to the public. If you're within driving distance to a coast, today's the day to make a trip to one of these beautiful structures.
- Help preserve a lighthouse - The American Lighthouse Organization is dedicated to preserving and protecting these historic structures. If you visit a lighthouse, consider making a small donation to its operating organization in order to continue providing public access.
- Paint a lighthouse - Lighthouses are beautiful and they make for great artwork. Paint or photograph a lighthouse and give your pic to that relative who has a collection of lighthouse postcards.

WHY WE LOVE NATIONAL LIGHTHOUSE DAY

- They've been a beacon of light even before electricity - Originally, burning coal or even fires were used as the "lamp" or the source of light in a lighthouse. Lighthouses later made use of oil-burning lamps and finally, electric lamps in 1875.
- The structures continue to stand the test of time - Located on coasts and cliffs, lighthouses are subject to storms, high winds and other extreme conditions. Yet, many remain viable and strong, even today. America's oldest operational lighthouse is the Boston Lighthouse on Little Brewster Island in Boston Harbor, MA built in 1716.
- Lighthouses are beautiful - The cylindrical shape, coupled with the scenery of the surrounding coast or bay, makes lighthouses a popular photographic destination. It's no surprise - there's a quiet comfort in seeing a lighthouse standing tall on the edge of the ocean.

A BEACON OF HISTORY IN ATLANTIC COUNTY

When National Lighthouse Day arrives each August 7, Atlantic County has a special reason to celebrate. Standing at the southern end of Absecon Island, the Absecon Lighthouse is a familiar part of the Atlantic City skyline and a living piece of the region's maritime history.

First lit in 1857, the Absecon Lighthouse has guided mariners along the New Jersey coast for generations. Today, visitors can climb its 228 steps to the top for sweeping views of Atlantic City and the surrounding coastline, while exploring the historic lightkeeper's dwelling and learning more about the lighthouse's role in the community.

National Lighthouse Day is a natural time to appreciate places like Absecon Lighthouse - not simply as beautiful landmarks, but as reminders of the people who maintained them and the important role they played in keeping ships and sailors safe. National Today notes that the observance commemorates the Lighthouse Act of 1789, signed by President George Washington, which placed the nation's existing lighthouses under federal control and established the U.S. Lighthouse Establishment.

CELEBRATE NATIONAL LIGHTHOUSE DAY HERE

This year, Absecon Lighthouse is marking the occasion with a full day of family-friendly fun. The National Lighthouse Day Festival takes place Friday, August 7, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., bringing plenty of activities to the lighthouse grounds.

Families can enjoy petting zoo animals, pony rides, games, face painting and mermaid bubbles, creating a festive afternoon for visitors of all ages. And there's an extra incentive for young lighthouse explorers: children 12 and under climb free all day.

The festival is a wonderful opportunity to combine a little history with a lot of fun. Whether you're visiting for the first time or have climbed the lighthouse before, National Lighthouse Day offers a chance to experience this Atlantic County landmark in a whole new way.

RAISING A GLASS ON THE LIGHTHOUSE PORCH

The celebration continues Saturday evening with the Wine Tasting Porch Party, an adults-focused event held in honor of National Lighthouse Day. Taking place Saturday, August 8, from 5 to 7 p.m., the evening offers wine, cheese, music and a chance to enjoy the unique atmosphere of the historic lighthouse grounds.

The event features a Wine & Cheese Tasting along with a DJ Porch Party, creating a relaxed way to celebrate the weekend with friends. According to Absecon Lighthouse's 2026 calendar, the event is listed as a $35 donation; the flyer you provided, however, lists $50 early-bird tickets and $60 at the door, so I would use the flyer information in the printed event announcement if that is the most recent promotional material you received.

Two days, two very different ways to celebrate - and one historic lighthouse at the center of it all. This National Lighthouse Day, Absecon Lighthouse invites the community to climb, explore, celebrate and raise a glass to a landmark that has been shining over the Jersey Shore for nearly 170 years.

HARBOR PINES GOLF CLUB

500 Saint Andrews Drive, Egg Harbor Twp., NJ

Saturday, August 1 • 11AM – 3PM • Brighton Park • 124 Park Place • Atlantic City

Activities and music throughout the morning and afternoon. Ribbon cutting and formal launch, noon to 1PM.

Join Monument Artist Immanuel Oni and the NJMML team for the launch of the Flagship Sailbus at Brighton Park, on the Atlantic City boardwalk. Inspired by a year's worth of multigenerational conversations and programs with community stakeholders in Millville, Bridgeton, Seabrook, Port Norris, Roebling, and Atlantic City, Flagship brings to life the stories of labor and migration that define South Jersey's past, and its present.

FLAGSHIP LAUNCH AND RIBBON CUTTING

Saturday, August 1, 2026
11:00AM – 3:00PM

To further animate the completed installation, Oni will lead participants in art activities designed to bring to life Atlantic City's "sites of memory," and to reflect on the buildings and businesses that played host to Black migrants and immigrants who arrived in Atlantic City in the early twentieth century. Oni will also work with participants to create art that recognizes Atlantic City's dynamic, changing population, and the Bangladeshi, Mexican, and Vietnamese immigrants who have come to the city more recently. This program is supported by the Atlantic County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs.

RSVP to this event - Join us for Flagship: Launch and Ribbon Cutting by confirming your attendance below. Please fill out the RSVP form to secure your spot and share any notes or questions you may have. njmml.com/activities/flagship-launch-and-ribbon-cutting/

About NJMML - NJ Monuments To Migration And Labor is a three-year initiative honoring immigrants' contributions to the state. Through public events, and monument installations, it celebrates their resilience, hard work, and cultural impact, blending art, history, and storytelling to inspire reflection and appreciation.

One Saturday. Dozens of sales. A whole city full of bargains.

If you've been waiting for the perfect excuse to spend a Saturday morning hunting for hidden treasures, mark your calendar for Saturday, August 1, when Egg Harbor City hosts its annual Citywide Yard Sale.

The first Saturday in August has become a tradition for bargain hunters, collectors, families and anyone who simply enjoys the thrill of finding something unexpected. With residents throughout the city setting up tables, clearing out closets and opening their garages and yards, shoppers can spend the day exploring neighborhood after neighborhood in search of that one-of-a-kind find.

And the selection promises to be as varied as the people selling it. From antiques, vintage furniture and collectibles to clothing, toys, books, tools, household goods and home décor, there's a little bit of everything waiting to be discovered. Collectors may want to keep an eye out for vintage jewelry, art glass, Christmas and Easter decorations, trains, Bicentennial memorabilia and other unique items, while families can browse children's clothing, toys and baby gear.

Several multi-family sales are also planned, meaning even more opportunities to find a great deal in one stop. Some residents are offering handmade items and specialty goods alongside their yard-sale finds, including handmade press-on nails, jewelry, laser-engraved designs and even fresh agua frescas.

The best part of a citywide yard sale is that you never quite know what you'll find. A box of old books might lead to a vintage treasure. A search for children's clothes could turn up the perfect piece of furniture. And something you weren't looking for at all might end up being the best bargain of the day.

So grab your reusable shopping bags, fill up the gas tank and get ready to explore. Bring cash, wear comfortable shoes and leave a little room in the car - because you never know what you'll find around the next corner.

WHERE TO SHOP

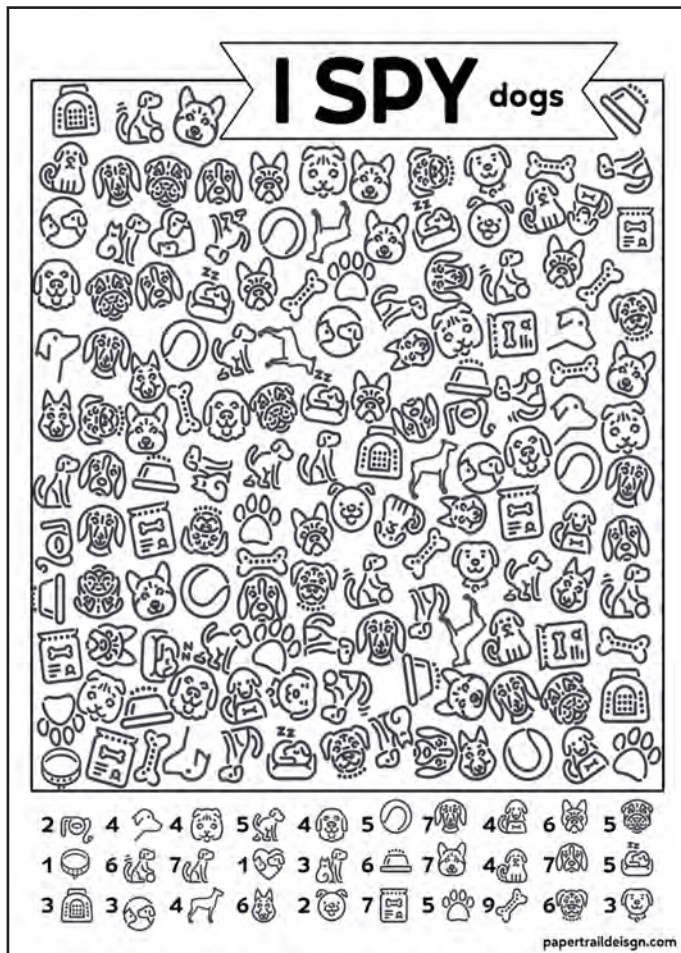

The following locations were shared by residents preparing for the Citywide Yard Sale. Offerings and participation are subject to change:

Happy hunting - and may your next great find be hiding in Egg Harbor City!

KNOW HOW PET FOOD COMPANIES CAN DECEIVE US WITH WORDS

Submitted By

from The Wagging Tail

One of my favorite topics is WHAT IS REALLY IN THAT BAG OF PET FOOD so I frequently write about what you as the consumer and guardian of your pet's health should look for when buying your pet food. Dog food advisor had a very comprehensive article this week, which I am paraphrasing below and from which there is much more to be covered another week.

There are four rules set by the Food and Drug Administration. They are as follows:

#1 The 95% rule-if the bag states that it is Chicken Dog or Chicken Cat food then it must contain 95% chicken. If moisture is added that reduces the percentage to 70%.

#2 The 25% rule-if the protein source, let's say pork, is followed by something like entrée, dinner, platter, or formula, as in Pork Dinner, the bag must contain a minimum of 25% pork (or beef, chicken, or salmon, etc.) If moisture is added, deduct 15%, which leaves only 10% pork.

#3 The "With" rule means that if the bag says cat food or dog food WITH chicken, there is probably as little as 3% chicken, which may be the only amount of protein in the entire bag.

#4 The "Flavor" rule as in Chicken Flavored Cat or Dog Food. Using this term allows the manufacturer to only put in enough chicken to impart the minimal chicken "taste" to the food. This is just a sample of the ways in which pet food companies can describe their products thereby misleading us, the consumers, and reaping the rewards from our naivete.

Organic pet food must meet the same standards as human-grade organic. In other words, no less than 95% of the product must be organic. If only 70% meet the requirements than it must be labeled "made with organic ingredients" but allowing for 30% to be non-organic even including products which you would not want to feed your pet. If there is less than 70%, each item that is organic, like beef or peas, must be cited, and it can not mislead the consumer by calling the product Organic Beef and Pea Dog Food. Organic pet food is grouped as either; Certified organic (95% organic) or partially organic (contains only some organic ingredients.)

Dog Food Advisor recommends Tender and True Organic Chicken and Liver Recipe as a top choice for organic complete wet dog food. They also recommend for dogs with sensitive stomachs, organic dry foods such as Gather (by Free Acres) Organic Free-Range Chicken, Honest Kitchen Whole Grain Chicken Recipe (comes in a box) Stella and Chewy Venison Blend Dinner Patties, and Tender and True Chicken and Liver for dogs with allergies.

Natural, another term like Organic, has guidelines stated by AAFCO. But manufacturers may use terms like gourmet, premium, or holistic, words which allow them some trickery. As consumers we need to always refer to the ingredient panel which lists ingredients by the most to the least amount in the bag. That's why, for example, chicken should be followed by chicken meal, otherwise they are over-valuing the amount of chicken, which often include inedible parts.
