Release the week of February 23 - 29, 2024

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 22 - FEBRUARY 28, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

You will be slowing down and finding moments for inner reflection this week, Aries, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You may have heavier emotions come up, or you could be releasing any mindsets that are holding you back. You might also be taking an interest in having a regular spiritual practice, like journaling or meditation. With the full moon in Virgo, you will be wrapping up projects at work and crossing tasks off of your to-do list. You may feel called to take better care of your body too through exercise and eating healthy.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Your social life will pick up this week, Taurus, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You may have commitments to others that you need to attend, or you could be the one bringing people together for a group activity. You may also be catching up with friends you haven't seen in a while. With the full moon in Virgo, you will be balancing social activities with time spent on your own hobbies. You may realise how you can inject your personality into a passion project, as well as how you can have more confidence in your unique talents.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Work will be busier this week, Gemini, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You could get handed new responsibilities, or you're receiving recognition for your work. You might also be reflecting on your career goals, as you consider what projects and opportunities are worth committing to. With the full moon in Virgo, you may be connecting with family or leaving your home to go somewhere. On the other hand, you may want to stay in and make time to clean and organise your living space. You could be emotional about family dynamics or past memories though.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

You will be thinking of the bigger picture this week, Cancer, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be furthering your education by reading more books or enrolling in a class. You could also have inspiration to write or teach. You might be travelling or coming into contact with people from different cultural backgrounds too. With the full moon in Virgo, you may realise how you can communicate your ideas more effectively with people, or you may be preparing to launch a writing or speaking-related project. In addition, you may be attending cultural offerings and events.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You will be interested in self improvement this week, Leo, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You could be turning to therapy, psychology books, or other forms of healing to better understand why you are the way you are. You may also be making an effort to save or invest money for your future, or you're paying off debt. With the full moon in Virgo, you may be spending quite a bit as well, and you could be treating yourself to shopping or nice experiences. In addition, you may be preparing to launch a project at work.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You will be focused on your close relationships this week, Virgo, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be putting yourself out there with dating, or you could feel closer to your current partner. You may also be making an effort to see good friends frequently. With the full moon in your sign, you will be realising how you can prioritise your own goals as well, and you may be rediscovering interests you never knew you had. You might be met with significant new opportunities too, or other people are paying you greater attention.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You will be getting into the swing of a regular routine this week, Libra, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be juggling numerous small tasks at work, or you could be met with new job opportunities. You will also be making an effort to take better care of your body and overall health. With the full moon in Virgo, you will still need to be mindful of resting. You could feel called to slow down, or emotions may come up that you want to address. You could be exploring your sense of spirituality too.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

You will be having fun and mingling with people this week, Scorpio, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You may have extra time for social activities or dating, or you could be leaning into hobbies that bring you joy. In addition, you might feel called to express more of yourself through your work or a passion project. With the full moon in Virgo, you could be organising a group activity, or you may be met with a positive opportunity that is related to your long term hopes and dreams for the future.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You will be tending to home and family related activities this week, Sagittarius, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be visiting family, or you could be preparing to move or decorate your living space. You may also be reminiscing on the past or reflecting on family dynamics. With the full moon in Virgo, you may see career developments take place. You could be busier at work or even preparing to launch a big project. You could be thinking about your long term career goals too, or you may be preparing to start a new role.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

You will be picking up new skills and learning useful information this week, Capricorn, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be developing communication based work, like a presentation, podcast, newsletter, or online content, and you may want to attend cultural offerings around your city. With the full moon in Virgo, you could be preparing to travel, or you may feel called to sign up for a workshop or research a particular subject. You may feel more connected to your spirituality too, and you may want to deepen your knowledge of other cultures and life beliefs.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You will feel motivated at work this week, Aquarius, as the sun and Mercury move into Pisces. You might be developing new projects, asserting your own ideas, or taking on freelance gigs. You could also be splurging on yourself or paying off various expenses. With the full moon in Virgo, you may be addressing any relationship conflict that is coming up, or you could be looking to improve upon your own reactions and behaviours. You could also be learning how to open up and be more emotionally vulnerable with people, or you may be putting money towards savings.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

You will be focused on your own goals this week, Pisces, as the sun and Mercury move into your sign. You may have noticeably more energy, and you could be met with new opportunities, either at work or in your personal life. You may also be comfortable spending more time alone, tending to self care routines. With the full moon in Virgo, you will still want to be mindful of your close relationships. You may be reflecting on where you stand with someone you're dating or a good friend, or you could simply feel more connected to people.

Atlantic City Library Celebrates Black History Month

Those who visit the Main Library – located at 1 North Tennessee Ave. – this month will see some new additions in celebration of Black History Month. The banner highlights three prominent African Americans in Atlantic City history: Sara Spencer Washington, William K. Cheatham and Dr. Amaza Lockett. Inside the library, there are 20 posters on display with photos and text of local African-American individuals or organizations that have impacted Atlantic City. Some of featured posters include: Club Harlem, JoAnna LaSane, John Henry “Pop” Lloyd and Mayor James L. Ustry. For those who want to look for all 20 posters, stop by the Help Desk for a checklist. The library also has posters at its Richmond Branch (4115 Ventnor Ave.) and at City Hall. The poster photos and text are from the library’s Atlantic City Heritage Collections. In addition to viewing the posters at one of the library locations or City Hall, they will be available on the Heritage Collections’ Facebook and Instagram pages. The library staff has also created special displays with books and movies related to Black History Month – and there many more resources available to the public online. The library will hold another of its Black Stories Matter: Virtual Book Club programs in February. The club will meet via Zoom on Feb. 27 at 4 p.m. Please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3075, to register for the program and receive a free copy of that month’s featured book, while supplies last.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

CHERRY MAPLE VENISON JERKY

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 LBS 1/8" SLICED (AGAINST THE GRAIN) VENISON
- 1/2 CUP MAPLE SYRUP
- 3/4 CUP CHERRY PIE FILLING
- 2 TBS WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE
- 2 TBS LOW SODIUM SOY SAUCE
- 1/2 TSP DRIED GROUND GINGER
- 1 TSP ONION POWDER
- 1/2 TSP GARLIC POWDER
- FRESH CRACKED BLACK PEPPER TO TASTE
- CHERRY WOOD FOR SMOKING

PREPARATION:

Place all ingredients except venison into a food processor or blender. Pulse until mixture is smooth. Put sliced meat into a large Ziploc bag. Pour marinade over the top. Seal the bag & mix everything from the outside of the bag. Be sure to get the air out & marinate for 48 hours. After 48 hours, prepare smoker w/ cherry wood at 180°. Remove meat from marinade. Pat meat dry w/ a towel. Arrange meat strips flat on a cooking rack. Smoke until the meat bends but doesn't break. It will crack slightly. Enjoy!

Hint: This recipe works great w/ beef as well. If you don't have a smoker, you can put a 1/2 tsp of liquid smoke in the marinade.

What does your venue specialize in? We specialize in multiple specialty lattes... Our best seller is the Banana Bread Latte

What is the current reason one MUST come to your venue? We have the most laid-back atmosphere where you truly feel like you are a part of a family. There is comfortable seating which includes couches! Our eclectic decor keeps you entertained!

What is your secret favorite that the crowds have yet to discover? We always have a secret menu behind the counter filled with other drinks that we do not always have posted on our rotating specialty boards! Don't be afraid to ask for something different. We like to think of ourselves as the coffee chemists of Ventnor.

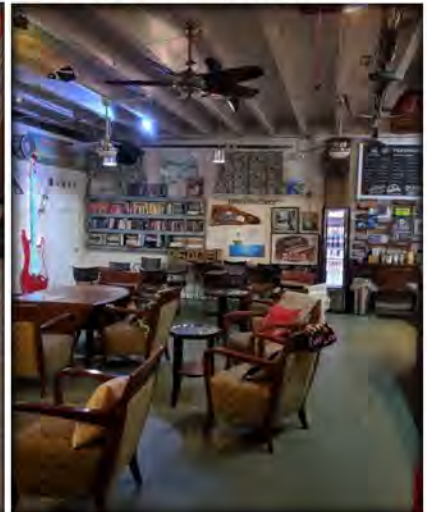

What is your secret favorite that the crowds have yet to discover? Our Banana flavored drinks have been a crowd favorite for 10 years. The banana bread latte, being our top seller, is a creme banana flavor paired with shortbread, espresso, and milk. It can be enjoyed either hot or iced.

Why is your venue a necessary part of Atlantic County? We are a small part of the music scene in Atlantic County. During the summer months, every Friday evening, we have live music with local musicians. Starting back up at the end of April, we will be offering an Open Mic every Thursday from 6:30pm-9pm. Bring your music, jokes and poems!

She has been with us since the beginning and puts her heart into the coffee shop. She is currently finishing her Business Administration degree at Atlantic Cape Community College.

What are some other special reasons to come visit? We will be updating a small gift shop inside of the coffee shop called The Annex! Also every month we will be holding Paint and Sips. Once summer rolls around, we will be having more live music!

Please share any important information locals and visitors should know about: Do not use the parking lot next door lol. It does not belong to us. Please utilize the street parking directly in front of Ventnor Coffee.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

You've heard the common phrase before, "Write what you know." And who better to write about the harsh and weighty realities of war, the rigidity and routines of the military, the unique skillset needed to be part of it all, and the lasting effect of what they've witnessed — than someone who has lived it? These five authors have spent varying amounts of time in the military and used their service to inform tense, entertaining and eye-opening novels that pose moral questions about the realities of war and what the affected must endure.

The Terminal List by Jack Carr

A Navy SEAL is disillusioned when he discovers that the deaths of his team are the fault of the American government, not a foreign enemy — a realization that sends him on a self-destructive and vengeful path. His return home was supposed to be a celebration, not a massacre. Uncovering a conspiracy that runs deeper than he could have imagined, Lieutenant Commander James Reece seeks revenge for these unjust killings.

Free from the military's strict rule, he uses his decades of training to avenge the deaths of the people he loved. Now a Prime Original Series, Jack Carr's novel is a fast-paced dive into one man's quest for justice — without regard for laws outside of his own moral code. Author Jack Carr is a former Navy SEAL who served several decades as he led special operations teams as a Team Leader, Platoon Commander, Troop Commander, and Task Unit Commander.

Plowman: Harvest of Grain and Innocence by Charles Bruckerhoff

When Stella and Hana discover their great-grandparents' WWII journals and a grandparent's wartime journal from Vietnam, they are inspired to compile the accounts from the journals into a single book. News that Stella's father has been killed in action in Afghanistan radically changes their ideas about the book's themes. What once seemed like true patriots undertaking heroic acts in the name of the greater good, suddenly is revealed to be the pointless slaughter that it truly is.

They decide to write a treatise on the reality of war, stripping away the veneer placed over it by those who benefit from it. Stella and Hana turn their focus to changing social, cultural, moral, and military priorities, starting from the ground and working their way up to the highest seats of power.

Contemplative Novels From Authors Inspired By Their Time in the Military

The author, Charles Bruckerhoff joined the United States Army at 19 and served in Vietnam. He says "Writing Plowman was not a therapy course for me, but a thoughtful journey through time and space endeavoring to make sense of America and our leaders' continuing wrong wars. I came to the conclusion that these wars can only be understood in the framework of greed, power and arrogance."

The Red Line by Walt Gragg

This debut novel is a highly realistic story about a fictional near-future war between the United States and Russia. The opening sentence in the novel states: "As with all wars, there were a million good reasons to go to war, and there were no good reasons at all."

World War III arrives when the Russian Empire attacks Germany. Under the cover of a blizzard, Russian tanks roll through the heart of the country while undercover teams take advantage of any weaknesses in command. Who is powerful enough to fight this attack? Surely the American forces, though few in number, are prepared. Their weapons are superior and they're well trained for this precise scenario. But before long, they are on the run from insurmountable death and destruction.

Author Walt Gragg spent a number of years in the military. His time with the Army involved several interesting assignments, including three years in the middle of the first Cold War serving at United States European Command Headquarters in Germany — where the idea for The Red Line took shape.

Waiting for Eden by Elliot Ackerman

In Waiting for Eden, Eden is on his deathbed, unable to move or talk. His wife is not the only one by his side for three painful years — Eden's best friend, another Marine who has already passed, waits for Eden to join him in death. While he waits, he remembers life, the secrets held between Eden, his wife, and himself.

This haunting exploration of war and the casualties that exist far beyond death, meditates on loyalty, friendship, betrayal and love. It gives a glimpse into the mind of a soldier, haunted by grief and the past, as he waits for Eden in a world beyond life.

Called "The Tim O'Brien of our era," by Vogue, Elliot Ackerman pulls from his experience as a Marine veteran who served five tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan, where he received the Silver Star, the Bronze Star for Valor, and the Purple Heart.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

Cynthia Bryant

My name is Cynthia Bryant, and I am a graduate of The Seeing Eye. The photo shows me with my third Seeing Eye® dog, a yellow Labrador/golden retriever named Summer, on the campus of The Seeing Eye.

While I learned early on about Harriet Tubman, a pioneer for the underground railroad, abolitionist, and humanitarian, I did not know she was also visually impaired until well into my adult years. Facing my own vision loss, I could identify with her resilience to persevere despite a visual impairment and persistent seizures. In some ways, her dedication to freedom and dignity for African Americans is not unlike The Seeing Eye's mission of independence and dignity for blind and visually impaired people through partnership with a Seeing Eye dog. Both have paved the way for opportunity, and I am most definitely a beneficiary.

Historical figures matter because they influence the future, including mine. Today, as the first graduate and first African-American to be the Chair of The Seeing Eye Board of Trustees, I pay tribute to Harriet Tubman for her tenacity and visionary pursuits.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Whether you will be driving through the winter storms of the Rocky Mountains or the milder yet rainy weather in the Southeast, the right wiper blade can improve visibility and safety.

"Inexpensive all-rubber blades can get really stiff in cold weather, and you start to get chattering since they can't make good contact with the contour of your windshield," says Jeffrey Ross of Continental Automotive Systems. "When that happens, they will not be able to effectively clear rain or snow."

Ross explains that frequency of use and type of climate affect blade longevity and added that worn blades can create multiple problems. "The problems are visibility and overall driver awareness. I change mine out at least once a year since I live in an area with four distinct seasons and want to ensure I have the best visibility at all times."

Years ago, rubber blades were installed on most of the vehicles because they were inexpensive, but they became brittle in cold weather and mushy in heat. They wore out quickly compared to the new technology used in making blades today.

"There's an entire aisle of choices," says Lori Bachman, who works with Ross at Continental Automotive Systems. "It can be a bit confusing. The choice comes down to where drivers live and where they travel." For the people who live in areas of heavy rain, Bachman suggests blades with beam technology, a design that employs a "memory curve" that helps the blade retain and hold its shape to the windshield, thus applying consistent pressure.

For drivers who live in climates with a lot of snow, or who may drive to areas to ski often during the winter, Bachman suggests "winter blades" that retain flexibility during a snowstorm or while a car is parked outdoors in freezing temperatures. Bachman says that all-weather blades will work well for most drivers who don't plan to live or drive in extreme weather changes throughout the winter.

Winter Wiper Blades: How To See The Trees From the Forest

No matter which area you live in, Bachman stresses that it is important to buy quality wiper blades that will improve the driver's visibility. Ross agrees, adding, "Consumers are price conscious. Investing in a quality blade means you will get better performance and won't have to replace the blades as frequently."

Safety experts recommend replacing your wiper blades every six to 12 months, depending on how much your car is exposed to a variety of weather elements. How to select the right blades for your car:

- Blades need to be replaced if they are rubbing, streaking, smearing or you hear chattering sounds when the blades are moving across your windshield.
- Should you hear scratching noises as your blades move across the windshield, they need to be changed immediately to prevent windshield damage.
- Blades with a direct-fit connection are recommended. Other blade assemblies have multiple adapters and could be difficult to install, especially during a rainstorm.
- Blades that use synthetic formulations perform better and last longer than traditional rubber blades.
- Winter blades should be considered if you live in areas with a lot of snow and frost. Winter Blades are sealed or covered to protect the wiper assembly from snow and ice accumulation.
- Blades with beam technology are designed to fit the curve of your windshield. They provide steady pressure across the entire blade. This helps them stay in contact with the windshield during heavy winds and freeway speeds.
- Replace the rear wiper blade on SUVs or mini-vans. These wipers are smaller but still maintain the same guidelines as those for front windshields.
- Are your blades frayed, cracked or stiff? Time for a new set before the old ones damage your vehicle's windshield.
