Now - October 1: Free Yoga Classes in the Park

Time: 5:30 PM to 6:30 PM

Recurring weekly on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday

Find your balance with Free Yoga classes at O'Donnell Memorial Park, Monday through Thursday from June through October. Whether you're new to yoga or an experienced practitioner, these relaxing outdoor sessions provide the perfect way to unwind, improve flexibility, and recharge in a welcoming community setting steps from the beach and Boardwalk in the Chelsea Neighborhood. Yoga mats will be provided, and classes will move indoors to the Chelsea EDC office during inclement weather, making it easy to enjoy wellness all season long.

Wednesdays through September 2: Mardi Gras on the Boardwalk

Celebrate the spirit of New Orleans all summer long at Mardi Gras on the Boardwalk, a free weekly concert series taking over Kennedy Plaza in front of Jim Whelan Boardwalk Hall. Presented by Tony Mart, these Wednesday night performances bring the sounds of blues, rock, funk, soul, zydeco, and the unmistakable rhythms of Louisiana to the Atlantic City Boardwalk. From Grammy-winning artists and Rock and Roll Hall of Fame legends to tributes and local favorites, each evening offers a lively soundtrack to summer at the shore. Concerts begin at 7:00 p.m. and admission is free.

*In case of inclement weather the concerts will be moved indoors to the Claridge Hotel.

August 19: Wacky Wednesdays

Enjoy Wacky Wednesdays at the Absecon Lighthouse from 11:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. including crafts, activities, movies & coloring, the Salty Sea, Pirates & Mermaids, Fairy Tales, Gifts of the Garden, Dinosaurs, Surfin' Safari, and Outer Space. Included with regular admission, theme changes weekly.

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 13 - 19, 2026

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

A little patience will help you avoid rushing into a decision this week. An opportunity to make progress on something important arrives midweek. By the weekend, make time for something fun that lets you relax and recharge.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

A change of plans may work out better than expected. Stay flexible and don't be afraid to try a different approach. A casual conversation could lead to an idea that makes an everyday task easier.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Your social side is especially strong this week, making it a great time to reconnect with friends or make new plans. Someone's unexpected suggestion could turn into an enjoyable adventure. Follow your curiosity and see where it leads.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

A quieter pace helps you get your priorities in order. You'll feel better once you stop trying to handle everything at once. A small accomplishment this week gives you the motivation to tackle something you've been avoiding.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

Your birthday season brings an extra boost of confidence, and others are taking notice. This is a good week to speak up about what you want. A compliment or unexpected bit of recognition could brighten your weekend.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 23)

A practical solution appears for a problem that's been taking up too much of your attention. Trust yourself instead of overthinking every detail. By the weekend, you'll have more time to enjoy the things you've been putting off.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23)

This week brings a chance to step outside your usual routine. Accepting an invitation or saying yes to a new experience could lead to a memorable moment. Keep your schedule flexible and leave room for a little spontaneity.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

Something you've been quietly working toward begins to gain momentum. Keep your plans to yourself until you're ready to share them. A little extra confidence helps you make a choice that puts you firmly back in control.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 21)

A change of scenery could be exactly what you need. Even a short trip, day out or new activity brings a welcome break from routine. Someone you meet along the way may have an interesting story or idea to share.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 20)

Don't let a busy schedule keep you from enjoying the progress you've made. This week rewards steady effort, but you also need time to recharge. A practical conversation could help clear up an issue that's been lingering.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

You're ready to shake things up, and a small change could make a surprisingly big difference. Try approaching a familiar situation from a new angle. A friend may offer advice that gives you exactly the perspective you've been missing.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

Your instincts are especially sharp this week, so pay attention to those little feelings that tell you something is worth pursuing. A creative idea or unexpected invitation could add some excitement to an otherwise ordinary day.

Navajo Code Talkers Day, observed every August 14, honors the extraordinary contributions of Navajo Marines during World War II. These heroes developed and used an unbreakable code based on their native Diné language, proving pivotal in the Pacific theater. Take time to learn their story, share their legacy, and thank veterans for their service.

Navajo Code Talkers Day Hero - Chester Nez

Chester Nez (1921–2014) was the last of the original 29 Navajo Code Talkers who developed the unbreakable code used by the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II. He served in the Pacific theater, participating in battles such as Guadalcanal and Bougainville. Nez's bravery and linguistic ingenuity were vital to Allied victories, and his story became a symbol of the Code Talkers' profound impact.

History of Navajo Code Talkers Day

The C.I.A.'s official site has stated that Navajo was a near 'perfect' language that was used to create military codes. This is why it has been recorded in history and is recognized for its brilliance even today. However, the code wasn't the language itself but was a communication form that was encrypted using the Navajo language. Since many people couldn't decipher it, the code remained unbreakable throughout the war. It is this success of the code that is celebrated by Americans every year. National Navajo Code Talkers Day was made a legal state holiday in 2020 by Governor Doug Ducey who signed legislation to honor the courage of the Navajo Code Talkers and their critical role in the WWII victory. According to him, the Navajo Code Talkers are "American heroes."

It all started in 1942 when the U.S. was fighting World War II in the Pacific and needed an unbreakable code to ensure the success of military operations. During this time, Philip Johnston, the son of a missionary who had grown up in the Navajo Nation, suggested using the Navajo language as a code. After this, there was no turning back and the U.S. government recruited over 400 Navajo men to serve during the war. The Navajo Code Talkers successfully transmitted more than 800 messages without error and helped the U.S. win the war. Hence, in 1982, Navajo Code Talkers Day was established through a presidential proclamation by President Ronald Reagan. In 2014, Arizona passed legislation declaring every August 14 Navajo Code Talkers Day in Arizona.

How to Observe Navajo Code Talkers Day

- Create a code of your own - To have some fun and also realize how tough it is to develop an unbreakable code, try to make one of your own and use it with your friends.
- Watch a documentary on WWII - To find out more about the war and why the efforts of each and every citizen are still applauded, watch a historic documentary.
- Read up on the Navajo Code - What is the Navajo Code? How was it created and what were the words used? You can find out everything you need to know with just a little research.

5 Interesting Facts You Need To Know About The Navajo Code

- 1 - Never broken - It's the only oral code in history that has never been broken.
- 2 - Terms created - The original twenty-nine men created 211 terms.
- 3 - The code - Navajo bird names were used and applied to weapons of war.
- 4 - First deployment - The Navajo Code Talkers were first deployed to the Battle of Guadalcanal.
- 5 - Another Navajo cannot decipher the code - Deciphering the code is not possible unless the Navajo is a code talker.

Why Navajo Code Talkers Day is Important

- It promotes the Navajo heritage - The day is important since it promotes Navajo heritage, and also explains how different cultures and languages can prove to be beneficial in times of need.
- It recognizes the efforts of the marines - During the war, the efforts of every soldier were essential for the survival of the state. This day recognizes the bravery and intelligence that was used to create the unbreakable Navajo code.
- It keeps history alive - The day keeps alive the history of the war and the efforts of several communities who aided the United States in reaching success.

National Tell A Joke Day ~ August 16, 2026

National Tell A Joke Day arrives every August 16, inviting everyone to lighten the mood with a well-timed punchline. This day is a perfect excuse to practice your comedic timing and bring smiles to faces. Gather your funniest anecdotes, challenge friends to a joke-off, and spread joy throughout your day.

National Tell A Joke Day Hero - Milton Berle

Milton Berle (1908-2002) was an American comedian and actor, widely known as 'Mr. Television' for his pioneering work in early TV. His vaudeville background and quick wit made him a household name, influencing generations of comedians with his joke-telling prowess and comedic timing.

History of National Tell A Joke Day

Picture a life without laughter - it's hard to imagine that there may have been a time when jokes weren't invented. Jokes are believed to have been a part of history since 1900 B.C. Many suggest that the joke was created by the Greek hero Palamedes, who outsmarted Odysseus during the Trojan War. There is little evidence to support this claim, and the exact origin of jokes is unknown. The creation of National Tell A Joke Day is also lost in time so we guess the joke's on us!

Tell A Joke Day is a great day to lighten up and laugh it up! Not only is laughter great for the soul, it is also beneficial for our health. When times get hard, and we need help turning that frown upside down, a good joke will save the day! Laughter is also contagious, and the world can always use more smiles and laughter.

The structure of a joke isn't set in stone. Initially, jokes were more like funny stories or accounts, either written or verbal. The comical situation would usually end with a punchline. Slapstick comedy relies more on props and movement to deliver jokes that involve small stunts. They need to be short and not dragged out, otherwise, the joke will be lost halfway through. Standup comedians depend on their delivery to get a good laugh out of the audience. Books on jokes and gags used to be popular at one time, but these days the meme format is the most used in today's internet culture.

National Tell A Joke Day Activities

- Learn some jokes - We're talking clever jokes. Nothing cheesy or too dirty. Practice your delivery. And remember, never laugh when you deliver the punch line. You're the comedian. Laughing's for all the other people in the room. Ideally.
- Attend a comedy show - But remember, comedians may make you part of their act. It's not a play, after all. Keep an open mind and have fun! Oh, and don't heckle the performers. That rarely works out to your advantage.
- Watch how the pros do it - Want to learn more about the art of being funny? Start with Jerry Seinfeld's Netflix series "Comedians in Cars Getting Coffee" for some invaluable tips and advice. Then, check out specials from comedy stars like Ali Wong, Norm MacDonald, Gary Gulman, and Dave Chappelle.

5 Facts That Are Unbelievably Funny

- 1 - Walmart has a lower acceptance rate than Harvard - Harvard has a 4.5% acceptance rate, whereas Walmart accepts only 2.6% of all applicants.
- 2 - Phobia of long words - The fear of long words is called 'hippopotomonstroses-quippedaliophobia.'
- 3 - "Collectible" art? - An art collector once paid $10,000 for an invisible sculpture sculpted by actor James Franco.
- 4 - Cows have regional dialects - Depending on the herd, its peer group, and area, cows moo with distinct accents.
- 5 - Oddly specific - The blob of toothpaste that is squeezed onto a toothbrush is called a 'nurdle.'

ALWAYS ON THE THIRD SATURDAY @ NOON

Location: Gateway Building - 1433 Bacharach Blvd, Atlantic City, NJ 08401

We will bring the pizza and plates for our homeless friends. We are asking you to please bring 5-10 bags of food (brown paper bag lunches) and toiletries to hand out to homeless people. Most people make turkey sandwiches or peanut butter jelly sandwiches and a bag of chips. Travel size toiletries are always very popular. If you can bring soap, deodorant, toothbrushes, and toothpaste that would be a huge help.

If you don't want to hand out food, clothing, and toiletries with us but would like to donate food, clothing, and toiletries we'll be there from 12:00 pm to 1:00pm so you can drop your items off. Your donation would mean a lot to someone in need.

We accept adult clothing donations at this event.

We'll be at this location handing out food, clothing, and toiletries.

Kids are always welcome to come out with us.

We encourage you to tell your neighbors, family, and friends about the event. This is a free public event, come out with us and do one kind act a month. If we all come together we can have a huge impact on a homeless community.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Cobbler's Pose (Baddha Konasana)

The Half Lord of the Fishes pose, known in Sanskrit as Ardha Matsyendrasana, is a seated spinal twist that stretches the back, opens the shoulders, and aids digestion. Sit on the floor with both legs straight out in front of you. Bend your right knee and place your right foot flat on the ground outside your left knee. Bend your left leg and tuck your left foot in close to your right outer hip (or keep the left leg straight out if that is easier). Inhale to sit up tall and lengthen your spine. Exhale and twist your torso toward your right knee. Place your right hand on the floor behind you for support, and hug your right knee with your left arm or place your left elbow on the outside of your right knee. Look over your right shoulder, hold for 5 to 8 breaths, then switch sides.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Vitamin D

Vitamin K is a group of fat-soluble vitamins best known for helping blood clot, building strong bones, and keeping the heart healthy. Found mostly in green leafy plants like spinach, kale, and broccoli. Found in animal products, fermented foods, and made by gut bacteria. Key Health Functions Blood Clotting: Activates proteins needed to stop bleeding from cuts and wounds. Bone Health: Helps deposit calcium into bones to keep them strong.

National Goat Cheese Month dedicates the entire month of August to the fluffy, tangy, and creamy dairy product. Whether crumbled on salads, spread on toast, or baked into tarts, goat cheese elevates any dish. Explore new recipes, visit local creameries, and share your favorite chèvre creations.

National Goat Cheese Month Hero - Laura Chenel. Laura Chenel is a pioneering figure in American artisanal cheesemaking, credited with establishing one of the first goat cheese dairies in the United States in the late 1970s. Her dedication to crafting high-quality chèvre helped popularize goat cheese in American cuisine. Chenel's innovative spirit and commitment to traditional French methods set a benchmark for the burgeoning American artisan cheese movement.

History of National Goat Cheese Month - National Goat Cheese Month came into existence in August of 1998. It was started by the American Cheese Society (ACS), which aimed to open the eyes of the country to the wonders and benefits of goat cheese. ACS was founded by Frank Kosikowski, a professor at Cornell University, in 1983. Kosikowski had penned several research articles and books on the subject of cheese. His expertise in and enthusiasm for the field led him to establish ACS. Initially, much of the members and staff at the organization were voluntary. However, a few years down the line, the society grew with the growing cheese industry in the country. Today, ACS is a nonprofit, and its goals are to educate and unite cheese lovers all over America. It offers networking events and opportunities by hosting conferences, conventions, and membership tests.

Goat cheese was first made some 9,000 years ago when the first goats were domesticated by humans. Often called the poor man's 'cow,' goats were much easier to raise and take care of. These animals are natural grazers and can survive on their own in the toughest and roughest of environments. The Moors are said to have brought goats to France in 8 A.D., and that is where chèvre, which is french for goat cheese, was made. Goat cheese has similar fat content to cow cheese, but it is healthier and can be eaten by people who have a low lactose tolerance. Its essence and aroma rely on its aging, density, moisture, and any additional flavoring. Goat cheese's taste will also differ according to a goat's diet. For example, the best time to have goat cheese is during August as the goats would have been feasting on berries all summer long. As a result, the goat cheese can have a fruity and somewhat sweet flavor. Goat cheese's tart and creamy texture also makes it ideal to have as dessert. Additionally, many people enjoy it with olive oil or in salads. It also goes great with roast dinners and burgers.

How To Celebrate National Goat Cheese Month

- Eat some goat cheese - Goat cheese is a great addition to many recipes. It only works to further enhance the taste of a food item. You can have it with salads, but if you are feeling adventurous you can also have it grilled or roasted as goat cheese doesn't melt as cow cheese does. While you are at it, try the cheese as is to really appreciate its dense and rich flavors.
- Have it as dessert - Dessert and cheese, need we say more? We are going to say just a little bit more. Because of its tangy and tart taste, you can have it to satisfy your sweet cravings. Honey and chocolate will complement the flavors immensely.
- Make goat cheese at home - Making goat cheese is quite simple. You just have to allow raw goat milk to naturally curdle. If you want, you can use acid, like vinegar, to get the curdling effect. Once the curdling is done, you can separate the curds through draining, and then press the curds to get a shape.

5 Facts About Goats That Will Blow Your Mind

- 1 - Goats are social animals - As goats are social animals, they can start feeling lonely if you do not give them enough attention and care.
- 2 - Goat meat is the most consumed - Goats' are eaten the most worldwide per capita.
- 3 - Goat kids are easily recognized by mothers - Goat mothers can easily recognize their goat kids since the latter has a unique call and scent.
- 4 - Rectangular pupils for better vision - Goats have rectangular pupils that afford them 320 to 340 degrees of vision, and this means that they can see without having to move their heads or necks much.
- 5 - Goats are like dogs - As if they weren't adorable enough, goats are also very similar to dogs in their behavioral patterns, like responding when their name is being called or seeking a human's help when faced with a difficult task.

Why We Love National Goat Cheese Month

- It's a celebration of goat cheese - Goat cheese can easily make it to the list of the greatest human inventions in the food industry. It can be soft, hard, and fluffy. It can also be salted, brined, tangy, tart, and so many other flavors. Half of goat cheese's greatness lies in its versatility that allows it to shift between savory and sweet dishes.
- It's a celebration of goats - Did you know that a goat giving birth is called 'kidding'? Yep, a goat baby is called a kid, and it was brought into this world through kidding. Their origins are super adorkable, and if you take them under your care, they will vow to see you through thick and thin by upholding their end of the friendship bargain.
- It's a celebration of different flavors - While goat cheese has been around for quite a while now, it is the way the countries of the world have adopted it into their cultures that is interesting. Spicy and savory goat cheese can be found in Europe, but if you have a sweet tooth to take care of, then head over to America to have it in your pies or cheese boards.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Farpoint Toys & Collectibles in Mays Landing will celebrate the life and legacy of Edward "Dr. Fossil" Lauginiger with a special Dr. Fossil Day & Yard Sale on Saturday, August 15.

Lauginiger was a teacher, paleontologist, toy collector, member of the Delaware Mineralogical Society and volunteer at the Delaware Museum of Natural History. He was especially passionate about GI Joe, Star Wars, Indiana Jones, Jurassic Park and dinosaurs, and even discovered a new species of ancient animal fossil that was named in his honor.

Lauginiger passed away in 2017, but his enthusiasm for fossils, toys and sharing his discoveries with children continues to be remembered. The birthday celebration is open to both those who knew him and those who simply want to come out and enjoy a fun day honoring his memory.

In keeping with Lauginiger's tradition of giving dinosaur toys to children during his museum presentations, one free dinosaur toy will be available for each child at the counter, while supplies last. Visitors can also stop by to see Ripley, the life-sized raptor who once belonged to Lauginiger, in her habitat outside the store.

Inside, some of Lauginiger's favorite films will be playing throughout the day, while the yard sale gives collectors and shoppers another reason to stop by. With dinosaurs, toys, movies and plenty of Dr. Fossil memories, the event promises to be a fitting celebration of a man who loved sharing his passions with others.

THE ROAD TO WILLIAMSPORT Little League World Series Returns to the Diamond

Every August, the small town of South Williamsport, Pennsylvania, becomes the center of the baseball world. The Little League Baseball World Series brings together 20 teams of young players from across the United States and around the globe, but before they arrive in Williamsport, they have to earn their way there. That journey is happening right now.

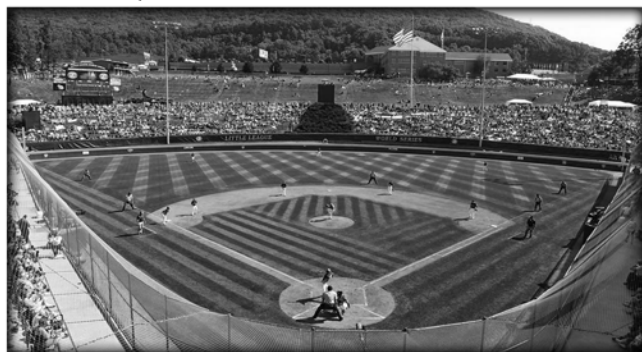

THE ROAD STARTS AT HOME - Little League teams begin their summer competing through local, district and state tournaments before advancing to regional competition. The regional champions earn a coveted spot in the World Series.

For New Jersey baseball fans, there's a reason to pay attention this week. New Jersey's Bayonne Central Little League is competing in the Metro Region tournament in Bristol, Connecticut, along with teams from Connecticut, New York and Rhode Island. The Metro Region championship is scheduled for Friday, August 14 at 7 p.m., with the winner earning a trip to Williamsport.

Regional tournaments are taking place around the country through this week, narrowing the field until all 20 World Series teams have been determined.

A LITTLE HISTORY - The tournament began in 1947 in Williamsport, when just 12 teams competed. One of those original teams was Hammonton Little League, giving South Jersey a connection to the World Series that dates back to the very beginning.

Today, the tournament features 10 U.S. regional champions and 10 international teams. The 2026 World Series begins August 19 and runs through August 30 at the Little League International Complex.

MORE THAN A BASEBALL FIELD - Anyone making the trip to Williamsport may be surprised by just how much there is to see. The Little League International Complex includes Howard J. Lamade Stadium, Volunteer Stadium, team housing and dining facilities, the World of Little League Museum and the official Flagship Store.

Lamade Stadium is especially memorable, with the famous terraced hill beyond the outfield and enough room for approximately 45,000 spectators when the hill is included. Families can explore the grounds, visit the museum, shop for souvenirs and watch games throughout the tournament. Admission to the complex and parking are free, making it an appealing destination even for families who aren't following a particular team. but just really love baseball (littleleague.org)

THE BIG WEEK AHEAD - Once the regional tournaments wrap up, the excitement shifts to Williamsport. Twenty teams will compete through U.S. and International brackets before the two sides meet for the championship.

The MLB Little League Classic will also bring Major League Baseball to Williamsport on August 23, when the Atlanta Braves and Milwaukee Brewers meet at historic Bowman Field as part of the World Series festivities. The tournament concludes with the Little League Baseball World Series Championship Game on Sunday, August 30 at 3 p.m. at Howard J. Lamade Stadium.

For the young players who make it to Williamsport, the experience is about more than the final score. They get to represent their communities, meet players from around the world and play on one of the most recognizable stages in youth baseball. For the families and fans watching, it's a chance to experience a uniquely American summer tradition. And for those of us in South Jersey, there's a little extra reason to keep an eye on the road to Williamsport this year.

More than 600 people enjoyed an afternoon of strolling through seven breathtaking homes in Longport and Margate during the Jewish Family Service House Tour on August 3rd. The event, presented by Surroundings Interiors, raised $122,000 to benefit The Lynn Kramer Village by the Shore, a program which provides essential services including care coordination, transportation, grocery shopping, meal delivery, and social events for adults (50+). The House Tour, which started in the '80s, has showcased nearly 225 spectacular residences and welcomed thousands of guests.

"Each year, the House Tour surpasses our expectations thanks to the extraordinary generosity of homeowners who open their homes to hundreds of attendees as well as the businesses, sponsors, volunteers, and staff whose dedication makes this event so memorable," said Andrea Steinberg, Chief Executive Officer of Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties.
