Release the week of March 1 - 7, 2024

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 29 - MARCH 6, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
Working things out is the flavour of the week with Saturn's close proximity to the Sun and Mercury. Putting your ideas through a reality check is an important step as only the strong and sensible will survive the critical function of Saturn. Nothing, however, should dampen your spirits as your optimistic nature adores overcoming obstacles.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
As Jupiter continues to shine in Taurus you're protected from too much fall-out care of the Sun, Mercury, Saturn conjunction which seeks to instill a cosmic correction policy on anything that isn't working. Any flaws in the system will be glaringly obvious yet you'll instinctively know whether to pull the plug or persevere. It's all about where you want to devote your precious time.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
You've reached a marker point or a cross-roads as the Sun, Mercury and Saturn join forces and you feel laid on the line over whether a commitment is worth it or not. This week represents a big clearing – psychologically, physically and emotionally so give what's coming up your full attention rather than distracting yourself elsewhere. Are you all in or out?

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
After a period of volatility and delving deep, you're ready to make some big decisions that will shape your plans for a considerable time to come. Formulating your bigger picture thinking with strong intentions is important at this point. As is eliminating what can't come with you. You'll feel more positive once you make a commitment.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
Are you ready to sign on the dotted line? The union of the Sun, Mercury and Saturn suggests it's decision time over whether something is going to be part of your future or not. Finances are in the frame so keep your calculations careful without losing your flair for making something wonderful happen.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
You are being put to the test as the Sun, Mercury and Saturn line up in your zone of relationship and reality rather than romance are centre stage. Perhaps you've reached a crunch point when it comes to a commitment and need to ascertain the bottom line and the terms of conditions of other people's expectations.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
A purposeful energy is sweeping through your sixth house zone of work, health and efficiency. So much so, you're ready to tackle all those things you've been putting off and make decisions that didn't seem possible only a few weeks ago. Perhaps it's a case of needs must – but quite literally the time has come.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
It really is essential to declutter your life from anything that's blocking your energy and the way forward. The Sun, Mercury and Saturn are encouraging resolution and practical decisions that will take you from feeling overwhelmed to having it all straight in your mind. It will be a relief.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
You're most probably not a big fan of Saturn's rather dour, sort-it-out policy. However there comes a time when the back-log must be cleared, decisions reached and you narrow down your options to those which are essentially viable and practical. Being grounded enables you to re-order your life, build things better and maintain a strategy – what's not to like?

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)
There's no sign better equipped to tackle those nitty gritty issues than Capricorn – so with Saturn's prime influence this week you'll be in organisational mode and more than willing to do the work. What's more you are so clear-eyed nothing will escape your editing policy. You've been wanting to do this for ages.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
Venus and Mars are high voltage in Aquarius but you're running into another cosmic combination which is the equivalent of 'computer says no'. Perhaps you need to fix a financial issue or scale something back but this is just to ensure everything is standing on solid ground which can't be a bad thing. Life flourishes after a prune!

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Pisceans are reaching a hugely important point with the Sun, Saturn and Mercury all joined in your sign. It's a threshold you must cross which involves making certain decisions that will demarcate your past from your future. The more you define things the better you will feel.

Atlantic City Library Celebrates Black History Month

Those who visit the Main Library – located at 1 North Tennessee Ave. – this month will see some new additions in celebration of Black History Month. The banner highlights three prominent African Americans in Atlantic City history: Sara Spencer Washington, William K. Cheatham and Dr. Amaza Lockett. Inside the library, there are 20 posters on display with photos and text of local African-American individuals or organizations that have impacted Atlantic City. Some of featured posters include: Club Harlem, JoAnna LaSane, John Henry "Pop" Lloyd and Mayor James L. Usry. For those who want to look for all 20 posters, stop by the Help Desk for a checklist. The library also has posters at its Richmond Branch (4115 Ventnor Ave.) and at City Hall. The poster photos and text are from the library's Atlantic City Heritage Collections. In addition to viewing the posters at one of the library locations or City Hall, they will be available on the Heritage Collections' Facebook and Instagram pages. The library staff has also created special displays with books and movies related to Black History Month – and there many more resources available to the public online. The library will hold another of its Black Stories Matter: Virtual Book Club programs in February. The club will meet via Zoom on Feb. 27 at 4 p.m. Please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3075, to register for the program and receive a free copy of that month's featured book, while supplies last.

The spring selling season is fast approaching.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Plowman by Charles Bruckerhoff

At twelve, Stella Young and Hana Sanada, enrolled in the Stanton Academy for Humanity, discover the wartime journals of their great-grandfathers, who served in WWII, and a wartime journal of Stella's grandfather, who served in Vietnam. Now, many years after the wars, the girls begin turning the journals into a book-length manuscript.

Their thoughts about the book's themes change abruptly. Stella's father was an infantry captain, serving in Afghanistan. One evening, army officers arrived at her home to inform Olivia, her mother, and Stella that their beloved husband and father had been killed.

The girls research the deeply troubling "wrong wars" that the American government has entered. Now adults, Stella and Hana size up what had gone so wrong with American government, its military, and society and embark on a mission to restore law and order, honor, morality, and integrity to the country. Wolf's Head Bay - Journey of the Courageous Eleven by Jeffery Allen Boyd

The global criminal Network ...
The growing government scandal ...
The ensuing White House cover-up ...

A chance encounter on a camping trip to the Northern Michigan wilderness by a group of teenagers becomes a deadly and suspenseful race for survival when they are plunged into the terrifying world of human trafficking and discover the courageous hero that lies within each one of them.

In a bold rescue attempt, the fearful group of teens is held captive at an underground missile silo by the Colonel, a dangerous man intent on controlling the world's human trafficking Network. About to be taken out of the country and sold as slaves into the global Network, only the boy who lured one of them can help—and he has his own price! Four Reads to Ward off the Cold

Talk to My Brain! by Dr. Parul Cedilnik

In this fascinating work, a clinical psychologist, through stories, is bringing Cognitive Behavior Therapy to children. The core concept in this book is to accept the feelings, breath deep, and change the thoughts — to feel better and deal with the problems effectively. The book has six stories, lots of illustrations, a small discussion guide and can be used by psychologists, counselors, social workers and parents.

Dr. Parul Cedilnik, Ph.D. is a clinical and child psychologist who has studied and trained chiefly in India. She has worked in India, the United States and Germany with both children and adults. This book is based on her experience of the last 25 years, while working with people from more than 35 countries. Purchase at <https://bit.ly/4bNjmg8>.

All I Ever Wanted To Be Was an Ad Man by Anthony Eglin

From a childhood dodging bombs in wartime London and drawing pictures under the family's dining table during air raids, Anthony had a dream – to become an ad man. Thus started a remarkable, 50-year, transatlantic odyssey.

While the labyrinthine arc of his extraordinary memoir is about resolve, tenacity and ambition, his ascendance in the exacting world of advertising is packed with unforgettable characters, case histories and hilarious anecdotes, along with a recurring thread of irrepressible optimism, deft insights and dry wit.

And somehow, he also found the time to become a famous rock-band manager, filmmaker, bike racer, antiques collector/dealer, New Orleans Jazz clarinetist, accomplished gardener, bakery owner, and an award-winning author of six mystery books. Anthony's heart-warming memoir is a captivating portrait of a life well lived. Purchase at <https://bit.ly/42OpYMO>.

Three Things to Know About Real Service Animals

Since service animals are not required to wear a vest or have other ID, here's three ways to recognize a legitimate service animal.

1. Real Service Animals Perform Specific Tasks.

Service animals are working dogs, not pets. They may range in size and breed but ALL are specially trained to do work or perform tasks that are directly related to a person's disability. When it's not obvious what service the dog provides, staff may ask two questions: (1) is the dog a service animal required because of a disability, and (2) what work or task has the dog been trained to perform.

2. Real Service Animals Are Trained to be Calm.

From an early age, service animals are carefully exposed to a variety of environments and situations. They are socialized with people, other animals, and taught basic obedience. By the time they become service animals, they are confident, well-adjusted, and able to reliably perform their essential services, no matter what. Without such training, dogs may become overly stressed, leading to inappropriate behaviors that are not suitable for public places.

3. Real Service Animals Are Well Behaved in Public.

When service animals are working, they are not permitted to repeatedly bark, growl, jump, lunge, or freely wander around. They don't bite or harm people or other animals, and they don't urinate and defecate on the floors. If a particular service animal is out of control and the handler doesn't take effective action to control it, staff may request that the animal be removed from the premises.

For more information about service animals and the ADA, please visit ADA.gov or call the ADA Information Line at 800-514-0301.

SUNSHINE

Meet Sunshine! She's a 11 week old lab mix. Sunshine came to us from an over crowded partnering shelter. She is very cute and cuddly but still has a lot of puppy energy. Sunshine would do well in any home that's puppy ready.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight
"MEET THE PACK!"

Cynthia Bryant

My name is Cynthia Bryant, and I am a graduate of The Seeing Eye. The photo shows me with my third Seeing Eye® dog, a yellow Labrador/golden retriever named Summer, on the campus of The Seeing Eye.

While I learned early on about Harriet Tubman, a pioneer for the underground railroad, abolitionist, and humanitarian, I did not know she was also visually impaired until well into my adult years. Facing my own vision loss, I could identify with her resilience to persevere despite a visual impairment and persistent seizures. In some ways, her dedication to freedom and dignity for African Americans is not unlike The Seeing Eye's mission of independence and dignity for blind and visually impaired people through partnership with a Seeing Eye dog. Both have paved the way for opportunity, and I am most definitely a beneficiary.

Historical figures matter because they influence the future, including mine. Today, as the first graduate and first African-American to be the Chair of The Seeing Eye Board of Trustees, I pay tribute to Harriet Tubman for her tenacity and visionary pursuits.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeye.org/raise for info.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

Get ready to tee off at the NFI & The Brown Family Golf Tournament, benefitting Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties (JFS) and the Milton & Betty Katz Jewish Community Center (JCC), on Monday, May 20 at our new location – the sprawling Atlantic City Country Club. A must-attend community event, JFS and JCC partner to raise funds for essential programs and services.

At one of America's oldest and most prestigious courses, players can choose to participate in a morning or afternoon session. Golfers can also look forward to friendly competition as well as access to the club for the day, two meals, beverages and prizes. Following the event, guests will enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres during the awards reception on the Atlantic City Country Club terrace. Whether you're a seasoned golfer or novice player, there's something for everyone.

Individual golfer fees are $375 and includes greens fees, golf cart, food, and beverages. Registration for the morning round begins at 8am, followed by a shotgun start at 8:30am. Registration for the afternoon round begins at 12:30pm, followed by a shotgun start at 1pm. Sponsorship opportunities for individuals, businesses and corporations range from $360 to $10,000 and include a multitude of golfing and marketing packages.

JFS and the Katz JCC are truly grateful for the ongoing support from Jeff & Tracy Brown and NFI. This is the second year they are supporting this endeavor and are eager to help the community where the need for assistance from individuals and families continues to rise. By supporting the NFI & The Brown Family Golf Tournament, your commitment will help both agencies provide programs and services that so many across the region need today and in the future.

NFI & The Brown Family Golf Tournament Benefits Jewish Family Service and Katz Jewish Community

If you are unable to attend, and still want to support this fundraiser, an online auction will offer you a chance to bid on golf outings, restaurant certificates, gift baskets, fun experiences, and more.

To register or sponsor the golf tournament, contact Julia Tracy at JFS at 609.822.1108 x356 or jtracy@jfsatlantic.org or Brian Adler at the JCC at 609.822.1167 x159 or badler@jccatlantic.org. For more information about the event, visit jfsatlantic.org.

(Left to right): James Shea, Eliana Pisetzner, Melissa Rosenblum, and Joe Jacobs hit the fairways at the NFI & The Brown Family Golf Tournament last year. The annual program raises funds to provide children, seniors, and the Atlantic County community with programs and services that enhance and enrich their lives. This year's tournament will take place at the Atlantic City Country Club on Monday, May 20. (Photo courtesy of Jewish Family Service of Atlantic & Cape May Counties)
