FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY

MAGAZINE

As the days grow longer and the temperatures rise, Atlantic County, New Jersey, is bursting with ways to enjoy the great outdoors. Whether you're looking to climb high above the city, stroll through lush forests, or relax on the sand, there's something fun, affordable, and family-friendly to do this weekend, May 31-June 1, 2025.

Step Inside Lucy the Elephant – Margate

Start your weekend with a visit to one of New Jersey's quirkiest and most iconic landmarks: Lucy the Elephant. This six-story roadside marvel in Margate offers guided interior tours with sweeping views from atop her howdah. Located in a cozy fenced park with picnic tables, Lucy makes for a perfect family stop. Admission is $9 for adults, $8.50 for teens (13-18), $5 for children (3-12), and free for kids under 3 and active-duty military. Tours run daily. See Lucy's ad on page 37. lucytheelephant.org

Climb the Absecon Lighthouse – Atlantic City

Ready to climb 228 steps? New Jersey's tallest lighthouse, located in Atlantic City, is open Thursday through Monday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. (last climb at 3:30). The view from 171 feet up is worth every step. Climbing fees are $10 for adults, $9 for seniors and students (with ID), $6 for kids ages 4-12, and free for children under 4 and active-duty military. Atlantic City residents get a discounted rate of $5. Access to the Keeper's House museum and exhibits is free. abseconlighthouse.org

Explore Estell Manor Park – Mays Landing

For fresh air and forest trails, head to Estell Manor Park. Nestled along the Great Egg Harbor River, the park features 27 miles of walking and biking paths, including a 1.8-mile accessible boardwalk through the wetlands. The Warren E. Fox Nature Center offers interactive environmental displays, and there are ample picnic areas, playgrounds, and river access for canoeing and kayaking. It's free to enter and enjoy!

ATLANTIC COUNTY OUTDOORS: FAMILY ADVENTURES AWAIT THIS WEEKEND

Lake Lenape Park West – Mays Landing

Also in Mays Landing, Lake Lenape Park West is ideal for a peaceful day outdoors. Amenities include hiking and biking trails, playgrounds, picnic spots with grills, and a lake perfect for boating and fishing (with permits). Wildlife sightings are a bonus for curious kids.

Birch Grove Park – Northfield

Tucked away in Northfield, Birch Grove Park is a 271-acre gem offering a blend of nature and history. Families can explore scenic walking trails, cross a charming covered bridge, and visit the Northfield Museum and Casto House to learn about local heritage. The park features playgrounds, picnic areas, and fishing lakes stocked in spring and fall. While camping is no longer permitted, day visits are welcome. Entry fees are $1 per person and $7 per grill, with free admission for Northfield residents.

Edwin B. Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge – Galloway Township

Nature lovers and birdwatchers will find a haven at the Edwin B. Forsythe National Wildlife Refuge in Galloway Township. Spanning over 48,000 acres of coastal habitats, the refuge is a critical stopover for migratory birds along the Atlantic Flyway. Visitors can enjoy several scenic trails through salt marshes and woodlands, as well as the 8-mile Wildlife Drive, ideal for observing a variety of bird species and other wildlife. The refuge is open daily from sunrise to sunset. Entrance fees are $4 per vehicle or $2 for pedestrians and bicyclists. The Visitor Information Center in Oceanville is open Wednesday to Sunday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Beach Day in Atlantic City

Don't forget the beaches! Atlantic City's beaches are open, clean, and free. Pack a towel, grab a snack from the boardwalk, and enjoy a laid-back day by the ocean.

From iconic landmarks to forest trails and sandy shores, Atlantic County offers plenty of ways to get outside and make memories this weekend.

HOROSCOPE

MAY 29 - JUNE 4, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

The spotlight's on your voice—how you use it, who listens, and what you actually mean. Midweek brings a powerful chance to clear the air or pitch something bold. Speak from purpose, not ego.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You're reevaluating what's worth your time, money, and emotional investment. A subtle but important boundary shift midweek may leave you lighter. Don't mistake comfort for alignment—you're ready to grow.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You're magnetic right now, and people are paying attention. This week offers a moment to realign your identity with how you truly want to be seen. Don't shy away from making it personal.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

This is your moment to slow way down, even if life around you speeds up. Something behind the scenes is shifting, and clarity will come when you stop trying to manage every detail. Trust the quiet.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

A group, community, or friend may show up differently this week—pay attention to what feels reciprocal. Midweek brings a chance to collaborate, but don't overcommit to people-pleasing. Your time is valuable.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You're being asked to show up more visibly—maybe in your work, maybe in a conversation you've been avoiding. Midweek offers clarity about the path forward if you're willing to own your authority. Be bold without being rigid.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You're being pulled toward expansion, but something small may be holding you back. This is a week to challenge limiting beliefs and take one tangible step outside your comfort zone. Growth doesn't have to be dramatic—it just has to start.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This week pulls you inward, asking you to confront something you've kept buried. Midweek brings a turning point in trust—either rebuilding it or letting it go. Emotional truth is your compass now.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Relationships take center stage, and it's less about who's right and more about what's real. Midweek brings a moment to reestablish equality or walk away from imbalance. Connection doesn't mean compromise of self.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

Your systems need adjusting—not overhauling, just refining. Don't ignore the signals your body and schedule are sending. A small change midweek could make your day-to-day flow a lot smoother.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Creative sparks and flirty vibes are in the air, but you'll need to be intentional to keep it from fizzling. Something—or someone—unexpected might grab your attention. Let joy lead, but don't lose your head.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Home life, family dynamics, or emotional grounding take priority this week. Something needs nurturing—maybe it's your space, maybe it's your heart. A reset midweek helps you feel more rooted.

HEALTHFUL LIVING

A Weekly Guide to Health Awareness

YOGA POSE OF THE WEEK - Easy Pose (Sukhasana)

Sitting cross-legged doesn't have to be a difficult yoga pose. As with Cobbler's pose, the judicious use of props can transform an uncomfortable position into one of ease so you can reverse the effects of too much chair-sitting.

VITAMIN HIGHLIGHT - Potassium

You may think of bananas, but green leafy veggies are a better source of this mineral. It helps keep your blood pressure in a normal range, and it helps your kidneys work. Levels that are too low or too high could make your heart and nervous system shut down. You should also watch your salt, because your body needs the right balance of sodium and potassium. Snack on raw cantaloupe, carrots, and tomatoes, too.

MENTAL HEALTH CHECK-IN

How do I usually respond to stress and pressure, and what does this reveal about my coping mechanisms?

What is Shavuot?

Shavuot, originally a harvest festival, falls seven weeks after Passover and celebrates the Jewish people receiving the Torah at Mount Sinai.

Traditions include decorating with flowers, staying up all night studying Jewish texts, and standing during the reading of the Ten Commandments, as if present at Sinai. A beloved custom is eating dairy, like ice cream or blintzes, which symbolizes how milk nourishes the body, just as Jewish learning nourishes the soul.

Name of venue: Setaara

Where are you located? 2322 Arctic Avenue in Atlantic City.

Hours of operation: We are open Wednesday and Thursday from 4-9pm, and Friday through Sunday from 4-10pm.

Can you offer any parking tips? There is free parking available at St. Michael's Church at 21 N. Georgia Avenue, half a block away.

Tell us about the overall style of your cuisine and if possible, your inspiration for the menu: Located in the heart of Atlantic City, Setaara brings together the best of Afghan and French Cuisine. The theme of the restaurant revolves around the golden age of Afghanistan from the 1920s-1970s. In designing the restaurant and its dishes, Abdullah and Homa used their experience traveling throughout the Middle East and Europe to provide the most authentic restaurant possible. The beauty of Afghan food is that it stands as a testament to the various empires that have crossed the country from the Greeks to the Mongols to the Mughals and Persians.

What is the current reason one MUST visit your venue? The interior ambiance is exceptionally distinctive. Upon entering through our hand-crafted wooden door, guests are immediately transported from Atlantic City to the ancient Silk Road. The lighting, which is a form of art unto itself, and artwork depicting Afghanistan in the 1960s, introduces visitors to a version of Afghanistan that predates the wars and is largely unfamiliar to many. All the artwork within the restaurant has been crafted by local Atlantic City artists, including Christian Correa, Leah Morgan, and Edwin Riviera. Inside, patrons have the option to sit in their own private alcove with traditional floor seating, a booth, or at a table.

We also offer a semi-outdoor space, with a courtyard design reminiscent of a historic Silk Road town, with a glass domed garden, that is climate controlled with year-round foliage, marble floors, and plush velvet furniture with a replica of the Eiffel Tower in the center.

Greater Atlantic City Concierge Association's Spotlight: Setaara

Submitted by: Judy Brenna, GACCA Communications Director
Catering & Events Director, Blue Dog Hospitality Group

Tell us about your founders, Abdullah Panah and Homa Bazyar. Having grown up in Atlantic City, Abdullah had always loved this city. He is a Stockton University graduate and completed medical school in 2021 at Rowan SOM currently in his residency training at Jefferson Health NJ. He has travelled extensively throughout the world and always misses this beautiful city within days of being in a new destination. Throughout these years, the one disappointment he has had is the lack of diverse cuisine in a city with so many amazing restaurants. Having travelled to dozens of countries, he realized the potential that Atlantic City has if it offers new experiences beyond casinos. The first such thing the city could use is diverse cuisine and he sought out to create not only an Afghan restaurant, but to create a whole new unique dining experience.

Since 2014, he began encouraging his aunt, Homa, to sell her restaurant in Colorado and to come create a brand-new dining experience in the Atlantic City area. Homa, having immigrated to the United States from Afghanistan in the 1970s, had always loved creating new dishes and incorporating different cuisines into a single dish. Shortly after immigrating to America, she began training under a French chef in the Denver area. By 2017, she had visited Atlantic County countless times and ultimately sold her restaurant in Colorado, venturing into opening this new concept in Atlantic City.

Why is your venue necessary for Atlantic City? Having introduced a brand-new dining experience to Atlantic City back in 2019, we look forward to continuing the spread diversity in this County, through the celebration of our cuisine.

Are you offering any specials or additional services you wish to talk about? To provide the most seamless dining experience, we have a tasting menu featuring our most popular dishes. This tasting menu is $69.88 per person and offers 4 courses that will tantalize your sense. This menu changes with every season to bring the best of Setaara. Ask our servers for any specials and their recommendations.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

This Sunday, June 1, the beloved Le Tour de Downbeach returns for its 16th year, inviting cyclists of all ages to experience the scenic beauty of Absecon Island on a 12-mile oceanside ride. Organized by the Margate and Ventnor Business Associations, this family-friendly event has become a cherished tradition for locals and visitors alike.

A Ride with a View - The tour kicks off at 9:30 a.m. behind the Ventnor Library on Newport Avenue, where participants can warm up with a stretch led by Jackie Fox of Fox Fitness 4 You. Riders will then embark on a journey through the picturesque seaside communities of Ventnor, Atlantic City, Margate, and Longport. The route includes a scenic stretch along the historic Atlantic City Boardwalk, with a turnaround point in front of Showboat, before looping back through the Downbeach towns.

Community Spirit and Celebration - Le Tour de Downbeach is more than just a bike ride; it's a celebration of community and camaraderie. The event honors the memory of Ann Marie Wiesen, one of its original organizers, with proceeds benefiting St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Pedaling Through Paradise: Le Tour de Downbeach Returns This Weekend

After the ride, participants are invited to a festive barbecue at Tomatoe's restaurant on Amherst Avenue in Margate. The first 200 registrants will receive a commemorative Le Tour de Downbeach T-shirt. Attendees can enjoy free water ice from Margate Dairy Bar and Burger, and live music provided by USADJ will keep the energy high as riders celebrate their accomplishment.

Registration Details - Pre-registration is available online at margatehasmore.com for $25 per rider or $20 each for groups of four or more. Day-of registration is $30 per rider or $25 each for groups of four or more. Sponsorship opportunities are also available, including placement on riders' T-shirts.

Join the Tradition - Whether you're a seasoned cyclist or just looking for a fun way to spend a Sunday morning, Le Tour de Downbeach offers a unique opportunity to enjoy the coastal charm of Atlantic County. Grab your bike, gather your friends and family, and be part of this enduring Downbeach tradition. For more information and to register, visit margatehasmore.com.

National Homeownership Month is in June. It celebrates the value that owning a home brings to families, communities, and neighborhoods across America. By becoming a homeowner, people get a step closer to the American dream. This month also shares the joys of being a homeowner, which can encourage others to achieve the same thing.

History of National Homeownership Month

Most Americans had no way of really owning a home in the 1800s. Mortgages became common only after the U.S. banking system came into being after the 1860s National Bank Acts.

During the time of the Great Depression, the banks did not have any money to lend and the average borrower didn't have any cash. As a result, people couldn't afford to buy homes, while existing homeowners often failed to pay their debt. To stabilize the housing market, the U.S. government created the Home Owners' Loan Corporation in 1933, the Federal Housing Administration in 1934, and the Federal National Mortgage Association (now known as Fannie Mae) in 1938. All these institutions took homeownership to new heights and helped prevent a crash in the housing market.

What changed the face of the housing industry, along with that of the American economy, was the G.I. Bill of 1944. This bill provided subsidized mortgages for the veterans of World War II. Another milestone in the history of American housing came when Congress passed the Fair Housing Act of 1968. The Act was signed by President Lyndon B. Johnson and banned discrimination in housing based on religion, race, gender, and national origin. It came into being only a few days after the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr.

In its 87 years of existence, the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) has saved America an almost $4 trillion loss of household wealth. It has helped more than 44 million citizens to become homeowners.

National Homeownership Week began in 1995, which was a strategy of the administration under President Bill Clinton to increase homeownership across America. Later, in 2002, President George W. Bush expanded the period of observance from a week to the entire month of June. National Homeownership Month reinforces the belief that owning a home is one of the steps towards achieving the American dream.

How to Celebrate National Homeownership Month

- Showcase local projects to officials - Invite local officials, be it virtually or in person, to your area. Show them or let them know about the latest housing developments that are using eco-friendly building techniques and other new technologies.
- Educate local home buyers - Organize a housing forum (virtually or in-person) to bring together the public and housing experts to talk about the state of housing in your locality. It can be an economist from a nearby college, a mortgage banker, or a realtor.
- Get your community involved - Organize or participate in a community service project. Help build a shelter, host a donation venture, repair a playground, and carry out other similar acts that benefit your community.

5 Facts About Homeownership That You Didn't Know

1. The burden of cost persists - One-third of America's 119 million households are cost-burdened, which puts more than 30% of their incomes towards housing charges and costs.
2. Pay for housing - The average American family spends $1,573.83 on housing expenses every month as stated by the 2016 Consumer Expenditure Survey.
3. Equal then, more now - If the rate of black homeownership today was the same as it was in 2000, there would be 770,000 more black homeowners in America.
4. More dropouts than graduates? - Homeownership in the U.S. is less for a black college graduate than for a white high school dropout.
5. An average-sized move - In 2019, the average distance between the owned home and the newly purchased home of an American was 15 miles.

Why National Homeownership Month is Important

- It's for a better future - Homeownership expands your options for the future. You can plan to sell and make a profit or leverage your home equity and pay for other big expenses.
- It's for the benefit of a community - Homeownership is closely tied to the economy. When home sales rise, jobs go up too. And together, these forces contribute to a stable economy on the local-, state-, and national level.
- It's for a sense of belonging - Homeownership gets a person more invested in their community. Getting involved in activities and volunteering for charity and other events adds to a sense of belonging that is much greater than for a person who is just renting.

As we celebrate National Homeownership Month, there's no better time to take a fresh look at everything Atlantic County, New Jersey has to offer. From coastal communities with easy beach access to peaceful inland neighborhoods surrounded by nature, the county provides a range of living options that appeal to first-time buyers, longtime homeowners, and seasoned investors alike.

The real estate market here is strong and growing. As of April 2025, the median home price rose 22.7% compared to last year, signaling continued demand and confidence. With over 2,000 homes currently available, buyers can find everything from cozy starter homes to more spacious properties across the county's diverse towns. At the same time, current homeowners enjoy rising equity and a vibrant community that continues to invest in local amenities and quality of life.

Whether you're just starting out, upgrading, or settled and planning for the future, Atlantic County offers a lifestyle that fits your needs. From close-knit neighborhoods to access to parks, beaches, and cultural events, residents benefit from a rich mix of opportunities that make this area truly special.

Working with a knowledgeable local expert like Jacquelyn Tocci can make all the difference—whether you're navigating your first purchase, planning to sell, or exploring investment options. (See her ad on page 22.) With its healthy market, diverse communities, and strong sense of home, Atlantic County is an exceptional place to live, grow, and thrive.

Alosha & Jon

“Horses are in my blood. My people are Cossacks,” said Alosha Moore, a Seeing Eye graduate who also is a horse trainer and rider... when he isn’t working at his day job as an attorney for the U.S. Air Force Material Command, building and reviewing contracts for the procurement and distribution of military materiel.

Adopted by a family living in Kansas, Alosha started riding horses at age 9, and soon was competing in rodeos, then became a horse trainer. “I’m lucky that no one said, ‘You’re blind, you can’t do this,’” Alosha said. “Instead they said, ‘Let’s figure out how you can.’”

Now he owns and operates Equine Reining Academy LLC, a horse ranch and riding school in Hiawatha, Kansas. “We do all the fun stuff you see cowboys doing,” he said.

Alosha first came to The Seeing Eye in 2013 to be matched with a yellow Labrador retriever named Frosty. He returned in 2022 and was matched with Jon, a black Labrador/golden retriever cross. The photo shows Alosha riding a horse while Jon watches attentively.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight "MEET THE PACK!"

THE DOGIST VISITS THE SEEING EYE CAMPUS

We were excited to welcome The Dogist back to our campus this week! Photographer and author Elias Weiss Friedman signed a copy of his upcoming book, "This Dog Will Change Your Life," which mentions the important work of Seeing Eye dogs.

Be sure to keep an eye on The Dogist later this week to watch for more about the Seeing Eye teams, staff, and, of course, the dogs he met during his visit.

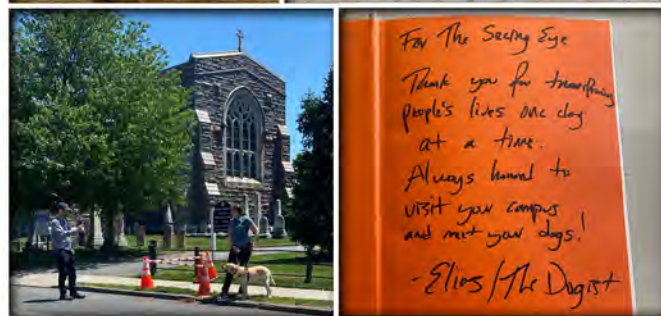

P.S. "This Dog Will Change Your Life" is available for pre-order in physical, e-book, and audiobook formats at penguinrandomhouse.com.

Photo Descriptions: 1 - Elias Weiss Friedman (The Dogist) stands with Seeing Eye President & CEO Karen Leies as she holds his book "This Dog Will Change Your Life" in one hand and a leashed German shepherd puppy wearing a Seeing Eye puppy raising program bandana in the other in the lobby of the main building.

2 - Elias and Seeing Eye instructors Bryan Harr and Kristen Oplinger pose beside the Morristown Green statue of Seeing Eye co-founder Morris Frank and Buddy. Bryan has a golden retriever Seeing Eye dog by his side, and Kristen has a yellow Lab Seeing Eye dog with her.

3 - Elias films Kristen training a yellow Lab Seeing Eye dog on sidewalk barricades in downtown Morristown.

4 - The signed interior of "This Dog Will Change Your Life" with a message that reads, "For The Seeing Eye - Thank you for transforming people's lives one dog at a time. Always honored to visit your campus and meet your dogs! -Elias/The Dogist"

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care.

These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny.

If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

Taste the Season: Fresh Produce & Easy Recipes in Atlantic County This Weekend

As May gives way to summer, Atlantic County is bursting with fresh, local produce. From crunchy radishes to sweet strawberries, this is the perfect time to enjoy the flavors of the season. Whether you're gathering ingredients from a roadside stand or your favorite farmers market, now's the time to embrace local bounty with simple, delicious recipes your whole family will love.

What's in Season in Atlantic County

According to the New Jersey Crop Harvest Calendar, late May offers a vibrant variety of fresh produce:

~ Asparagus – A spring favorite, asparagus is tender and packed with flavor—perfect for grilling or tossing in salads.

~ Spinach & Lettuce – Leafy greens are at their peak right now and make a refreshing base for seasonal salads or wraps.

~ Radishes – Crisp and peppery, radishes add a satisfying crunch to tacos, salads, or slaws.

~ Strawberries – Sweet and juicy, strawberries mark the start of berry season and are irresistible in both sweet and savory dishes.

Local farms and markets are now overflowing with these ingredients—perfect inspiration for this week's menu.

Strawberry Spinach Salad

Ingredients:

- 4 cups fresh spinach leaves
- 1 cup sliced fresh strawberries
- ¼ cup sliced almonds
- ¼ cup crumbled feta cheese
- 2 tablespoons balsamic vinaigrette

Instructions: In a large bowl, combine spinach and strawberries. Sprinkle with almonds and feta cheese. Drizzle with balsamic vinaigrette and toss gently. Serve immediately and enjoy the fresh flavors of spring.

Grilled Asparagus with Lemon Zest

Ingredients:

- 1 bunch fresh asparagus, trimmed
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1 teaspoon lemon zest
- 1 tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese (optional)

Instructions: Preheat grill to medium-high heat. In a bowl, toss asparagus with olive oil, salt, and pepper. Grill asparagus for 5-7 minutes, turning occasionally, until tender and slightly charred. Remove from grill and sprinkle with lemon zest and Parmesan cheese, if desired. Serve warm as a side dish or appetizer.

Lettuce & Radish Tacos

Ingredients:

- 1 head butter or romaine lettuce (leaves used as shells)
- ½ cup thinly sliced radishes
- ½ avocado, diced
- 1 cup cooked shredded chicken or black beans
- 2 tbsp sour cream or Greek yogurt
- Juice of ½ lime
- Salt, pepper, and chopped cilantro to taste

Instructions: Layer chicken or beans in each lettuce leaf. Add radishes and avocado. Mix sour cream with lime juice and drizzle over tacos. Top with cilantro and a pinch of salt and pepper. Eat cold for a crunchy, refreshing treat.

With so much local flavor available, now is the perfect time to take advantage of what's in season. These recipes highlight the best of Atlantic County's produce—and make your weekend meals a little fresher, a little simpler, and a whole lot more delicious.

Mothers of Fate by Lynne Hugo

After constructing a new life for herself after an affair with her married boss, Deana Wilkes is ready to make things right and meet the son she was forced to relinquish in a closed adoption 30 years ago. She seeks out Monica Connell, an attorney, to find him; but Monica's wife, Angela, was adopted herself and is certain that closed adoptions need to remain closed unless the adoptee seeks contact. She draws a red line, but Monica feels compelled by her own complicated history to help Deana.

As this wedge between them hardens, will Angie or Monica have the best custody claim to their own beloved adopted baby? Through it all, nobody knows what Deana's son wants — not even his adoptive parents. Mothers of Fate vividly portrays lingering psychological wounds as characters struggle to reconcile self-determination with the sacrifices love demands. Surviving the Survivor by Joel Z. Waldman

It started when Karmela Waldman, psychotherapist and Holocaust survivor, and her son Joel Waldman, a broadcast journalist, decided to start a podcast. It's a bumpy start as the lovingly dysfunctional mother-son duo struggle to figure out the art of podcasting on the fly, but soon, their Surviving the Survivor podcast breaks out as a wildly popular true-crime hit. Along the way, the two discover things about each other that they never knew — like how Karmela survived World War II by hiding in a boys' Catholic school.

Mastering podcasting is one thing; figuring out the meaning of life is a challenge of an entirely different order. In real time and "on air," mother and son engage frankly and movingly with each other for the first time as adults, discussing child-rearing, aging, illness, death and the secrets to enjoying life no matter how complicated it gets. Little Great Island by Kate Woodworth

On Little Great Island, climate change is disrupting both life and love.

After offending the powerful pastor of a cult, Mari McGavin has to flee with her 6-year-old son. With no money and no place else to go, she returns to the tiny Maine island where she grew up — a place she swore she'd never see again. There, Mari runs into her lifelong friend Harry Richardson, one of the island's summer residents, now back himself to sell his family's summer home. Mari and Harry's lives intertwine once again, setting off a chain of events as unexpected and life-altering as the shifts in climate affecting the whole ecosystem of the island ... from generations of fishing families to the lobsters and the butterflies.

Little Great Island illustrates in microcosm the greatest changes of our time and the unyielding power of love. Purchase at <https://amzn.to/3XykTGc>.

Roll the Sun Across the Sky by Barbara Linn Probst

Approaching a milestone birthday, Arden Rice has seen it all: three marriages, hardship and wealth, choices she both regrets and defends, all fueled by the same fierce desire — to give her daughter the best possible life. At least, that's what Arden tells herself. But nothing is simple.

Arden is haunted by her impetuous history, with its trail of damage and deception. Yet she's finally made a life where she can be her best self — until the unthinkable happens, and a train engineer's lapse in attention throws that life into chaos.

Secrets begin to unravel, and Arden finds herself questioning everything she thought she knew — along with her own role in shaping the disturbing person her daughter has become. As the stakes increase, Arden must face questions she's spent a lifetime avoiding: Which acts define a person? Can someone be better than her worst acts? Purchase at <https://amzn.to/3E4KeRp>.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein will share his life journey during Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate. Bornstein was liberated from a concentration camp and subsequently made his way to the United States six years later.

Join Holocaust Survivor Michael Bornstein as we honor local survivors, incorporate community connections through Jewish peoplehood, and explore generational wisdom for Holocaust Survivor Day on Wednesday, June 4 at 5pm in the Katz JCC Auditorium, 501 North Jerome Avenue in Margate.

As co-author of the New York Times best-selling book, Survivors Club: The True Story of a Very Young Prisoner of Auschwitz, Bornstein was four-years-old when he was liberated from a concentration camp and made his way to the United States six years later.

For 70 years, Bornstein opted not to speak of his Holocaust experience, despite his image being one of the most recognizable where he is seen showing his tattoo in the iconic WWII footage. However, his second-generation Holocaust Survivor children, Debbie Bornstein Holinstat and Scott Bornstein, encouraged their father to share his powerful story of survival and resilience.

Holocaust Survivor and Author Michael Bornstein to Bring His Powerful Story to Survivor Day Event on June 4th

Iso speaking at the event is Holinstat, a veteran television news producer and co-author of her father's book, and Scott Bornstein, Executive Vice President of Greenberg Traurig, who dedicates his expertise combatting antisemitism on behalf of Israeli and American victims of the October 7th terrorist attacks.

The program is co-sponsored by Seed the Dream Foundation, Jewish Federation of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties, KAVOD, Marjorie & Lewis Katz JCC, and Stockton University Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center.

This presentation is free to attend, open to the entire community, and designed for audiences ages 10 – 110. The first 50 households that RSVP and attend the program will receive a complimentary, signed copy of the book. You must RSVP at info@jewishbytheshore.org.
